The little girl, less than eight years old, was taken from her parents and kept in confinement until released by 14-Basil S. Grigsby and Emma R. Faith, order of the Court and Mayor of the city. Mrs. Jennie Kimball, the mother of Corinne, who has been known to public for many years as vocalist and come lienne, has devoted the greatest care to the training and education of Corinne, and the result is a development of natural faculties really phenomenal.

"When did you discover Corinne's remarkable talent?" was asked of "I can hardly remember the time when her eyes would not sparkle at the sound of music; she began to sing before she could talk. Before she was four years old she created a sensation and received a prize of a gold 9-J. C. Trumble and Ellen Neathamer.

show in Boston. Next she sang in a concert given by Brown's Brigade Band, and in 1879 made her debut as Little Buttercup in the Juvenile Pinafore Company. Since then she has sung in opera and played various roles nearly everywhere." Mrs. Kimball is a lady of fine presence, and when playing at the Boston Museum, was herself known as "Little Jennie Kimball." "What has become of the little lady?" asked the reporter. She has given place to the person you see before you. Like so many others I have grown somewhat fleshy. Indeed I assumed such proportions that I began to fear for my health. Why, at times I would have the most suffocating sensation in my heart; then again my head would be attacked and I have frequently fallen to the floor in a dead fainting fit. I consulted several eminent physicians and they told me I must abandon the stage if I expected or hoped to live. This seemed terrible, for I am devoted to my profession and also to "And yet you appear perfectly 'And so I am. Why, I have reduced my weight over twenty pounds within three months and I never felt better in my life. If any who are troubled as I was questions this, let them try Warner's safe cure, the remedy I used, and they will, I am sure, be speedily convinced of its truth. I believe it is the finest medicine in the world, and any number of my friends to whom I have recommended it have found it as beneficial as it has been to me.' "Is Corinne's health good?"

"Perfectly. The child has so much life and vivacity she is overflowing with it, on and off the stage." The only previous instance of such remarkable proceedy which history chromicles is that of the famous Peg Woffington, who first appeared in "The Beggar's Opera," when but a little older than Corinne.

I used your Cuticura Remedies for Blotches, and an completely cured, to my inexpressible joy. Cuticara Sonp is the best I have ever used, and to the profession it is involubble for cleansing the skin, thereby removing all "cork," grease, grease, paint, and all the stuff used by them, leaving the skin pure and white and soft. My greatest pleasare is in recommending such an article.
