Unparalleled bargains at S. F. Fisher's. Read our new clubbing inducements.

Read our new clubbing inducements. Town election takes place next Tuesday.

Old papers at the Times office very cheap. L. A. Heberlein has returned from Portland.

A. S. Coulter of Portland was here yesterday. Pallet Bros., insurance agents, are now at 100 Broadway.

Electronary entertainment next Tuesday evening. Ashland also succeeded in having her charter amended.

More stormy weather was promised as we went to press. W. E. Dean of Glendale has been paying Ashland a visit.

Nature's remedy is what they say of Oregon Kidney Tea. Operations continue steadily at the millinery in Jacksonville.

Nick Kline is at Revery Camp, Cal., in the employ of J. K. Happs. Jasper N. Jones was admitted to the county hospital.

Fresh oranges and lemons at the S. F. Variety Store, Jacksonville. Pay your arrears at the Times office and get one of our premiums.

You cannot do better than to take advantage of our new clubbing offer. Hanley & Co. shipped another lot of fat and mutton to Portland last week.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arnold at Roseburg on the 5th. Fresh buckwheat flour and oatmeal for sale at the S. F. Variety Store.

W. W. Jesse has returned to this county after an absence of a few years. Eggs are plentiful again in this market, but butter is scarce from usual.

We want correspondence from every part of the First Judicial District. Jackson county gains one representative under the new apportionment bill.

Sam Centers sold his band of sheep to W. A. Brown of Mantua, this county, Oregon for sale at A. H. Magley's.

W. T. Anderson of Eden precinct and son made a call one day this week. The best coal in the market, by the gallon, or by the case, at Magley's.

Col. Wm. Martin of Galesville is paying the bill for the new bridge at Astoria. A Chicago druggist in Jacksonville last week was a $200 overcoat. Too high for us.

C. O. Oberholser of Applegate is assisting J. K. Patten in his notes on Footman's case. A fine line of fancy stationery, in boxes, is being sold at cost at the S. F. Variety Store.

Go to Newman Fisher for bargains in all lines. He is bound to sell out, and at a low price. A handsome line of wedding cards and invitations is always kept on hand at the Times office.

The greatest bargains in all kinds of merchandise can be obtained by calling upon Newman Fisher. Stock are still suffering from the cold weather and lack of feed and some have succumbed already.

N. R. Parson is manipulating the reins on R. S. Dudley's freight line between this place and Medford. The string flight of drummers seems to have set in, there being no less than twenty in town this week.

Robert Hardman, toll-collector of the Contentment river, makes Jacksonville a visit a few days this week. C. W. Stowell and M. L. Wood of Butte creek and Chas. Lambert of Gold Hill were here one day this week.

This is probably the stormiest February that has been experienced since the memorable one of 1862. Tain babies arrived at the residence of Julius Trumbull of Althouse precinct, Joseph county, last week.

Owing to the great scarcity of hay and bad roads, the Union livey stable was temporarily closed this week. Some snow still lies on the ground, though it will not remain long unless reinforced by a new supply.

The salary of our county treasurer was raised to $200 per annum by the last legislature, an increase of $100. Neutralize and kindred diseases promptly yield to the immediate action of St. Jacobs oil, the great pain-combater.

John Dyer announces himself as a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace for the 2nd district. Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly destroyed by the peculiar medicine.

Sent fifty cents in stamps to the Times office for a book of notes, drafts or receipts. Three books $1.25—postage prepaid. Will be presented.

If you want the best newspapers in the city you can get the lowest possible subscription prices by taking advantage of our "Times" magnificent clubbing offer. Don't forget our premium offers. Cigarettes are becoming very troublesome and are destroying many sheep, hogs and poultry. Our county commissioners should place a bounty on their sale.

For sale, a first-class, first-class party, suitable for either the San Francisco "Examiner" or New York "Star." Price only $1.50 and $1.00 respectively. Subscriptions free. The legislature has ordered the payment of the sum of $500 to A. W. Proseby of this county, having bought a paid for a piece of school land that the State had already sold to some one else.

The largest and best of the outlook for good crops everywhere is excellent. Sixty cents per bushel net is still being paid at the warehouses and mills, however. Don't forget, Miss Rose Stannus' show is a most interesting one. It will no doubt be an interesting one, for this lady's efforts are highly spoken of wherever she has appeared.

The grain market is duller than it has been for some time. Sixty cents per bushel net is still being paid at the warehouses and mills, however. E. Jacobs desires to close out his house in Jacksonville at the earliest possible moment and consequently has put down prices to 20 per cent. below cost. He means business and also offers his fixtures for sale.

Notwithstanding all the cold weather we thought we had it has not been tight enough to freeze any considerable amount of ice in this vicinity and we will have to depend on other places for our supply next winter.

For the accommodation of taxpayers in Ashland and vicinity, Sheriff Deed will visit that place to-morrow for the purpose of receiving taxes. This will be quite convenient for those who have not paid their quotas as yet.

The interest of the minor heirs of the estate of Wesley Mitchell, deceased, in certain real-estate located near Ashland would suit for sale at the court-house door last Saturday and bid in by J. Abbott for $500.

A map of some of the real estate in Ashland was filed in the office of the county clerk this week. This matter has been referred to the court for its consideration in the transfer of some of the property described on said map.

W. H. Wickham, the well known real-estate agent, has removed his office to the building on Market street, Ashland, where he is always ready to execute all orders in his line. Prompt and careful attention given to all business.

The Chinamen on the railroad work by the hour, getting no less than a day and a half for their services. About three of them do as much work as one good white man, the way they work, but probably they would do more if paid bigger wages.

Several men will sell some real-estate at the court-house door to-morrow afternoon. For further particulars, see advertisements in the 4th page of the Times.

The stage going both north and south of Yreka are now hauled by six-horse teams, and they are the best of the kind to get along over the horrible roads.

A nice line of shoes, buttons and holders of many different styles, (Ladies' and Gents'), neckties, etc., always kept on hand at the S. F. Variety Store.

Pay your subscription to the Times one year in advance and you will get the New York "Star," Detroit "Free Press" or "San Francisco Examiner" extra.

A senate committee reported adversely on the bill to pay B. F. Dowell and heirs of A. G. Gibbs attorney fees for defending Lieut. Goodale years ago at Fort Klamath.

Frank Savage, formerly of Jacksonville, (whose parents now reside at Red Bluff, Cal.) has lost his reason and was recently sent to the insane asylum at Astoria.

Rain or shine, you can always find the fastest teams and best vehicles at Cardwell's livey stable in Jacksonville. Prices reasonable and satisfaction guaranteed.

H. E. Baker & Co. have about 1,000 bushels of wheat in their warehouses at Medford, Central Point and Gold Hill, which will probably be shipped north soon.

Newman Fisher means business and is slaughtering goods on every hand. He wants to close as soon as possible and everything must be sold, without regard to price.

Miss Nettie Starkey of Portland was robbed of her purse on the streets of the metropolis one evening recently, but fortunately it contained only a small sum of money.

The legislature increased the school-tax here one mill, so that hereafter a general tax on the Union livey stable will be levied. This change will no doubt prove popular.

The "Times" says that Joshua Patterson bought about 40 head of cattle of Mr. Mansfield of Talent last week at this place and Medford.

The string flight of drummers seems to have set in, there being no less than twenty in town this week. Cattle are quite cheap this stormy weather and several of those who have hay to spare have purchased quite a number, expecting to realize handsomely upon their investment.

Assessor Childers, who was in town last Friday, informed us of more or less loss of stock in Taliaferro precinct. He has lost 100 head of logs since the beginning of the month.

The job-department of the Times printing establishment is kept busy. It is generally acknowledged that the best printing in the city is done here. We defy competition.

Several inches of snow fell over the valley during the week, in fact more or less of the snow lying in the valley had melted. Not long afterward the rain turned into snow and a few inches fell by morning. Such curious weather puzzles even the old-timers and Medford.

The legislature has not passed a new measure to regulate the liquor traffic, and the Keely law being denied, licenses to retail liquor outside of the incorporated towns will continue under the old law, pending the action of the county commissioners. The license is $100 per annum, or $50 for six months.

The religious meeting which was held at the M. E. church in Jacksonville, has attended and considerable interest manifested. Revs. Shipworth, Roberts and Williams officiated. The meeting will be protracted for several days longer.

Mrs. Hanley and Love last Sunday drove from town to the farm near Applegate to see Stephen's farm near this place. They purchased a large quantity of hay of different parties and also some of the best of the kind in the county. They are feeling many hundred head of cattle on the farm.

Several thousand bushels of grain still remain in the hands of our farmers, which would probably be sold at present figures if it could be bought at a profit. It seems to be a good idea to store the surplus grain or to along the railroad every fall, if sales are not effected at once, as it can then be sold at any time.

In the university at the College of the Pacific, "Grand" is the talk of the day. It is another case of "going away from home to get the news." The news of J. M. Wagner's approaching wedding reached us last week. It is the fact that many of the Episcopians wear such ghoulish faces. We always thought that Marsh was tickle.

The business of the Jacksonville Marble Works will continue to be in the hands of the management of the Messrs. A. H. Magley. Anybody desiring to purchase, monument, stone coping, etc., will find it to their advantage to call on the Marble Works, where they are employed there. The business has been reduced considerably. First-class marble is employed there and the best of work turned out. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Harry McCallen had his horse severely injured while the north-bound train was stopping at Medford. The horse, which was in the act of jumping from the baggage car, when the ring on his fourth leg became fastened on a nail in the floor of the car. He received painful and fatal results attending serious injuries.
