Excursion Postponed.

Owing to the inclement weather the completion of the railroad has been delayed a few days. About 100 men are employed in laying the track towards Ashland, and these, with a small force of carpenters enplacing the stringers across culverts, comprise the entire remnant of the army of 3000 or more who populated the railway line across the Siskiyous last summer. A water tank is being built at the third crossing of the stage road from the summit com ing north. This delay necessarily postpones the proposed excursion from San Francis co to Portland Under the new "time card" the visitors will be through with the ceremonies at Ashland about 3 P. M., Tuesday, the 13th instant. Presumably every one will have a desire to see the Rogue river, Umpqua and Wil amette valleys. This can be done only in daylight, and the days just now are not at their longest The train will probably leave Ashland at 7 A. M. Wednesday and run as far as Euene where the right will be grent; teave Eugene at 7 A. M. and reach Portland early in the afternoon of Thursday, December 15. This is not an official notice, but is given as a 'good guess' on the matter.

District Attorney Colvig has made a mo tion to dismiss the indictments against Audrew Hamlin and M. Dennis, and Judge Webster has taken it and also the moti made by Hamlin's attorneys for a change of venue under advisement. Mr. C. bases his grounds for asking a dismissal princi pally upon the fact that there is no prece dent for again trying a case which two juries had already failed to decide, and that, as the witnesses for the prosecution are scattered in many directions, it would be next to impossible to secure their attendtherefore deems it doubtfut whether conviction could be had Under such circumstruces, it seems to be the opinion of the great majority that further prosecution of the cases mentioned would be useless and not warrant the great expense attendant The district attorney is determined to do his duty on all occasions and allows no one to dictate his course or buildage nim in any particular.

Term Closed.

Prof. La France's dancing-school in this place closed last Tuesday evening, to the regret of his many pupils. We are satisfied that it he should conclude to teach an other term he would not only be patron ized by his former patrons but by many others. Not only did Prof. La France teach all the latest and most difficuldances, but he taught them well and in such a manner that even the most awk stand them.
