

DEMOCRATIC TIMES.

Official Paper for Jackson, Josephine & Lake.

FRIDAY.....JULY 16, 1880.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:

GEN. W. S. HANCOCK,
OF PENNSYLVANIA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

W.M. H. ENGLISH,
OF INDIANA.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:
J. K. WEATHERFORD of Linn County,
JAMES FULTON of Wasco County,
T. G. OWEN of Coos County.

THE press is already beginning to name Gen. Hancock's cabinet. Good prophesying.

The Republicans are so sure of Hancock's election that they fear he will resign his position in the army.

The photograph of Arthur, the machine candidate for Vice President, displayed in the newspapers, has cost him 100,000 votes.

Gen. Hancock will be one of the largest men—mentally and physically—that ever entered the White House. His fighting weight is 275.

GARFIELD's letter of acceptance has at last made its appearance and will be reviewed in these columns hereafter. It is like his nomination, "anything to beat Grant."

The Yreka Telegraph and Baker City Democrat may be added to the list of journals that without fear of God and without proper credit appropriate the Times' editorial notes to them.

THERE is not a leading Republican journal in the United States that in 1873 did not point the finger of scorn at James A. Garfield, and employ its fiercest vocabulary in denunciation of him.

The Republicans who will cast their votes for Hancock & English may be numbered by thousands. The records of Garfield & Arthur are not such as to warrant an administration impartial and free from corruption.

MR. TILDEN continues to haunt the Republican managers, for, like Banquo's ghost he will not down. We can't blame them, poor fellows! The odium of the Presidential steal will cling to them forever; and they can't ignore it, either.

HON. P. P. PRIM of Jackson county has been named as Oregon's representative in the Democratic National Committee. All Democrats will join with us in saying that a better choice could not have been made, and Oregon's delegation is to be complimented thereon.

The Republican managers are attempting to make a point with their rank and file by spreading the report that Mr. Tilden will manage Gen. Hancock's campaign. It is to be hoped that this is true, for Democratic success will be doubly assured. The old man is not the greatest organizer in America, but this close alliance will be more than strong, because it has the public approval.

The Republican majority in the State was less than 1,500 in June. If the railroad hauls east of the mountains leave before November; if the disgruntled Democracy pull together once more; if the Republican Legislature makes a fool of itself, and Federal campaign funds are exhausted, there is a fair chance of this majority being reduced to nothing. It's a case of if all around, however.

The Republicans have found that they cannot Greenleyize the campaign of 1879. Gen. Hancock was only one of the hundreds of thousands of Democrats who fought on the Union side, and his whole conduct before, through and after the war shows him to be a good enough Democrat for anybody. None but such could give expression to the sentiments expressed in his famous letter to Governor Pease of Texas.

It is to be hoped that the Republicans will no longer misrepresent Mr. Garfield's position on the Chinese question. His letter of acceptance in this particular is equivocal balderdash, exhibiting a proneness to carry water on both shoulders. He admits that Chinese immigration is an evil, but suggests that Congress shall wait on an unfavorable China commission for light on the subject. The Democratic platform emphatically says: "No more Chinese immigration." So say Gen. Hancock; and every Democratic Senator and Congressman says so too. Workingmen choose ye between them.

MR. GARFIELD is in favor of continuing the present anti-slavery peace policy of our government, which is the cause of hundreds of innocent frontiersmen, women and children falling prey annually to the murderous redskins who are then placed on favorite reservations, sent on jangling trips to Washington and petted like spoiled children would be. That gentleman having been a minister himself, and a member of the Campbellite church at present, it is only natural that he should favor the retention of Indians by the ministry. Gen. Hancock, on the contrary, has always favored placing the Indians under the management of the military department, where they belong. If this were done, expensive wars would sometimes be averted, the cost of management greatly reduced and the safety of settlers assured.

SCINTILLATIONS.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' COURT.

There is a great division in Republican ranks in the first district of Minnesota and the Democrats expect to elect their candidate for Congress.

The Republican press informs us that the Democrats are going to slander Garfield & Arthur. This would be awful, for the good Lord knows that the facts are dark enough to start with.

A ten-cent shinplaster will be paid for the discovery of a solitary Democrat who will vote for Garfield & Arthur. On the other hand, the Republicans who will vote for Hancock & English are numerous and increasing.

A desperate effort is being made by the telegraph to have it appear that trouble is brewing in the Indiana Democratic camp. Be that as it may, the Hoosier State never was safer for the Democracy than it now is. The Democrats of Indiana are always right on election day.

Col. J. W. Forney, the editor of the leading Republican paper of Pennsylvania, sent the following to Gen. Hancock after his nomination: "I congratulate you on your nomination for President and predict your election and the complete restoration of peace to all sections."

The Republican press, which was so severe on Denis Kearney a few short months ago, is now fondling him affectionately since he has shown his hand in the Presidential campaign. It is only too evident that that corrupt sand-letter will attempt to throw California for Garfield & Arthur by hoodwinking Democratic workmen into supporting Weaver & Chambers, the Greenback nominees. According to Republican authority, Denis is now "an angel without wings."

The Republican managers, it would seem, are preparing to make away with the vote of California, as they did in 1876. With the aid of the late Senator Morton's cunning they manufactured several thousand fraudulent votes in San Francisco and succeeded in wresting the electoral vote of that State from Mr. Tilden by less than 2,500 majority. This time they have prevailed upon Governor Perkins to remove Louis Kaplan, Registrar of the Bay City, and appoint in his place J. L. Tharp, who is conspicuous only by reason of his connection with the infamous Louisiana returning board. This looks ominous.

It means that nothing—fair or foul—will be left undone for the success of Garfield and Arthur. Democrats should be on the alert, for a repetition of the outrages of 1876 must not be permitted.

HANCOCK & ENGLISH CLOTHES.

The Democracy of Jackson County met at the Court House on the evening of July 16th for the purpose of organizing a Hancock and English Club.

The meeting was organized by the choice of Hon. P. P. Prim as chairman.

An motion, E. D. Fonda and Chas. Nickel were chosen as secretaries.

An motion, the roll of subscribing members was called, disclosing 117 names.

The roll being passed, several citizens vied themselves of the opportunity of subscribing their names.

An motion, the temporary officers were made permanent officers of the Club, with two Vice Presidents and a Marshal.

An motion, we quote the following:

"You have made the Custom-house a center of partisan political management." —E. B. Hayes to Collector Arthur, Jan. 31, 1879.

"With a deep sense of my obligations under the Constitution, I regard it as my plain duty to suspend you in order that the office may be honestly administered." —E. B. Hayes to Collector Arthur, Jan. 31, 1879.

"Persons have been regularly paid by you who have rendered little or no service; the expenses of your office have increased while its receipts have diminished. Bribes, or gratuities in the shape of bribes, have been received by your subordinates in several branches of the Custom-house and you have in no case supported or referred to correct these abuses." —S. S. Sherman to Collector Arthur, Jan. 31, 1879.

"I have been afflicted with a kidney trouble for years, during which time I have used almost every kidney remedy I could hear of, but obtained no relief. I tried the Oregon Kidney Tea, and the first dose gave me relief. I am now almost well, and would recommend it to any one suffering from this disease." —Moses Price, W. C. X.

"I have had the kidneys for thirty years. Have had the physician present to the house but failed to receive relief. Tried the Oregon Kidney Tea, and the first dose gave me relief. I am now almost well, and would recommend it to any one suffering from this disease." —Moses Price.

"I am to be hoped that the Republicans will no longer misrepresent Mr. Garfield's position on the Chinese question. His letter of acceptance in this particular is equivocal balderdash, exhibiting a proneness to carry water on both shoulders. He admits that Chinese immigration is an evil, but suggests that Congress shall wait on an unfavorable China commission for light on the subject. County Finances.

From the annual exhibit of E. B. Watson, ex-County Clerk, which will be found in another column, it will be seen that there were more outstanding warrants at that date than one year ago, though the amount is small. Since then a few warrants have been canceled and some more will be immediately redeemed, so that there is a slight difference between the indebtedness of 1879 and 1880. Over $1,700 were received from Josephine county lately, however, which in the previous financial exhibit were counted as assets. This is nevertheless not a discouraging state of affairs, for the public improvements, such as roads, bridges etc., made are many and of substantial character. When Lake county shall pay her indebtedness, and our other assets are made available, a considerable reduction in our indebtedness will be made. The last Board of County Commissioners made a few mistakes, and their successors will not make any more.
