CAR THIEVES CAUGHT.

Last Sunday evening, at Medford, S. I car No. 4860, containing a consignment of goods for the new Medford clothing merchant, D. G. Cov. was broken into by ramps at about 9:30 o'clock, and 21 pairs of double blankets, several hats, a number of pairs of shoes, some razors, etc., were found to be missing next morning. In the car was found a No. 10, badly worn-tramp's shoe and a No. 7 of the same species, the nates to the old shoes being found at the yesterday end of the switch, denoting at least two W. H. thieves to have been present at the robbery. A lot of "dope-waste" had been piled on a dry-goods box and lighted to serve as a candle for the rascals, and had burned a hole through the box, showing them to have been engaged a considerable time at the job. On Monday the sheriff was given ted at 15 cents. a minute description of the stolen property, and ran the thieves down at Ashiand, with the assistance of Marshal Mayfield and Deputy Marshal Smith, who oblighted ran one of them into the cooler, while the sherify this evening. iff was given a fair swing at questioning the younger of the fellows, who had ob-tained a night's lodging with a woman livthe crime, and put the officers on the track of the missing property that they admit having stolen even to the two pairs of blankets they had used for bedding and left under a laurel tree near Pacenix. The other fellow virtually admitted his complicity in the crime after learning of his sick during the week.

As their story hung together so well the officers are inclined to think that other thieves raided the car after they left it. The young fellow who confessed gave his name as Wm Johnson, the other calling himself Jim McCarthy. Both had a preliminary hearing be-fore Justice G. S. Walton at Medford on Tuesday last, and were held to await the action of the grand jury. In default of $500 bail bonds both languish in the county jail. They were photographed by P.
