When is a nose not a nose? When it is a little turn up, or a little reddish. Gen. Burnside has been re-elected United States Senator for Rhode Island.

Two pounds two ounces was the weight of a perfectly formed child born in Auburn, Me., a few days ago. "You look good enough to eat," said he looking over her shoulder into the mirror.

Ex-Senator Jas. A. Bayard, father of the present Senator, Thos. F. Bayard, died at his home in Wilmington, Del., on the 13th inst.

It is estimated that the grain yield in California this year will be 5,000,000 bushels, 20 per cent greater than any previous crop. New Yorkers are having a bitter experience with the heat. In one day there were 36 cases of sunstroke reported, five of which were fatal.

The people of California have commenced their wheat harvest and their acreage is more, and the yield said to be greater than ever known before. There isn't much of a demand for Latin teachers in New York. A good live man who can open clams and mix cock-tails makes eight times as much money.

Edison, has not yet invented newspaper columns so that every advertiser can have a place "at the head of the column next to reading matter," but there's millions in it. A sure cure for poison oak—wash the parts affected thoroughly with strong salt and water, and then apply sweet cream.

A medical man tells of a man living five years with a ball in his head. We've known young ladies to live twice as long without anything else but balls in their heads. It was a delicate piece of sarcasm in the boarder who sent his landlady last week a razor, neatly enclosed in a handsome silk-lined case, and labelled "Butter-knife."

The East Oregonian says grasshoppers are found on Willow creek and Happy Canyon in swarms, and farmers talk of cutting their grain for hay in order to save it. "Mr. Smith, father wants to borrow your paper. He only wants to read it." "Well, go back and tell your father to send me his fifteen. Tell him I only want to eat it."

The game of fifteen—sweet fifteen—is long clothes, bare hair, bangs, bangles, barber-pole stockings, frizzes, bustles, and a young man with which to tide over the ice-cream season. News from Marseilles, France, announces the death in that city of Comp-troller Richard B. Connolly, the Tweedring fugitive. His death was the result of a surgical operation.

Miss Neilson, the world-famous actress is now displaying nightly her beautiful face and form upon the boards of the Baldwin Theatre in San Francisco. She will hardly get to Jacksonville. Basing his calculations upon the rate at which the delta of the Mississippi is deposited, Prof. Mudge reaches the conclusion that man has been on the earth less than two hundred thousand years.

The discouraged collector again presented that little matter. "Well," said his friend, "you are round again." "Yes," says the fellow, with the account in his hand, "but I want to get square." An exchange says: "It is not merely the individual, but society that suffers by every idle, every selfish, every mean, every unjust man, and every two-faced, tattling woman." And that exchange says what is true.

A young man by the name of Oatman tells the Star that he was traveling on horseback the other day and as he approached South Umpqua bridge he was raylaxed by two foot pads, who relieved him of his purse containing $250. The Census Bureau has information that one of the Astors of New York has declined to answer the questions put by the Census Supervisor as to the ages of the female members of his family, and that the Census Supervisor has been ordered to bring suit for the penalty prescribed by the act.

The Lower House of Congress, in committee of the whole, have agreed to reduce the price of public lands on alternate sections along the line of railroads, from $2 50 to $1 25 per acre. Many of these lands have been on the market for twenty years, but Congress thinks they can be disposed of at the reduced price. A terrible disaster occurred on Long Island Sound the other day. The steamers Narragansett and Stonington collided. The Narragansett took fire and in ten minutes was burned to the water's edge. There were at least three hundred passengers on board and many were drowned; the number is not known, but probably fifty were lost and perhaps many more.

Bogus Certificates. It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and pulled up by long bogus certificates of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. See another column.—Republican.

MEDICINE. CHILDREN

Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. They like it because it is sweet; Mothers like Castoria because it gives health to the child; and Physicians, because it contains no morphia or mineral.
