

DEMOCRATIC TIMES.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1879.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Rider M. Peterson will preach at Central Point next Sunday...

NEW YEAR'S AMUSEMENTS.—Wm. Eaton will soon complete a neat and commodious residence in the northern portion of town...

HIGH WATERS.—The storms of last week raised the various streams so that the mail service was almost entirely suspended...

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—N. Fisher, our County Treasurer, has been instructed to forward all notes held by the School Fund...

A HANDSOME PRODUCTION.—On the fourth page of the Times will be found a poem from the pen of Sam. L. Simpson, Oregon's poet laureate...

TO BUSINESS MEN.—As the time for yearly settlements is near at hand we would call the attention of business men to the superior facilities possessed by the Times office...

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.—Considerable improvement was noticeable in the programme presented at the session of the Legion of Honor last Friday evening...

ABOUT AN ORPHAN.—The organ purchased with the proceeds of a series of convalescent under the auspices of the Ladies of Jacksonville last March is in the hands of the trustees...

HIGH WATER IN OREGON.—Thos. T. McKenzie and A. O. Eckelson returned from Grand Tuesday, having been en route for day a week. The latter informs that...

E. CHURCH MEETING.—At a called meeting of the members and friends of the M. E. church of Jacksonville, held at the residence...

THE PROPRIETOR TAKES PLEASURE in announcing that he has just opened out a fine and well assorted stock of holiday goods...

BRIEF REFERENCE.

Farming in statu quo. Kuhl's new sign is unique. Read the new advertisements. Christmas is only two weeks hence. We keep note, receipt and order books.

Christmas trees would be appreciated by the youngsters. Madin worth 15c per yard for 9c. at the New York Store. Cotton batting for 27c per pound at the New York Store.

Five yards of print for $1 at the New York Store. The roads are rough everywhere and becoming worse. E. Jacobs has some prize toys that are a novelty here.

Joe. Young, the proprietor of the Cold Springs Home, on the Linkville road, died on the 7th and was buried at Parker's on the day following. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss.

The prospects for a good run were never better and the miners are consequently jubilant. There is an abundance of water everywhere and it promises to hold out well.

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

The prospective construction of the Crescent City Wagon Road and the persistent agitation of the road question by the local press...

Three days steady rain last week raised some of the streams higher than they have been since 1862. Foot-logs have generally disappeared and some of the ferries had a narrow escape from drift-wood which floated down in immense quantities.

MIXING NEWS.

Plenty of water. The weather promises well. The miners are in their delight, and this is of a water nature. The snow in the mountains, which is quite deep even at this time, promises a source of supply the miners can rely on in the Spring.

Copp's Hand-book of Mining Law, payrolls, notices of location of quartz and placer mines, and other mining blanks for sale at the Times office. Thos. Gilson has put the claim of Karowski & Silva, near the mouth of Palmercreek, in "apple-pie order" and work is now progressing in earnest there.

Gold-dust is already making its appearance in small quantities. Thos. Cameron of Uniontown brought twenty ounces of gold in the form of nuggets. It was the first installment of much more that will follow.

Work has been commenced at the Cayote creek mines by the company now in possession of them. The question of their ownership is now pending before Judge Hanna in favor of the above company, who will again come up on appeal to the Supreme Court.

The Applegate Gravel Company was obliged to suspend piping on account of a slide in the ditch. It will be ten days before the damage done can be repaired. Superintendent Fitzpatrick was making considerable headway when the accident occurred.

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

Three days steady rain last week raised some of the streams higher than they have been since 1862. Foot-logs have generally disappeared and some of the ferries had a narrow escape from drift-wood which floated down in immense quantities.

PERSONAL NOTES.

B. F. Dowell leaves for Roseburg this week. L. Leonard of Josephine county has returned from San Francisco. Miss Mary Layton of Williams creek is attending the Jacksonville district school.

Wm. Rable of Polk county is among us again. He is a party to the Cayote creek mining suit and is looking after the interests of his side. Father Stampel will not come to Jacksonville to assist Father Blanch in his pastoral labors, having been called to Stabinity, Marion county.

George Brawley of Phenix swears people at Notary Public without the least profanity at legal rates. Dr. Jack has established an office at the Drake place on Applegate, where he may be found when not professionally engaged.

Our old Yreka friend J. M. Bassett is now the publisher of the "Golden Era," of San Francisco, one of the best family journals on the Coast. T. W. Johnson has rented the Merriman home in Central Point, for a term of years.

Work has been commenced at the Cayote creek mines by the company now in possession of them. The question of their ownership is now pending before Judge Hanna in favor of the above company, who will again come up on appeal to the Supreme Court.

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

Three days steady rain last week raised some of the streams higher than they have been since 1862. Foot-logs have generally disappeared and some of the ferries had a narrow escape from drift-wood which floated down in immense quantities.

LITIGATION PROSPECTIVE.

Steps are in progress for the opening of that which may prove the most sensational law-suit ever tried in Jackson county. It would seem that in 1853 Dr. David Sisson, who was then the possessor of a considerable portion of the present town-site of Ashland, was shot and killed in broad daylight while on his way to a spring for water.

Wm. Rable of Polk county is among us again. He is a party to the Cayote creek mining suit and is looking after the interests of his side. Father Stampel will not come to Jacksonville to assist Father Blanch in his pastoral labors, having been called to Stabinity, Marion county.

George Brawley of Phenix swears people at Notary Public without the least profanity at legal rates. Dr. Jack has established an office at the Drake place on Applegate, where he may be found when not professionally engaged.

Our old Yreka friend J. M. Bassett is now the publisher of the "Golden Era," of San Francisco, one of the best family journals on the Coast. T. W. Johnson has rented the Merriman home in Central Point, for a term of years.

Work has been commenced at the Cayote creek mines by the company now in possession of them. The question of their ownership is now pending before Judge Hanna in favor of the above company, who will again come up on appeal to the Supreme Court.

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

Three days steady rain last week raised some of the streams higher than they have been since 1862. Foot-logs have generally disappeared and some of the ferries had a narrow escape from drift-wood which floated down in immense quantities.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung Troubles, when an immediate relief can be so readily attained.

Wm. Rable of Polk county is among us again. He is a party to the Cayote creek mining suit and is looking after the interests of his side. Father Stampel will not come to Jacksonville to assist Father Blanch in his pastoral labors, having been called to Stabinity, Marion county.

George Brawley of Phenix swears people at Notary Public without the least profanity at legal rates. Dr. Jack has established an office at the Drake place on Applegate, where he may be found when not professionally engaged.

Our old Yreka friend J. M. Bassett is now the publisher of the "Golden Era," of San Francisco, one of the best family journals on the Coast. T. W. Johnson has rented the Merriman home in Central Point, for a term of years.

Work has been commenced at the Cayote creek mines by the company now in possession of them. The question of their ownership is now pending before Judge Hanna in favor of the above company, who will again come up on appeal to the Supreme Court.

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

Three days steady rain last week raised some of the streams higher than they have been since 1862. Foot-logs have generally disappeared and some of the ferries had a narrow escape from drift-wood which floated down in immense quantities.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS!

Examination of applications for Teachers' Certificates held at the District School House in Jacksonville on Saturday, December 27th, 1879. Teachers will please take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Wm. Rable of Polk county is among us again. He is a party to the Cayote creek mining suit and is looking after the interests of his side. Father Stampel will not come to Jacksonville to assist Father Blanch in his pastoral labors, having been called to Stabinity, Marion county.

George Brawley of Phenix swears people at Notary Public without the least profanity at legal rates. Dr. Jack has established an office at the Drake place on Applegate, where he may be found when not professionally engaged.

Our old Yreka friend J. M. Bassett is now the publisher of the "Golden Era," of San Francisco, one of the best family journals on the Coast. T. W. Johnson has rented the Merriman home in Central Point, for a term of years.

Work has been commenced at the Cayote creek mines by the company now in possession of them. The question of their ownership is now pending before Judge Hanna in favor of the above company, who will again come up on appeal to the Supreme Court.

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

Three days steady rain last week raised some of the streams higher than they have been since 1862. Foot-logs have generally disappeared and some of the ferries had a narrow escape from drift-wood which floated down in immense quantities.

FARM FOR SALE.

THE UNDERSIGNED OFFERS FOR SALE his farm four miles east of Jacksonville, containing 320 acres of good land, well cultivated, and the balance excellent wood land.

Wm. Rable of Polk county is among us again. He is a party to the Cayote creek mining suit and is looking after the interests of his side. Father Stampel will not come to Jacksonville to assist Father Blanch in his pastoral labors, having been called to Stabinity, Marion county.

George Brawley of Phenix swears people at Notary Public without the least profanity at legal rates. Dr. Jack has established an office at the Drake place on Applegate, where he may be found when not professionally engaged.

Our old Yreka friend J. M. Bassett is now the publisher of the "Golden Era," of San Francisco, one of the best family journals on the Coast. T. W. Johnson has rented the Merriman home in Central Point, for a term of years.

Work has been commenced at the Cayote creek mines by the company now in possession of them. The question of their ownership is now pending before Judge Hanna in favor of the above company, who will again come up on appeal to the Supreme Court.

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

The "Star" informs us that E. J. Kyes and Fred. Crow last week left for Battle Bar, Rogue river, where they are the owners of some rich gravel mines. These gentlemen recently purchased the mine, which is owned by...

Three days steady rain last week raised some of the streams higher than they have been since 1862. Foot-logs have generally disappeared and some of the ferries had a narrow escape from drift-wood which floated down in immense quantities.