A VOTE for the Democratic candidates is a vote for efficiency, honesty and economy.

The country will never consent to be pulled around by the nose by a ring of town politicians like the one that captured the mass meeting.

ENTHUSIASM, according to our neighbor's view, means liquor. Webster, (who was unacquainted with liquor) however, gives an entirely different definition of the term.

DEMOCRATS, look well to your tickets. Designing individuals may attempt to gain your votes by political chicanery.

Therefore, look out for bogus tickets and campaign lies.

EVEN Republicans have little faith in the ticket put up at the mass meeting.

Full well they know that a ring of chronic office-seekers captured it and fastened themselves upon an unwilling constituency.

It won't work.

THE Sheriff's office has been of no benefit to Mr. Bybee, if it has not proved a positive injury to him.

Being unqualified to fill the office himself, his deputees have been turned over to his employees. The Sheriff's office has indeed been an empty honor to him.

EVERY candidate on the Democratic ticket is known to be a gentleman of acknowledged capability, integrity and sobriety.

Every one of them will make a first-class officer, who can be relied upon. The people can have no hesitancy in trusting their affairs in such hands.

NAT LANGELL has not the first qualification for a Probate Judge. If there should be a thing as his election the records would soon be in confusion, worse confounded, and the material interests of estates might be jeopardized through his inexperience.

This is a matter that should not be overlooked.

THE Greenbackers having been entirely and contemptuously ignored by the mass meeting, have dissolved connection with the so-called people's party, which this year proved fearfully bogus and is being run altogether in the interests of the Court House ring, managed by Bybee, McKenzie and Langell. They will act on their own account hereafter.

DEMOCRATS should by all means see that their candidates for the Legislature, Messrs. Smith and Stanley, are elected, as the State will be restricted next Fall and it is necessary that every Democratic county should get her full quota of Senators and Representatives. This matter will become very important each time there is a U. S. Senator to elect.

SINCE the mass meeting the Sentinel has become wonderfully mute about "rings." It was so plainly evident that the town ring had put up the job to capture the offices, and got away with it, that our cotem. had the "wind taken out of his sails" and found it profitable to play no longer on this favorite tune of his. The people have discovered to their satisfaction where the real ring is.

SOME papers have much to say about chronic office-seekers. This, of course, has no allusion to Bybee, McKenzie and Langell, the ring candidates for Sheriff, Clerk and Judge. As far back as can be recollected, these gentlemen have every two years, either in convention or before the people, held up their little plates for public gaze. They have become professional office-seekers, in fact.

UNABLE to find anything against him personally, the opponents of E. R. Reames are revamping the objections there may have been against T. G. Reames' administration. As these gentlemen are evidently two different individuals, we are unable to see what connection the latter's acts will have with the former's hereafter. It shows to what desperate straits the opposition is driven for points against the next Sheriff.

NEARLY every pioneer of the valley will find it a congenial matter to vote for Henry Klippel for County Clerk. That gentleman came to Jacksonville before a horse had been built and has resided here ever since. None shouldered a gun with more alacrity during our early Indian wars and went to the rescue of endangered immigrants with more pleasure than he. And his continued residence among us has proven that he has just as much interest in the welfare of Jackson county as he ever had.

OUR STATE TICKET.

During the heated county canvass the affairs of our State should not be forgotten or our State nominees neglected. Next Monday great issues are to be decided and it behooves every man to carefully weigh the merit and claims of each candidate so as to cast his vote intelligently and safely for the best interests of the State.

With this, our first issue before the election, we give the following purely impartial and non-partisan review of the several nominees, raising ourselves above all party bias or prejudice, for we believe every man on the Democratic ticket will compare most favorably with his Republican competitor.

Honest John Whiteaker, our Congressional standard-bearer, was the first Governor of Oregon, having inaugurated our State government, and retiring from the chair leaving $44,000 in the treasury. Since then he has been almost continuously in our State Senate, presiding over its deliberations. He is a farmer and his every interest is in our State. His record as a hard, earnest working Representative is unequalled and, already he has had appropriated for the various interests of our State sums amounting to over $20,000,000.

At present he has secured a favorable report for the selection of a site on this Coast for a navy yard, which would doubtless bring a million dollars to our State each recurring year and which would bring our large tracts of timber land into use. Send him back and he will certainly finish this great undertaking. His competitor is M. C. George, a young man trained and reared in politics by Hippo Mitchell. He was four years a member of the State Senate, during which time he introduced twenty-one bills, procuring the passage of six. He has no other record and doubtless never will have.

For Supreme Judges, the Democratic nominees are Jas. K. Kelly, P. P. Prim and John Burnett. Chief Justice Kelly has been for nearly thirty years prominently before the people of this State, having been a Colonel in the early Indian wars, a Democratic legislator for twenty years, for six years a U. S. Senator and for the last year and a half Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. He is recognized as an able, upright and learned Judge, as well as a ripe scholar, and will be elected.

P. P. Prim has been for over twenty years on the Bench, and as he is a resident of this place he is too well known to need any eulogy at our hands. With Judge Kelly, he has been attacked by a most insupportable man and his accusers. Their triumph in election will be an ample vindication. John Burnett is recognized as one of the finest lawyers of our State and he will make a most able colleague of Judge Kelly and Prim. The competitors of these three able and experienced jurists are Billy Lord, Johnny Waldo and Eddy Watson. They are all young men utterly without any experience and almost unknown to the citizens of this State.

The election of the "juveniles" over their distinguished opponents might prove utterly disastrous to our institutions, as not a lawyer would appear before them who did not have a wider reputation or riper experience.

T. B. Merry, editor of the Inland Empire, is a Democratic candidate for County Printer, and the fact that he will sweep Eastern Oregon should be a sufficient guaranty of his ability and integrity. His opponent is Gen. W. H. O'Neil, of the Seaside, a chronic office-seeker, who will be badly led.

UNPROFITABLE BUSINESS.

The Sentinel has discovered that its abuse and misrepresentation of Judge Day in the hospital controversy and other matters are proving boomerangs and it has forsaken them, only to conceive others just as groundless and unfeeling.

It is as mute as a statue on allowing $9 a day for State patients since it has been discovered that E. B. Watson did the same a few years previously. It would consume more space and time than we have to spare for such unimportant matters to call attention to the myriad of misrepresentations the Sentinel has been guilty of in the past few weeks. It is a shameless disregard for the truth, a fact too well known by even its own readers.

Its only aim is to prejudice the people against its opponents, caring little whether or not it vindicates truth and justice in doing so. That Judge Day has been an industrious, conscientious and attentive officer for the welfare of the county, and has left nothing undone. None can say against his efficiency and probity of character, and if he has erred it is because it is human to do so. Designing individuals are attempting his defeat by any means, fair or foul. The persistent efforts of a certain ring of speculators, aided and abetted by the Sentinel, shows that there is a "ring" in the woods, and the people will do well to keep their eyes wide open, lest they be hoodwinked.

To replace so faithful a public servant as Judge Day with a wire-pulling politician like Nat Langell would be the height of folly. The interested citizens of Jackson county should not lose sight of this matter, but weigh the arguments presented carefully, instead of allowing generated prejudice to blind them.

Our Cotem. and His Little Hatchet.

To what desperate straits the Republican organ down the way is put in order to make a point for its candidates is illustrated by its last attempt to get up a moral favor against the Democratic ticket. Our cotem. is just the person to start such a thing; in fact, he ought to hire a hall or be ordained as an expounder of the Gospel. When it is considered that every candidate on the Democratic ticket is known to be a first-class citizen of Jackson county, this attempt to besmirch them by contemptible innuendoes must appear only too ridiculous. The deprecatory modes of electioneering the Sentinel adopts are too well known and will only act as boomerangs.

For Circuit Judge.

The people of this Judicial district cannot do better than to elect the Hon. H. K. Hanna as Circuit Judge, a position he has filled with so much honor for nearly two years past. He already ranks as one of the best Judges in the State, and will in time prove the peer of any that ever graced the Oregon Bench. Unassuming, honest and capable, he is the man for the position, and will receive it by an overwhelming majority.

DEMOCRATS, BEWARE.

Designing parties are circulating the so-called citizen's ticket, headed by the Democratic State ticket. Look out for them, Democrats, as they are a cheat, and calculate to hoodwink you into voting for men you do not wish to give your ballot.

Having no pride of ancestry or hope of posterity, this bogus people's movement intends to win by any means, fair or otherwise.

SOINTELLATIONS.

Don't swap or trade. Election next Monday. Onward to victory, Democrats! Cheering news for the Democracy from everywhere.

The Democratic ticket will be elected next Monday; and don't you forget it.

Democrats can lend their assistance to no Republican side-shows this Presidential year.

Look out for campaign lies circulated on the eve of election when it is too late to meet them.

Let every Democrat be at the polls Monday and work unceasingly for the success of the whole ticket.

The job put up in the mass meeting by the Bybee-McKenzie-Langell combination will not be ratified at the polls.

Veit Schutz, our next Coroner, gives notice that he will hold an inquest on the defunct Bybee-McKenzie-Langell combination, next Monday evening. Services at the polls.

Our cotem. has much to say about preachers participating in politics; but it is quite mute about pronounced liberals like the Republican candidate for County Judge hobnobbing with religionists in order to capture their votes.

The signs of the times denote the election of the entire Democratic ticket. The Democracy is hopeful and enthusiastic everywhere, while the disgruntled opposition is endeavoring to worm in, in any imaginable manner.

T. T. McKenzie is fast discovering that chickens come home to roost. When he defeated the independent ticket six years ago by insisting on running a straight Republican ticket, and becoming a candidate for Sheriff upon it, he little thought that he would be soliciting the votes of those he spurned so contemptuously then.

Our cotem. is as inconsistent as usual. He calls it "juvenile impudence" for young men to address public audiences, and in the next breath calls upon the people to vote for the juvenile Republican candidates for the Supreme Bench. "This wondrous strange such difference there should be," twit twiddle-dum and twiddle-dee.

Competent judges from abroad assert that no county in the State has better probate records than Jackson. This is entirely due to Judge Day's efforts, who devotes his whole attention to the interests of his constituents and can always be found at his post of duty when wanted. These are facts which should not be overlooked.

As the campaign has progressed it has become painfully evident that the Sentinel is too reckless for nothing. Its last issue overflowing with misrepresentation and vilification, some of which would have done honor to the most depraved journalism. We are sorry to note this, as it was hoped that the campaign would proceed pleasantly on to its close.

Taking eight candidates out of twelve from Jacksonville precinct was an insult to the intelligence and respectability of the country. It seemed as though, in the opinion of the ring managers, the outside could not furnish respectable and available candidates. As the country furnishes the most votes, it also should have the greater number of representatives upon the tickets.

The Sentinel directs its batteries entirely at Henry Klippel this week, hoping to weaken his candidacy. The people of Jackson county knew Henry long before Turner was heard of, and knowing him, respect him. The ridiculous misrepresentations, which filled the greater portion of the Sentinel this week, are as chaff thrown to the wind—scattered profusely, but taking seed nowhere.

The people should bear in mind that the personal efforts of Henry Klippel, who was at Salem at the time, went far to secure the auditing of the Moore war claims. Entirely unselfish and always mindful of the interests of the people of Jackson county, he lent great assistance to the passing of a measure that amounted to many thousand dollars to Jackson county.

Bybee is known to be totally unqualified for Sheriff, and relies solely on his chief deputy (H. B. Seybert) to do his business. Yet, in the face of these facts, he asks the people to re-elect him. This would be simply re-electing the Deputy and Bybee ought to surrender his candidacy to that gentleman, as the citizens of Jackson county should have the opportunity of voting for him outright, instead of proxy.

The ring managers, perceiving the hopelessness of their case, are crystallizing their efforts and making a herculean struggle to save their candidates for Sheriff, Clerk and Judge. Everybody else will be mercilessly swapped for the Langell-Bybee-McKenzie combination. The ring that ran the mass meeting having accomplished its work then is now working exclusively in its own interests unmindful of the balance of the ticket.

The scene of "drowning men catching at straws" never was more vividly illustrated than by our cotemporary in his last issue. Mindful of the hopelessness of his case, he seeks by the most bare-faced and ridiculous misrepresentations to turn the tide, and by these doubtful means to scratch in one or two of his favorite candidates. "Tis the will of despair and it will evolve into "the lamentations of Jeremiah" before the setting of the sun on Monday next.

DEMOCRATS, BEWARE.

Designing parties are circulating the so-called citizen's ticket, headed by the Democratic State ticket. Look out for them, Democrats, as they are a cheat, and calculate to hoodwink you into voting for men you do not wish to give your ballot.

Having no pride of ancestry or hope of posterity, this bogus people's movement intends to win by any means, fair or otherwise.

VINDICATE HIM.

For twenty years P. P. Prim sat upon the Bench of this district, during all of which time not one word can be said against his honesty, ability or integrity. Through twenty long years of judicial labor he has endeared himself to the people of this section. There is not a man in Jackson county who cannot say of him that for honesty of mind, purity of character and honesty of purpose, he stands the peer of any man in the State. Yet this man, whose whole life has been spent among you, without stain or blemish, has been attacked by a set of knaves and corruptionists, who have published him from one end of the State to the other totally without honor or ability; and to make the insult deeper, they claim that this county, his very home, will cast its vote against him. Follow-citizens of Jackson county, you know the falsity of these charges. They are insults, deep and cutting, hurled at every voter in this county who has a single sentiment of manhood in him or whose heart cherishes a generous motive.

Of this honor, rise, citizens of Jackson county, and teach those hounds and tools who denounce him, on the 7th of June, that the name of P. P. Prim is a household word in this county, and that his life is held up as a model for your children. Let there be no stopping at four or five hundred majority, but let the lesson taught to these fiends in human shape be complete and one that will forever make them shudder from attacking a man whose whole life is unimpaired. Let the 1800 voters of Jackson county, solidly and in unison, vindicate their manhood by vindicating the honor of their true, tried and trusted follow-citizen, P. P. Prim. He is deserving of your vote. If he is not elected, no man can ever come, no noble, so upright a life as to be above the outrageous attacks of slanders and villains.

TURNER'S DREAM.

TURNER'S OPINION OF MCKENZIE IN 1874, WHEN PAT. DENN RAN FOR COUNTY CLERK.

In the first place we want to know when this man (McKenzie) received a bill of sale of the Republican party. In the next place we would like to know if he has not been treated handsomely by the Republican party. Two years ago he was elected to a responsible and lucrative office by the Republican party, and by the liberal Democracy who ran a separate ticket and enabled him to stand in position. Republicans pulled their coats off and worked manfully for you. Now you are deserted by both parties, and really working for the Red Democracy. To call this simple indignity would hardly express the contempt to which it entitled. Men who are capable of such chicanery are not to be trusted, and to state the truth to you, we do not honor them. We earnestly hope we can get no office in Jackson county, and we wish their Red Back allies joy of them. Republicans naturally inquire why this man would be thought of for an office beyond the office and he has proved by the dirty tricks performed by his herculean staff that has led and honored them, his selfishness and list for office has proved that he has not the interest of the Republican party at heart, and no one doubts for a moment that he would have been elected with a nomination in the People's Convention. Good-bye, Tommy. You could have remained in the full right of your strength in the hour of trial, and how to assist it, but it is done with you. Don't draw out your name, you are despised by both parties, and if perhaps you do succeed in killing the goose you will find the golden egg only and left to rot and bitterness. People's Press, May 30th, 1874.

THE CANDIDATES FOR TREASURER.

For this important office P. Donegan and Henry Pape have been nominated. Both are good citizens. But Mr. D. means is wholly unqualified for the position and does not profess any great amount of proficiency. In fact, he was only placed on the ticket with the delusive idea of assisting the candidacy of Messrs. McKenzie, Bybee and Langell. On the contrary, Mr. Pape is known to have the necessary qualifications, having filled the office of Treasurer of Jacksonville for the past eleven years; and that he has given the fullest satisfaction is evinced by the almost unanimous vote he receives at each recurring election. Let the Jeffersonian test of honesty and capability be applied to every candidate, and he that cannot come up to it, let him fall.

THE TIMES' PICTURE GALLERY.

SCENES.—Our cotem. attempts to put salt on the tail of the Democratic eagle supposed to be perched on the tree.

The above is a specimen of the buzzard he will catch with his grains of no-party soft sawder.

For District Attorney.

Vote for T. B. Kent, if you want a District Attorney who is fully capable of attending to the duties of the office, and who will make a first-class officer. He is discreet and will be a terror to evil-doers, always being careful not to run the counties composing this district by any unnecessary expense. His opponent, A. P. Hammond, is a gentleman of but a few years' residence among us, has had no recent experience in law and perhaps cannot even draw up an indictment. The people will preserve their best interests by choosing Mr. Kent, no matter what their prejudices may be.

The Multnomah Democracy.

The Democracy of Multnomah have placed an exceptionally strong ticket in the field, and although the county is five hundred Republican the re-election of Ben. Norden for Sheriff by the Democracy is conceded, as likewise the election of Byron Holmes for Assessor. E. J. Jeffery and J. S. Keller are a strong team for State Senators and will doubtless defeat their Mitchell opponents. Take it all in all, it is a ticket deserving of election and will run extremely well. It is opposed by a ticket denoted by Mitchell in his interest as a Senatorial candidate.

Excellent Prospects.

Every indication points to the triumphant election of the entire Democratic county ticket. The party everywhere is thoroughly united and harmonious and the old-time enthusiasm has been aroused, which gives us hope of an old-time victory. The ticket placed in the field by the Democracy is composed of earnest, able, and energetic Democrats and one which every true friend of Jackson county can support. On the other hand, the combination ticket meets with no particular favor, as the fact that the mass meeting was run entirely in the interest of a few residents of this place has become perfectly evident. The Democracy of this county is working in a genuinely hopeful manner and every day is becoming stronger, as the merits of the opposing candidates are discussed, and the election of many of our nominees has been conceded directly, while our opponents look upon the contest as hopeless and are now trying by trading to save one or two men from the general wreck. Let Democrats stand true to the entire ticket and it will be overwhelmingly elected.

ASHLAND CORRESPONDENCE.

Do the many friends of Ashland, College think Mr. Atkinson is surely their man? He is a trustee of that institution, we understand; but some consider that he has been opposing it, and will continue to do so, as a Methodist school, since such he cannot control it. The followers of Wesley do not generally carry hatred; but they do not note for their enemies.

The Sheriffalty.

The people of Jackson county cannot do better than to elect as their Sheriff for the ensuing two years Evan R. Reames. He is known to be a man of ability and integrity, accommodating and prudent, and the tax-payers will receive the fullest consideration at his hands in every instance. Every public enterprise, including the Crescent City Wagon Road, has received his endorsement and liberal support. He will not need the assistance of a host of freemen, for he is fully conversant with the duties of the office and knows how to exercise them. The arrogance and inefficiency of the present administration will disappear and Jackson county will once more enjoy the faithful and efficient government of the Sheriff's office that used to obtain. If the people want a first-class officer let them elect Evan R. Reames.

Why be Exclusive?

The following from the "Sentinel" would indicate that Mr. Turner has suddenly taken a moral turn of mind. He says: We have an account of a big "ring" blow-out at Phoenix on Saturday last as an election-swing trip to catch votes. We earnestly hope and have the right to expect that the People's candidates will not descend to such unworthy practices.

We are pleased to note this sign of reformation, but would beg to ask why the "blow-out" of the People's candidates for Clerk and Assessor at Appleton, on last Sunday, was not also included. It is well known that they came home in a vehicle manned by wheelmen. Turner forgets that little because it did not suit his purpose.

Displeas'd and Contemptible.

Just such a sentiment on last Sunday afternoon, led by the "ring" candidate for Clerk, ended in bloodshed.—Sentinel.

Do you refer to T. T. McKenzie or Henry Klippel, neighbors? We accidentally happened to be an eye-witness of the shooting myself and saw neither of the candidates for Clerk any where in the vicinity, while neither had any connection in one way or another with the affair and no one knows this better than the editor of the "Sentinel". We did meet Mr. Klippel on our way to town and Mr. McKenzie on our way from Appleton on Saturday. Such deprecatory modes of electioneering will be frowned upon by the respectable people of Jackson county. They can hurt neither Mr. McKenzie nor Mr. Klippel.

Query.

The people want to know why the usual number of county warrants have not been issued this year. Is it because the Sheriff is away collecting? Is it because the amount of new subscriptions by this office greater than it ought to be by reason of his rushing his own warrants first? Either must be the case. The tax is specific and requires the Treasurer to pay warrants in rotation, which he does as often as there are sufficient funds on hand. But he cannot do so without the money the Sheriff must collect. There is something wrong somewhere.

The Two Dramas.

The Grant's Pass nest-hider comes to the rescue of the editor of the "Sentinel". The latter's stock of misrepresentations of Judge Day being high exhausted, a fresh cargo comes up from K. D. E. Judge Day went to look after the hedge referred to at the request of D. N. Binkley, and authorizes us to state that the inference that he was "armed with a bottle" is false, as he never used a drop of liquor on the entire trip. K. D. E. seems to be oblivious of that little commandment "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor."

Satan Rebuking Sin.

With the supreme assurance that characterizes some of the ring managers, they warn their partisans against swapping off any part of their ticket. When we consider that each and every candidate on the ring ticket is fighting for himself and swapping off his colleagues indiscriminately, this warning must be received with smiles. Democrats are not in the habit of swapping off any one. Political gerillas only hope to profit by these questionable means.

For Assessor.

Thos. E. Nichols will receive nearly every vote in Little Butte, Big Butte and Chimney Rock precincts for Assessor. It is there where he has resided since a boy and where he is known best. This is a neat commentary on his honesty and worth and the people generally can naturally be expected to choose in any man who is well thought of at home.

Turner's Advice.

Now voters go to the polls and vote the Red ticket; or the assistant Red ticket headed by Buick and McKenzie. Either will do and if you don't sweat and toil and cheat your children of their food and payment to pay your taxes, then figures will tell and there is no virtue in arithmetic. HORSEMEN, TOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!

The Imported Percheron Stallion

GENERAL FLEURY,

ARABIAN BOY,

Bobby Burns, the Shetland.

GENERAL FLEURY and BOBBY BURNS will be kept at my stables near Ashland the coming season.

ARABIAN BOY will be sold on the 28th of April, and after the first week in July. Within the past few years there has been a desperate effort in this and Marion counties to prejudice the minds of the public against my Percheron stock; and, in order to give this slander some appearance of being so, have destroyed two of us fine draft stallions as ever came to Oregon, also several colts and young horses.

That the public may not be deceived by these base slanders, I will soon publish a circular giving a few of the many facts in the case, with an illustration of the high estimation this stock is held in other places, which will be sent free on application.

The merits of the valuable animals for farm and team use that were raised from the two French horses brought here some years ago by S. Colver, are well known. They were half bloods. Therefore, when breeders can secure the services of a pure blood horse for a reasonable price they should avail themselves of the privilege.

Some of the finest draft-colls at the last State Fair were sired by General Fleury.

TERMS:

General Fleury and Arabian Boy, $20 the season; $50 for insurance. Bobby Burns $10 the season; $15 for insurance. Good pasture 50 cents per week. Will use care, but no responsibility assumed for accidents; escapes.

W. C. MYER.
