No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition, yet with no external signs, no skin eruption or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable appetite, poor digestion, an indescribable weakness and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities, has become thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several bottles of S. S. S. as a blood purifier and to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect by way of improvement. We regard it a great tonic and blood purifier."—J. F. DUFF, Princeton, Mo.

SSS is the greatest of all tonics, and you will find the appetite improves at once, strength returns, and nervousness vanishes as new rich pure blood once more circulates through all parts of the system.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. It contains no minerals whatever. Send for our free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted. No charge for medical advice.

A RAW YOUNG LAWYER.

His First Case Introduced Him to Contempt of Court.

Some of the members of the bar were discussing contempt cases because of a recent notable event in the state, and one of the little coterie related a personal experience.

"I read law at home and had my examinations through a little country lawyer who knew a great deal, but never had a big case and was notorious for his ability in abusing justices of the peace. It may seem a preposterous statement, but I had never heard or thought of such a thing as contempt of court when I had my first professional experience in a common pleas court. No sooner had the opposition attorney made an objection than the judge ruled against me.

"I proceeded to inform him that he was wrong, that he knew he was wrong and that I wished he would quit his pettifoggery. The lawyers in attendance were temporarily petrified; the venerable judge glared at me over his glasses, finally smiled in a forgiving sort of way and told me to proceed. Very soon there was another well taken objection, and again he ruled against me. This practically took the props from under my case, and I went at the judge as my instructor had been accustomed to go at a justice of the peace in a back township.

"Your honor," I declaimed, "is a political accident. In the eternal fitness of things you should be digging coal or cleaning out underbrush. You have no more sense of justice than a Zulu chief of mercy. Thank heaven there is a higher judicial tribunal in this state than— But there I was halted by a fine of $200 or 90 days in jail. The judge took me to his private room, where he learned my story and remitted the fine. To pay $200 at that time would have pauperized me. I now have quite a reputation for never rubbing the court the wrong way."—Detroit Free Press.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. Geo. Long of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors; but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cases are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c, and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at City Drug Store.

Carlisle Against Griggs.

The country is profoundly interested in the cases before the supreme court involving the constitutional status of Porto Rico and the Philippines. Several widely known attorneys are connected with the hearings, but probably the greatest display of legal acumen and judicial oratory will come when Joan G. Carlisle makes his attack upon the course and policy of the administration. The famous Kentuckian is a constitutional lawyer of the first rank, and he has been preparing for this contest for months. Attorney General Griggs has taken the positive stand that the territories in question have not the rights guaranteed to the states of the Union, and he is fearlessly defending his position. It will be a battle royal between Carlisle and Griggs.

Even Queens P.H.

When the king and queen of Norway and Sweden were in England, they were anxious to see Adeline Pattil and her Swede husband and received a special invitation from the couple to call. So Baron and Baroness Rolf Cederstrom put on their best bibs and tuckers and went down to Koehampton, where their majesties were staying, and after a nice chat and some refreshment the diva asked the queen if she would like to have her sing for her. Nothing half so much, and the amiable Patti sat down to the piano and sang all the old songs as well as she knew how. Now, this strikes one as a royal way to play for a royal audience, and the good queen evidently thought so, too, for she embraced the little baroness with affection and told a little fib. She said Patti's voice was just as beautiful as ever!—Boston Herald.

A Child's Philosophy.

It is one of the prime secrets of happiness to recognize and accept one's natural inclinations, but philosophy of this kind is perhaps hardly to be expected of children.

A little girl had sent back her plate for turkey two or three times and had been helped generously to all the good things that go to make a grand Christmas dinner. Finally she was observed looking rather disconsolately at her unfinished plate of turkey.

"What's the matter, Ethel?" asked Uncle John. "You look mournful."

"That's just the matter," said Ethel. "I am more'n full."

And then she wondered why every body laughed.—Stray Stories.

PAY OF GERMAN JUDGES.

The whole question of the remuneration of public officials in Germany, and especially in Berlin, is beginning to demand serious attention. English, Scotch or Irish judges would be amazed if they were informed of the miserable salaries—$1,500 a year is considered above the average—which their German colleagues receive for labors which in many cases are far more exacting than their own. In the days when Prussia was a small agricultural state and the standard of life in the towns was low, such salaries, combined with the honor of being a Prussian official, may have been adequate. Nowadays the honor of the position is the only attraction, and able men who are poor find an official career an expensive luxury.

The profession of law, moreover, except in its highest official grades, is not honored in Germany as it is in England. Will it be believed that a barrister as such cannot be received at court? There is a true story of a foreign barrister who was invited to attend a court function in Berlin and who was also requested, in accordance with the Prussian custom, to state his profession at the chamberlain's office. He replied, "I am a rechtsanwalt" (barrister). "Could you, please, give some other description of your quality?" pleaded the court official. "Barristers are not hofbahig (i. e., cannot go to court) in Berlin."—London Telegraph.

The Mother's Favorite.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is especially intended for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children, for it contains no opium or other injurious drug, and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by City Drug Store.

Chinese Warfare Instincts.

"The Chinese have no warlike instincts," says Colonel Webb C. Hayes, who has just returned from service on the personal staff of General Chaffee. "They are not a nation of warriors, but if they should ever be trained they would make the finest soldiers in the world. They do not know what fear means, and they absolutely disregard death. There are two things they worship—their fathers and the almighty dollar. You may kill a man over there, and no one thinks anything of it unless the dead man happens to be his father. They shrug their shoulders and say, 'There are plenty left,' and that is all. The Chinese are not vindictive. They get excited now and then and go in for slaughter, and the next minute they are cool and are drinking tea. Our cavalry made an attack upon a mob of Chinese one day, and they quietly sat down upon the ground and waited the advance of the column. They knew they would all be killed, but did not seem to care. They struck at the horses with pikes and something that looked like forks. The idea of trying to disembowel horses and fighting cavalry by sitting upon the ground was something new for modern soldiers to face."

Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks.

Prof. Roxa Tyler of Chicago, Vice-President Illinois Women's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies, but I seemed to grow worse, and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I found it pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by City Drug Store.

A Troublesome Tablet.

The handsome bronze tablet, 12 feet by 5, which the state of New Hampshire presented to the battleship Alabama is giving the officers a good deal of trouble. It was intended to occupy a position on the exterior of the forward turret directly under and between the two 12 inch guns. Figure heads having become obsolete, that portion of a man-of-war is used nowadays to receive the ship's escutcheon. But the workmen find it impossible to bore holes in the harveyized steel in order to rivet it, and it may have to occupy a less conspicuous position.

Do Not Trifle with danger—and remember every cough or cold means danger.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure
