The TIMES has the largest circulation ever attained in Northern Oregon...

A MOTHER'S VIGIL.

[Sam. L. Simpson in the Oregonian.] The day and the year were a-dying together...

There was a silence down there in the desolate ditches. Only the querulous call of the quail...

There was a silence down there, but that silence dirges sang. Hopelessly sad, like wail of the wild surges...

"And whither," I murmured, "in chances and changes, Gilding and soiling, a curse and a caress...

"And the toilers, where are they? the bronzed and the knighted, Gentle as childhood and cruel as fire..."

Ah, what was the fate of their kingly desire? Lo, dirges of silence, the crested quail calling...

"The pick and the shovel are rusted and broken, Failed the fires of cabin and tent..."

With a whisper, a sound as of robes that are trailing, October is furling her banner of red...

"It is true," said my comrade, regretfully, lowly. "Death and expenses are all that are sure..."

Over the sheen of the storm-crawled town, "There's a smoke on you hillside that somehow will linger..."

"Have you marked it—a luminous violet column On the gold and the bronze of the frost-tinted trees..."

Soaring to victory, saintly and solemn, With the wreath immortal that fidelity weaves..."

It is only the smoke of a cabin, so humble The squirrels romp o'er it unchecked by roof..."

Grimy and shaky, I wander the rumble Of the wagons down there does not shatter the roof..."

"In the tempests of years that we vain are forgetting, When cards were religion and pistols were priests..."

And the sun role in scarlet at dawn and at setting, And a Bourbon was crowned at our funerals and feasts..."

His priestly hands o'er that rains out, Once thrilled to the shock of a ghostly descending..."

And the Law was avenged with a lope and a knot? He was only an Indian, the son of Old Mary...

While the years have gone on, and the flush times have faded, Even the smoke of the vigil ascends...

CHILDREN

Cry for PITCHER'S CASTORIA. They like it because it is sweet...

Castoria

Is nature's remedy for constipating the food. It cures Wind Colic, the swelling of Stomach and Bowels...

CENTAUR LINIMENTS

The most effective Pain-relieving agent for RHEUMATISM and DEATH...

THEY REMOVED FOR THIS APPROPRIATE POPULARITY, AND ARE EVIDENTLY THE CENTAUR LINIMENTS...

PAINT IN THE BACK, Rheumatism or stiff joints, for the CENTAUR LINIMENTS...

LINIMENTS will surely exterminate the pain. There is no Strain, Sprain, Cut, Scald, Burn, Bruise... not only relieve pain, but they incite healthy action, subdue inflammation, and cure...

One Bottle of Centaur Liniment, or five or ten, can afford to be used on these wonderful Liniments...

It is true," said my comrade, regretfully, lowly. "Death and expenses are all that are sure..."

Over the sheen of the storm-crawled town, "There's a smoke on you hillside that somehow will linger..."

"Have you marked it—a luminous violet column On the gold and the bronze of the frost-tinted trees..."

And the Law was avenged with a lope and a knot? He was only an Indian, the son of Old Mary...

While the years have gone on, and the flush times have faded, Even the smoke of the vigil ascends...

And the white-handled preacher cooed with his God, But Truth finds her own in long battles and marches...

And the flowers will shine on that tear-sprinkled soil, When the fire has gone out and the vigil is ended...

Poor Mary may sleep with the loved and the dead, For the stars will mount guard o'er the ashes she's dead...

And the beauty of Morning return there to kneel." T. T. McKENZIE. Jacksonville, October, 1879.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Fever and Ague, and all the other ailments which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

This is a compound remedy, prepared with scientific skill from vegetable ingredients, which rarely fails to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever and the concomitant disorders. Such a remedy the necessities of the people in malarious districts demand. It exerts its power over any other medicine yet discovered for the cure of Intermittents, in that it contains no quinine or mineral, and those who take it are free from danger of quinine or any injurious effects, and are as healthily employed during the last thirty years in the treatment of these distressing disorders, and so envying has been its success that it has gained the reputation of being infallible. It can, therefore, be safely recommended as a sure remedy and specific for the Fever and Ague of the West, and the Chills and Fever of the South. It counteracts the miasmatic poison in the blood, and frees the system from its influence, so that fever and ague, shakes or chills, once broken up by it, do not return until the disease is again contracted.

The great variety of disorders which arise from the irritation of the poison, such as Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Pertussis, Spasmodic Affections, Hysteria, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which become intermittent or periodical, have no speedier remedy than AYER'S AGUE CURE, which cures them all alike, and protects the system from future attacks. As a preventive, it is of innumerable service in those communities where Fever and Ague prevails, as it stays the development of the disease if taken on the first approach of the preliminary symptoms. Travelers and temporary residents are thus enabled to defy these disorders, and few will ever suffer if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity, it is an excellent remedy; it stimulates the organ into healthy activity, and produces many remarkable cures where other medicines fail.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.
