A RAILROAD between Roseburg and Port Orford is again talked of. It will be built in the near future, as it is a feasible project.

ROSCOE CONKLING of New York, one of the greatest Republican statesmen of the present day, died last Wednesday morning, after a lingering illness.

THE semi-annual exhibit of the county finances will be found in another column, and is a favorable one, notwithstanding the great amount of criminal business which presented itself during the past year.

THE Republicans do not take kindly to St. John, the great Prohibitionist, who is now lecturing in Oregon. At Salem, despite the bitter prejudice that made rotten eggs, hissing and hooting of St. John seriously talked of at first, he had large crowds in the opera house to his temperance meetings. The W. C. T. U. gave a fine public reception in the afternoon, with an address from him. People came in from distances of ten to thirty miles to hear him.

JUDGE GEORGE C. BARRETT of the supreme court, New York, before whom the "boodle" aldermen and Jacob Sharp were tried, has written an article on the "Miscarriages of Justice," which will appear in the Forum for May. The same number will contain "Obstacles to Good City Government," by ex-Mayor Seth Low of Brooklyn; "Appropriations for Public Works," by Senator S. M. Cullom; and a strong article by Michael Davitt, on "Irish Landlordism."

THE recent advance in the wheat market is engaging the attention of business men. There has been more activity at the S. F. produce exchange and the call board within the last few days than for six months past. The Nevada bank people are supposed to have closed out all wheat forced upon their hands last year, and their losses are not so heavy as was at first estimated. The barley market has shown more life within the last day or two, in sympathy with speculation in wheat.

THE collapse of the San Diego boom, and the subsidence of that at Los Angeles and surrounding country, have caused lumber merchants here to anticipate a dull season this winter. During the last two years the demand for pine and redwood delivered at San Pedro and San Diego has been something enormous. Leading operators have sent millions of feet of lumber to the south every week. To-day the situation is different. Back orders are filled up, and while the demand for lumber is still large, it is becoming smaller every day.

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE representatives have notified the Speaker of their intention to make speeches on the subject. It is to be hoped that one-half of this number will be satisfied to print their speeches in the Record, and not occupy the time of the house by reading them. The position of the two parties, so far as the political side of the controversy is involved, is this: The Democrats want to pass a tariff bill before the national convention of the party meets in St. Louis, on the 5th of June. The Republicans desire to prevent any action on the bill in the house prior to that time.

LAST Sunday, in San Francisco, while C. D. Faling and Mrs. Ida Carroll were riding down Taylor street, Faling's wife fired from the street four shots at them, one taking effect in Faling's groin and one grazing the woman's head. Neither wound is considered dangerous. The wife, from whom he has been separated for four years, alleges for the cause of the shooting that Faling has taken her property and spent it in living a fast life. Faling is a telegraph operator and was formerly employed as train dispatcher at Portland. He is also well-known in southern Oregon as a bad man.

LATER.—Since the above was in type Faling died at the hospital. It was first thought the wound would not prove fatal, but his physicians discovered that he was addicted to the morphine habit, and the severe shock hastened his death.

THE renomination of Hon. E. P. Coleman of Lane county for the State senate is a matter of general congratulation for the Democracy of the entire State and means his re-election. Mr. Coleman may be said to be a stick of Oregon timber, having come to the territory a mere child in 1853 and settled with his parents on a farm in Lane county, in which he has resided ever since. He is a man whose very soul would sicken under a sense of personal dishonor, is firm and uncompromising, yet always affable and kind to his opponents; hence he commands their respect and admiration. Time and time again has he refused to accept lucrative offices of honor and trust, always preferring to work in the ranks than to be a candidate. Four years ago he was induced to accept the nomination as the standard-bearer of the Democracy of Lane county for the State senate, and was triumphantly elected. His record in the legislature was pure and spotless, the reward of which his friends ask him to lead them to victory again. Now, let the Republicans put out their best man and it is a good two-to-one bet that Hon. E. P. knocks him through the ropes in one round.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE platform adopted at the late Republican convention voiced no sentiment other than opposition to Cleveland. It calls to mind the shibboleth of "Anything to beat Grant."

THE S. F. Examiner inquires why Congress has taken no action on Cleveland's message regarding the Oregon wagon-road frauds? Perhaps, because as stated by the Wasco Sun, Senator Dolph is interested in The Dalles military wagon-road.

A PROPOSITION is on foot for the erection of a woolen mill at Redding, which is the shipping point for large quantities of the wool clip of Modoc and Lassen counties and southeastern Oregon, and has an abundant water power for manufacturing purposes. It is expected that a company will be formed with $100,000 capital, half paid up.

A LARGE number of opinions furnished by prominent Republicans in Maine and New England were published this week. They express a belief that nothing can prevent the nomination of Blaine, and that his name will be carried by storm through the convention, and that his arrival will be the start of a hurrah that will keep up during the entire campaign.

THE President has not appointed a successor to the late Chief Justice Waite as yet. We hope that he will not nominate that fast friend of the corporations, Judge Field, to the position. Besides, the new chief justice should not be so old a man as he is. We are in favor of Hon. John G. Carlisle of Kentucky, if he can be spared from the ranks of the revenue reformers.

KLAMATH COUNTY POLITICS.

The recent Democratic convention for Klamath county placed in the field an excellent ticket, one which is composed of men who are well qualified for the several offices and whose integrity is above reproach. Everyone of them should be elected, and doubtless they will be.

There is no doubt of the re-election of Sheriff Childers, for he has made a first-class, accommodating official. His majority will be larger than anybody else's, although he is running against a good man.

N. F. Hildebrand will make an excellent county judge. He is well acquainted with the wants of the county, is a good business man and has the necessary qualifications.

Will. Smith, for county clerk, is a nomination complimentary to the young men of Klamath county, he having risen into manhood there. He is well qualified, and will make a clever, reliable officer.

W. C. Crawford and N. S. Goodlow are the nominees for county commissioners. They are known to be safe and successful business men, just what the county needs to look after its affairs.

There is no person in the county who is better acquainted with the value of all kinds of property than John Smart. He will make an excellent assessor and will give everybody their just dues.

The nomination of Chas. Graves for treasurer is one of the very best. He combines all the qualifications necessary for the successful performance of the duties of the office, and none are more reliable than he.

We can vouch for P. L. Fountain, the nominee for superintendent. He has a first-class reputation as a school teacher in southern Oregon, who knows what the duties of the position are, and will fulfill them well and acceptably to all.

J. B. Griffith is a good surveyor, and no one is more able to hold an inquest on the Republican corpse on June 5th than J. T. Forbes.

KLAMATH COUNTY ITEMS.

Health never was better in this section.

Vote the Democratic ticket and be happy.

Our merchants are receiving heaps of new goods.

The foundation of our new court house is almost complete.

The infant son of Milton Stout of Lost river died last week.

Samuel Parker and family have returned from California.

Several of Linkville's young bloods are taking lessons in boxing.

A number of real-estate transactions are taking place regularly.

J. D. Fountain of Ashland is looking after his mercantile interests here.

I. D. Applegate's family have returned from their visit to California.

Miss Victoria McClellan returned from her trip to California a few days ago.

Wm. Dennis is now a resident of Montana and will soon be joined by his wife.

Miss Edith Crouch, a teacher of ability, is in charge of the Bonanza school.

Mrs. Ella Sulzberger, who returned from California not long since, is quite sick.

A number of new county bridges will be built this year. They are needed badly.

Leslie Stidham has returned from a visit to his former home in Jackson county.

Seth Cox and wife of Butte creek valley, Cal., are visiting relatives and friends here.

R. S. Belknap, formerly of Bly, has sold out at Seattle, W. T., and sailed for other parts.

The different saw-mills in this county have started up and are turning out large quantities of lumber.

New business enterprises are springing up on every hand. We are on the eve of great prosperity.

A great many improvements are under way and this section will make much progress during the year.

Mr. Shives is constructing a large livery and feed stable at Keno, which town is improving steadily.

The citizens of Keno have already announced that they will celebrate the Fourth of July appropriately.

Clerk Hale will receive bids until May 9th for the building of a bridge across Lost river, at or near Bonanza.

Robert and Henry Dewitt of Yreka, Cal., who have been visiting this section, returned home a few days since.

Little Cora, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Clyman, died at Linkville a short time since, aged one year and five months.

Miss Martha Smith, Linkville's new postmistress, will assume charge of postal affairs at the county-seat in a very short time.

S. J. Studley is the Republican candidate for joint representative from Klamath and Lake counties. Steve Moss will beat him 150 votes.

Geo. T. Baldwin and Sheriff Childers have gone to Portland and will visit San Francisco before returning. We wish them a pleasant trip.

Mrs. E. E. Heidrich of Linkville is desirous of selling the property belonging to the estate of her deceased husband, including the real-estate.

Ira Johnson returned to Jackson county, from his visit to Illinois, last week, and is expected home to-day. He looks as if his trip agreed with him.

Newcomers continue numerous, many of whom settle here. Our population has increased considerably during the past two years, and we may look for a much larger vote than in 1886.

W. T. Butcher of Siskiyou county, Cal., and Miss Mary Uerlings have been engaged to teach the Linkville school. Both are first-class teachers, and will no doubt give the fullest satisfaction.

The Republican convention of Klamath county met in Linkville and placed the following ticket in nomination: For county judge, W. S. Moore; county clerk, A. L. Leavitt; sheriff, Ira C. Johnson; assessor, J. O. Hamaker; treasurer, W. C. Hale; county commissioners, L. B. Kester and W. B. Grubb; school superintendent, W. S. Orr; county surveyor, S. B. Low. W. C. Hale, J. W. Hamaker and L. B. Applegate were elected delegates to the state convention.

The Democratic ticket is composed of first-class candidates, who are honest and well-qualified for the positions they aspire to. They should be elected, and we confidently expect that they will be.

The old parties have placed their candidates for county offices in the field, and have generally made good selections. It is said that a number of soreheads purpose placing a third ticket in the field.

J. T. Forbes, the clever mixologist, gracefully declines the office of coroner, which the Democrats desire to thrust upon him, in favor of Dr. Henry Kessler, who would fill the position quite creditably.

The boring of artesian wells will be attempted in different portions of the county this season. Judge Smith has leased Alcott & Harris' machinery for the purpose of experimenting on Lost river.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Little Klamath Water Ditch Company, an assessment of 10 cents per share was levied on the subscribed stock of the company, payable on or before May 15, 1888.

Jas. F. Kertchem of Linkville, one of the liveliest Democrats in this section, and who attended the Democratic State convention, was appointed the member of the Democratic State central committee for this county.

The Republicans of this county have purchased a column of the Star, in which to present the merits of their candidates and party. The Democrats will be represented by the TIMES, which has a large circulation in this section.

We have been informed that R. B. Hatton and Chas. Nickell have consolidated, and will move the Oregon Sentinel plant to Linkville and publish a Democratic paper. In giving publicity to this, the editor of the Star evinces that he is "a leedle oph," as usual.

The young grain throughout the county is looking well, but rain would be of much benefit, says the Star. The cold nights which have been predominant for the past week have not done any injury to the grain so far as we can learn, other than retarding its growth. A good rain followed by warm nights would assure the farmers large crops.

J. H. Oatman, having purchased Hamaker's store at Bonanza, will fill it with a first-class stock of goods at once. Jas. Morton, the manager, has just been at Portland, where he purchased one of the best assortments of general merchandise ever brought to Klamath county. He is known as a clever and reliable business man, and will no doubt give satisfaction. See the advertisement elsewhere.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY NEWS.

Jas. Turnbull of Althouse is quite ill at Grant's Pass.

Elder Peterson will preach at Grant's Pass on the 29th.

Sol. Abraham of Roseburg was here a few days since.

Wilber Williams has gone to Coquille river, Coos county.

Frank Strong is now a clerk for Wimer Bros. at Waldo.

David Briggs and family have returned from Del Norte county, Cal.

Mrs. Ruby Rice is putting up another hotel building at Grant's Pass.

Mr. Triplett, a pioneer of this section, died at the county hospital last week.

Street Commissioner Smith of Grant's Pass is doing good work on the streets.

The county commissioners have reduced the bounty on cayote scalps to $2 50 each.

L. N. Browning has been appointed administrator of the estate of E. G. Browning, deceased.

The Kerbyville ditch company is making preparations to extend their ditch quite a distance.

Mrs. W. M. Turner, after a pleasant visit to friends at Medford, has returned to her home in this county.

We are glad to notice that our county commissioners are taking such a lively interest in road and bridge matters.

Ward Douglas, special agent for the New York Life Insurance Co., is writing a number of policies in this section.

Messrs. Miller, Decker, Wilson and Morrison, who attended the Republican State convention, have returned home.

I. A. Conklin of New York is visiting his brother Arthur Conklin of Grant's Pass. He is well pleased with this section.

Prof. Miller, the Prohibition candidate for congressman, spoke to a good-sized audience in Grant's Pass one day last week.

R. P. George, one of Kerbyville's leading business men, was at the county-seat a short time since. He keeps a first-class saloon.

Mr. Adams, brother of A. J. Adams of Kerbyville precinct, has arrived from Dakota, accompanied by his family, and will locate.

The Democratic primaries last Saturday were well attended and good men were elected as delegates to the county convention.

The Presbyterians will soon commence the erection of a church building at Grant's Pass, having already secured the necessary lots.

Chas. K. Chanslor has been appointed a member of the Democratic State central committee for this county, which is a good appointment.

Delinquent taxpayers will find it to their advantage to settle at once as Sheriff Patterson must make his settlement at the next term of court.

D. G. Davis has gone to Walla Walla, W. T., where he will engage in the stock business with his brother Frank. We wish him success.

The Democratic county convention meets at Wilderville to-morrow. It is to be hoped that good, unobjectionable men will be nominated, as they can be elected.

Democrats, be careful whom you nominate as your candidate for Representative, for Democratic ascendancy in the U. S. Senate may hinge upon this one vote. Select some popular and reliable an, mfor you can elect him.

The Republican ticket, although generally composed of good men, is objectionable in many instances, and is not meeting with hearty support. It is the general opinion that most if not all, of their Democratic competitors will be elected.

We are sorry to announce the death of Elder E. G. Browning of Grave creek, one of the pioneer residents of southern Oregon, and a gentleman who was highly respected by all. He died at the residence of Mrs. J. S. Dunivan of Myrtle creek, one of his daughters, on the 23d ult., while en route home from the Willamette valley.

Our Williams creek correspondent writes under date of the 15th: The Democratic primaries were held in Williamsburg precinct April 14th. On motion James O. McGee was called to the chair and J. N. Gotcher acted as clerk. The following named delegates were elected to attend the county convention at Wilderville on April 21st: J. O. McGee, M. F. Baldwin, C. C. Goodwin and H. H. Sparlin.... A fellow living in this section returned home from Grant's Pass a few days ago in an intoxicated condition and went to the house of John Haulcum, who was absent at the time, but raised a row with Mrs. H., broke the sewing-machine and did other damage to the furniture, for which he got a free ride to Grant's Pass and is now boarding at Hotel de Patterson.

THE GREAT QUESTION.

The surplus and tariff questions are uppermost in the minds of the people and will continue so until definitely settled. In the debate now going on in the U. S. Senate, Senator Coke, speaking of the surplus of $147,000,000 in the treasury, said that the causes which took that money needlessly from the pockets of the people and the channels of trade were continuing, and produced more aggravated results each successive year. Unless the causes were removed or modified, a calamity, fatally involving all the industrial interests of the country, must follow. In view of this emergency the President had urgently recommended such revision of the tariff and reduction of the duties on imports as would reduce the revenues to the limit required for the support of the government. The President was simply voicing the demand that came from the people of the whole country. Consumers did not complain of the tax on distilled spirits, malt liquors and tobacco, as that tax added nothing to the cost of living, and it was not strange that the President should recommend its retention, and that the necessary reduction of revenue be made by cutting down tariff taxes. If the reduction should be made in this way $5 of the tribute paid by the people to the manufacturers would be cut off for every dollar cut off from the revenue.

High tariff, it was claimed, was demanded on the ground of the necessity of protecting American labor against European pauper competition. A more false, heartless and groundless pretext had never been invented to justify or cover up a great wrong. It was on the farmers of the country that the protective tariff fell with the most crushing weight.

Wool should be placed on the free list, but it ought to be done in the interest of the consumer, not of the manufacturer. To allow the manufacturer of free, untaxed wool 40 or 50 per cent, protection for the manufactured article would be an outrage.

Sugar is the best revenue-paying item on the tariff list, and one carrying with it less of incidental burden than any other, and it would therefore be wise to leave the duty on sugar as it was.

The attention of the people could not be diverted from the real question at issue. A sectional "bloody shirt" canvass had already been commenced by the Republican party, for the purpose of blinding the people with passion, so that they might not see how and by whom they were being plundered.

A Great Battle

Is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave. A good, reliable medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla is the weapon with which to defend one's self, drive the desperate enemy from the field, and restore peace and bodily health for many years. Try this peculiar medicine.

Michigan's Claims as a Champion Winner

Michigan can now justly claim to be champion State prize winner in the Louisiana State Lottery. Within the past year and a half Muskegon, through Chas. J. Hermann and Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Campbell has personally collected capital prizes, while Detroit, Grand Rapids and other places have drawn through banks and express companies. Messrs. Godard and Mock of East Saginaw left for home last Wednesday, thoroughly satisfied with their visit to the land of fortune and flowers.—New Orleans (La.) Picayune, March 21.

At Night always have Acker's Baby Soother at hand. It is the only safe medicine yet made that will remove all infantile disorders. It contains no Opium or Morphine, but gives the child natural ease from pain. Price 25 cents. Sold by City Drug Store.

Fishing Tackle, Hardware, Paints, Oils, Varnish, Glass, Cutlery, Etc.,

Jacksonville, Oregon.

HAVING FAILED TO CLOSE OUT MY BUSiness in Jacksonville, as I had wished to do, I have concluded to continue the same on a larger scale than ever. I was in San Francisco recently, where I laid in one of the largest and best stocks of all kinds of Firearms, Ammunition, Cutlery, Hardware and Sporting Goods ever brought to this market. Goods sold at the lowest possible prices.

I will guarantee these Goods to be just what I represent them to be. Being thankful to my old customers for their past patronage so liberally bestowed, I would respectfully solicit a continuance of the same.
