A HANDSOME AFFAIR.—The Leap-year par- ty given by the ladies of Ashland at Houck's hall last Friday evening proved one of the most pleasant events of the season. A large attendance	available and all are making the best of it. The season opens quite favorably, with pleasant weather prevailing all the while, and visions of gold-dust haunt the hopeful delver of the earth. The river claims on the Klamath, in Siski- you county, have yielded well during the past year, and in some cases immensely. Several excellent quartz ledges are also be- ing worked in that county at present. Un- usual activity in mining now exists there and it promises to increase during 1881. A new era in the prosperity of northern Cali- fornia is dawning.	Fox, Tyler. The newly-elected officers of Al- pha Chapter No. 1, O. E. S., were also install- ed, to-wit: Mrs. J. M.
