Novel Risks Granted by Up to Date English Companies,

It was stated recently as a fact of novel and material interest that it was now possible to insure for the contingency of being the father of twins. And so it is. You can also insure prospective triplets. But that is a small matter compared to the queer risks insurance companies are taking every between Coos river and Catching day. Anything, from the vicissitudes slough has been bonded. of playing a fast bowler on a kicking wicket to the chance of an heir changing his religious tenets, is now a subject for an insurance policy.

"We insure people against the possi bility of any calamity, whatever it may be," said Mr. Armstrong of the Ocean Accident Insurance company to a Mail

The Lark's Song.

A writer on "The Wonders of the Spring" says that the volume of sound produced by the skylark is most wonderful. "The lark ascends until it appears no larger than a midge and can with difficulty be seen by the unaided eye, and yet every note of its song will be clearly audible to persons who are fully half a mile from the nest over which the bird utters its

"Moreover, it never ceases to sing for a moment, a feat which seems wenderful to us human beings, who find that a song of six or seven minutes in length, though interspersed with rests and pauses, is more than trying. Yet this bird will pour out a continuous song of nearly 20 minutes in length and all the time has to support itself in the air by the constant use of its

A Business Proposition.

Now, here is a poet who is practical enough. He hails from Dooly county, and it will be seen from his letter that he means business. He writes:

"I have wrote a poem about 100 yards long, as nigh as I kin guess. It took me six months an two hours to write it. I ain't no judge of these things, an what I want to know is where I kin hire a good man to read it for me an tell me what it is. THE TRANSVAAL WAR.

LONDON, January 17 .- The important report received from Johannes-burg that Gen. Dewet has crossed the Vaal and joined forces with the Transvaal commandoes, if true, probably means the concentration of 7,000 Boers with several guns for another big at-

There is a rumor in Cape Town that several Boer leaders are urging an attack upon the mines. It has long been understood that Dewet has been anxious to join the invaders in Cape Colony, and this rumor may be spread to cover an attempt to break south-

A small Boer commando entered Sutherland, cut the telegraph wires, lcoted the stores and then proceeded northward.

According to the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, the Boers occupied Aberdeen, forty miles south of Graafreinet, on Tuesday.

In response to the government's call, volunteering is said to be brisk in both London and the reviews in both London and the provinces.

Defensive measures in South Africa proceed apace. Seven thousand men have joined the city guard in Cape Town, and 3,000 others have volunteered in the company of the ed in the suburbs.

Five thousand yeomen are being enlisted for service in South Africa.

Martial law has been proclaimed in almost every part of Cape Colony. It has also been proclaimed in Tombuland, Griqualand East, and in east and west Pondoland. It has been proclaimed unlawful for any person in the Cape peninsula, except soldiers, to possess arms or ammunition, or PRETORIA, Jan. 17.—Boer families and their stock are being systematically brought into convenient centers from all over the country. They are kept in camps and fed. Those who surrender voluntarily are supplied with full rations, and those whose husbands are still in the field are provided for on a reduced scale, which is raised when the husbands surrender to a full allowance. Colville's mobile column, marching from New Denmark to Vladlaagte was attacked by 1000 Boers, divided into two forces. One force made a determined attempt on the baggage, and the other on the cavalry con-stituting the rear guard. The cavalry was compelled to retire until protected by four companies of rifles, hidden behind a ridge, who were waiting with bayonets. The Boers made a speedy retreat, leaving several dead and wounded from the heavy Receiver Clark of the Chosen dulgent mother, too, puts a little lunch British fire. Eventually both attacks

That Cough Hangs On

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pne monia or a serious ... affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attacks. If you are run down or emaciated you should certainly take this nourishing food medicine.
