Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Rhaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal cataerh. My family physician gave me up as meurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent." I'AIN DESTROYER Hemorrhages. Bleeding from the "Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

Sores, Ulcers, Wounds, Thomas J. Rushing, Esq., 2903 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was consumity hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckly, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh new manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair triad tree, and one has only to give it a fair triad to experience astounding results and Sprains & Bruises.

ONE LITTLE MAID AT SCHOOL. - 4 30
One little maid at school is she,
Only a schoolgirl, don't you see,
And little she knows, I must agree,
This little girl at school.
Lessons and teachers all the day.

This dear little girl in arithmetic?
Away with it all to the very old Nick!
This little girl from school.
Needs nothing of figures, she whose own is the lovelest figure ever grown,
Or painted on cloth, or cut on stone,
Rare little girl at school!

She's rather weak in geography;
"How funny," she said, one day to me,
"The equator must look on top of the sea,"
Sad little girl at school!
But what is the earth, I'd like to know.
That she need thought on the thing bestow!
"Tis enough if she touch it with her toe,
Gay little girl at school!

Her writing looks like the wild Chinese.
That comes on a box of China tens.
Or just like a clothesline in a breeze—
Poor little girl at school!
She has tried those wayward strokes to train,
But she gives herself but needless pain;
How could such a pretty hand be plain?
Fair littlegirl at school! What if her French and German, too, Would turn a French or German blue? And her Latin prose is Greek to you, Droll little girl at school?

I'm contented quite. I must confess.
If, when for an answer! shall press,
She knows enough English to tell me "yes,"
My little girl at school! One little maid at school is she There's just one thing she would learn from This little maid at school! here's just one word I would teach until it's meaning sweet all her heart will fill. That's what I would—and that's what I will. You dear little girl at school!
