

TO ADVERTISERS.

The TIMES has a circulation of 2560. The success enjoyed by any newspaper published between Portland and Marysville, California, a distance of 700 miles. If therefore offer the best inducements to advertisers. Our list is principally confined to Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties. Business men should take note of this.

The Portland Dispatch is again in the land of the living, having been resurrected by that veteran journalist A. Nolter. We wish him and the able journal he represents the fullest measure of success.

The Republican office-seeking contingent of Oregon is on the anxious seat and will probably remain there for some time longer. Governmental Lord having not given out what he proposes doing in the matter of appointments. He will soon leave for a visit to relatives and friends in the East, and until he returns, and enters upon the duties of his office who the lucky people will be can only be conjectured.

SENATOR JONES has formally abandoned the Republican party. He states that he joined the Populists, and denies that he has become a member of the "Silver Party." There may be a silver party in Nevada, but there is none in national politics. The two great parties are divided on the silver question, and both the congressional campaign committees have advised candidates to use their own judgment as to silver.

EXPORTS of wheat from the Argentine Republic for the current year are estimated by the Review of the River Plate at 1,500,000 tons, or say 55,000,000 bushels, of which it is said 44,000,000 bushels were shipped up to August 1st, a quantity considerably exceeding the entire year 1893, never before approached. Such has been the growth of a country which a dozen years ago was a steady importer, but is now a formidable competitor of the United States. Brazil affords a near and natural outlet for Argentine flour.

AT Portland the citizen's committee of one hundred are waging war on the American Book Company, the soulless corporation which has been robbing the people of this state for a number of years. It is charged that Supt. McElroy is the chief "capper" for this octopus in Oregon, and is the originator of the law which requires a quadrennial change of text books. No school superintendent who has the good of the public at heart should vote for it. The present books are good enough, and we are taxed to death already.

SUIT has been brought against the clerk of Linn county by Horace Farwell of Albany to compel him to file the complaint and necessary papers in a civil suit without exacting payment of fees in advance as required by the new salary law, which it is claimed can be shown to be null and void. This action is brought to test this case, besides other disputed points which several others have commenced. There are a number of imperfections in the new mode of paying county officials, which will probably be corrected by the next legislature.

ARTICLES written by M. Pracht of Ashland and published in some of the New York papers have raised the ire of California buyers, who pack and ship the product under the name of California fruit. The S. F. Chronicle ridicules this and asserts that the name don't count for anything. What's hurting the Californians, then? The statement was a fact and evidently struck a tender place, even Max occasionally converses through his millinery.

"Oul how this world is giving to lying." Granulated sugar is selling to-day in Jacksonville, by the half barrel, at 8 1/2 cents a pound. One year ago, in the same market and under the McKinley law, it was sold at 7 1/2 cents. Wm. Bybee sold his wool crop this fall at 12 1/2 cents per pound and last fall at 10 cents. When the new law is thoroughly understood and tested the people will find the beneficial results of the lowest tariff that is consistent with the raising of revenue for the maintenance of the government under a most economical administration.

THE Welcome makes the prediction that the coming legislature, like its last predecessor, will wink at extravagance and greed and re-elect Senator Dolph. The people cannot expect anything else, for the past record of the Republican party in Oregon should have been warning enough. Those who think that the useless railroad-commission law will be abolished, the mortgage law and the exemption-for-indebtedness clause re-enacted, may look for a surprise party, but they will be disappointed. The Republican managers are "forinist" such legislation; and that settles it.

POSTMASTER PROTZMAN of Portland has forwarded a new bond to Washington. This was made necessary by a number of prominent Democrats withdrawing from his first bond on account of dissatisfaction with a number of appointments made by Mr. Protzman. His appointment of several Republicans to places in the postoffice is satisfactory to very few Democrats, and his political opponents cannot look upon it with anything but mingled contempt and amusement. There are certainly plenty of competent and worthy Democrats to fill all the offices in the gift of the government. Besides, such ridiculous and unjust action hurts the party organization, and naturally tends to make its members lukewarm in their efforts for success. One reason for the strength and recuperative powers of the Republican parties in the fact that its workers may depend upon reward and its opponents upon bouillon.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE special stalling race at Boston on Sept. 26th, for a purse of $15,000, was easily won by Monroe Salisbury's Directum in three straight heats over Arion and Nelson, also fast and celebrated horses. The track was a trifle slow and a stiff north-east wind prevented extra fast time. The best time was 2:10.

OTTO ZEGLER, the champion bicyclist, raced a half mile, on Sept. 26th, against the pacer, W. Wood, at San Jose. Zeigler won in 1:20, which is considered very fast time for the track. The horse was paced by a runner and the bicyclist trailed him until near the distance stand, when he shot ahead and won by about ten inches.

The big fight between Fitzsimmons and Creedon at New Orleans, on the 26th, lasted just two rounds and was won by the lanky Australian. Creedon was an easy mark for Fitz, who has proved himself one of the most scientific and hardest hitters in the ring. After the decision was rendered Fitzsimmons formally challenged Corbett and signed articles to meet the champion in February for the world's championship, a purse of $25,000 and a side bet of $10,000 before the Olympic club of New Orleans.

THE jury in the case of the state vs. Prof. McFadden of the Toledo, Lincoln county, public schools, after being out about 50 hours, returned a verdict of guilty. The defendant was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $50. The case created great excitement in Toledo. Prof. McFadden had severely punished Col. Van-Cleve's son, who was a pupil at his school, and was arrested for assault and battery. The jury did wrong in convicting him, as young Van-Cleve is doubtless one of those who defy the teacher and need corporal punishment. There is entirely too much sentimentality among the public concerning the rights of the pupils.

THERE was plenty of reason for the interrogatories Governor Penneyer has propounded to the banks of Oregon, relative to cheating funds in their possession, says the Corvallis Times. Negligence in this matter has in a single instance in Corvallis cost the state $250 and interest for a long time. By death without heirs of Henry Mann in Corvallis several years ago his estate, aggregating about $1000, escheated to the state, and at the time of suspension of the Job bank a trifle over $500 of it was on deposit. The administrator of the estate had settled up its affairs almost a year before the suspension and with due diligence the funds should have been in the hands of the state treasurer long before the Job bank went to the wall. The deposit was to the account of the clerk of the county court, and both he and the county judge declare that the governor was repeatedly notified that the residue of the estate was subject to his order, but that the order to turn it over to the treasurer has never arrived.

DIRECTOR LECH, of the American mint, estimates the per capita circulation of money and currency at $22.36 in the United States. This includes gold, silver, gold certificates, silver certificates, greenbacks, treasury notes and national bank notes. If we could ascertain the amount held in the treasury, the amount held in the banks as reserves for the redemption of their notes, the amount locked up in the state, county and municipal treasuries, the amounts hidden away by misers, all of which might as well be in the bottom of the ocean so far as performing the functions of money are concerned, we would have some idea of the real per capita circulation. Granting that the actual available volume of circulating medium is $22.36 per head, it will hardly be claimed that there is an inflation and the amount should be reduced. As our population is increasing at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum, if the per capita circulation of $22.36 is to be maintained there must be an addition of $50,000,000 annually to the money volume. If there is a gradual expansion for five years, so that at the end of that time we have $30 per capita, it will require an annual addition of $100,000,000 for five years. Where is it to come from? Certainly not from the stock of gold, as the addition largely exceeds the entire product of all the gold mines of the world. If silver is fully remonetized and the entire product of American mines is immediately coined and added to the circulation, there would still be a large deficit, a dangerous contraction of the money volume. There is now a dearth of money, and only partial relief will be afforded by the free coinage of silver.

WHAT WE NEED MOST.

The people of southern Oregon—merchants as well as farmers—should form a joint stock company for the purpose of erecting one or more creameries at different points. Such an enterprise has proved successful in more ways than one, and in this age when grain and other agricultural products are cheap and unprofitable, creameries are proving a solution to the hard times in many farming communities throughout the country. The people of Hayes' Corners, a settlement in Scott valley, Calif., just built such an establishment, and the Yreka Journal gives this description of it: "The creamery is a large two-story structure, 40x70 feet, the upper to be used as a storeroom, including rooms in side of both stories for office and use of the men. It is built against a hill with a roadway at the rear, where the milk is delivered near the upper story, and large scales are provided for weighing the milk and also two tanks of 100 gallons each to hold the same. From these tanks the milk is run off into two large 600-gallon tanks and thence into two separators, the cream going into two 600-gallon tanks, while the skim milk is pumped off a long distance to a tank of 1000 gallons capacity. The separators are operated by a steam turbine of new invention, which makes 8,000 revolutions a minute. The cream from the last tanks is run into two large churns of 400 gallons capacity each, and then worked out on a large butter worker, when tested and put up in firkins for shipment. The entire machinery is operated by a 20-horse power steam engine with a 25-horse power boiler."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Life or Death?

It is of vital importance that it should be understood by persons whose kidneys are inactive, that this condition of things is finally indicative of a state of organs where life hangs in the balance. Bright's disease, diabetes, albuminuria are all diseases of a very obdurate character in their mature stage, and all have a fatal tendency. They often baffie the most practical medical skill and the most approved remedies of material media. But opposed at the outset—that is to say, when the kidneys begin to discharge their functions ineffectively—with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the dangerous tendency is checked. Very useful, also, is this household medicine for those ailments of common occurrence—constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia and nervousness. It is a safeguard against malaria and averts chronic rheumatism.

Bad News for Fruit Growers.

S. A. Clarke of Salem, who has spent much time and considerable money in trying to open a market for Oregon fruit in the eastern states, informs us that the bottom has fallen out. He showed us several telegrams in Portland from Chicago and other eastern cities and from parties in California, stating that it would be ruinous to make any more shipments, as the last shipment did not pay freight and expenses. There is nothing left for the growers after the fruit is sold, and those who undertake to handle it do not make expenses. Mr. Clarke has given up the business.—Eugene Guard.

"A Friend in Need is a Friend Indeed." A friend advised me to try Ely's Cream Balm and after using it six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh. It is a most valuable remedy.—Joseph Stewart, 624 Grand Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Best Medicine. J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and permanently cured by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colic. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.

A Cheap Power.

And at the same time a reliable power, are the points to be sought for in purchasing an engine. With steam power a constant watch on the gauge is necessary to prevent accidents, and the expense for engineering is a serious item against economy. The gas or gasoline engine is by far the cheapest power, as it will run all day without attention or fear of accident, and the cost is about two cents per hour for fuel per horse power. For intermittent power the economy of gas over steam is beyond comparison. While these points of superiority are without question, it is important in selecting an engine to get the best; the best in the long run is the cheapest. Do not fail to investigate the striking advantages of the Hercules Gas and Gasoline engines of the Hercules Gas Engine Co. Send for catalogue and other makes at cheap rates we can supply you. We have a number taken in trade and cannot take any more until they are realized on. PALMER & KEY TYPE FOUNDRY, Front & Alder Sts., Portland, Oregon.
