Ix default of the usual batch of sea-serpent stories to relieve the tedium of summer existence, comes a thrilling ac-count of a terrific earthquake in Mexico, by which the earth was caused to open and swallow up the Colorado river, be-sides causing a huge tidal wave to roli over the low lands near the month of that stream from the Gulf of California, which overwhelmed everything that was within its reach. This section evidently needs looking after. THERE cases of drowning took place at the senside in Clatsop county, some distance from Astoria, during the past week. The victims were Miss Nellie Boise, Jaughter of Judge Boise of Salem, Will, Steel, a man whose parents live in Portland, and Mrs. Jennie Parker, wife of the publisher of the Astorian. They were carried out by a strong undertow and drowned, notwithstanding stremous efforts were made to save them. Some others, who were bathing at the same time, narrowly escaped a like fate. Is still going on. Is still going on. Is his anxiety to have Cyrus A. Dolph appointed United States circuit judge Cospressman Hermann seems to have made a mistake. The farmers and Alli-ance men have discovered that their interests are not those which Mr. Dolph will best subserve by getting into such a judicial position, and they are vigorously protesting against his appointment. Mr. Hermann is handling double-edged tools when he thus ruthiessly sacrifices the interests of the farming population to those of the railroad corporations, and he will find it very difficult if not impossible to explain his conduct next June when the contest comes on in the western dis-trict tor his own successor.
