MEDICAL.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS.

A Scaly, Itching, Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies 28 years ago it would have saved me $200.00 and an immense amount of suffering. My disease commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless, and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I took —— and ——'s Sarsaparilla over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I cannot praise the Cuticura Remedies too much. They have made my skin clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was three boxes of Cuticura, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and two cakes of Cuticura Soap. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00 you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two, "How to cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hand over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a dozen times. Anything more you want to know write me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it. DENNIS DOWNING.
Waterbury, Vt., Jan. 20, 1887.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

Sanford's Radical Cure meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and never failing.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The fourth annual convention for the district comprising Jackson, Klamath and Josephine counties was held in the M. E. Church at Grant's Pass, Thursday and Friday, 7th and 8th. A goodly number of Sabbath school workers were in attendance, and great interest was manifested.

Thursday, Oct. 7th, at 2:30 P. M., the convention was opened by appropriate devotional exercises. The topics for discussion, Our Work, How plant and keep in good growing condition Sunday schools in sparcely settled districts, Teacher, What makes you discouraged, Why are you encouraged, were discussed by Messrs. Billings, Andrus, Boyd, McCain, Satchwell and others, with spirit. Pres. G. F. Billings suggested the necessity of a thorough canvass of the district, and on motion of Rev. J. S. McCain the following committee was appointed to report a plan for the accomplishment of this work: J. S. McCain, G. L. Webb and W. S. Gore. After which a hymn was sung and convention adjourned to 7:30 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The evening session was begun with a service of song, followed by devotional exercises.

The delegates were welcomed by Prof. H. L. Benson in a short, but eloquent address, responded to in a pleasant impromptu speech by Rev. H. P. Satchwell, of Ashland; followed by an excellent address by Rev. Thos. Boyd of Portland, subject, "Give Ye, Them to Eat."

FRIDAY.

The convention was convened at 9:15 A. M., Rev. S. Handsaker conducting devotional exercises.

In the absence of the regular secretary, W. S. Gore was elected to fill the vacancy for the present session. Teachers' Meetings, was generally discussed, but particularly by R. L. Andrus, of N. Y., who is an experienced Sunday school worker, and gave many good suggestions and illustrations of blackboard work. The Review, and How to teach the lesson of Christian giving, were thoroughly discussed.

AFTERNOON.

The convention was opened with the usual devotional exercises, Mr. Andrus leading. The subject of Normal Methods was then discussed at some length by Rev. Thos. Boyd, after which the committee on plan for canvassing the district reported the following:

GRANT'S PASS, OR., Oct 7, 1887.

1. That each Sunday school become pledged to make a monthly contribution of a sum equal to 5c. per member for each pupil on its rolls, for the period of four months, commencing Nov. 1, 1887.

2. That pledges, in any sum, be secured from the church membership to equal, in aggregate, $200, and that pastors of churches and superintendents of Sabbath schools be instructed to procure such pledges, within the time specified.

3. That a board of managers be elected by this convention, consisting of one member from each Protestant denomination having a Sabbath school in this district, to carry out the provisions herein stated and employ a suitable man for traveling agent.

4. That the board of managers be allowed to pay to said agent a salary of $100 per month for services rendered, to be provided for as above.

5. That the President of this convention be instructed to notify the members of the board elected, of their election; and to urge upon them the importance of immediate and energetic action.

REV. J. S. MCCAIN,
G. L. WEBB, } Com.
W. S. GORE,

This plan, after some discussion, was adopted, and on motion the following named persons were elected members of the managing committee: Rev. J. Handsaker, E. E. Gore, Dr. J. S. Walter, G. L. Webb and Mrs. Judge Brower. Later the President of convention was made a member of the managing committee.

The committee on nominations reported the following: President, G. F. Billings; Vice Presidents, for Jackson county, Prof. Watt, of Jacksonville; for Josephine county, H. C. Kinney, of Grant's Pass; for Klamath county, Robt. McLean of Linkville; Secretary, W. S. Gore, Ashland; Treasurer, Charles Nutley, Ashland.

The committee also selected Medford as the place for the next annual meeting of the convention. On motion the report was accepted and the nominees thereby declared elected.

Reports from Sabbath schools show a regular attendance of 1100.

EVENING SESSION.

After devotion, Mr. R. L. Andrus gave an illustration of blackboard work, and methods of teaching, after which the committee on resolutions reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased God in his kind providence to permit so many of us to meet as delegates to this, the fourth annual convention of Sunday school workers of Southern Oregon; and whereas He has in His wisdom and divine economy been pleased to so act upon the minds of the delegates of this convention as to bring about the best plans and methods of carrying on the Sabbath-school work; therefore be it

Resolved, 1. That we not only ourselves but that we encourage all others to acknowledge God as the source of all wisdom and power. Feeling that it has been through his all-prevailing and overruling power, let us renew our consecration to him, and go forth with renewed energy and zeal.

2. And be it further resolved that we tender to Bros. Boyd and Andrus our heartfelt thanks for their many kind suggestions and the light and encouragement they have given us, and our prayer is that they may ever be useful workers in the Master's Kingdom.

3. Be it further resolved that we tender to the O. & C. R. R. our thanks for their generosity in giving us reduced rates to travel.

4. Be it further resolved that we tender to the good people of Grant's Pass our heartfelt thanks for their great kindness and unbounded generosity manifested to us while in their midst.

G. L. WEBB,
MRS. COLEMAN, } Com.
MRS. SATTERFIELD.

Rev. Robt. McLean being present, reported the condition of the work in Klamath county in a short address. After which the convention was closed with a few appropriate remarks by the President, G. F. Billings. All were pleased with the work done, and felt that it would be productive of much good.

W. S. GORE, Sec.

WORTH CONSIDERING.—The following, from a California exchange, is worth considering here: The owner of from 100 to 3,000 acres of land in this township, says the Livermore Herald, who sells from ten to twenty acres of it to an Eastern man within the next two months does a wise thing for himself. First, he interests in his locality a family who have probably a number of friends and relatives who are coming to the State, and will desire to settle near by. Second, the purchaser will build and begin to plant his purchase in vines and fruit. Third, the fact of your selling one piece will advertise the fact that your land is in the market, and that someone wants it, at a higher price than grain-growing would warrant. Or in short the selling of one piece of your land opens the way for the disposal of the remainder, at an advance, and moreover, it keeps people who are looking for homes in this valley, who would otherwise go further. Don't be afraid, then, to sell your land a piece at a time, and at a fair price.

FOUND AT LAST.—After ten year's search, Captain Gee discovered the wreck of the steamer Brother Jonathan, lost twenty-two years ago. The wreck lies two miles south of northwest of a seal rock, eighteen miles northwest of Crescent city. She struck on a rock not down on the chart. The Brother Jonathan sailed from San Francisco on Friday, July 27th, for Oregon and British Columbia. She carried 120 cabin passengers, seventy-two in the steerage and the officers and crew, which numbered fifty. On Sunday, July 30th, when several miles from Crescent City, a violent storm arose, and after vainly striving to make headway against it Captain DeWolf attempted to put back, hoping to secure shelter in the harbor. The vessel, however, struck on a rock and she sank almost immediately. Of her human freight of nearly 250 souls only nineteen were saved in a small boat, which came ashore in charge of the third officer, James Patterson, numbering eleven men, five women and three children. Of the bodies that were drowned only about forty ever came ashore. Since then there have been persistent efforts to locate the wreck on account of the treasure which she was known to have on board; but hitherto all efforts had been unsuccessful.

Wretched, Indeed.

Are those whom a confirmed tendency to biliousness, subject to the various and changeful symptoms indicative of liver complaint. Nausea, sick headache, constipation, furred tongue, an unpleasant breath, a dull or sharp pain in the neighborhood of the affected organ, impurity of the blood and loss of appetite, signalize it as one of the most distressing, as it is one of the most common, of maladies. There is, however, a benign specific for the disease and all its unpleasant manifestations. It is the concurrent testimony of the public and the medical profession, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicine which achieves results speedily felt, thorough and benign. Besides rectifying liver disorders, it invigorates the feeble, conquers kidneys and bladder complaints and hastens the convalescence of those recovering from enfeebling diseases. Moreover, it is the grand specific for fever and ague.

Cure For Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which act directly on the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching and effecting permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, Ohio. Sold at the City Drug Store.

Acker's Blood Elixir is the only Blood Remedy guaranteed. It is a positive cure for Ulcers, Eruptions or Syphilitic Poisoning. It purifies the whole system, and banishes all Rheumatic and Neuralgic pains. We guarantee it. Sold at City Drug Store.

NOTES FROM KLAMATH COUNTY.

Klamath county of late is attracting considerable attention. It has an area of 160 townships, 5760 sections, 3,686,400 acres. Of this forty-eight townships, 1728 sections, 1,105,920 acres, are embraced in the Klamath Indian reservation. When the few hundred Indians there shall have taken allotment in severalty about a million acres of land will be open to the settlers.

The southern and eastern portion of the county is mostly agricultural land, producing without irrigation large yields of winter wheat, fruit and vegetables. The western and northern portions are somewhat mountainous—much of it covered with good pine.

In the northwestern part of the county we find three beautiful mountain lakes, Crescent, Davis and Odell, with an area of about half a township each, and some ten miles distant from each other. Some thirty miles south of these is that wonderful Crater lake (that fathoms 1,990 feet), about eight by four miles in area, with an island a mile or more in length, and nearly as wide, upon which is a mountain with an extinct volcanic peak. During the winter the basin upon the top of this island peak fills with snow and ice, so that for a greater part of summer there is a beautiful little lake at the summit of the island, 1,000 feet above its base. Near the state line, south, is that magnificent body of water, the Upper Klamath, some forty miles in length, and from three to ten miles in width, deep and pure as the snow of the mountains. West of the middle part of this lake some ten miles, and near Mount Pitt, is Lake of the Woods, some eight miles in length and four to five wide. These lakes, all except Crater, abound in fish, and their surroundings are alive with a variety of game. There is beaver and bear, chipmunk and cougar, deer, sage hen and quail; while on the lake are swarms of duck, pelican and wild geese. This county can alone furnish a paradise and profitable employment to a thousand fisherman and hunters.

The principal rivers are the Link and the Klamath, though there are a number of smaller ones, the Sprague, Williamson, Lost and others. The Link is only some twelve miles in length and connects the upper and lower Klamath lakes, the latter lake being mostly in California, extending some seven miles only in Oregon. The Link leaves the Upper Klamath about a mile northwest of the town of Linkville, and falls some sixty-feet in this distance, affording the finest water power in the state, excepting the Cascades of the Columbia, perhaps. The Klamath river leaves the Lower Klamath lake from its west side, some ten miles north of the state line, and running southwest, crosses into California (at Town. 41 S., R. 5. E.), and is crossed by the O. & C. R. R., on an iron bridge, a safe, solid and substantial structure.

The county seat (Linkville), with its unsurpassed water power, fine country and beautiful lakes surrounding it, has prospects as promising as any of the many flourishing villages of the state, has now a population of some 400 live, energetic, industrious and law-abiding people (especially law-abiding since the advent there of County Judge Smith and Judge Bowdoin, who are terrors to transgressors). A first-class hotel, church (Presbyterian), flouring mill, capacity forty barrels a day, about to be doubled; saw-mill capable of cutting 22,000 feet a day; a number of stores with good stocks, drug stores, agricultural implement dealers, etc., etc.

Daily (except Sunday) mail and four-horse coach leaves for and arrives from Ager, a station on the O. & C. R. R., a distance of fifty-seven miles. Tri-weekly stages and mail also run to Fort Klamath and to Lakeview. Next month, when the railroad is completed between Ashland and Tunnel (twelve miles), the time between Portland and Linkville will be reduced to thirty hours.

As we remarked, speaking of soil, most of the land in the eastern and southern parts of the county, is properly agricultural, though now occupied largely by stockmen.

In this county are 320 sections (204,800 acres) of state (school) land to be had at $1 25 per acre, besides the government lands, subject to homestead, preemption and timber claim settlement; also large tracts of pine lands subject to purchase under act of congress of 1878, at $1 25 per acre, affording ample room for thousands of settlers to obtain homes and lands.

The people here are agitating the question of building a railroad down the valley of the Klamath, some fifty-seven miles, a feasible route, to Ager, a station on the O. & C., near where it crosses that river on an iron bridge, a safe, solid structure.

THE RECKLESS DRUMMER.—The arrest of B. F. Mosley, a drummer, at Ashland for embezzling $125 of Ladd & Tilton, did not strike his friends in San Francisco in the nature of a surprise. Mosley has for some-time been living on a higher scale than his salary could afford, and the result, therefore, was partially foreseen. E. Guittard, the dealer in spices, says Mosley had worked in his store for the past eight months, and that until recently he did not suspect that his clerk was a devotee to wine, women and cards. He clothed himself nicely and lived in good style at a fashionable Sutter street boarding house. About two weeks ago he was promoted to the position of traveling salesman, and left for Portland with an ordinary good supply of cash. In three days he called for more, under a plausible pretext; but suspecting that all was not right he was put off with only $25. A few days later the firm received a letter from Portland informing them that the festive drummer had lost money belonging to them at poker. A telegram was at once sent to Mosley informing him of his discharge, and demanding that he return his samples. Nothing was heard from him until a telegram came from Portland bankers, asking if Guittard had issued a letter of credit to Mosley for $125, which they had cashed. A reply in the negative was returned, and Mosley's arrest followed. Since the account of Mosley's shortcomings has been published, certain false entries in his accounts have been discovered. The amount of his defalcation is not yet known.

WE thought the American Army sufficiently disgraced by Mr. and Mrs. Belknap's sale of the post traderships but it seems that we Yankees are just a trifle slow after all. In Paris they have recently unearthed a scandal relative to the sale of the decorations of the Legion of Honor. And this scandal implicates not one or two mendicant clerks in the war department, but a general of high rank. The cross of the Legion is not a costly jewel in a monetary sense; but Frenchmen have perished in the hope of obtaining it, and in the seventy years that elapsed between Austerlitz and Sedan, the bones of 2,000,000 Frenchmen have fertilized the soil of France, Germany and Russia. The man who would sell this decoration to a person unworthy to receive it ought to be bayonetted to death by the widows of the men who fell at Gravelotte and Saarbrucken.

Drunkenness or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For full particulars, address Golden Specific Co., 185 Race St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

IMPORTING PESTS.

The Grant's Pass Courier very properly says that, in view of the rapidly growing fruit industry in southern Oregon, it would be well were more attention given to the matter of insect pests, which constitute the chief drawbacks to fruit-raising in the older sections of the United States. At present we are almost free from these scourges, although reports from towns in this locality shows that the scale bug, codlin moth and other plagues to the fruit grower, have made their appearance. Fruit-growers should carefully watch for the first appearance of these insects and destroy the lava whenever an opportunity occurs.

Those who are planting new orchards should take heed where they obtain their stock. We regret that a large number of our people are ordering stock from sections where the insect pest are the very worst. These trees will probably be brought into the country, planted and will grow up with sufficient insect pests to overrun the whole country.

There is no need for this course. We have in southern Oregon nurseries with abundance of the very best varieties of fruit trees. These trees are acclimated and free from pests, and much more likely to do well in our soil than stock imported from a different soil. The nurseries sell as cheaply, give as good varities, and better satisfaction than those outside the State, and the advantage is decidedly in favor of the patron of home industry in this case.

A law should be passed making it compulsory that every tree imported into the state should be thoroughly disinfected before being admitted. Failing such a law, those who are bound to import their trees should have sufficient patriotism and common sense to their trees purchased in infected districts of California and the Eastern states to a thorough disinfecting of every tree or vine thus imported.

The time to treat insect plagues is in their incipiency, and not after they have obtained such headway as to threaten the destruction of the crops.

If every fruit-grower in southern Oregon were to resolve to use precautions and keep his orchards clean, we would never be subjected to drawbacks which other fruit countries have experienced.

ICE CAVES.—J. H. Mayfield furnishes the Sisson, Cal., Herald with information concerning an ice cave in the southeastern corner of Siskiyou county, as follows: The cave was discovered by Mr. Mayfield about 14 years ago, while hunting for some of his cattle which had strayed away from the band. About eighteen months ago he returned from southern Oregon and settled at the cave, where he proposes to erect, in the near future, a fine slate-stone hotel, provided the slate of that section works to a good advantage. There are three caves connected by apertures leading from one to the other. The first is about thirty feet wide and forty long, the second is somewhat smaller, and the third a little smaller than the second. At any time during the hottest and most sultry weather there is probably never less than one hundred tons of natural ice in sight. The cave is situated only about forty-five miles east of Sisson, and in the lava beds of historical renown. Mr. Mayfield has constructed a wagon road through the lava beds, a distance of about twelve miles, at a cost of about $8,000. During the great Modoc war, the ablest and best experts estimated the cost at from $250,000 to $500,000. Mr. Mayfield attributes his finding of the pass through the beds to the instinct of his lost cattle which he found there fourteen years ago. These ice caves are a freak of nature seldom found, and we bespeak for Mr. Mayfield the patronage of many tourists from this place next summer.

SETTLERS EVICTED IN IOWA AS IN IRELAND.—A Washington special says: "The General Land Office is in receipt of information that a British syndicate, which is said to have purchased a large tract of land in Iowa from the McGregor & Western Railway Company, is mercilessly evicting settlers, the title of the land being in dispute in the State courts. A settler writes that women over sixty years of age, sick in bed, have been taken by six men and carried out into the driving storm. Delicate women have had their hands tied with cords until the flesh was bruised, and then they were dragged shrieking from their homes. Children have been born prematurely at the sight of a band of evictors. Strong men have been run down by ruffians on horseback and then handcuffed and dragged from their little possessions. I might go on to multiply instances where the sheriff with a writ of ejectment in one hand and as a British contract in the other, gave these poor people their choice between these two evils which they would take. Affidavits of cruelty practiced are being collected, says this writer, for use at Washington next winter, and these will be read in both houses of Congress. They are expected to create a sensation when the people of the East are brought fully to realize what native American pioneers are suffering at the hands of invaders.

ONE of our exchanges publishes this very sensible paragraph: "No paper can be published without home patronage, and every man is interested in keeping up a paper. If a railroad or factor is wanted, the newspapers are expected to work for it. If a public meeting is wanted for any purpose, the paper is called on for a free notice. If the charitable societies have a supper or sociable of any kind, the newspaper is always expected to give all the necessary notice and then puff it after it is over. The newspapers must puff the schools and do everything else to advance the interests of the business men of the place, and then give them a handsome notice when they go to heaven. And yet some of them do nothing to keep up a paper."

A Secret Revealed.

A well preserved and delicate complexion is, in the present age of advanced thought and culture, regarded as a mark of refinement. This distinguishable feature of beauty nature has denied ninety-nine women out of every one hundred, but science and art have supplied this deficiency in the production of that delightful toilet article, Wisdom's Robertine, by the careful use of which everyone may possess this—the chief attribute of beauty—a lovely complexion. Wisdom's Robertine is pronounced by ladies of recherche society and the stage the most charming and only innocent beautifier and preserver of the complexion known. Sold by leading druggists at fifty cents per bottle.

Just What they all Say.

Hon. D. D. Haynie, of Salem, Ills., says he uses Dr Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup in his family with the most satisfactory results, in all cases of Coughs, Cold and Croup, and recommends it in particular for the little ones. Sample bottles 5 cents at City Drug Store.
