ONE way the Republican papers put it: "New York, New Jersey, Oregon and the solid South will elect Cleveland."

DISTRICT ATTORNEY COLVIG has once more been victorious, the supreme court having decided the case brought against him by Klamath county in his favor.

BINGER HERMANN wants a third term in Congress. Let Mr. Hermann render an accounting of his stewardship for the two terms already served.—Salem Vidette.

UNCLE JESSE APPLEGATE died Monday night at his son Alexander's house in Huntington valley, near Yoncalla. He was laughing and talking, and all at once fell back in his chair dead.

OMAHA Herald: The Democrats of Oregon were counted to denounce the President's wool policy. They did exactly the contrary, and there is the sound of weeping in the high-tax camp.

EX-SENATOR WILLIAM H. BARNUM, of New York, chairman of the Democratic national committee, says Cleveland will be renominated by acclamation. There will be no other name presented or thought of.

IN 1850 the farmers of the United States owned 65 per cent. of the entire wealth of the country; in 1870, under the high war tariff, they owned 38 per cent., and in 1880 they represented but 27 per cent. Let Republicans seers tell the reason of this.

GOV. PENNOYER will accompany John M. Gearin on his political canvass and make speeches with him to the Democracy in some portions of the State. The Governor is filled with the right spirit and genuine color.

What a pity it is that Binger Hermann is not here to make a joint canvass with Mr. Gearin. He would be fairly pulverized by his Democratic opponent, and no doubt he is happy that he has a convenient excuse to stay away.

THE fact that John P. Irish will stump Oregon for the Democratic party has caused much alarm in the Republican camp, and it is now reported that John F. Swift of California has been prevailed upon to follow Mr. Irish. We would like to see the two men meet in joint debate.

THE Louisiana State election, held one day last last week, resulted in a signal Democratic victory, notwithstanding great party dissensions. The majority runs away up in the tens of thousands, and gives the bloody-shirt argument of the Republican orators and press a very black eye.

C. B. CARLISLE, who left the secretaryship of the board of immigration at Portland, for the board's benefit, and to run Chas. Nickell's TIMES out of southern Oregon with his journalistic miscarriage yclept the Medford Transcript, has disposed of his bantling $250, and left the State.—Sunday Welcome.

HON. JOHN M. GEARIN, Democratic candidate for Congress, will speak in this section at the following times and places: At Grant's Pass, Tuesday, May 15th, at 2 o'clock P. M.; Ashland, Wednesday, May 16th., at 1:30 o'clock P. M.; Jacksonville, Wednesday, May 16th., at 8 o'clock P. M. Let none who have an opportunity fail to hear Oregon's next Congressman discuss the political issues of the day.

WHILE Mr. John M. Gearin is not lacking Republican friends in Portland who will vote for him on purely personal grounds, he has a host of Republican admirers, especially among the younger members, who know his ability and the benefit of so energetic a worker would be to this city if in Congress. Mr. Hermann is in serious danger of being slaughtered in Multnomah, the house of his friends, says the Welcome.

IN an interview with a San Francisco reporter, on his return from Portland last week, General Manager Towne of the Southern Pacific, spoke most encouragingly of Oregon and her prospects. He stated that rapid progress is being made in ballasting the C. & O. R. R., five gravel trains being constantly employed. As soon as the road is in condition for fast time, the proposed new through San Francisco-Portland express will be put on.

As we long ago predicted, the differences between President Cleveland and Gov. Hill of New York existed only in the fertile imaginations of Republican editors. The wish was father to the thought. In a recent interview with one of his strongest advocates Gov. Hill said that he was not only not a candidate for president, but that he would be willing to head a Cleveland delegation from New York State. Mr. Cleveland will receive the unanimous nomination from the hands of the Democratic national convention, and will be triumphantly elected.

KLAMATH COUNTY ITEMS.

Base-ball is again an absorbing topic.

The Linkville public school is in session.

Geese are very plentiful, on their way north.

Supervisor Shallock is improving the roads.

W. J. Paul of Yreka, Cal., has been here on business.

J. H. Colahan has recovered from his recent spell of sickness.

O. A. Steans, the new postmaster of Plevna, has taken charge of the office.

Fat beef is already plentiful in this section, which is much earlier than usual.

We are needing rain very much, which will be needed soon to ensure our crops.

Rev. Robert McLean has returned from Grant's Pass and will stay awhile.

Fresh butter is quoted at 37½ cents a pound in this market, and is scarce at that.

Wallace Baldwin, Sr., of Linkville has been in Rogue river valley on a visit, recently.

A. H. Mack had his leg cut severely at Dollarhide's saw-mill near Ashland not long since.

Gen. John F. Miller, a veteran of the Mexican war, has been granted a well-deserved pension.

The Democratic ticket is gaining strength every day, and will be elected by a neat majority.

W. C. Hale and J. W. Hamaker, who attended the Republican State convention, have returned.

In less than six weeks our circuit court will again be in session. The docket promises to be very light.

S. W. Kilgore has returned to Langell valley with a band of fine horses he purchased in Jackson county.

S. B. Cranston has been appointed attorney for the board of State Land Commissioners vice J. W. Hamaker.

Misses Martha Ober and Florence Dutro of Ashland, practical dressmakers, will spend sometime at Linkville.

Sheriff Childers and Treasurer Baldwin are expected home from their trip to Portland and San Francisco this week.

The new steamboat is nearing completion. She has been brought to Linkville, where the finishing touches will be put on.

Rev. F. S. Noel of Jacksonville, the new Catholic minister, will make a pastoral tour to southeastern Oregon next week.

I. C. Johnson is circulating among the voters. Ira is a good-natured individual and will take his defeat on June 5th without flinching.

Frank Miner, formerly of Plevna, and a first-class salesman, has returned from Yreka, Cal., and is employed at the Red House, Linkville.

Water is running through the big Klamath water ditch, and, should the weather continue warm, there will be much demand for it.

Cogswell & Hale, our new firm, are having the building formerly occupied by Ralph Roberts, at Linkville, fitted up neatly for a law office.

The mail for this section does not connect at Ager railroad station, and much complaint is found in consequence. This defect should be remedied.

A stage route will be established from Montague, via Ball's, through Butte creek valley to Keno. We understand stages will be running shortly.

Dr. I. A. Chastain, an excellent physician, announces that he will practice his profession at Bonanza. He has a good reputation in southern Oregon.

Wallace Neuman, who has been at Plevna for sometime, has removed to Linkville and formed a partnership in the blacksmithing business with W. D. Woodcock.

Geo. W. Stephenson and wife of Ashland are visiting this county and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Brown, their relatives. Mr. S. may invest in a few good horses while here.

Klamath county is fast taking its place in the front rank of Oregon's counties. Its population is increasing fast and its diversified resources are rapidly being developed. No other region has a brighter outlook than ours.

The case of Klamath county vs. District Attorney Colvig, to recover the fees paid him ($600) by order of Judge Webster, for collecting Fritz Munz' bail bond, and which was appealed to the supreme court, was decided in favor of Mr. Colvig. It should never have been commenced.

Frank Mott was accidentally shot in the breast while at work in J. T. Forbes' garden at Linkville. The bullet has not been found as yet, but the wound is not considered dangerous. Somebody will yet be killed by this careless handling of firearms.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY NEWS.

Hurrah for the Democratic ticket!

W. N. Hamilton of Wolf creek, has been paying Jackson county a visit.

In the next issue the TIMES will review the candidates on the Democratic ticket.

The old wagon road between Waldo and Smith river, Cal., is being put in repair.

"A splendid ticket," is the general opinion of the ticket nominated last Saturday.

David Bunch has removed from Kerbyville precinct to Looking-glass, Douglas county.

We had some rain during the week which was highly beneficial, as some of the crops needed it.

Our candidates are now in the field and every Democrat should do his best to see that they are elected by good majorities.

Jas. Wheeler, the clever railroad engineer, was in East Portland during the past week, to attend the funeral of Auntie Frush.

The case of L. Leonard vs. Beach & Platter was yesterday argued at Chambers in Jacksonville by Judge Prim and C. W. Kahler.

The Democratic ticket gives general satisfaction and will be elected. Every nominee is a good, capable man, and deserving of political preferment.

A lady resident of Kerbyville precinct attempted suicide a few days ago by taking poison. Prompt relief prevented her from accomplishing the deed.

Arthur Conklin, junior member of the enterprising real-estate firm of Smith & Conklin, is in California on business. His visit will no doubt be of much benefit to Grant's Pass and Josephine county, as he understands the business.

A Kerbyville correspondent of the TIMES writes under a late date: Crops are looking fairly in this part of the county, as it has been raining some.... S. White of Canyon creek was in town lately, showing a nice little piece of gold, which he picked up in his claim. It weighs $4 50 ....Sam Ayers was here last week with a lot of fine horses, en route for Eureka, Cal., where he resides. His father went with him.

A FATAL CONFESSION.

The following letter, written by Congressman Binger Hermann and apparently intended for Edward McPherson of Washington D. C., the secretary of the Republican National Committee, was with absent-mindedness addressed by the gentleman who seeks to succeed himself to Edward McPherson of Salem, Oregon, and by him made public. The screed will well repay careful perusal:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON, D. C.,
April 6, 1888.

Hon. Edward McPherson, Dear Sir: Many of our people are feeling very sore over the long delay in the matter of the payment of that $1,000 advanced by Hon. Joseph Simon, of Portland, Oregon, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee at our last election, on the sixty days, promise from you as to payment. Nearly two years have elapsed. They are out the principal and interest. The Senators as well as myself, who were parties in some sense, are appealed to by Mr. Simon and his friends, who think great injustice has been done him. We cannot afford to have any misunderstanding at this time in Oregon, as at the best we shall have a narrow escape from defeat, if we do not suffer it. Our election on the 14th of June involves the election directly of one Senator and indirectly of the other, and of my successor, in Oregon who is to be voted for at that time. Oregon is in danger.

* * * * * *

The Democratic State Convention has met and put in the field a strong ticket. The Prohibitionists have also assembled in large and respectable numbers. They have presented a full ticket and on it are excellent men. Their candidate for Congress is an able man and will address the people of the State. Besides this they have legislative tickets in all the Republican counties and in some Democratic counties. You will observe from this that the Republican State and electoral ticket in Oregon is in peril.

Yours truly,
BINGER HERMANN.

THE "SOLID SOUTH" AGAIN.

The increased Democratic majority has set all the sectional organs going again on the "Solid South." But what is there wrong in a solid South any more than in a solid West, or a solid North? Is political unity a crime? If so, what becomes of the organization of party? It will not be seriously contended, we suppose, that the Democratic party has not as much right to organize as the Republican; and if, in its organization, it can wheel the Southern States into the Democratic line, what wrong is done? Is the South to be disfranchised because it does not approve the Republican party or indorse its policy? And if it is not to be disfranchised as a penalty for its political consistency, why raise an outcry about it? The South is "solid" because it adheres to Democratic principles as it has a constitutional right to do. Should it ever change its principles and join the Republican party, much as the Democracy might regret the defection, it would not question the right of any State, left to its own free will and pleasure, to vote the Republican ticket.—Examiner.

"A DEAR-CLOTHES and cheap-drunk platform" is what the Chicago Tribune calls that of the Republican party—to lessen the tax on whisky and keep it up on clothing.
