Now it is proposed to allow President McKinley to choose the route of a canal which will join the Atlantic and Pacific. It is dollars to doughnuts that he will not select the Nicaragua route, against which is arrayed the railroad and other vast corporate interests.

Mrs. Nation's saloon-wrecking crusade is occasion of some pertinent paragraphs in the March Review of Reviews on the subject of American lawlessness, the lynching evil, and official responsibility for public order. The editor takes the ground that lawlessness, at the present time in this country, is "a greater danger than drunkenness," and that "the law should be put in enforceable shape and then enforced, in spite of everything."

Steps should be taken at once by the people of Jackson and Josephine counties to send a first-class exhibit of our agricultural, mineral and horticultural products to the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo. There is no calculating the benefits that will inure to this section therefrom. It would be the means of attracting a great deal of attention toward our resources, which must only be known to be appreciated. No time can be lost, as the exposition opens in May.

The British government, it is reported, wearied by the gallant struggle made against its aggressions, has at last decided to grant more liberal terms to the Boers if they will surrender. Lord Kitchener has been authorized to offer amnesty to both the Boers and their leaders, except where treachery is proven. They are to be given loans to restock their farms, and a form of civil government will be established at once that will make the South African republics a kind of crown colony. This will suit none but those who are willing to surrender anyway.

The Boers are plucky to the very last, and will die fighting rather than surrender under the unmerciful and dishonorable conditions imposed by Great Britain. On March 19th Chamberlain, colonial secretary, informed the House of Commons that General Botha had rejected the peace terms offered him. Botha conveyed the information in a letter to Kitchener, in which he announced that he was not disposed to recommend the terms of peace. Kitchener was instructed to offer him the earnest consideration of his government. Botha added that his government and its chief officers entirely agree with his views.

All kinds of romantic and unreasonable stories have been and are being told about Aguinaldo. The latest is narrated by Frank W. Vaille, who lately returned from the Philippines, where he was director-general of posts. He said Gen. Otis had told him that he did not want to capture Aguinaldo. "It is better for him to be in the bush," Vaille quotes Otis as saying, "than to be in the hands of the American army, posing as a martyr." This sounds considerably like the sour-grape story told of the fox, however. It has so far been that it is impossible to capture the wily Filipino leader, although it is claimed that he is dead.

The election of Senator Mitchell recalls the fact that his daughter Mattie married nine years ago into one of the oldest of France's titled families. She is the wife of the Duc de Rochefoucauld, who has one of the finest lineages in France, three titles, all of the last year's bird's nest variety, a commission in the army and a host of friends. He seems to be an exception to the ordinary run of dukes, for he refused to marry his cousin and a fortune, and took the Oregon girl without a dot. It was a case of love at first sight, although the Duke is 14 years his wife's senior and had the reputation of a woman hater.

Jacob A. Riis, the author of "How the Other Half Lives," is a man of unique and interesting personality. The story of his life is full of incident; and his experiences in his early struggles, after he reached America as a Danish immigrant, made him understand and appreciate those conditions of life which he has later done so much to better. His autobiography, called by the significant title "The Making of an American," which has just begun in The Outlook, is crammed full of incident and keen, amusing comments on men and things. It has as much of the story element and as much humor as many of the best novels. The first installment appears in the March magazine number of The Outlook, and is elaborately illustrated. ## NEWS FOR THE AFFLICTED.

ANNOUNCEMENT THAT INTERESTS MANY.

While adverse to drawing attention to any advertisements which partake of a medical character, there is justification in overriding this objection with respect to the announcement of the coming visit of Dr. Darrin.

This far-famed physician, who has achieved such a great reputation throughout the coast, has been prevailed upon, by urgent requests of many to visit Ashland, as they could not afford by their time and business to consult him at the head offices. The doctor has at last consented to visit Ashland, to accommodate the sick and afflicted, and will have his office at the Hotel Oregon. Those wishing to consult the doctor will find it to their advantage to consult him while there and during the first part of his stay, as many require more than one treatment.

He comes laden with testimonials from the whole northwest, and the authentic report of some cures seem nothing short of miracles. As so many thousands are already acquainted with his mode of treatment, it seems unnecessary to state that he uses but few drugs in a majority of cases, and perfects his cures by the wonderful power of the various forms of electricity. Medicines and surgery are employed whenever necessary.

There are few ills to which the human flesh is heir which cannot be relieved and generally permanently cured by Dr. Darrin's electro-magnetic treatment; and cases that have resisted the efforts of ordinary physicians have yielded to its power. These cases embrace almost every form of disease, and as said before no man, woman or child need despair of relief while Dr. Darrin offers his valuable services. The doctor is prepared to treat and perform all surgical operations on the eyes. Also to fit glasses to any desiring them.

Unlike other physicians who have become eminent in their profession, the doctor's charges are extremely moderate and reasonable, according to circumstances and ability to pay, and he will not undertake cases that he cannot hope to cure or benefit. Consultation is free to all. Should there be cases that are incurable he will immediately discover them on consultation, thus saving his patients any further expenditure of time or money.

Dr. Darrin makes a specialty of all diseases of the ear, eye, nose and throat, catarrh and deafness, and all nervous chronic and private diseases, such as loss of vigor, blood taints, gleet, stricture, varicocele, hydrocele, and semial weakness. All peculiar female troubles, displacements, etc., are confidently and successfully treated. Most cases can be treated at home after one visit to the doctor's office.

Dr. Darrin will visit Ashland again April 1st to 28th, stopping at the Hotel Oregon. The poor will be treated free. Office hours, 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. Evenings, 7 to 8. Sundays, 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. The worthy poor will be treated free, except medicine, from 9 to 10 A. M., daily. Charges for treatment for those able to pay, $5 weekly, or in that proportion as cases may require.

Circulars and question blanks sent free. Inquiries answered. All business relations with Dr. Darrin are strictly confidential.

The important information has been received at Washington that Nicaragua had denounced the treaty it made in 1850 with Great Britain for the construction of a trans-isthmian canal. The equally important statement was also made that Nicaragua had not denounced the treaty it made for the same purpose in 1867 with the United States.

Information comes from Portland that the new barber law is to be attacked in the courts. Several barbers are dissatisfied with Sunday closing. There has been considerable falling off in their receipts since the law went into effect. They have employed counsel and propose to test the constitutionality of the law. Several will probably keep open shop on Sunday, which will lead to their arrest, and thus the question will be taken into court for determination.

The German meat inspection law, absolutely prohibiting the importation of American corned beef, sausage, etc., has met with a setback, according to reports lately received at the state department from Consul Diederich at Bremen. It has been the object of severe criticism; and one of the most pointed arguments against it has been that it defeats its avowed purpose of promoting public health, because the resultant high prices of meat lessen its consumption, while the health of the German nation demands an increase.

As a result of the "joint smashing" crusade ten residences, two saloons and five stores were wiped out in Armourdale, Kan., Tuesday morning. It was plainly the work of incendiaries, who used gasoline. A high wind did the rest. Just as the fire started two women were seen hurrying from the neighborhood. The loss approximates $4000. The fire was first discovered in Patrick Brosman's saloon. While the firemen were working there flames broke forth from Eaton's saloon, which was recently raided by some of Mrs. Nation's followers, who were fined for their work.

The Eugene Guard says that the executive committee of the state oratorical association held a special meeting in Albany Friday, for the purpose of considering the charges of plagiarism preferred against Elwood Minchin, the successful orator at the intercollegiate state oratorical contest, recently held at Corvallis. A copy of the book, "Wendell Phillips, the Agitator," was in the hands of the committee, and it was found that the title of the book had been taken as the title of his oration, and that whole paragraphs were taken bodily from the book, making it the rankest kind of plagiarism.

The London Daily News says it is understood that the British have greatly amended the unconditional surrender reply. It believes Lord Kitchener has been authorized to offer amnesty to both the Boers and the Boer leaders, except where treachery is clearly proved. Cape rebels only are to be punished by disfranchisement. Loans are to be granted to the Boers for rebuilding and stocking their farms, and, finally, the government will offer to establish some kind of civil government as soon as the commandos have surrendered. Its form will probably be that of a crown colony, but with the important concession which Sir Alfred Milner advises, namely, a council including Boers of position like Gen. Botha, Gen. Lucas and Mr. Schalkberger.

The New Scalp Bounty Law.

The new law providing for destruction of wild cats, coyotes, mountain lions, cougars, gray wolves or timber wolves, and for the payment of the bounties on the same, is now in force. It was not welcomed in Douglas county as a piece of beneficial legislation, as applied locally; but, as a measure affecting the whole state, it is believed it will prove a great improvement over the old law.

The provisions of the act are the presentation to the county clerk of the scalps, with an affidavit stating the number of scalps presented, kind of animals from which they were taken, and that the animals were not whelped or fostered in captivity. The county clerk may, if he sees fit, require corroborative testimony as to the legality of the claim. A warrant upon the treasury is then to be given the party presenting the scalps, which are to remain in the possession of the clerk until the next meeting of the county court. The court will inspect the scalps thus taken, and, when satisfied as to the correctness of the accompanying statement, shall cause the scalps to be destroyed by burning the same to ashes.

The county clerk is required to send monthly statements of bounty claims to the secretary of state, who will forward to the county clerk a warrant upon the general fund of the state treasury for two-thirds of the total amount of warrants drawn in payment of bounty claims. In other words, the county pays one-third of the bounty and state two-thirds. This is, however, irrespective of the one mill levy imposed upon the county for the purpose of raising the state bounty fund, so that the county pays really more than one-third of the claim.

A scalp, within the meaning of the act, consists of "both ears of the animal connected by a strip of skin that grew between them, two inches in breadth, and all whole and intact." The previous act, which permitted the claimant to make affidavit before a notary public or magistrate of the precinct in which the animal was killed, and all other acts conflicting with the new law are repealed.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends; but one who would be attractive must keep her health. It will make a good-looking, charming woman out of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at City Drug Store.

Still Beguiling the Foolish.
Fayne Strahan Moore has been heard from again, according to the following, which appeared in the New York World, under a dispatch from London of a late date: "Fayne Moore, who is playing a small part at the Gaiety Theater, where she is known as 'Miss Madeline Wilson,' has instructed her lawyer to bring action for absolute divorce from Wm. Moore, now serving a sentence of 19 years in Sing Sing. The action will be brought upon the grounds that her husband is a convict, says Mrs. Moore, and that for the past two years he has failed to support her. She has been living in elegantly furnished apartments here and is generally admired. It is said that a member of the royalty has fallen in love with her, and is anxious to make her his wife. Since her arrival in London, a year ago last November, Mrs. Moore has been on the stage. She was first at the Shaftsbury Theater, but later joined the 'Messenger Boy' company at the Gaiety, where she appears nightly in the role of the American barmaid. She is a great favorite with the Johnnies, and many have lost their hearts to the American beauty with byronic eyes." An Albany, Or., newspaper says the reports regarding her daughter are absolutely false and without foundation; a mere sample of yellow journalism.

One bottle gave great relief. I continued its use, and am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." DECLARED A HOPELESS INVALID BY LEARNED PHYSICIANS.

Restored to Perfect Health and Strength by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People—A Most Wonderful Cure.

Of the many remarkable cases which have recently occupied the attention of the medical world and of the public at large, none more strikingly illustrates the wonderful power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People than the recovery of Mrs. Jennie Tuttle, who, after two years' confinement to her bed, was restored to perfect health and strength. Mrs. Tuttle, who lives at the corner of Fulton and Market Streets, Grand Rapids, Mich., tells the following story:

"I had been flat on my back in bed for two years and the doctors had given me up as a hopeless case. They had resorted to every remedy known to their profession and had even subjected me to the tortures of five surgical operations. My trouble was due to change of life and I grew weaker and weaker until I became helpless and unable to leave my bed. A nurse and four physicians attended me.

"One box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People gave me great relief and after using them for three months I was a well woman, having been able to leave my bed the sixth week after commencing the treatment. I can state that the cure was complete and permanent as it is now three years since I used them.

"I have recommended the pills to several of my relatives. My mother-in-law, who is 72 years old, took them for general debility and they soon produced a very marked improvement in her condition. I wish that the thousands of women who are afflicted as I have been may know of this remedy which has saved my life and given me health and strength."

Signed, MRS. JENNIE TUTTLE. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of August, 1900.

B. F. BARNESSEN, Notary Public.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

BAD COLDS.

Quinine is 10 years behind. Colds do not now have to be endured. Mendel's Dynamic Tablets (called dynamic from their energy) crowd a week's ordinary treatment into 12 hours, and about the worst of colds over night. "It was the worst case of grip I ever had. A half dozen friends had sore throats. Still it hung on. Heard of the Dynamic Tablets. To my amazement they stopped both cold and cough the first night. I endorse and recommend them to the people." Barclay Henley, ex-member of Congress and attorney, 101 San some street, San Francisco, July 7, 1900.

"Winter colds have always been serious things to me. They are hard and stay for months. But the last was stopped suddenly by Mendel's Dynamic Tablets. Both cough and cold disappeared in a couple of days. Nothing else does this for me." Mrs. Emma L. Hollin, 14 Moss st., San Francisco, Aug. 6, 1900.

"I live across the street from where Mendel's Dynamic Tablets are made. That is how I first took them. They stop colds without notice. I took a dozen boxes with me for myself and friends when I went to Nome." H. L. Van Winkle, Captain, 307 Washington st., San Francisco, Aug. 10, 1900.

For sale by City Drug Store, Jacksonville.
