Far from Home.

In the hope of alleviating the suffering of a loving wife and mother, Hon. T. R. North and family of Adel, Iowa, came to Rogue river valley last week. The mother, Mrs. N. E. North, was stricken with consumption some three months ago at her Iowa home, and her life was despaired of before leaving there. She expressed such a longing to try the effect of a removal to the Pacific coast, however, that the attending physicians, in the vain hope that nature could stay the course of the disease where science failed, advised her family to accede to her wish. She survived but a few days after her arrival at Medford, and, though dying among strangers, had her family about her in the last dark hour. Her death occurred on Thursday, October 25th, at 1:35 P. M., at the residence of Hon. J. D. Whitman in Medford, and her remains were interred in the beautiful Jacksonville cemetery on Sunday afternoon, Rev. R. McLean officiating, assisted by Rev. J. W. Miller. Deceased was born in Illinois Aug. 24, 1848, and was married to T. R. North at Adel, Iowa, Dec. 31, 1864. Her husband and six children survive her; the youngest child an infant of two years. The bereaved family have the sympathy of our people, and will probably remain permanently in Jackson county.

Geological Surveys.

Two parties have been engaged in triangulating and collecting data for the U. S. geological survey of southern Oregon this summer, and both disbanded at Riddle station in Douglas county last week. Each party consisted of five men under the superintendency of an expert; one party operating in the lower Rogue river and coast country, and the other working down from Crater lake through the south Umpqua valley. G. H. Griswold's party have been in the field since about May 15th, and confined themselves to the Illinois river valley, the lower Rogue river country down as far as Chetco harbor, and the mountain district between Ellensburg and Riddles. Monroe Sonnichsen of Ashland and John Armstrong of Jacksonville were with his party. He and Mr. Perkins, who had charge of the Umpqua divide corps, will both resume operations at Riddles again about May 1, 1889. It is estimated that it will take, at present rate of progress, a number of years to complete the survey and issue the geological map of Oregon.

Blackleg Again.

It is with no small concern that the stockmen of the county note the reappearance of blackleg or anthrax during the past two weeks on several ranges in the country. Near Brownsboro Ed. Mills lost seven head of calves by the mysterious malady last week, and a fine two-year-old heifer belonging to Mr. Wright was found dead. It was rumored Saturday that the disease had appeared among S. S. Aiken's band at the head of Rogue river, although the report has not been confirmed as yet. It is said that the system of vaweling and injecting garlic, together with profuse bleeding, has operated successfully as a preventive in several bands. It is also claimed that an immediate change of range, even a few miles sufficing, will save well animals after the disease first makes it appearance. Practical stockmen claim that the latter is really the only efficacious preventive, no other treatment having ever proven of much avail.

Black Scale.

There is no other pest that orchardists dread as they do the scale, and the known existence of it should induce those now interested to take immediate steps looking towards its extermination. During this season it has become apparent to all that quite a number of fruit trees on the hill-sides back of Chinatown in this place are badly affected, the result of importing the disease upon a young tree brought from the east a year or two ago. From present indications it will spread rapidly over the whole country unless preventive measures are taken while yet it can be controlled. The only remedy is to cut down and burn every infected tree. The scale will surely kill them anyhow, and the future welfare of the fruit industry should induce the owners to proceed at once to destroy every tree that shows the least indications of the disease. United effort now will avert most serious destruction in the course of two or three seasons more.

An Eccentric Hermit.

An old man named Wm. Costner was found dead in his bed at his place near Central Point last Thursday. He had long resided there alone, living the life of a hermit, in an adobe house, and it was supposed he was in good circumstances. Search of the premises after his death revealed the most primitive arrangements for his domestic comfort. His water bucket was hollowed from a white oak knot as were also his drinking and eating utensils. He reached the water in his well, some 18 feet deep, by a series of steps cut in the soil. His cellar was in a tunnel at the bottom of a shaft 12 feet deep, and contained a supply of fruits and winter vegetables. He raised no crop but tobacco, of which he sold a considerable quantity and it was currently reported that he had treasure hidden about the premises. His bed was composed of burlap sacks filled with leaves and his whole surroundings indicated a life but few removes from the wooden age or the cave dwellers.

National Surgical Institute.

Two or more surgeons representing this institute will be at the Ashland Hotel, Ashland, O., 31st, and at the Commercial Hotel, Grant's Pass, Nov. 1st.

They come fully prepared with all the apparatus for the successful treatment of their specialties—curvature of the spine, disease of the hip and knee joint, crooked limbs, club feet and all bodily deformities. Their success in treating these troubles as well as all chronic and sexual diseases has made for the institute a national reputation.

Upon application, references will be furnished from patients in all parts of the United States.

All persons who are suffering from any of these complaints, should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity for relief.

A Convincing Argument.

With as little interest as is taken in Oregon in the present presidential campaign, it is almost impossible to obtain an audience for a political afternoon speech, and orators of every party have to complain of empty benches. It is a pity that it should be so in the case of as sound political argument as is dispensed by the Democratic presidential elector, W. R. Bilyeu, who spoke to an audience of about fifty persons at the C. S. Hall last Tuesday. He is one among the foremost speakers in Oregon, and his reasoning strikes home every time. Those who failed to hear him missed the treat of the campaign. If the angels ever roll the stone away from the grave of Democratic hopes in Oregon, we shall confidently look to see Mr. Bilyeu represent us in congress.

An Able Speaker.

Hon. J. D. Whitman of Medford addressed a fair-sized audience in the courthouse last Saturday evening. He discussed the tariff question from a Democratic standpoint and proved beyond a question that a "robber protective tariff is a "robber tariff," and very disastrous to the interests of the laboring classes, simply fostering monopolies and robbing the poor. He quoted from several different Republican authors stating that during low tariff periods the country was most prosperous. He argued the question from a farmer's standpoint and proved conclusively that protective tariff works hardships to the farmer. His speech was fair, honest, logical and devoid of all abuse.—Roseburg "Review."

Out on Habeas Corpus.

Harry Brooks, who was committed from the justice's court of Rock Point precinct last Thursday for assault and battery on Will. Jacoby, was released on Monday on "habeas corpus" proceedings instituted by W. H. Parker in Judge Neil's court. The grounds on which he was released were that the justice exceeded his authority in committing defendant for ninety days, the statute fixing the maximum penalty for the offense charged at $50 fine and costs, or imprisonment at the rate of one day for each two dollars of the fine assessed.

Superior Fruit Boxes.

We are prepared to furnish any quantity of extra-fine fruit boxes, of any style, size or weight desired, at prices that defy competition. Our boxes are all made of thoroughly seasoned sugar and yellow pine lumber. They are lighter, brighter and stronger than any other box made on the northwest coast. Boxes stamped with any brand desired. Prices, laid down at all points, furnished upon application.

SUGAR PINE DOOR & LUMBER CO.,
Grant's Pass, Oregon.

Another Addition to Albina.

A plat of the Maegly Highland tract was filed in the office of the county recorder last Thursday by A. H. and Cecelia Maegly, says the Albina "Courier." The tract is situated on the Portland & Vancouver railway, about half a mile north of Albina, and contains twelve and a half blocks. It is a part of section 22, tp 1 N. R 1 E.

Notice.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Whereas I made a statement privately that others made public, that I saw Geo. L. Webb playing cards in a saloon on a certain occasion, but, after learning more, I admit that I was mistaken in the person.

F. G. Hibner and wife left Ashland last week for Cleveland, Clearmont county, Ohio, where he will make his future home. We regret very much to lose such citizens as Mr. Hibner, but wish him well in the land of his adoption.

Father Beeson of Talent is earnestly advocating the re-election of Cleveland, in order that justice may be done to all classes. The flagrant deception practised by the Republican leaders has weaned him from that party.

We haven't had much chance to show our Democracy in the way of parades and torchlight processions this year in southern Oregon, but will make amends at Medford on Saturday evening. An immense crowd will be in attendance.

Carpenter and Nichols' lime quarry is still being operated at Gold Hill. A superior quality of lime is produced and is mostly disposed of to local consumers. Mr. Nichols is recovering from his recent severe attack of malarial fever.

Cramping pains in the stomach and bowels, cholera morbus and diarrhœa are promptly, permanently and safely cured by using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. Sold at City Drug Store and by Engel Bros., Phœnix.

Harry Keim, a fireman on the C. & O. railroad, was killed at Dunsmuir last week while under the engine, cleaning out the ash pan. Coupling the cars jostled the air-brakes loose and the engine wheel passed over his body, killing him instantly.

C. W. Logan, the progressive Ashland photographer, is now making a drive on pictures. Photographs equal in style and finish to any in the state will be made, cabinet size, for $4 per doz. n, for a limited period. This is a rare opportunity to secure a fine picture.

For the best turnouts for all occasions call at the Excelsior livery stable in Jacksonville. Plymale's prices are quite reasonable and he never fails in giving satisfaction. You will also do well to patronize his stage line running between this place and Medford.

Elder Wilson of Haynesville, Lassen county, Cal., was in town with his team last Saturday after supplies for the winter. It speaks well for the enterprise of our merchants that customers will pass through the other valley towns to come to Jacksonville after supplies.

Johnny Vincent last Friday killed a fine black bear on the face of Table Rock mountain, firing four shots from his Winchester before the animal succumbed. The bruin was making for the young nimrod at a 2:40 gait when the fourth bullet struck him in the mouth and put a quietus on him.

The McCrow mine near Gold Hill was bonded last Friday evening to D. B. Hunt of San Francisco for $10,000. Mr. Campbell, who negotiated the transfer, says ten men will be put to work developing the mine within 30 days and if indications continue favorable a mill will be put up in the spring.

Base ball players, athletes, and all who take any vigorous exercise should know that Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic is a thorough good bracer. It produces new vitality, strengthens the muscles and enables them to perform twice the usual amount of work without becoming fatigued.

Independence, Or., Dec. 13.

Both myself and wife have been for some years afflicted with disease of the Kidneys, and had tried many remedies without obtaining any relief. About three months ago we were induced to try a package of Oregon Kidney Tea which has apparently entirely cured both of us, as since taking it two weeks we have felt no symptoms of the disease. We can heartily recommend it to others similarly afflicted as we believe it will do all that is claimed for it.

M. L. WHITE.

Do you feel dragging sensations in the back and loins, are troubled with wakefulness, faintness at the pit of the stomach? Are you nervous and irritable? If so we would advise you to try Oregon Kidney Tea (purely vegetable.) It never fails to effect a permanent cure of kidney and urinary complaints.

Nothing is more disagreeable to a young lady or gentleman than to have the face covered with pimples, black heads and blotches. Dutard's Specific, the new skin remedy, will remove all disfigurations from the face and hands and produce a clear and beautiful complexion. Try it and be convinced.

Cholera Morbus is one of the most painful and dangerous diseases, many deaths result from it each year, usually because it is not properly treated. The most severe cases may be cured, by using Chamberlain's Colic, cholera and diarrhœa remedy. It never fails. Sold by J. W. Robinson and Engel Bros. Phœnix.

The Bostwick ranch, the sale of which was negotiated by H. Klippel during last week, was not the only desirable piece of property handled by that enterprising agent, as a glance at his list will show. Intending purchasers cannot do better than to come to Mr. Klippel for information about desirable locations.

Robert Carruthers brought home from the fat stock show the dudest pony of the times. He is a little fellow but his weight tips the beam at 600 pounds. He came from southern Oregon, and his sire was the famous Shetland stallion Bobby Burns. His dam was a good-sized American mare.—Astoria Transcript.

An immense sale of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been produced to a great extent, by people, who have been cured by telling their friends and neighbors of its good qualities and urging them to try it. The most severe cold will soon yield to its soothing effects. For sale by J. W. Robinson and Engel Bros. Phœnix.

Jos. M. Upham, who recently bought a ranch on Little Butte creek, is reported very ill with typhoid fever at Central Point. He was taken sick at Roseburg and ventured out too soon and took a relapse. His family are in California still but he is receiving the best of attention at Mr. Geo. Morine's, and it is hoped he will recover.

At this season of the year people can not be too careful about keeping their bowels regular. Bilious and malarial diseases are often brought on by allowing the bowels to become torpid. An occasional dose of St. Patrick's Pills is all that would be required, and would prevent serious sickness. For sale by J. W. Robinson and Engle Bros. Phœnix.

A sad cortege was that which followed to the last resting-place in the Central Point cemetery the mortal remains of Miss Rosa Just the blue forget-me-not. She passed away Friday. Deceased was one of the most highly esteemed young ladies in the county, and her untimely death leaves desolate a once happy home. Elder Martin Dutard officiated at the funeral.

Thomas Bailey one of the live road supervisors from north of the river was in town on Monday. He reports that he has discovered upwards of $20,000 worth of property liable to assessment this year, and that the tax derived from the same will go far towards gravelling the road on the face of Table Rock, a much needed improvement.

A liberal minded citizen of Ashland suggests the plan of sending "about 20 barrels of apples, pears and all other fruit is obtainable" to Los Angeles, to be placed on exhibition to show immigrants what this valley is capable of producing. A good idea and the dose should be doubled a few dozen times to attract any attention in that busy city.

Griffiths & Abbott, now working the old Steamboat ledge, have taken out over $1700 since last March. Their first clean up netted over $400, and the last one, $1200. About $170 was pounded out in a mortar, so rich is the rock. Mr. Abbott was in town last Saturday after winter supplies and announces that work will be pushed vigorously on the ledge the coming winter.

Many persons contract severe colds during the early winter months and permit them to hang on persistently all winter, weakening the lungs and paving the way for grippe, pneumonia, bronchitis and consumption. No one can afford to neglect a cold. A single bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure the most severe cold, and prevent any serious result. For sale by J. W. Robinson and Engel Bros. Phœnix.

J. H. Griffis of Gold Hill has the contract to construct an addition to the rear of J. A. Wilson's residence in this city, the addition to be occupied by Capt. Jas. Barnes, as a boarding house. It will contain 16 rooms, living room 16x16 feet with fire place and closets, and an enclosed bath room and rear porch; to be lathed and plastered throughout. Mr. Griffis will have four assistants to rush the work to an early completion.

In every household there should be kept a bottle of Pond's Extract, as it is invaluable in case of accidents, sight or serious, that are liable to occur in any family such as cuts, burns, bruises, etc. It is of the greatest benefit for hemorrhages, neuralgic pains and inflammation, while for catarrh, piles etc., it is the best known remedy. Ask your druggist to give you nothing but the genuine.

W. C. Myer sold five animals while at the fat stock show in Portland, at remunerative prices, and could have sold a dozen full-blood Percherons, had he had them. A number of buyers disposed of were for one 2-year old Percheron colt, one 6-year-old half-breed Shetland, two 2-year-old colts of King Cole, full-bloods, and one 2-year-old colt, full-blood Percheron. It is generally conceded that his thoroughbred stock outranks any in its class in the state.

If your back aches or if you are suffering from inflammation of the kidneys, seminal weakness, brick-dust deposit in the urine, or any kidney trouble whatever, don't complain, do not waste money on worthless liniments or plasters, but strike the seat of the disease at once by using the greatest of all known remedies, Oregon Kidney Tea. It is purely vegetable, is entirely harmless and has never failed to give entire satisfaction. Sold by E. C. Brooks.

Why will you go about with that listless air and pale face? Have you no life, no ambition? You need to care nothing for what transpires around you. The beauties of nature do not interest you, and you feel that life is a burden. If you would have the vigor and elasticity of youth return, enjoy a good hearty meal, and feel like an altogether different person, then take Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic. It certainly produces remarkable results. Sold by E. C. Brooks.

The poultry-raisers of Rogue river valley can find food for reflection in the fact that one Chicago county ranch furnishes 1680 dozen fresh eggs to the markets of Astoria monthly. The average price of fresh eggs in this valley will never be much less than 25 cents per dozen in the future, and many a frugal housewife will obtain abundant pin-money from her poultry from this time forth. The Ashland hotels are now paying 3 cents above market price for eggs guaranteed not to be over 48 hours old.

Jackson county tobacco took the first premium at the Mechanic's fair; why not establish a tobacco factory in Medford as the "Advertiser" suggests? Every condition is favorable.

H. H. Wolters, the mixologist, has reopened the saloon formerly kept by A. H. Carlson, thoroughly refitting it and making many improvements. He has supplied the bar with the finest wines, liquors and cigars, and a fine billiard table can also be found there. Give him a call for he will treat you well.

KENO ON THE KLAMATH.

KENO, OR., Oct. 27, 1888.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

I never see a "boom" correspondence without feeling a glow of pity for the writer. He is so destitute of the imagination that revels in the beautiful and sublime, that he can tell about nothing but "lots," prices and "opportunities." He can see no beauty, either in the foreground or background of the landscape. He beholds no grandeur in the sunset, whose glory, gilding the blue mountain tops and streaming into the valley, causes his soul to look up from the "town lot" and carouse awhile for its health. Poor fellow! He is doomed to be jostled from corner to corner of his lots in this world, and to be eternally lamenting the absence of prices and opportunities in the next!

There is a beautiful valley in the southwest corner of Oregon, bordered with lofty pines, watered by the sparkling Klamath and blessed with rich soil and abundance. It has none of the rough features common to valleys in southern Oregon, and morning and evening the sun touches up with a glorious twilight its river, fields and woodlands.

Many an emigrant has pulled up his reins in this valley and exercised his homestead right where it did more good than it could have done further on. Every farmer, stockman, storekeeper and mechanic is prospering. Already the little town of Keno, only one year old, is assuming goodly proportions and solving the ever-ready town-lot problem. The town has a street on which are two large, freshly-painted hotels, a large merchandise store, blacksmith shop, livery stable, wagon shop, stage station and private residences, and the machinery for a big shingle factory has just arrived and is ready to go up, and Keno has already a fine steamboat on the river. Close to town stands a big saw-mill, with planing and shingle appurtenances, all under full headway.

You see, it don't take long to start a place where the conditions are favorable; and the soil in this valley is as rich as that on the banks of Rogue river. There cannot be found on earth any richer, larger or sweeter apples, pears, peaches or plums than those which sprang this year from the soil of this valley on the beautiful Klamath; nor can the garden vegetables, potatoes or cereals of the same valley be beaten anywhere.

On 335 acres Mr. Emmitt raised this year nine thousand five hundred bushels of grain, and this is the average yield of the valley. I have conversed with a few of the stock-raisers, viz: R. Emmitt, J. Thompson, O. A. Stearns, Mills & Rider, Uncle Sam. Colver, W. R. Ramsey, W. B. Grubb, E. Skegg, D. Gordon, Mrs. Decker, and a few others, and they are all succeeding beyond the wildest hopes they entertained at the start. As to farming, nobody need think about coming here unless he has some capital, and sufficient to overcome the many impediments. J. W. Doten, Irving Brown, Oscar Tyrrell, I. H. Miller, G. L. Chase, Quin Anderson, and many others I might name, go about with jolly, healthy faces, having plenty and to spare, while they have despoiled their emigrant reins on the Klamath.

Whoever regards hog-raising as unprofitable should have a little talk with D. J. Ferree, who keeps a large hog ranch in the valley. "Keeping hogs," says Mr. Ferree, "is easier than rolling off a log, and also very different in effect. Rolling off a log may be easy, but it brings you down, while keeping hogs builds you up amazingly."

The Klamath river is full of salmon and salmon trout, and Messrs. Oatman, McCollum, Spencer & Co. have established a saloon fishery a few miles from town.

The strongest inducements for the emigrant exist in the soil, good climate, good water and plenty of timber, and this Klamath valley possesses these. But the town of Keno calls with stentorian voice to the millman. Just a fourth of a mile from the town is a spectacle which would cause the mill-man to dance with joy and shout "Eureka!" for he would see on both banks of the Klamath a stretch of water privileges and mill-sites equal in all advantages to any in the great northwest.

The fact is, Keno, in the Klamath valley, is destined to become one of the great and good localities of Oregon.

Lakeview Receipts.

The atmosphere is becoming chilly, and residents are preparing for winter.

Court business is on the decline.

S. V. Rehart, the popular hotel man, has rented his hotel to L. Pizer & Sons, who are thoroughly refitting both interior and exterior.

Chas. Moore, deputy sheriff, has gone to Salem with C. Wyman, who was sentenced by Judge Webster to three years to the penitentiary.

W. A. Owen of Jackson county is in Lakeview on official business.

Wm. Constant and J. J. Wrisley, two Rogue river boys, passed through here on their way home last week, where they expect to spend the winter. ANON.

Attempted Suicide.

Jack Bartle, well known in southern Oregon as a former stage driver on the old overland route, made two attempts at committing suicide in Ashland recently, the first and only successful one being by taking an ounce of chloroform and the other by attempting to cut his throat with a knife, says the "Record." Dr. Parson was called and rendered the necessary medical aid, but his stomach is so badly burned by so much of the drug that survival is doubtful. Trouble with his wife and her final determination to sue for a divorce was the cause of the deed. Bartle wants to die and says he will kill himself as soon as he gets another chance at it, as he can't live with his wife and can't live without her.

Accident.

Willie Barnes, son of Daniel Barnes, was thrown off his horse at his ranch in Klamath county one day last week, and sustained a fracture of the shin-bone of his right leg. He came in to Jacksonville on Monday, ten days after the accident, and had the broken bone set by Dr. Sommer. Fortunately the bone had not begun to knit and there will be no serious results. The young man is not quite 15 years of age, and has had rather a rough experience for one of his years. He rode on horseback to the stage station and came in alone.

Worth Knowing.

W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake city, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough and running into consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficult v in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half-dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottles free at E. C. Brooks' drug store.

Renews Her Youth.

Phoebe Chesley, of Patterson, Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help and now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am now able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and restored completely all disease and pain. Try a bottle, 50c. and $1, at all drug Stores.

An Important Element

Of the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the fact that every purchaser receives a fair equivalent for his money. The formula of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is "100 Doses One Dollar," stolen by imitators, is original with and true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This can easily be proven by any one who desires to test the matter. For real economy, buy only Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists.

Disturbance of the Heart.

Heart disease is like an assassin, which creeps upon you in the dark, and strikes you when you are unaware. Therefore, do not overlook any uneasiness in the region of the heart or disturbance in its action, but at once take Dr. Flint's Remedy. Description free. Sold by all druggists. A LUCKY TRIAL.

DEAR SIR: It affords me great pleasure to send you this voluntary statement of my experience in testing the merits of Joy's Sarsaparilla. For the past five years I have been troubled with an exceedingly sluggish liver, and within the past two years it has knocked within its trail a thoroughly disordered stomach, including loss of appetite and distress after eating, pains in the back and kidneys, and boils around my neck and face. I have tried several remedies which are advertised as specially for the liver, and never could get more than temporary relief of about a week or two. I was recommended to try a bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla as a test, and while taking the first bottle I became convinced of its merits for I could feel it was working a change in me. I have taken five bottles, and during that time my troubles have left me. Everything is working full and regular, in fact it has cleansed, purified and braced me up generally. I feel like a new man. You are at perfect liberty to use this as you see fit, or you can refer whom you please to.

Three Peculiarities

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier and regulating medicine, is characterized by three peculiarities, namely:

1st: The combination of the various remedial agents used.

2d: The proportion in which the roots, herbs, barks, etc., are mixed.

3d: The process by which the active medicinal properties are secured.

The result is a medicine of unusual strength and curative power, which effects cures heretofore unequalled. These peculiarities belong exclusively to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and are
