RANDOM JOTTINGS.

John Boyer has returned from Portland. The winning ticket was nominated Saturday. Wool only brings 20 cents in the Roseburg market.

The survey of the route for the proposed C. C. W. R. will probably require about a month.

The aged father and mother of W. Beeson of Wagner creek have just arrived from the East.

It is said that Falkner, Bell & Co. of San Francisco have lost many thousands of dollars by the fall in wool.

No Republican seditiousness of the Greenback and Independent order for Democrats this Presidential year.

Rev. Charles E. Philbrook is the Republican candidate for School Superintendent of Coos county, Oregon.

The Democratic county ticket nominated Saturday is acknowledged to be first-class and strong by everybody.

It seems almost definitely settled that Tilden and Grant will be the contestants for Presidential honors in November.

Hon. J. J. Whitney of Albany is stumpng the southern portion of the Willamette valley. He is an effective speaker.

Last Saturday was a lively day. The Democratic Convention was large and harmonious and did its work very well.

The Republicans met in mass meeting last week and nominated a ticket that will be slaughtered in good style next June.

In the Circuit Court for Douglas county B. F. Dowell obtained a decree in equity to aid an execution against Jesse Apple-3-2.

We learn that our cotem. has sent for a cut of a sick rooster with which to embellish his oration the first time after election. A happy thought.

J. T. Layton was in town this week, and informs us that the damages done by the reservoir breaking will be repaired and work resumed by next week.

Hon. A. C. Jones, of this place, the Democratic war-horse, made one of his characteristic speeches while at Roseburg, that was very well received.

Engene Vasselles, the school teacher, well known in this section, has been convicted of forgery in Douglas county and sent to the Penitentiary for a year.

C. of H. badges, constitutions and by-laws, pamphlets of all kinds, briefs, and everything in this line, printed in the best shape and at low prices at the Linkville office.

Business men can keep their money at home by ordering their bill-heads, letter-heads, statements, envelopes, etc., at the Times office, where the best printing is done at low rates.

We learn that the County Commissioners have about determined to purchase a few acres of land, erect suitable buildings and let a contract for the keeping of the county poor there.

In San Francisco wool buyers are beginning to purchase wool, and the market is improving. The latest quotations are as follows: choice northern, 27@28c; Eastern Oregon, 25@26c.

The ranch Skagitward is rapidly increasing. The trail will soon be completed to a central point in the diggings, and probably by the middle of June there will be 2000 men on the ground.

Rev. A. C. McDougal, who, in times past, has been prominently identified with the Independent Order of Good Templars of this State, died in Salinas City, California, on the 11th of May. He was aged 49 years.

Late advices from Lake county show that the loss of stock has been quite heavy. Langell Bros. and Applegate Bros. are among the heaviest losers, having lost several hundred head.

The Grand Lodge at Portland last week elected the following officers: M. W. G. M. I. W. Case, of Astoria; M. W. D. G. M. Phil Metsehan, Canyon City; M. W. G. Warden, John A. Boyer, Jacksonville; M. W. G. Secretary, J. M. Bacon, Oregon City; M. W. G. Treasurer, I. R. Moores, Salem.

Col. A. B. Covatt, manager of the Pacific Mutual Insurance Company for Oregon, who sustained severe injuries while on his way from this place to Roseburg two years ago, fell as he was descending the steps on the steamer Abneta at Celilo, on which boat he was a passenger last week, severely injuring his back, and is now lying ill at his home in Portland.

John McQuilkin, writing from Tombstone, Arizona, to Dr. L. T. Davis of Windsor, Cal., says: "All you have read about the Scudder Bros. strike, excepting the amount, I do not know how much they got, but it must have been a large sum, as their mine is a bonanza of the biggest kind. They are taking out bullion by the ton, with good prospects ahead."

LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE OF GOV. WHITEAKER.

EDITOR STANDARD.—Dear Sir: I learn through the public press and also by private advices from Oregon that the convention which assembled at Albany on the 7th of April placed my name before the people for re-election to congress.

As I did not seek a public recognition from a people with whom I have lived so long and who have ever treated me with uniform kindness, I did not expect such a compliment at their hands.

I cannot fail to express my gratitude for this renewed mark of esteem and feel justly proud of my satisfaction and endorsement of my course as their representative in the present congress, and of their confidence in my usefulness and integrity in the future, should the people of Oregon decide to retain me here for another term, I can in all sincerity say that had I have been left free to act in the matter I should have conferred upon another the place they have assigned to me. I am, however, by their kindness and partiality prevented from asserting any choice of my own.

Since I have been a member of the 46th congress I have ever striven to the best of my ability to serve the best interests of those whose service I am. I have also the satisfaction of knowing that where the interests of the people were involved, I have never for a moment neglected them.

In some of the measures which I have had the honor to present to Congress for its action I feel assured of success. There are a few that may fail of passage; their failure, however, (if such be their fate) shall not be attributed to a want of attention and deep concern on my part, but to the common fortune that attends every member of Congress in the high struggle for preferment, where so many diverse interests are involved.

I value the good opinion of the people of Oregon too highly to willingly forfeit it by any wrong or inconsistent act on my part, and this feeling of itself ought to be a sufficient stimulus to induce every man in public life to faithfully discharge every public duty—the performance of which has been entrusted to him by the people.

It is not to be expected that I can be at home to participate in the labors of the canvass which usually precede an election. By the will of the people of Oregon I am here as their representative to watch their interests in public legislation, to endeavor to relieve their public wants and to cast my vote as the representative of Oregon in legislation for the welfare of the Oregon country. It would not be in keeping with my duty to absent myself at this important period from public duty, and I could not conscientiously neglect the public interests to devote the time justly belonging to the people to subordinate private interests.

In the hands of the people of Oregon I therefore leave those interests while I remain at my post of duty. If they believe that I have served them faithfully and intelligently and that I shall continue so to do, if re-elected, they will so determine at the polls. If they believe otherwise, by their votes they will render their verdict. Very respectfully yours, JOHNS WHITEAKER.

More Consistency. There is something so beautiful in the consistency of our cotem, that we can't help illustrating it by a comparison of two men who publish in the same column, within a few inches of each other, last week. So very anxious is he to find fault with the Democratic primary of the 15th that in the first instance he charges the delegates elected as having done duty for six years past, and then when ordered himself by asserting that three years ago were elected as such, "one of whom has not yet cast a vote at a general election."

These are about on a par with his many other statements concerning the politics of this county. It matters little to him how much truth his assertions contain. If he can create discord in the Democratic party by his impudent interference and shameless disregard for the facts, his mission will be accomplished.

STUMPING THE STATE by judicial sermons, or should be "a custom more honored in the breach than in the observance."

The better class of lawyers, seeking elevation to judicial honors, have invariably withdrawn from the race, and the best of the hustings and been content to let the fight be made by the other candidates on the ticket. The only exception to this rule that we have seen is that of E. B. Watson, who is traveling around with M. C. George and doing a little "still hunting" while George pictures the Goddess of Liberty chained to a rock and bleeding at every pore. The good sense and decency of the masses will be found against this style of conduct, as Mr. Watson will find out when the votes are counted. The young man has "bitten off more than he can chew."—Inland Empire.

A LARGE portion of the business men of Portland are opposed to the location of the harbor of refuge at Port Orford, while the Republican papers are attempting to defeat the confirmation of that point. Let the people of Southern Oregon remember their own interests and not lose sight of the fact that Mr. George is a Portland man and the pet candidate of those papers.—Star.

WISE ACTION.—The determination of the Postmaster General not to disturb the mail carrying by W. P. & Co.'s express on this coast, is a matter of great satisfaction to the people of the Pacific Coast, by affording them greater mail privileges, with additional revenue to the mail service, because every dollar expended in express has the government stamp thereon.

E. H. AUTENRIETH, the eloquent young gentleman who made such a stirring speech at the ratification on the evening of the adjournment of our late State Convention, is now canvassing Southern Oregon. We would like to see him come down this way. How he does "warn the way" in Republican ears!—Albany Democrat.

SO FAR as we know, says the Standard, the Radicals have nominated in every instance, Mitchell candidates for the State Senate. This is especially the case in Douglas, Yamhill, Marion, Polk, Benton and Lane counties, and they will do likewise in Multnomah.

LETTER FROM JOSEPHINE COUNTY.

WILLIAM'S CURRY, May 14, 1880. EDITOR TIMES: The political campaign in this county is under way sufficiently now to enable us to speculate with a reasonable degree of certainty as to who will be our next county officials.

The necessary working, accompanied by those "naturalities" which marked the way to a desired end, the Greenback grannies and Republican stalwarts perfected, last Saturday, their long contemplated fusion. They have sought to honor respectability for their feeble offspring by calling it the "fusion" ticket, but the discerning sense of the public is not slow in detecting characteristics which belong only to the pizarinkum species.

There is too much Greenback about it to please conscientious Republicans, and too much Republicanism about it to satisfy Greenbackers of honest Democratic ascendants. Although the Greenbackers are not sufficiently numerous in this county to impose insupportable burdens upon the census bureau, still they were able to come in for the greater percentage of the spoils. This the Republican managers were probably willing to submit to, in view of getting a stalwart for the State Senate. Then, another thing, nearly all the Greenbackers on the ticket are of the Republican antecedents, such being of alleged stultification will permit Democratic Greenbackers to swallow such a dose of rank Radicalism. The Greenbackers started out originally with pledges of opposition to both the old parties, but the "obstinate power of public plunder" seems likely to prove to them, as it has proven to other parties before them, an obstacle fatal to honorable consistency.

For the poor prospects of some very poor officers, they are willing to concede with a party that has more corruption to answer for than any known to our history. A party that has done more violence to civil liberty and brought more reproach upon republican institutions than it can atone for in an eternity of repentance.

That the fusionists will succeed in electing a single man on their ticket is hardly probable. The only danger is that they will not poll sufficient votes to amount to respectable opposition.

The Democratic ticket is a fair, average representation of the county and will contrast not unfavorably, so far as individual ability is concerned, with the opposition. Its election is almost a foregone certainty. Q.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—On Sunday morning, at the Oregon stage came in, with Prof. Le Beau on board, the driver and team were suddenly surprised at Duenkel's corner by a grand blow-out of brass horns and drums, which caused a runaway of the stage team, which the driver, Frank Walker, managed to stop, with a skill turning the team through Chanawon on Main St., and around a few blocks out on his usual route to the Post Office. Charley on leaving the stage was greeted with a salute of air crackers, as though trying to lough him up, and across the street, in front of Franco-American Hotel, was suspended a cloth banner, containing the picture of a goat, with the words "Welcome the Lovely Buck!"—Yreka Journal.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY POLITICS.—In Josephine county, the Greenback Independent-Freelove combination, says the Star, is using its utmost endeavors to defeat Mr. Hughes, the present county clerk. Mr. Hughes is an old resident of that county, a good substantial citizen, and is known to be one of the best officials in the State. While we know Frank Nickerson and like him very much, yet he has been a resident of that county but a short time, and he is evidently presumptuous in expecting the votes of the people for so important an office. It will find by June that it's hard to kick against the pricks."

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTORS.—The following leads have been transacted in the County Clerk's office since the last issue of the Times: M. D. Childers to John K. Ross, 80 acres in Faber Rock precinct, Consideration $500.

Alex. Martin to John Beckner, main property on Jackson creek, Consideration, $700. A. B. Klose to Mrs. E. M. Garges, property on Jackson creek, Consideration, $253.

J. O. C. Vance to Jackson Hockersmith, property in Ashland, Consideration, $190. J. J. Fryer to Mary A. Griffith, land at Eagle Point, Consideration, $55.50.

TROBATE COURT.—The following proceedings have transpired in this Court since our last report: In the matter of the estate of R. B. Perry, deceased, Wm. Harper, S. J. Stockell and Joe Scott appointed administrators.

In the matter of the estate of Elizabeth Hill, deceased, Appraisement showing property to the amount of $3,469.78 held, and P. Dunn administrator, authorized to sell personal property.

NOTICE.—The trustees of the A. M. E. Church, South, are requested to meet at Phoenix on Saturday, June 12, 1880, for the purpose of making arrangements to complete the church building at that place.

By order of the last quarterly conference. W. H. KLYDE, P. C.

A CONTINGENTARY remarks that Mr. Tilden contributed $10,000 to the Duchess of Marlborough's fund for the starving poor of Ireland. Grant and Blaine's contributions have not been reported yet—and probably never will be.

The latest slang expression is "go tardy." If a person seems to be doing something that you desire to correct him for and advise him to go slow, you say "go tardy."

Is it Possible That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, etc., make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and cannot do no longer. See another column.—Post.

PILLS OF SALT GALT. Are not worth as much to the victim of dyspepsia or Biliousness as Dr. Mitchell's English Dandelion Liver and Dyspepsia Pills. It clears the liver of bile, tones up the stomach, opens food health, restores vigor, rids the system of mucus, water, bile, indigestion, rush of blood to the head, dizziness, swollen bowels; it is sugar, and, and is a powerful and a mineral in it.
