

THE Lakeview Herald, as is usually the case with all so-called Independent Journals, has so thoroughly evinced its adhesion to the Republican party that a paper will soon be established by the Democrats of Lake county.

KING, one of the supposed murderers of Mrs. Hagar, was convicted of murder in the second degree at Oregon City last week and has been sentenced to the Penitentiary for life by Judge Bellinger. The cases of the others have been continued.

WHEN the party in power begins to talk about needing a General, so that he may put himself in office, and they may "keep down" anybody, that means that they are considering unconstitutional and extra constitutional methods which no free people will or ought to tolerate.

SPEAKER RANDALL states that during the four years the Democrats had control of the Lower House they effected a saving of $84,000,000 in comparison with the total of appropriations made during the previous four years of Republican control. Democratic rule is evidently profitable to the people.

THE Yreka Journal argues that because the Democrats were unsuccessful in California and Maine they are thoroughly demoralized. Our cotemporary must be a sage. But, as these States were both counted for Hayes, we fail to see where Republicans find any consolation in this result, especially as they carried them by only a plurality vote.

GRANT is a candidate. His whole journey is a part of the programme. Every word he uttered in China is as much intended to influence that nomination as any speech made by John Sherman in Ohio. All this humbug about Grant not desiring a third term is the veriest bluff. He is to day as anxious and eager for a third term as any candidate ever was for the first.

THE October elections occur next Tuesday and the result is awaited with interest. Very little news in relation to them has been received by telegraph and it would seem as if the managers of this Republican institution themselves were not prepared to cast the horoscope. The Democracy has much to win and nothing to lose in these elections; so it can afford to await the result with complacence.

ON or about October 14th General Grant will witness another grand display of toadyism. It is the people of Portland, who ought to know better, that propose indulging in man-worship to an extravagant extent. Grant are the preparations in incubation and it will be no fault of the hospitable Oregonian if the great representative of that which has been most despicable in American politics is not treated royally.

REPUBLICAN prospects are not as bright in New York as the managers had hoped Tammany Hall's defection would make them. The Democracy is alive to the fact that Kelly's candidacy alone makes Republican success possible and they are flocking to Governor Robinson's standard en masse, reinforced by thousands of Republicans who will not support Conkling's man Friday, Cornell, under any circumstances.

MR. HAYES tells a Cincinnati reporter that Senator Pendleton is the man whom the Democrats should nominate for the Presidency. The Democracy ought to thank His Fraudulency for his consideration. He echoed one Democratic President out of his seat and probably considers it his province to name his successor. But, then, we think the Democratic national convention able to attend to that little matter.

EVER since the Oregonian placed itself under the espionage of ex-Senator Mitchell its Republican antecedents have solidified wonderfully. Great are its terrors for the "Solid South" and the blood and thunder stories reported regularly from the outrage machine occupy the greater portion of its space. Nice business the only newspaper in Oregon is engaged in: Miligating the people of a particular section in order to enjoy the smiles of unscrupulous Republican managers. For shame.

THE noble red man has broken out again. This time it is the Utes on the southern border of Colorado, and they are doing deeds that chill the blood of civilization. A party of soldiers was overpowered by the red devils and annihilated, re-enacting the Custer massacre in all but its magnitude. The direct cause of the outbreak is a mooted question, but it is no doubt the same old story—insubordination, rascally agents and vicious results of the disgraceful peace policy. The sooner the Indians are transferred to the management of the military the better.

SISKIYOU COUNTY FAIR.

The fourteenth annual fair of the Siskiyou County Agricultural Society, which transpired at Yreka last week, was a success in more than the common acceptance of the term. The weather was propitious and a larger crowd than has ever before assembled in Yreka was in attendance on each succeeding day. Jackson and Lake counties contributed in no small degree to the success of the affair, their stock and other exhibits forming important features. Every department was well represented and no want of interest was manifested throughout. There were also more of the amusements, etc., than cluster on such occasions, so that no one could complain of cumuli.

In the pavilion, which was tastefully arranged and filled with noteworthy articles, the following from this section were exhibited: Miss Danforth, croquet shawl and catch-all. Mrs. McCall, pampas grass plume. The Ashland Woolen Mills had a fine display of goods, comprising cassimeres, cloak goods, tweeds, ladies' cloths, pressed, check, gray, navy blue and white flannel, seven varieties of blankets, superior breakfast shawls, balmaral skirts, ladies' hose, men's half hose, woolen yarn, etc. J. B. R. Hutchings' Ashland Glove Factory exhibited eight styles of luekskin gloves, buckskin purses, dressed deer skin, dressed Angora goat skin, etc.

The parade of stock was very creditable and comprised many fine animals. In addition to those entered in the races were the following from here: Jay Beach, bay stallion Altamont, 4 years old, sire Altmont, dam Brown Chief, bay mare Favorite, sire Post's Hambletonian, dam Mambrino Patchen; bay filly Maggie Arnold, by Altamont Mambrino, 4 years old. G. W. Stevenson, Rogue River Chief, 1 year old, sire Sir Walter, dam Vermont and Lionheart. J. N. T. Miller, cream geldings John and Tyler.

The races were of an excellent character and well contested. The following is a summary: First Day.—Trotting match, best 3 in 5, for horses that never beat three minutes, purse $100, entrance added. J. N. T. Miller named c. g. John; James Sutherland named r. g. Dan Rice; Geo. W. Stevenson named b. g. Bones. First, second and fourth heats won by Bones, John taking third heat in 2:56. Best time, 2:45. Filtner's mare "Kitty Wells" won the purse for three-year-olds in 2:05.

Second Day.—The single dash for untried horses was won by Filtner's mare in 2:06. The trotting race for untried horses, mile heats 2 in 3, was won by Jay Beach's Maggie Arnold, beating Little Hopes. Best time, 2:55. Third Day.—The trotting race for three-year-olds was won by Rock. Best time, 3:42. The running race, mile heats 3 in 5, was won by Filtner's Ida Hammond, beating Orphan Girl. Best time, 1:57. Fourth Day.—The trotting race, mile heats 3 in 5, was won by J. W. Manning's sorrel stallion Ophir, beating Bones and Lady Clyde, the latter taking the first heat. Best time on last heat, 2:42. The running race, half-mile heats, was won by Filtner's Siskiyou Boy. Best time, 55 seconds.

THE State Fair. It would seem as if Misfortune had crossed the path of the Oregon State Agricultural Society and was fully determined to haunt it indefinitely. Grant disappointed it most cruelly in failing to put in appearance, and the indispensable Oregon mist administered the finishing touch, although the precaution had been taken to escape this latter infliction by holding the fair sometime earlier. The managers are to be commiserated, for they have struggled to overcome the difficulties that beset them on every hand. Grant or the Emperor of China alone would have prevented disaster under prevailing circumstances. The fair lacked a great deal of being a total failure, however, and it may be that the Society will be able to continue its annual exhibitions, though we must be dubious of their success as long as the clerk of the weather persists in his pranks.

"This Nothing More." The Associated Press has become an electioneering machine for the Republican party and the managers do not now pretend to disguise the fact. Therefore, the sooner the country accepts the ultimatum, and governs itself accordingly, the better. We object to the tincturing of news in the interests of the Republican side, as in the dispatches concerning the Chisholm and Dixon cases, and in everything else, we can truthfully say. The Associated Press is for the transmission of news—facts—and not an agency for the advancement of Republican politicians. But we have long since observed that when the Democrats are referred to in the Associated Press dispatches only bare facts are given, while there is always an evident coloring in favor of Republicans. We are very tired of it, and predict a large majority of the people is affected likewise.

Invitation Received.

The TIMES office has been invited to participate in the reception of General Grant. If the Committee on Invitation had also enclosed a check for our expenses, we doubt whether we should make this an occasion to visit the city of Portland. We never did invest heavily in the circus business; but, in this instance, especially, we would spare ourselves the humiliation of witnessing some of the best citizens of Oregon toadying to him who has disgraced the American people more than he ever honored them, to use a mild expression.
