CONGRESSMAN H. D. MONEY, who has senate from Mississippi, must wait until 1899 before he can take his seat. His long delay before entering upon the higher honors conterred upon him is due to the fact that in his state the legislature meets only once in four years and a vacancy occurs in the senate before the next meeting. It is hoped that by the time Mr. Money is seated there will have been adopted a new and more popular method of electing United States Senators.
