LOCAL NOTES.

Taxes are now due. President McKinley's second term has begun. Plant your spring advertisement in THE TIMES. Spring seems to be with us, as the weather is pleasant. E. A. Pierce has removed from Gold Hill to Grant's Pass. If you never had any good photos before, try Mackey & Boyd. Elegant home-made candies of all kinds a specialty at Joe Wetterer's. The county commissioners' court meets this week, beginning on the 6th inst. Divorce cases will be numerous when circuit court meets again, as usual. M. Vaughn now resides in Table Rock precinct, where he is engaged in farming. Louis H. Plymale is filling a good position with Merrill's bicycle agency in Portland. S. L. Benson, the well-known miner, has removed from Applegate to Grant's Pass. You can get the most candy for your money at "The Boss." Satisfaction guaranteed. Have your photos made while Mackey & Boyd are in town, during the next two weeks. The roll for 1900 has been turned over to Sheriff Orme, and he is now ready to receive taxes. E. Earhart, lately of Gold Hill, has become a resident of Crescent city, Calif. Success to him. Wm. Russell, the brick manufacturer, formerly of Jacksonville and Gold Hill, is located at Ashland. Before long Ruch will be connected with Jacksonville and Sam's valley with Gold Hill by telephone. Joe Wetterer makes a specialty of light drinks, fresh candies, nuts, tropical and other fruits, etc. All kinds of fruit, including oranges, bananas and lemons, also vegetables, cheaper than the cheapest at "The Boss." From the number of people that are seen on our streets every day would indicate a livening up of business affairs. S. Shattuck, one of the cattle kings of Siskiyou county, Calif., was in this section last week, looking for some of his stock. Bring the little folks while the photo tent is in town. They never feel good after a six or eight mile drive. The streams were quite high for some time. It has been impossible to cross the Applegate at the usual fording places. M. Spahn and Frank Richter, two veterans of the civil war, were in Jacksonville on the 4th, that being pension day. As the weather has been very stormy the Mackey & Boyd photo tent will remain in Jacksonville until the middle of March. Justice Osborn and H. H. Hughes of Woodville were in Jacksonville last week, on business peculiarly interesting to the latter. Rheumatism in all its forms is promptly and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which neutralizes the acidity of the blood. J. M. Caruthers, the pioneer candy manufacturer of southern Oregon, is now located at Gold Hill, where he is building up a good business. J. A. Rhoten of Kane's creek, the well-known pocket-hunter in town, reports that several rich strikes have been made in that section lately. Martin Angel, a native of southern Oregon, is sojourning in Portland. He will soon return to Alaska, where he has spent several seasons and done well. Salt fish, new barrel of bloater mackerel, Columbia river salmon bellies, boneless codfish, during the Lenten season at Nunan's, Jacksonville. Thos. E. Hammersly, who is a member of Baker city's police force, is paying southern Oregon a visit. He received a warm welcome from his many friends. Five trustees, a recorder, marshal, treasurer and street commissioner will be elected at the ensuing town election. An interesting contest is promised. Jay Davis and H. Edwards of Central Point have contracted with Muller & Ulrich to haul a large quantity of wood from Jackson creek district to the railroad. Have you seen those big oranges at "The Boss," two for five cents? I get my oranges direct from the grower, and they ripen on the tree; they are fine and cheap. Dr. C. Vroman has purchased I. W. Cox's blacksmith shop at Gold Hill. The latter has bought a farm on Deer creek, Josephine county, and will take possession soon. J. P. Harr, who has been a resident of Jacksonville for some time, recently purchased S. Arrasmith's ranch, situated in Watkins precinct, and will take possession soon. John S. Herrin of Ashland has commenced suit for divorce against his wife, who now resides at Clinton, Iowa, alleging desertion. Wm. M. Colvig is his attorney. H. G. Dox respectfully asks the suffrages of the voters of Jacksonville at the ensuing municipal election. He is a good penman and well qualified for the position of recorder. Horse and jack bills printed at THE TIMES office in the best style and at reasonable rates. We have a large and elegant assortment of engravings especially designed for that class of work. Millions of people are familiar with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, and those who use them find them to be famous little liver pills. City Drug Store and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point.

Persons who cannot take ordinary pills find it a pleasure to take DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They are the best little liver pills ever made. City Drug Store and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point. THE TIMES today prints a full list of the bills passed by the legislature which have been signed by the governor and filed by him with the secretary of state, and thus became laws. It is interesting reading. A. J. Beck, who was a resident of this vicinity for several years, and removed to Washington several months ago, received a stroke of paralysis, from which he died Jan. 29th. He leaves a wife and family of grown-up children. Headache often results from a disordered condition of the stomach and constipation of the bowels. A dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct these disorders and cure the headache. Sold by City Drug Store. C. H. Basye, L. C. Kain and Chris. Ulrich went to Gold Hill Saturday, to meet with the Odd Fellows lodge in that town, relative to the celebration of the anniversary of the order in Jacksonville, April 25th. They will visit other lodges in the valley on the same mission. Chas. Birdsey of Avon, Mont., a brother of the late D. N. and Fred Birdsey, died long ago. Death resulted from the effects of an operation. Mr. B. was one of the pioneers of the Pacific coast and a man of excellent qualities, who had amassed a large share of this world's goods. P. F. Swayne of Applegate awarded Wm. Broad and D. S. Coulter the contract for digging a ditch of considerable size, bids for doing which work he advertised for in THE TIMES. The contractors began operations at once and are making excellent progress, considering the hardness of the ground. A postoffice, called Agate, will be established in a very short time on J. S. Grigsby's farm, in Mound precinct, at the intersection of the Table Rock and Eagle Point roads. It will prove quite a convenience to many. Mr. G. will be the postmaster, and will doubtless perform his duties satisfactorily to all. Miss Iula Bradley of Eugene, the popular school teacher, and Chas. A. Bond, one of the prominent farmers of Lake county, were joined in wedlock a short time ago. THE TIMES tender them its congratulations, and trusts that their journey on matrimonial seas will be fraught with happiness and prosperity. Mrs. C. E. VanDeusen of Kilbourn, Wis., was afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation for a long time. She says: "I have tried many preparations; but none have done me the good that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have." These tablets are for sale at City Drug Store. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. The Southern Pacific has 30 Japanese employed at Talent loading wood. There are plenty of white men who would be willing to do this work. Japanese as well as Chinese should be kept out of the United States, as their presence is demoralizing and hurtful in more ways than one. Congress should pass a law excluding both races. The wife of Heaton Fox of Ashland, charged with insanity, was examined last Thursday, Judge Prim having gone to that city to hold the examination. Dr. Songer, the examining physician, pronounced her insane, and she was taken to Salem the same evening by Sheriff Orme. Mrs. Fox's husband and children accompanied her. She imagines that some one intends to kill her. Mrs. Mamie Briggs of Chehalis, Wash., past worthy chief of the Degree of Honor, who is engaged in the beneficiary work of the order, has been visiting the different lodges in southern Oregon. She met with Madrona lodge of Jacksonville Friday evening, and the meeting proved a success in every way. Mrs. Briggs being a pleasant and instructive speaker, the lodges are benefited much by her visits. For Over Fifty Years. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children while teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty cents a bottle. Sold by druggists throughout the world. Land for Sale. Forty acres of land on Thompson creek. Has a dwelling thereon, 20x20 feet, with four rooms, a log stable, 12x14 feet, 12 acres fenced and in cultivation. A few fruit trees. Clear title, free from incumbrance. Price $200. Inquire of SILAS J. DAY, Real Estate Agent, Jacksonville, Or. Horses Lost. Strayed from Footh creek district, about three years ago, three horses, each branded with a square block on left side, points projecting from each corner thereof. One is a bay mare, 12 years old, weighing 1150 pounds, long body, snout in a grey gelding, 9 years old, weighing between ten and eleven hundred pounds; and the other a chestnut sorrel mare, 7 years old, with white strip down nose, weighing about 1400 pounds. They were seen recently, ranging on the desert, near Bybee's bridge. I will pay $5 a head to anybody who finds the above animals and will put them in some enclosure. For further particulars call on or address P. W. CARRIS, Kubli, Jackson Co., Or. A Farm for Sale. A 120-acre tract, all fenced, 70 acres under cultivation, free soil and easily cultivated, is on the public road a quarter of a mile from Moorhill, Adams valley, postoffice—improved with a dwelling house, with four rooms below and one above, a good, large barn, smoke-house and woodshed; Rock creek flows through the land, a good well of water at the house and a good well at the barn; six miles from Gold Hill railroad station. Will be sold for $10 per acre, half cash at time of sale, balance on one year's time, interest 8 per cent. per annum, or all cash at option of the purchaser. Inquire of SILAS J. DAY, real estate agent, Jacksonville, Oregon. For Sale. A Farm of 720 acres, located on Rogue River, suitable for grain and fruit culture or stock raising; has ample buildings and fencing. Poison Oak Poison Ivy are among the best known of the many dangerous wild plants and shrubs. To touch or handle them quickly produces swelling and inflammation with intense itching and burning of the skin. The eruption soon disappears, the sufferer hopes forever; but almost as soon as the little blisters and pustules appeared the poison had reached the blood, and will break out at regular intervals and each time in a more aggravated form. This poison will linger in the system for years, and every atom of it must be forced out of the blood before you can expect a perfect, permanent cure. SSS Nature's Antidote FOR SSS Nature's Poisons, is the only cure for Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, and all noxious plants. It is composed exclusively of roots and herbs. Now is the time to get the poison out of your system, as delay makes your condition worse. Don't experiment longer with salves, washes and soaps—they never cure. Mr. S. M. Marshall, book-keeper of the Atlanta (Ga.) Gas Light Co., was poisoned with Poison Oak. He took Sulphur, Arsenic and various other drugs, and applied externally numerous lotions and salves with no benefit. At times the swelling and inflammation was so severe he was almost blind. For eight years the poison would break out every season. His condition was much improved after taking one bottle of S. S. S., and a few bottles cleared his blood of the poison, and all evidences of the disease disappeared. People are often poisoned without knowing when or how. Explain your case fully to our physicians, and they will cheerfully give such information and advice as you require, without charge, and we will send at the same time an interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases. THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS is the one important magazine in the world giving in its pictures, its text, in its contributed articles, editorials and departments, a comprehensive, timely record of the world's current history. Not the enumeration of mere bare facts, but a comprehensive picture of the month, its activities, its notable personalities, and notable utterances. The best informed men and women in the world find it indispensable. There are many readers in your locality who have yet to learn of its usefulness. We wish to establish active agents in every city and township in the country. We will pay liberally for energetic effort in the subscription field. Leisure moments can be utilized with substantial increase of income. Make a list of the persons in your locality who should have the "Review of Reviews," and send to us for agent's terms, sample copies, and working outfit. Then solicit their subscriptions. It is a compliment to approach a person with a subscription proposition for the "Review of Reviews," and consequently orders are easily secured. This is the active subscription season. Make application at once, naming your references. Price, 25 cents a number. $2.50 a year. THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS COMPANY, 15 Astor Place, New York City.
