The Democratic Times

OFFICIAL PAPER OF JACKSON COUNTY, OREGON

FRIDAY.........NOVEMBER 7, 1890

THE Oregon Pacific Railroad Company and the Willamette Valley and Coast Railroad Company have been placed in the hands of a receiver, on the petition of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York.

THE Speaker did not get the usual vote of thanks which the House tender that officer at the close of each session, because no Democrat would move for its adoption. They did not feel that they owed Mr. Reed any thanks.

JACK THE RIPPER is still engrossing a large share of English attention, and a large number of female detectives have been employed since his recent declaration through the mails that he was about ready to resume his old occupation. One sharp female claims to have already secured a photograph of the fiend.

IN CASE Harrison appoints Gresham to the supreme bench, the latest advices are to the effect that he will promote Law-partner Miller to Gresham's present place on the U. S. circuit bench, Noble of the interior department to be attorney-general, and a Pacific coast man to be secretary of the interior.

DILLON and O'Brien arrived in New York on the 2d instant, and will spend several months in pleading Ireland's cause before their countrymen and friends on this side of the water, before returning and giving themselves up to the British authorities. The mission will prove the more successful because of Gladstone's hearty assurances that home rule for Ireland is not far distant.

THE steamer Michigan with a cargo of salmon, was discovered to be on fire when in the mouth of the Columbia river last Saturday outward bound, and it was found necessary to beach her on the flats and fill her hold with water from the pumps in order to extinguish the flames. On Sunday the water was pumped out and the timbers of the vessel found to be but slightly damaged, although her cargo was almost a total loss.

A SHORT wheat crop having raised the price of that cereal the Republicans straightway claimed that the increase in price was due to Republican legislation. This is the sort of argument the politicians are using to catch votes with. Somebody seems to have forgotten the universal laugh which greeted a statement made on the stump some years ago by that shining light of the Republican party, John Sherman, of Ohio, to the effect that the unusually good crops of that year were the results of a Republican administration.

McLEAN says that the building of the railroad between Jacksonville and Medford was one of the conditions of the location of the college at Jacksonville, and that when he found out that the road would not be built, he turned against the acceptance of the proposed site. McLean here delivers himself of three deliberate falsehoods—but that is nothing for him. The Presbytery did not make the location of the college conditional upon the building of the branch railroad; the said enterprise has not fallen through, and he has been laboring assiduously for the past year to thwart the wishes of the Presbytery.

THE approaching legislature of Oregon will have under consideration a bill appropriating money to enable Oregon to make a creditable display at the World's Fair to be held at Chicago. Some think $250,000 should be appropriated, while others place the amount necessary at $50,000. Just what sum the legislature will deem advisable can not now be foretold. The object of a good display is to attract capital and population to Oregon. The capital is expected to come for permanent investment; the people are expected to come and make homes. We trust the people of this county will make a big effort and secure a share of the benefits arising from whatever appropriation may be made.

AT Huttenburg in Austria a young girl has awakened a great religious craze by declaring that she has seen a "manifestation" of the Virgin Mary in a tree, and the frenzied female is importuning the archbishop at Marburg for permission to allow the people to witness the miracle. Spite of her religious fervor, she is able to definitely locate the tree, and seven gendarmes have been detailed to guard it. The archbishop should by all means give the desired permit, and see what the girl will do about it. The suspicion grows that the citizens of that district in Austria must be on about as low a plane, as regards intelligence, as the plantation darkies down south. Our cable dispatches neglect to state what the famous biblical character was doing in so undignified a posture, nor do they state whether it was a persimmon tree, or a plain, matter-of-fact gum stump.

COUNT BISMARCK ex-chancellor of Germany is about to start a brewery at Feidrichsruhe. This fact is to be deplored as the old fellow will by so doing forfeit the right to wear the grand old term of "gentleman" in the opinion of the Reverend Robert McLean of Grant's Pass. It will be remembered that when the Grant's Pass brewer had rebuilt his establishment after it was destroyed by fire last winter, his neighbors, to signal their appreciation of his enterprise, presented him a silken banner with which to decorate his new building. The local newspaper in its published account of the presentation inadvertently alluded to the donors as "ladies and gentlemen." This holier-than-thou fructification of ministerial gall and conceit actually had the hardihood to publish a card over his own signature denying the right of these people, as he called them, to the appellations. We sincerely regret Bismarck's fall from grace.

OREGON occupies the enviable position of occupying a box-stall at the theatre during the November elections, and yet it makes one feel a little too much like a denizen of another planet to be on the world and yet not of it, during the biennial political contest. While it is somewhat gratifying to pose as the cynosure of the national eye during our little June side-show, there is really no good reason why we too should not soon fall into line with the regular November list. A newly elected congressman here might starve to death before getting a chance to draw his first month's salary after the people have exhibited their preference for him. For eight long, weary months after the second Monday in June, a flat-broke congressional nominee, even though successful at the polls, would have to dodge his constituent friends and ward lieutenants, till his violated pledges might constitute the walls of his political mausoleum. Why not have a change before the new apportionment, or as soon thereafter as relief can be afforded.

A STRIKE is on at the coal mines in Morris, Illinois as the direct result of the passage of the McKinley bill. The managers recently advanced the price of coal 25 cents per ton to consumers, alleging in a published statement that the advance was necessary, owing to the fact that the McKinley bill had increased the cost of groceries, shoes, clothing and meat, as well as feed for teams. They conceded 4 cents of the 25 cents advance to the miners, who, however demanded 10 cents per ton as their equitable pro rata, as the burden of the increased cost of necessaries fell principally on them. Failing in their demands, they all went on a strike. There is a tariff sermon for you! It would have been a good time for Blaine to have appeared on the scene and preached the doctrine that "the consumer does not pay the tax." We care not who own the coal mines at Morris; the demand of the miners was just and right and should have been acceded to. The laboring men are the ones on whom the hateful and unnecessary burdens of the increased tariff will bear heaviest.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

ANDREW CARNEGIE, the Pennsylvania iron baron, is so happy over the passage of the tariff bill, which he knows will put millions in his pockets at the expense of the "dear people," that he had to unburden his mind to a New York Republican paper of some of its superfluous elation. It would have been in much better taste had he unburdened his pockets, by raising the wages of his workmen, of some of the consumers' cash which the new law presents him with.

THE young Czarovitch of Russia has made up his mind, spite of all parental opposition to trot around the globe, and will probably view the elephants and Chinatown in San Francisco before many months roll 'round. A peculiar feature of the tour will be the fact that the "trusted officer," under whose care the young man will see the sights, will be held responsible for the prince's safety. That trusted officer will live and die an exile, should the royal young blood come to grief when away from the imperial nursery.

GOVERNOR HILL has written to Secretary Noble, asking a new enumeration of New York city. He says the alleged difference of 200,000 names will make a difference to the state of at least one member of congress in the next apportionment, and a vote in the electoral college. He further says the secretary's confidence in the thoroughness of the federal census is not shared by a large portion of the people of New York city. He says all the enumerators were Republican partisans, appointed for past political service, and that it was to their interest that their party should be the beneficiary of their labor.

AND now it transpires that Baby McKee's wet nurse is carried on the payroll of the White House as a "skilled laborer," and draws $75 per month from Uncle Sam's coffers for the exercise of her functions. When Washington and Jefferson and Jackson and Lincoln and the other presidential shades who united principle with statecraft, in practice as well as theory, look down from the battlements of heaven on these degenerate days, they must sigh to think that the anticipated acme of American glory is like to turn out a squeezed lemon. Harrison seems to be holding Wanamaker pretty nearly level in the line of petty pilfering.

THE REPUBLICAN papers are claiming as one of the gratifying results of the McKinley bill the movement of British industries to this country. Many English manufacturers propose moving their works to this country to get the benefit of our protective prices, and of course they will bring their employes with them to compete with American labor. Mr. Cleveland put a stop to alien land grabbing and Mr. Harrison invites the alien Britisher to monopolize our manufacturing industries. Profiting by the sign when Harrison and high protection triumphed two years ago, English syndicates started in to buy up the factories of this country, and right good headway they have been making ever since.

SECRETARY NOBLE of the interior department is real downright mad at Governor Hill of New York for his oft repeated charges of fraudulent census work in New York city. Governor Hill and Mayor Grant declined to surrender the census schedules of the recent police census of New York city into Secretary Noble's hands for fear that they too would undergo "doctoring" for political effect, and be as useless in indicating the true census of the city as the late government census, now admitted by all to have been fraudulently taken. Noble is in a towering rage in a small way over the openly expressed suspicion that he would prostitute his office by such proceedings as altering returns or abstracting and destroying schedules.

A MEETING of the principal officers of the principal express companies of the country was held at New York last week. The object of the gathering was to effect an increase of tariff for express freights, which lately have been upon a basis unsatisfactory to the companies. As a result it was decided to order an increase of charges, to go into effect on November 1st. The change principally affects rates between the west and seaboard points. The basis is the express charge to and from New York and Chicago, which at present is $2 per 100 pounds; but by the coming arrangement it will be increased to $2.50. This, it is understood will be the maximum advance, and the rates to and from all points west of Buffalo and Pittsburg will be adjusted to conform proportionately to it.

NO PROTECTED interest doubts that it will profit by the raised rates of the tariff. It is equally undeniable, as already appears, that prices will be generally increased. But how is the tariff to raise the wages of those who must pay the increased prices? Will the interests which are to profit most largely raise the wages of their workers? Or are their workers to get their share of profit by reflecting that, except for the tariff they might be receiving the pauper wages of Europe? If that be a sound argument, it was as sound last month before the tariff became law. But if the tariff be their protection against low wages, how is it that this month the higher tariff lower, wages by heightening the price of necessaries? Unless wages are raised, where is the advantage to wage-earners in the higher tariff, and how can it be truly said to be passed in their interest? There is no danger of wages being raised correspondingly. The McKinley tariff bill was enacted in the interest of the rich manufacturer and capitalist who furnishes the corruption fund for Quay & Co. at each election—notably in presidential years.

THE proposition referred to elsewhere in our columns this week, to establish a breeder's stake to be competed for by two-year-old trotters—foals of 1889—at the next district fair meeting, should meet with the hearty endorsement of all breeders and sportsmen of southern Oregon and northern California. In the various counties composing the Mt. Shasta and southern Oregon district, there is now a large infusion of standard trotting blood in the old Morgan foundation stock, and it need surprise no one should a phenomenon appear among the youngsters now and then. The only way to make it appear, is to develop the trotting instinct by early training, and under the proper auspices such contests, can only result in benefit to the breeder, as well as affording sport of the highest character to the public. Our people are sick of watching cut-and-dried contests or hippodromes between old stagers. Give us a fair field of hot blooded two-year-olds, where it is anybody's race until the last heat is trotted, and we may once more witness such sport as the old blue-grass champions saw years ago in the maiden four-mile contests of the thoroughbred youngsters on the Kentucky turf. It is a step in the right direction in the fostering and encouraging of the breeding industry, besides divesting racing of some of its most reprehensible features.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL WANAMAKER is a great merchant and a great advertiser. Just before the McKinley bill went into operation he enterprisingly gave this notice in his advertisement of his great store in Philadelphia: "Tinware is advanced in cost, and very soon the manufacturers will have their way, and you and me will have to pay very much more. In view of this state of things we made some time since a large purchase of kitchen tinware at what was a low price then, and would be far lower in the face of two advances in maker's price lists.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Mr. Wanamaker, in the cabinet of President Harrison is the man who says that American consumers don't pay the tariff, but it is paid by the foreign producer for the privilege of selling in our markets. But Mr. Wanamaker as a merchant and Mr. Wanamaker as postmaster-general are different Mr. Wanamakers entirely. As a politician, Mr. Wanamaker blandly asserts that the foreigner pays the tariff on tin. But as a merchant, he gives advertisement that tin is about to rise, and the manufacturers will have their way. The rise was caused by the McKinley bill adding 120 per cent. to the tin tariff, and the good Wanamaker piously deplores this and claims credit and custom because he laid in a stock of tin at the ante-McKinley price. It proves that the laws of trade everlastingly expose the lies told in politics.

ELECTION RETURNS.

It Looks Like a Tidal Wave.

LARGE DEMOCRATIC GAINS EVERYWHERE

1874 Repeated.

As usual in the off year the congressional elections in the east were largely favorable to the Democracy, and the leading Republican journals now concede a Democratic majority in the house of 50. Possibly the amended estimates may show a repetition of the tidal wave of 1874. Certain it is that the Democrats have gained three congressmen in the New England states and have carried the legislature of New Hampshire, insuring a Democratic successor to Senator Blair. They elect Russell, Democrat, governor in Massachusetts by 10,000 conceded plurality, and Congressman Lodge's princely majority of 5000 two years ago was cut down to less than 1000 last Tuesday. The Democrats gain three congressmen in New York, probably four in New Jersey, and four in Ohio, provided protectionist money has not carried McKinley through, his district being still in doubt. In the Southern states at least a dozen Democratic members have been gained. Both parties still claim Pennsylvania, and it is possible that Pattison, Democrat, is elected by 10,000 majority.

Both parties claim a gain of one congressman in California, and the governorship is still in doubt with chances favorable to Markham, Republican. Dr. O'Donnell is elected mayor of San Francisco.

In Minnesota the Democrats are gainers by at least two congressmen and possibly elect their governor. At one time 4 out of 5 congressmen were claimed by the Democrats.

Carter, the Republican nominee for congress in Montana is snowed under, and the fraud of last year is rebuked. The next legislature will be Democratic.

The Farmer's Alliance did not develop nearly its anticipated strength and not a dozen congressman of that party are so far reported elected.

Grant, the Tammany candidate is elected mayor of New York city by 18,000 majority over the opposition fusion ticket.

In Wisconsin the Democrats gain one congressman, possibly two, and returns so far indicate the election of Peck, Dem., governor.

In Illinois both parties claim the legislature; and the Democrats have doubtless gained two congressmen in the state.

The Washington Republicans have carried the day, though by lessened majorities. Olympia will remain the State Capital.

In Nebraska the Democrats elect Boyd governor, and three congressmen. The prohibition amendment was defeated by 20,000.

In Iowa both parties claim the state ticket, and the Democrats carry three or more congressional districts.

In Michigan the Democrats elect at least six and possibly nine congressmen. The governor is yet in doubt.

In Indiana the Democrats carried the state by about 16000 majority and elected 11 out of 13 congressmen.

Colorado seems to have given a Democratic majority on the state ticket of about 50.0.

The Democrats probably elect two congressmen in Rhode Island.

THE LATEST.—Democrats elect Governors in Wisconsin (by 20,000 majority) in Kansas, Nebraska, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Michigan (by 10,000 plurality), and have secured the legislature in New York. The Democrats will have over 100 majority in the next house. McKinley and Cannon are both defeated. Alaska and California probably continue Republican.

KLAMATH COUNTY ITEMS.

Circuit court is in session at Linkville this week.

Numerous petty burglaries are reported by ranchers.

Alex. Martin, Sr., returned to his Oakland home last week.

O. Weaver of Jacksonville precinct was in Linkville last week.

The prospects are good for a several weeks term of circuit court.

C. H. Hargadine and wife, of Langell valley, will winter at Ashland.

The grand jury has had plenty of business before it during the week.

Another bunch of stolen horses is reported from the Bonanza vicinity.

John Gleim is engaged in threshing in the neighborhood of Haynesville.

Alva Beall is rapidly recovering under the ministrations of Dr. Sumner.

August Biehn's little son was very low with typhoid fever during the week.

Mrs. Lavina Pratt is recovering from her recent attack of typhoid fever.

Linkville's two big hotels are running on full time and are well patronized.

C. B. Watson has been in attendance on court at Linkville during the week.

There were 156 persons subpœnaed to appear before the grand jury this week.

Mr. Wisner, late of Jackson county is conducting a fine school at Haynesville.

Castel & Uerlings are getting a big run of custom at the Midway stables nowadays.

Ky Taylor will swing his razors in his new quarters at the Grand Central henceforth.

The expediting of the tri-weekly mail to a daily is earnestly prayed for at Haynesville.

B. F. Loosey is now one of our leading butchers, always prepared with the choicest cuts.

Kalen & Wooden have the contract for supplying the Klamath Agency with fresh beef.

Sikes Worden of Fort Klamath sold a large number of cattle recently to a California buyer.

Capt. Deskins of Keno has sought other scenes, says the "Star," whereon to smile and captivate.

J. S. Sergent of Dairy is offering his goods at very low prices in order to close out his business.

It is reported that Wells & Slade have sold a large number of horses and mules to a California buyer.

J. N. Phillips is now in Linkville, having been retained in the interest of the defense in the Shook case.

Linkville is full of people this week, as court is in session and several criminal cases will be tried at this term.

Miss Emma Lee is at Yainax, visiting the family of Prof. Bradenburg. Her health is somewhat improved.

The Western Stage Co. has not commenced running on winter time as yet, as the weather and roads are so fine.

Rev. Lott is once more interesting all hearers by his forcible discourses, since his return from Presbytery.

John Shallock is again in charge of the Clear Lake-Linkville stage, R. B. Hatton having retired from the line.

Mat Obenchain and Jessie Waters of Sprague river are sowing a large area to fall wheat this season—a sensible idea.

Bohanan, the Phœnix drover arrived at Linkville this week with 100 head of fine stock hogs for Klamath breeders.

Ira Johnson, the popular salesman at Reames, Martin & Co.'s store, is convalescing from an attack of erysipelas.

Mrs. G. W. Smith of Linkville entertained her sister, Mrs. W. E. Johnson, of Bly, and friend, Mrs. Bates, during the week.

Mrs. G. McDonald of Haynesville has taken up winter quarters at Linkville in order to avail herself of our superior schools.

Many farmers and ranchers are preparing to set out small orchards, principally winter apples, in Klamath county this fall and next spring.

The agency people were unable to secure their full contract of 69000 pounds of flour until the ranch demand is in a measure satisfied.

Hons. H. K. Hanna and J. R. Neil of Jacksonville, and C. B. Watson of Ashland, well-known lawyers, are in Linkville on professional business.

Wm. Clark's two-year-old "Olene" colt, Klamath Boy, was recently speeded on a half-mile track in 3:24. He is a very promising young horse.

A large number of cattle, horses and mules are now being purchased in this county and being driven to different markets. Fair prices are being paid.

Jas. D. Fay is now a partner of J. W. Manning, who is conducting the East-End livery stable at Linkville.

Threshing is still going on in this section. The crop is so large that the limited number of machines in the county are unable to handle it expeditiously.

A large amount is reported to have been expended for firearms in this county during the past month or two—principally rifles of the Winchester pattern.

The Indian police on the reservation are developing the detective faculty by hunting down and capturing truant boys from the agency, who go a fishing in Link river.

One of Keno's latest acquisitions is Mr. Atkins and family of Rogue river valley, who have just located on a ranch near there with a nice little bunch of high grade stock.

Klamath ranchmen are rapidly finding out that it pays to purchase at the nearest depot of supplies, and fewer cross the State line to buy in California than formerly.

The announcement of the marriage of Miss Hattie B. Ferree of Keno, last week, to Elmer Cleaver at Eugene, Lane county, was a surprise to many of the bride's friends in this section.

Peterman Bros. last week put in place "Curley" Webb's new bar and furniture, all of their own manufacture; not only neat and substantial but decidedly artistic in finish and style.

Hon. E. F. Walker took a small sheaf of Klamath oats, raised by Frank Arant, to the Portland Industrial Fair, and they proved to be the best specimens of that cereal on exhibition there.

The yarn to the effect that Reub White had died from concussion with a club at Otey's ranch has been peacefully laid to rest in the "Star" office and Reub himself has recovered from his injuries.

Ranchers coming after supplies and on business incidental to circuit court, caused Linkville to present a busy scene during the past week, and our merchants are greatly encouraged.

S. Sherman of Talent, accompanied by his brother Jacob, who has been lately visiting him from Iowa, last week made the tour of Klamath county, and both will very probably locate within our borders.

Both the Linkville hotel and the Grand Central were ready for business at the sitting of circuit court, and there is no difficulty in securing comfortable accommodations, no matter how large the crowd.

The firm of Graves & Lipsett is no more, their creditors having closed their business, we are sorry to say. Mr. Lipsett is employed in a bicycle store at San Jose, Cal., but Mr. Graves still resides in Linkville.

Ralph Roberts sold out his stock to Judge Smith last week and departed for the north to act as special agent for the State Insurance Company of Salem, his territory being eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

W. A. Carroll, the popular soda manufacturer, keeps one of the neatest and best stocked Variety stores east of the mountains, and is doing a good business. He is deserving of a liberal share of public patronage.

Klamath county has but one hardware store, that of Baldwin & Reames, but it is a first-class one in every sense of the word. One of the largest and best stocks of hardware, implements, etc., in Oregon is kept there, and low prices are the rule.

On the 24th ult., a very successful school dance was held at Tule lake school house, where W. H. McIlmoil has wielded the baton for sometime past, the object being to procure funds with which to purchase school apparatus. Messrs. Hayes & Nichols furnished the music.

MEDFORD SQUIBS.

Take a look at Nickell's addition.

Jas. Leonard has returned from his northern trip.

The new brick building of Mr. Brandenburg is beginning to show up.

Do you want a watch you can depend on? See Pritchard's patent dust-proof cases.

Mrs. M. Purdin entertained her mother Mrs. Worlow, from Upper Applegate one day last week.

Don't fail to see the new line of goods at Pritchard's in Medford. "Quick sales and small profits is his motto."

Don't fail to buy a lot in Nickell's addition to Medford. The tract adjoins the west boundary of our town.

Lake France, late of this place is now keeping books for the Buckley Lumber Company of Buckley, Wash.

John A. Miller, of Brownsboro, this week traded for a desirable piece of Medford property, with a view to removing here.

Agent Fronk has been empowered by the S. P. authorities to sell tickets over U. P. connections to any point out of Portland.

Considerably more interest is being taken in real estate matters here since work was begun on the Medford and Jacksonville railroad.

A very pleasant social was participated in by many of Medford's young people one evening last week at the private residence of A. S. Johnson.

The Monarch saloon at Medford, under the management of H. H. Wolters, is proving a popular resort. The best of everything in that line is kept there.

The ladies of the M. E. congregation at Medford are preparing to give a grand old fashioned Thanksgiving dinner for the benefit of the Church on the 27th instant.

A line was run last week for a switch from the main line of railroad to A. A. Davis' roller flouring mills to accommodate his extensive and rapidly growing business.

The railroad people are making preparations to build a very large warehouse at Medford in a short time. The freight business from this point ranks well up with the leading towns on the line.

While the report is true that after the busy season is over Staver & Walker may discontinue their branch establishment here, that interprising firm will still retain a live agency at this point.

A San Francisco travelling man last week invested in four desirable building lots in Medford, at the same time expressing the opinion that this is destined to be the leading town in the Rogue river valley.

Angle & Pivmale's opera house is being artistically painted and decorated, and the beautiful drop curtain which Le Compte has designed will combine to make it one of the finest public halls in southern Oregon.

Nickell's addition to Medford is again commanding attention since the branch railroad, which will run through it, has become a certainty. It contains many choice lots, which will be sold at reasonable rates and on the most favorable terms.

Among shipments billed from Medford during the fruit season, not yet closed, were 73 carloads of melons, 41 of apples, 3 of tomatoes and 2 carloads of pears. Each year shows a pronounced advance in the list, and the world is open for a market.

H. H. Wolters, the mixologist, has removed his saloon to the building next door to C. W. Palm's barbershop, on Front street. He has supplied the bar with the finest wines, liquors and cigars, and a fine billiard table can also be found there. Give him a call, for he will treat you well.

Frank Clayton, late of this place, was the jeweler who endorsed Chas. Weinerich's order for $2000 worth of bridal presents at a large Seattle establishment where Mr. Clayton is now employed. Fortunately the young blood was nabbed in time and made to disgorge, and Mr. Clayton escaped serious damage.

Eastern parties have offered to locate a big distillery here if the people of this section will subscribe a bonus of $4000 and other privileges. S. H. Hull is circulating a subscription list and has succeeded in raising the larger portion of this sum, although considerable still remains unsubscribed. We cannot permit this magnificent chance to benefit ourselves to pass, especially as it can be procured for so small an inducement. Not only would this enterprise give direct employment to a large number of men, but it would furnish a ready market for thousands of bushels of corn, rye and other kinds of grain. The incidental benefits to be derived therefrom would also be great. Let our citizens consult their best interests and not allow this opportunity to go by.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS.

Central Point is beginning to boom.

W. E. Berry has removed to Myrtle Creek.

John White and Col. Miller paid us a flying visit this week.

Gildersleeve sells furniture cheaper than anybody in southern Oregon.

Furniture of all kinds at Gildersleeve's. Finest stock south of Eugene.

Prof. Kurth is now a resident of Grant's Pass. He is a first class musician.

No need of sending to Portland for furniture. Gildersleeve keeps a fine assortment and sells at the lowest rates.

Stidam and Markham have taken charge of the Morine restaurant, and are now ready to furnish first-class meals.

Lou Gay has gone to Portland, where he is tendered a position in a dry goods store. His many friends here wish him success.

Some good horses were in town last Tuesday for sale, but the buyer failed to purchase many, as his prices were too low. Dr. Lappeus, fine team sold for $160.

Capt. Werk is developing a fine Tybault filly at the race track for Gin Lin. The dam is Lin's fine Graduate mare, and the youngster is quite promising. The Captain is also introducing to harness a nice Adrian yearling owned by John Wells of the lower valley.

James McDonough having brought home all of his race stock from Yreka excepting Georgie Woodthorpe—still under Swan & Peacock's tutelage—will probably have some of his stock worked at the Central Point track during the winter and spring months.

Prof. Fitzgerald organized a dancing club last Saturday night. It was a grand success, thirty members having joined the first night. The club will meet every Saturday evening at eight o'clock sharp. Everyone is invited to attend. Ladies free. Gentlemen seventy-five cents.

The noted bilk published by Capt. Wm. Wilbour of Henley, Cal., in the Ashland "Tidings," stopped three days with Frank Amy the first part of the week. He was dealing in real estate, as usual, and Frank didn't get on to the combination till it was too late and his man had skipped out. Look out for him, he is still making for the north pole.

Life is Misery

To thousands of people who have the taint of scrofula in their blood. The agonies caused by the dreadful running sores and other manifestations of this disease are beyond description. There is no other remedy equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, salt rheum and every form of blood disease It is reasonably sure to benefit all who give it a fair trial. Be sure to get Hood's.

A LEVEL HEAD.

The Advantage of Presence of Mind in an Emergency.

During the late strike on the New York Central Railroad, the militia were ordered to be in readiness in case of a riot, but they were not called out.

In an interview, Gov. Hill said the troops were not to be called upon except in case of an emergency. The emergency had not arisen, therefore they would not be ordered out. He remarked that this was the first great strike with which he had had experience, and he did not propose to lose his head; the only point at which there had then been serious trouble was at Syracuse, and there a deputy-sheriff had lost his head and precipitated an encounter.

The strike continued several weeks and there was riotous action at various points along the road, but the civil authorities were able to cope with it without calling on the militia.

The test of a man's real ability comes when an emergency arises which makes a hasty call on his good judgment and discretion. The man who retains his presence of mind, maintains his equipoise and exercises sound discretion at such critical junctures, is to be relied on and will be put to the front.

Men with level heads have the staying qualities which do not falter in the face of danger. Otis A. Cole, of Kinsman, O., June 10, 1890, writes: "In the fall of 1888 I was feeling very ill. I consulted a doctor and he said I had Bright's disease of the kidneys and that he would not stand in my shoes for the state of Ohio." But he did not lose courage or give up; he says: "I saw the testimonial of Mr. John Coleman, 100 Gregory St., New Haven, Conn., and I wrote to him. In due time I received an answer, stating that the testimonial that he gave was genuine and not overdrawn in any particular. I took a good many bottles of Warner's Safe Cure; have not taken any for one year."

Gov. Hill is accounted a very successful man; he is cool and calculating and belongs to the class that do not lose their heads when emergencies arise.

A MAN GAINED 18 1-2 POUNDS.

IN TWO MONTHS UNDER DR. DARRIN'S ELECTRIC AND MEDICAL TREATMENT—FREE TREATMENT CONTINUED BY DRS. DARRIN. ONE OF THE DOCTORS TO VISIT THE DALLES, PENDLETON AND BAKER CITY.

Roy, Pierce Co., Wash.

Dr. Darrin—"Dear Sir": I commenced treatment with you two months ago for heart disease, consumption, dyspepsia and enlargement of the liver. When I first commenced my head was dizzy and mind so confused that I could scarcely think of anything; all was confusion. Now, my mind is clear, my heart troubles me very little. The palpitation is about all gone, the pain and distress in my heart, stomach and bowels cease to trouble me. The enlargement of the liver is gradually going down. So I begin to feel like a new man. My friends are surprised to see me look so well. When I commenced treatment I weighed only 95 pounds, now I weigh 113½. I cannot thank you enough for the relief you have given me. I am sincerely your friend,

WM MCCUTCHEON.

Fruit! HOMES IN ORCHARDS. Fruit!

We challenge the reader to successfully controvert the assertion that an acre of thrifty, well-cultivated, producing orchard trees in the valley of Rogue River will yield a net yearly income of $100. It will average 100 trees to the acre, and the estimate is based upon the demonstrated fact that each fruit tree will produce $1 in value, net, of marketable fruit each year.

That is Legal Interest at 10 Per Cent. on $1000.

In other words an acre of producing fruit trees has a valuation of $1000. It is better than any bank—for the bank is sometimes carried into Canada by the cashier. Dame nature—a trust-worthy guardian—takes care of the principle, and the dividends never fail. Of course if you plow your orchard once in twenty years, and rob the trees of their nourishment by making a cornfield of the orchard ground, and invite the birds and orchard pests to make a restaurant of your orchard, you must not complain that your horticultural methods have precipitated a foreclosure of the mortgage on your orchard.

CULTIVATE YOUR ORCHARD

With half the care you give wheat-fields, and it will yield an income on a valuation of $1000 an acre. There is not a wheat-field in this county which yields such an income, and EVERY orchard does.

We propose to sell you an acre of fine alluvial soil, within cannon shot of five growing towns, close to the steel rails of a trans-continental railroad, in the most beautiful valley on the slope of the Pacific, with one hundred growing, thrifty producing fruit trees, to be selected by you. Buy it for a home to shelter you if adversity or the winters of old age overtake you and find you penniless.

IT IS WORTH $1,000.

We give away the land. Pay us $10 a month, 10 cents a tree, for two years, and we will present you a warranty deed of the acre, and GUARANTEE it to have a thrifty, growing, producing orchard.

Despite these facts the farmers of the country continue to value their land high, and rob its soil by sowing it with wheat and competing in the markets of the world with the serfs of Russia and the slaves of India. "Export the wheat of a country and you ship away the vitality of its soil," says a great economic writer. The people of Jackson county should learn this as an axiom.

Every bread-winner at the forge or near the cutting saws, or in sound of the hum of the shuttles, or the thunder of the factories, or toiling late over desk and counter, should study our plan well. It means a home for a life-time out of the meagre savings of 2 years' work. A more beautiful and a larger home than ninety per cent. of the population of the civilized earth can claim to own.

Write to us, and we will send you our illustrated book of this great valley and our Orchard Home.
