the Presidency. Their criminality then entered political life. has been fully proven, while their charges now are made only to blind the public and to palliate their own guilt.

THE charge that the National Demoeratic ticket was bartered for Republican votes for local candidates in New York city seems to be substantiated by the vote for Assemblymen in the Sixth District. Hancock ran 512 votes behind the united Democratic vote for Assemblymen. Independent Democrats assert that the trade was made in the interest of the Tammany eandidate. With the disappearance of the various halls, New York will once more become reliably Democratic.

THE Indianapolis Republicans celebrated on Wednesday by displaying the figures 329, and by bawling them at their Democratic neighbors. These figures represent the sum for which their candidate, now the President-elect, betrayed a sacred trust, afterward telling falsehoods about the matter and perjuring himself by swearing the falsehoods were the truth. The Indianapolis Republicans seem to belong to the class of persons who glory in their own shame.

THE people vote for policies. The Democrats made the mistake of supposing they vote for men. Gen. Hancock, one of the most popular men alive, has been statesman with a policy.

A Disclaimer.

Rev. L. M. Nickerson, U. S. Indian Agent at Klamath Agency, writing to the Times under date of the 10th, says: "I desire to state that the extract from the Lakeview Examiner, alleging that money or pay belonging to the employes for services rendered had been kept back for campaign purposes, has not even the shadow of truth in it. My employes all deny making any such or similar state ments." We hasten to give Mr. Nickerson the benefit of the doubt, though we must add that he is exceedingly fortunate in having escaped the tribute relentlessly levied upon Federal officials and their employes by the Republican managers at Washington. Even the few Democratic mail contractors, etc., were importuned for a contribution to the general corruption fund.
