Miss Thurman has been twice married and divorced, ber last husband being J. Thomas Scott Clifford, with whom she lived in Lower California until their separation in January last, when she seenred a decree on the ground of cruelty. Clifford had taken up his abode there to avoid prosecution for bigamy, being married to another woman in the United States. Miss Thurman and Holliday left San Diego in company and it was understood by mutual friends/they were to be married in Los Angeles. It was THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE FORMED A on account of the unfortunate matrimonial alliances of his daughter that Mr. Thurman disowned her, she having deserted her first husband, whom she married in Washington during her father's senatorial career.
