

The Democrats carried Albany at the recent election, re-electing J. L. Cowan as mayor, and John H. Hagan as marshal. That has usually been the Republican first.

The fifty-first congress of the United States convened at Washington last Monday, with both houses fully in accord with the administration.

On the day before election the New York Tribune editorially remarked: "The Democrats have no business to grudge to Republicans such satisfaction as they may be able to get out of the actual returns."

In the late case of the People vs. Sawyer (Sawyer) machinery, prosecuted under the California game law for having in his possession illegal deer skins, Justice Thompson of the superior court of Napo, recently rendered a decision releasing the defendants.

RICHARD HERMAN voted for Reed of Maine for speaker of the house. He is a Republican, and he has been a member of the only Pacific coast congressman to prove treacherous to Western interests.

A terrible fire occurred in the Minneapolis Tribune building last Saturday night, when a full corps of compositors, editors and reporters were employed in all uppers of 100 men, were employed in the seventh and eighth stories of the structure.

The lukewarmness of the Democratic leaders of Oregon in the establishment of a great daily newspaper at Portland is singular and inexplicable.

The "uppermost" of English society is brewing a great scandal in which many of the leading families are vitally interested. The British aristocracy is tired of these revelations of corruption and licentiousness among the titled classes, and a few noble exhibitions of depravity will induce the people to follow the example of Brazil in expelling the empire.

A somewhat singular case is that now taking place between the lady travelers, Mrs. Nellie Bly, representing the New York World, and Miss Elizabeth Bond, of the Columbus.

Brother Buick of Knoxville, had a good deal of ginger upon his crupper when he was in Jacksonville in attendance on the meeting of the Georgia Agricultural Society of Agriculture, last week.

The Milwaukee Journal interviewed Judge Garrison recently, and made this report: Judge Walter G. Garrison, who passed through this city the other day, talked publicly for a while with a gentleman whom he met on the train.

The table of the jackdaw in the pea cocker's nest, when you put the heads of the discomfited poor and Douglas, the Harrison minister to Hayti, who has been chosen in his little brief authority than he is on the tender of man-of-war transportation.

The general belief that Secretary Windley has been becoming annual reports would recommend a strictly non-partisan in the policy of the government in relation to the coinage of silver certainly has substantial foundation.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The whole reading world gave a great sigh of relief last week when it was authoritatively announced that Stanley and his "relief" expedition had been successful in reaching terra incognita with Emma Boy and his followers, and it was long before the news had been fully digested by the rest of the world.

The great fire in the east the past week has been as disastrous as any of the earlier summer in the northwest. On Thanksgiving day a $200,000 fire occurred in the town of Jackson, Mich.

WILMINGTON COUNTY ITEMS.

Interest continues unabated in the skating rink at the Park. A fine school is progressing in the upper Williams creek district.

Miss Addie Stephens of Williams creek is courting a student at the University of the Pacific. Her betrothal has been announced.

Mr. Jones of Williams creek, who has been quite ill, is recovering. He is now at the home of his wife in the city.

Mr. M. K. Baker of Grant's Pass has been elected to the office of Justice of the Peace for the district embracing the town of Grant's Pass.
