Disastrous Fire.

The store of M. E. Pogue, located at Gold Hill, was burned to the ground about one o'clock Sunday morning, together with all its contents. How the fire originated is a mystery, but it was undoubtedly of incendiary origin. Mr. Pogue and family, who occupied the rear portion of the building, were awakened by the furious barking of their watchdog, who had been locked up in the store; but the fire had made such headway that it was impossible to put it out. In fact, only a few articles could be rescued before the entire building was enveloped by the fiery element. There was some insurance on the stock and house, but not enough to cover the damage done. On the household goods, almost all of which were destroyed, there was no insurance. Mr. Pogue estimates his loss at least $2,500 above the insurance. He will resume business in Pogue & Mynatt's warehouse, situated on this side of the railroad track, as soon as possible, and has carpenters at work fitting it up. He has the sympathy of the entire community in his misfortune.

O, Consistency, Etc.

Senator Dolph reached Medford sometime after the train was due; but as he has a voice in the entire railroad system of the State, his arrival from this place, where he had just concluded a Republican speech, was awaited. He is one of the very few who would be granted such a favor. And yet he charged Mr. Cleveland with being a friend of the monopolists and criticised him severely for acts said to be in their favor—none of which charges can be proven.

Three gentlemen from Wisconsin, acquaintances of A. L. Reuter of Jacksonville, are now in this section looking for 2,000 acres of land. They represent a German colony which desires to locate on the northwest coast.

R. Koehler, general manager of the O. & C. R. R., accompanied by Hon. R. D. Peebles, managing director of the London banks on this coast, came up in the president's car last week, on a tour of inspection. They did not remain long.

We were this week pleased to see our old friend John Sisemore, now a resident of Wasco county, who brought his family to the home-place in Sam's valley a few days since, where they will reside during the winter. He will return to his stock ranch, however.

Death of a Young Wife.

The Sacramento (Cal.) "Bee" of the 8th inst. contains the following death notice of a relative of S. P. Jones of Jacksonville, and who paid this place a visit on two different occasions: "Last night there died in this city the wife of John A. Gill. Her maiden name was Miss Twogood, but she bore the name of her stepfather, being called Miss Nottingham. She was married but about a year ago, was well known and popular in society, and noted for her amiability and sweetness of disposition. She leaves a daughter but a few days old."

Grand Lodge, has made the following appointments for this month: Woodville, Oct. 14th, 15th and 16th; Ashland, 17th, 18th and 19th; Wagner creek, 20th; Jacksonville, 21st, 22d and 23d; Sam's Valley, 24th, 25th and 26th; Medford, 27th; Wilderville, 28th; Riddle, 30th; Glendale, 31st.

The Poorhouse, the Grave and Victory.

ASHMORE, ILLINOIS.—The "Citizen" publishes the following facts: Abram Beaver, an inmate of the Cols county, Illinois, Poorhouse, certifies that he suffered several years with the most acute rheumatism, so that he could not labor, and finally became so poor and prostrate he was sent to the poorhouse. The physicians there gave him up and said he must die; but, as a last chance, they tried St. Jacobs Oil. A few applications gave relief and by its continued use he was enabled to leave his bed. To this is added the certificate of the Superintendent, to the truth of the statement and to his belief that the man's life was saved by the use of the Great Remedy.

Commenting upon the foregoing, the "Citizen" says, editorially, as follows: "We are pleased to be able to testify to the correctness of the above, as the case came directly under our notice; anyone desiring further information can correspond with this office."

At the October term of their court, the county commissioners made a tax levy of 20 mills for the ensuing year, to-wit:

County purposes, 10¼ mills	22,239 69
Total	$42,768 58
Poll tax, $1 each, on 1,184 polls	1,184 00
	$43,952 58

A Good Many Failures.

During the year 1883 there were 10,568 failures in business in the United States and Canada. Some of these were big concerns, and some were very small. Failure is sorrowful business to any man, especially if it is his health that fails. A great many times 10,568 people fail in health in the course of a year. Many of them might be saved if they would take Brown's Iron Bitters, the great family medicine and restorer of wasted health.

Accident.

Robt. Neal of Wagner creek had a narrow escape from death a few days since. He was handling a cartridge that would not go off, and, striking it once too often, it suddenly exploded with great force, putting out one of his eyes and seriously wounding the other. His left hand was also mutilated in a horrible manner, so that he will lose at least a portion of it. His attending physician is of the opinion that Mr. Neal is not safe from total blindness.

Proposal Renewed.

Four years ago we made a proposition to furnish new subscribers with the TIMES free of charge if Garfield was elected. We now renew this proposition, and anybody who wants this paper can have it free for a year in case Blaine wins. In case Cleveland is the victor, the regular subscription price is payable to us at once.

The Democracy of Jackson county will hold their last rally for this campaign in Jacksonville on Monday, Nov. 3d, the evening before election. Several speakers will be in attendance and a grand time will be had. Come one! Come all!

Departed.

It is with regret that we announce the death of Silas P. Hanna and J. M. Pruett, two old and highly respected citizens of this county—men whom we can illy part with. In the next issue of the TIMES will be published extended obituary notices.

You Can Have It.

"My dear, what would I give to have your hair?" is often said by middle-aged ladies to young ones. Madam you may have just such hair. Parker's Hair Balsam will give it to you. It will stop your hair from falling off, restore the original color and make it long, thick, soft and glossy. You need not stand helplessly envying the girls. The Balsam is not oily, not a dye, but is an elegant dressing, and is especially recommended for its cleanliness and purity.
