TIMES PRINTING HOUSE,
Jacksonville, Oregon.

Independence Day at Jacksonville.

Preparations are now fully under way for the celebration of the coming 4th of July at Jacksonville; and no doubt one of the grandest and most enjoyable events ever had in southern Oregon is in store for everyone who may attend, and to which the citizens of Jacksonville, extend a cordial invitation to all. The various committees who have the affair in hand are leaving nothing undone to make it a success, and their efforts will certainly be rewarded. The festivities of the day will commence by firing a national salute at sunrise, and at 9:30 o'clock A. M. a grand and beautiful procession will be formed at the Town Hall, headed by the Jacksonville Silver Cornet Band, with many other interesting features. After parading the principal streets, under the direction of Grand Marshal Cronemiller and his aids, the procession will repair to the court-house square, where a splendid programme will be presented, consisting of music, singing, prayer by the chaplain, reading of the Declaration of Independence by Geo. R. Neil, Esq., an oration by Hon. Jas. T. Bowditch, etc., etc. Following this there will be a free dinner spread on the grounds, of which all are invited to partake, when the Jacksonville Silver Cornet Band will furnish some of its choicest music. In the afternoon there will be many ways for the enjoyment of both old and young, for which the amusement committee is making great preparations, and which will occupy the whole of that portion of the day. The whole affair will conclude with a grand free ball at the U. S. hall, neither pains nor expense being spared to make it the ball of the season, and from which none are barred from attending without price. This will end the festivities of the glorious 4th of July at Jacksonville, and those wishing to celebrate Independence Day in grand style should not fail to attend.

New Line of Travel.

The Western Stage Co.'s stages now run regularly between Willow creek, Cal., and Linkville and make good time, connecting regularly with the trains. Chas. Slade, Sell. McCord and Chas. Howard act in the capacity of drivers and give the fullest satisfaction, manipulating the reins over first-class, four-horse stock all the way. Eating stations have been established at Cooley's, at Lennox's, and at Emmitt's, where the best of meals are served. The road is much of an improvement upon that between Ashland and Linkville, but portions of it will be almost impassible in winter, unless it is improved materially. The Stage Co. is giving a superior mail service and will leave nothing undone to please the public.

Children's Day.

The following programme will be rendered at the Methodist church in this place next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M., by the Sunday school children and teachers: 1 prayer; 2 opening song; 3 greeting, John Jeffrey; 4, "Little Folks' Meeting"; 5, solo, "I am Listening," Jennie Booth; 6, scripture lesson, three boys; 7, Faith, Hope and Charity, three girls; 8, singing, by school; 9, recitation, Jennie Booth; 10, "Father, We Thank Thee," four girls; 11 recitation, Flossie Taylor; 12, duet, "Home Beyond," Maud Kress and Carrie Kent; 13 reading, "True Wisdom," Mary Day; 14, "Crown Above the Cross," three girls; 15, address, "The Pocket Book," Carrie Kent; 16, singing by the school.

Another Excellent Proposition.

A movement is on foot to gravel the county road leading to Medford from here, and a subscription list will soon be circulated in both towns. The county commissioners court will donate as much as is subscribed by the citizens—a very liberal proposition—and there is no reason why a neat sum cannot be obtained for this laudable purpose. Next to a railroad, good macadamized roads between the county-seat and the railroad stations are the best means of encouraging traffic. We hope to see everybody subscribe as much as possible for the graveling of our roads. It will certainly be bread cast upon the waters.

Card of Thanks.

The Sisters of St. Mary's Academy desire to express their sincere thanks to the leader and members of the Silver Cornet Band for excellent music rendered, both before and at the close of the commencement exercises; to the different gentlemen who so kindly transported pianos, and to the attentive ushers. They are also under obligation to the "champions of Honor for the use of their carpet, and to Messrs. Linn, Nunan, E. Jacobs and DeRoboam for chairs, etc.

Jacksonville, June 16, 1887.

Gold Bars.

Eight small gold bars, worth about $2000, were displayed in the window of Gove's jewelry store yesterday. They came from Charles Cornelius's Gold Hill mine, and are the first gold bars displayed here for sometime. The sight of them is good for the eyes, and it is to be hoped that before long gold and silver bars will be no uncommon sight around town. When the big smelting works are running full blast, and using up the concentrates from the Coeur d'Alene region, we shall see truck loads of silver bars hauled around the streets here.
—Oregonian.

From Cinnabar.

David Cronemiller and E. D. Brown, a mining expert, returned from the old cinnabar mines in the Siskiyou mountains yesterday, where they have been for the past two weeks. They relocated the claims that were opened several years ago and will do considerable work on them again this summer. Hall, broke jail on Saturday last. In an attempt to get across the Siskiyou mountains he was captured by Deputy Sheriff Crosby yesterday. A good beginning for Dave.

Woodville Items.

Placer mining is about over for the season for want of water.

Fruit trees are making a wonderful growth, proving conclusively that this section of Rogue river valley can hold its own in genuine merit as a fruit country.

The hop yard of C. W. Clark is a model of beauty and thrift which has four acres in it. Messrs. Hutchinson and Hill have also hops in a state of cultivation, but not quite so forward as Clark's.

R. A. Fellows is delivering wood at the railroad. He has a large contract which will take him a month or more to fill. Other parties here also have contracts with the company for wood to be delivered during the summer.

There was a light frost here Wednesday night, the 8th, which nipped the potato tops and other tender plants a very little. Crops are more forward here than in the upper valley. There is sufficient fruit of all kinds for home consumption.
