Nothing Doing.

Last Friday night there was a free fight at Medford, which resulted in several of the combatants being knocked out. A certain Mr. Walker was the victor, and he undertook to demolish one of the proprietors of the Gem saloon, who was acting in the role of pugilist. He received an instant rebuff, however, in the hands of W. G. K., who struck him with the same. Therefore it did not fail to have your picture taken, and the Ashland photographer took a good many photographs of all kinds.

One enterprising merchant Jerry Nunn came to the town with a new advertisement. He has a large stock of goods and can sell you anything. If he thinks there has been a decided improvement in the looks of the town since his last visit.

Frank Langell holds a case on the Linkville star.

Twelve yards of Calcutta W for $1.00 at Carlo Bros., Phoenix.

Health is generally good, but odds being due to the weather.

Nothing has been seen or heard of the stage robber yet.

Two hundred dozen chickens wanted at Carlo Bros., Phoenix.

Some opposition to the new Ashland charter is manifested.

If you are the printer make him happy by early settlement.

A number of business changes will probably take place here.

One of H. C. Hall's new cows is now ready to part with her calf.

Everybody should attend the reception ball on February 11th.

The town will be becoming more and more.

Look out for those fellows.

Now, though, check and other books are at hand at the Lanes office.

Ashland still has a number of newsmen, but the work is getting better.

There are no lack of men for the coming months, but for the coming month, we hope to have a few more.

Stanley Bass has sold his electrical grocery at Medford to W. R. Powell for two.

Baldwin, in quantities, to suit for sale.

We have a few more books and other books at hand at the Lanes office.

John L. Williams, another merchant, has sold his hardware store at the Lanes office.
