DEMOCRATIC TIMES.

Official Paper for Jackson, Josephine & Lake.

FRIDAY,.....NOVEMBER 5, 1880

THIS is an off-year for the Democratic party. We'll "pick our flints" and try it again, however.

THE Republicans claim a small majority in the next House of Representatives, but concede the Senate, which will remain Democratic for sometime to come.

IT is a noticeable fact that the very States that were stolen from Mr. Tilden in 1876 gave the largest majority, in proportion to their population, for Hancock in 1880. Comment is unnecessary.

THE noble Democracy of Multnomah made a glorious struggle last Tuesday and cut down the Republican majority fully one-half. They are deserving of the greatest praise, for they had a Herculean task before them.

SIMULTANEOUS with the firing of anvils over Garfield's election in Jacksonville was the popping of firecrackers by the Chinese, who seemed to enter into the fun as enthusiastically as our Republican friends. John Chinaman felt an interest in the election, and why shouldn't he celebrate the triumph of his champion, Jimmy Garfield.

WE are afraid that the best interests of the people were not conserved by the election of Garfield, who has always heretofore been the champion of the monopolist and money-changer. But we hope that we are mistaken. It will be an agreeable disappointment to find Mr. Garfield a President of the people and not of any special class.

HANCOCK'S majority in Jackson county is only four less than Whiteaker's last June, in spite of the fact that many Republican votes from adjoining counties were cast in different precincts here, to say nothing of the Democratic votes thrown away on Weaver. Nevertheless the "Old Guard" still carries the banner aloft and challenges sturdy Multnomah.

REPUBLICAN tactics did not decrease the Democratic majority in Southern Oregon any, and she comes in for the banner as of yore. But for the heavy rain on election day, it is safe to say that Hancock's majority would be considerably greater than it is. All honor to the gallant Democracy of Jackson, Lake and Josephine. It never wavers in the most adverse hour.

MADDENED by the gallant conduct of the Democracy of Jackson and Oregon last Tuesday, the scavenger of the Republican party of this county is wildly endeavoring to detract from the victory achieved by miserable falsification and vile slander. We are not a votary of crimination and recrimination, but we can safely assert that the Republican managers are liable to his charges.

THE Lake Co. Examiner asserts that an employe of the Klamath Indian Agency says ten of them have been assessed $50 each for election purposes and the money stopped out of their pay, thus preventing any objections on their part. The officers of the United States Land Office at Lakeview have also been assessed $400 each, which went to swell the enormous fund used in electing Garfield.

ONE of those sweet-scented Republicans who has so much to say about Democratic chicanery, and who rolls up his eyes in holy horror over the wickedness of the Democracy, was found electioneering two Kanakas last Tuesday. Probably he didn't know any better; but it would seem that he wasn't particular what kind of votes Garfield got. It is always such hypocrites who cant loudest over human depravity. And he says he isn't a carpet-bagger, either.

THE Pacific Coast knew what it was doing last Tuesday. Hence nobody is surprised that California and Nevada have probably gone for Hancock, and Oregon is claimed by the Republicans by a few hundred majority. Garfield is known to be doubtful on the Chinese question, and that is why we see this change on the coast, which went solid for Hayes in 1876. If anything is done to eradicate the Mongolian curse in the next four years we will be agreeably disappointed.

THE latest telegraphic advices place Oregon and California in the doubtful list, the former being claimed by the Republicans and the latter by the Democrats. This State will be close in any event, and it may take the official vote to decide it. The Democrats gain one, and perhaps two, Congressmen in California, with probabilities that a Democratic U. S. Senator will succeed Booth. Nevada goes for Hancock beyond a doubt, and ensures a gain of a Congressman and U. S. Senator. Hurrah for the Pacific Coast!

WE are very much of the opinion that a bounty should be paid for the scalps of such animals as are troublesome to stock-raisers and farmers, and that the money be paid out of the county treasury in the proper manner. Almost everyone is interested, directly or indirectly, in such a measure and we hope early action will be taken. It has become almost impossible to raise stock in some neighborhoods because of these wild pests, and a reasonable bounty for their scalps would induce many to hunt and exterminate them.

THERE is no disguising the fact that the result in Indiana last month had a great deal to do with the election last Tuesday. In some States the majorities for Garfield are immense, showing that men, like sheep, are liable to stampede. The November vote is proof enough that the Hoosier State was carried in October by imported negroes, repeaters and roughs, assisted by a vast corruption fund, as a great falling off is reported there. Thousands of demoralized Democrats stayed away from the polls, and yet the Republican majority is but heavy.

DEFEAT OF HANCOCK AND ENGLISH.

The Presidential election is over and Jas. A. Garfield has been chosen President and Chester A. Arthur Vice President of the United States. They carry the Northern States, with the exception of New Jersey and Nevada, and possibly California. Oregon is also in doubt, but is claimed by the Republicans by a small majority. This gives them at least 210 electoral votes, with a probability of a few more.

The fiat has gone forth and will be gracefully accepted by all. 'Tis a sore disappointment to a great many, to be sure, but everybody cannot be pleased. We are too big to cry over it, and yet it is too serious a matter for laughter. So we must grin and bear four years longer, when we feel satisfied the American people will be obliged to come to the conclusion that a change of parties is necessary.

There are many excuses to frame why the Democracy was not successful. True, they had an unexceptionable ticket; but that must have been a minor consideration, taking the success of Garfield and Arthur (who had been adjudged unworthy men by their own partisans) into question. It would have made no difference if the king of the Cannibal Islands was the Republican candidate, he would have been elected all the same. This election goes to show the susceptibility of American character to the machinations of a set of scheming politicians having only self-aggrandizement in view, and a want of stability that may prove fatal to our republic before the end of the nineteenth century.

Few can consistently deny that if the people had been left to exercise the rights of suffrage without any interference whatever the Democracy would have triumphed. Coercive measures adopted by Republican employers, the lavish expenditure of a vast corruption fund, the raising of false issues and intermeddling by Federal officials, accomplished the defeat of Hancock and English. The wealth of Wall street and the monopolists of the entire country, reinforced by 100,000 office-holders, was thrown solidly against the Democracy. Extreme measures were resorted to wherever necessary and the vast machinery of the Government became the instrument of the Republican managers in their desperate efforts to retain their hold. Is it any wonder that we failed of success against such fearful odds?

The Democracy has succumbed, temporarily, to the powers that be, but its eternal principles will yet triumph. Defeated but not dishonored, disappointed but not annihilated, the party of Jefferson and Jackson will yet be called upon to steer the Ship of State in the straight and narrow course our forefathers took. Let us not despair, but work unceasingly from now until 1884. If present indications are to be taken into account, U. S. Grant will most likely be the next Republican nominee for President, and he should be met by a united and aggressive Democracy, ready to combat his claims to a third term and a dictatorship.

Railroad Memorial.

The following joint memorial was introduced by Representative Montgomery of Douglas county and passed both houses of the Legislature:

The Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon most respectfully represents that by an act of Congress approved July 25, 1866, the Government of the United States granted a subsidy of lands to the Oregon and California Railroad Company, to aid them in constructing a line of road from Portland, Oregon, to the southern boundary line of the State, through the Willamette, Umpqua and Rogue river valleys, and by sundry amendments to said act of Congress, said railroad line was to be completed on or before the first day of July, 1880.

That the said Oregon and California Railroad Company has completed its road from Portland, Oregon, to Roseburg, Oregon, a distance of two hundred miles, and is desirous to proceed with the location and construction of its said railroad to the southern boundary of said State in manner provided by said act of Congress.

That the undeveloped mines, the vast area of valuable timbered lands, the broad acres of cultivated lands which lie in Southern Oregon, awaiting the means of transporting their precious products to the markets of the world, can never be fully developed until a railroad is constructed.

That the people of Southern Oregon have no means of transportation except such as is furnished by teams, and the Oregon and California Railroad Company being desirous to proceed with the location of its said railroad as aforesaid, your memorialists humbly ask that the time for construction thereof be extended to the 31st day of December, 1880, and that said company be authorized and permitted to file an additional map of the location of its line to the southern boundary of the State, but upon the express terms and conditions that it construct at least fifteen miles of its said railroad south from Roseburg within one year from the first day of June, 1880, and at least fifteen miles each succeeding year thereafter, until the said road shall be completed to the said State line.

Senator Grover and Wife.

The following extract is made from a letter recently received by a gentleman in Portland from Senator Grover, under date Oanville, New York, October 3d: When you visited us at Wilmington, Delaware, in May last, Mrs. Grover could not sit up two hours in the day. She is now able to sit up nearly all day, and is improving slowly right along. She has at no time suffered in her mind as she did in Oregon. Her chief difficulty has been marasmus of the bowels and the general debility attendant upon such diseases. She has not taken any medicine for the past five months, so she is doing very well and expects to be with me in Washington next December. I am much better than when you saw me, and about four pounds heavier. The spinal inflammation is gradually subsiding, and symptoms of paralysis leaving me. I have felt that I might go to Oregon this Fall and vote, but my physician forbids it. They say I am safely over danger, but that I must await the hardening process of nature to render me safe from a relapse.

AN INFAMOUS CALUMNY.

The campaign having come to a close, we had hoped that party rancor would simmer down a little, at least, and the consideration of our mutual interests become uppermost again. In this it seems we are grievously mistaken. While our citizens are generally inclined to consider the contest for the Presidency at an end, the Sentinel finds it convenient to yesterday belch forth another volley of slime and corruption, nastier than any preceding ones, if that were at all possible. Success has made it bold and it outdoes itself in its chosen avocation of falsifying and traducing some of our best citizens, the latchets of whose shoes the contemptible scribbler who delivered himself of the article headed "The Result in Jackson County," is not worthy to unloose. We quote an extract therefrom, to show how utterly despicable and libelous it is:

Unscrupulous Democratic partisans used every means in their power to secure the casting of ballots at least doubtful, and the honest votes of citizens of this State were neutralized by the spurious and dishonest ballots of tramps of a sister State; yet with the most strenuous efforts and a large expenditure of money the vote of Jackson county is not increased materially for the Democracy. It must be humiliating for the fervent orators, the persistent liars, the backers of forgery and misrepresentation, and the procurers of illegal votes, to know that their harvest has been light.

We doubt whether there is a respectable Republican who will endorse the aforesaid article in any part. We denounce it as an infamous fabrication and vile slander from beginning to end, and challenge its reckless author to prove one single proposition he advances. If he shall fail to do this, the public will brand him as a self convicted liar and a base calumniator of his fellow citizens. The time has passed when unscrupulous penny-a-liners can seek to wreak petty spite by blackening the characters of good men through irresponsible newspapers. They are amenable to criminal proceedings and the Grand Jury can consider their cases, at least.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The following was issued by Mr. Hayes on November 1st:

At no period in the history since the United States became a nation has this people had so abundant and so universal reasons for joy and gratitude at the favor of Almighty God, or been subject to so profound an obligation to give thanks for His loving kindness, and humbly to implore His continued care and protection. The health, wealth and prosperity throughout all our borders; peace, honor and friendship with all the world; firm and faithful adherence by the great body of our population to the principles of liberty and justice, which have made our greatness as a nation; our wise institutions a strong frame of government and society which will perpetuate it—for all these let the thanks of a happy and united people, as with one voice, ascend in devout homage to the Giver of all good. I therefore recommend that on Thursday, the 25th day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship to make acknowledgement to Almighty God for His bounties and his protection, and to offer to him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifth.

[SEAL.] R. B. HAYES.

THE NEW TOWN HALL.

The Board of Trustees will meet tomorrow (Saturday) evening for the purpose of considering the following petition, which is signed by sixty tax-payers of Jacksonville:

To the Honorable, the Board of Trustees of the town of Jacksonville, Oregon:

The undersigned citizens of Jacksonville respectfully represent to your Honorable Board that, in their estimation, it would be highly advisable for the Board to add an additional story to the Town Hall, to be used for public gatherings. Our reasons are: That a public hall of the dimensions that can be obtained by the addition suggested is a necessity. It is understood that Madame Holt intends to change the large hall in her new hotel into bed-chambers, thus leaving us the alternative of using the Court House for public gatherings, and which, as all know, is wholly unfit for the purpose. The additional cost for the additional story would be far less now than at a future time. The expense for the additional story could be met, as we believe, by issuing scrip, bearing interest at ten per cent. per annum, and to be redeemed by levying a small tax annually. We believe, also, that a reasonable charge for the use of the hall for theatrical and other exhibitions, concerts, lectures, &c., would be a source of revenue more than sufficient to meet the amount of interest on the scrip. With these views, we respectfully ask the consideration of the Board of the subject.

Jackson County Returns.

The following are the majorities given by the various precincts last Tuesday. The vote is hardly as large as expected everywhere, owing to the rain on election day.

| Precincts. | Hancock. | Garfield. |
|---|---|---|
| Applegate | 43 | .. |
| Ashland | .. | 26 |
| Big Butte | .. | 1 |
| Eden | .. | 2 |
| Jacksonville | 102 | .. |
| Uniontown | .. | 13 |
| Little Butte | 36 | .. |
| Table Rock | 63 | .. |
| Sterling | .. | 12 |
| Pleasant Creek | 30 | .. |
| Grant's Pass | .. | 14 |
| Chimney Rock | 11 | .. |
| Evans Creek | .. | 4 |
| Manzanita | 11 | .. |
| Willow Springs | 54 | .. |
| Leland | 7 | .. |
| Rock Point | 27 | .. |
| Flounce Rock | 7 | .. |
| Foot's Creek | 6 | .. |
| Chimney Rock | 8 | .. |
| Totals | 394 | 72 |
| Hancock's majority | 322 | |

The Democracy of gallant old Jackson county is to be complimented on this result. But for the fact that several Republicans from Douglas and Lake counties voted in Jackson and that some Democrats threw their votes away on Weaver, a substantial increase could be noted.

About Churchgoing.

The Bishop of Manchester, in England, has found a parish in his diocese containing 1,232 houses, where 906 heads of families openly profess that neither they nor their households attend any place of religious worship. A disposition to abandon churchgoing is observable in all our own large communities, and it appears even in small country towns where once staying home from church on Sunday was looked on as disreputable. The conclusion of the Bishop is that it is time for the various religious parties and communions to give up their bickerings, and set about the job of getting the people to church.

Josephine County.

Our sister county has undoubtedly gone for Hancock by a considerable majority. Returns from three precincts show a majority of 57 for the Democratic ticket, to-wit: Kerbyville, 25; Wilderville, 25; Jump-off-Joe, 7. Josephine county is good for at least 75 majority, which may be increased to 100.
