Father Time's Old Clock.
"The transmitting clock at the Naval observatory, Washington, is the absolute monarch of American timekeepers," writes Evander Melver Sweet in The Ladies' Home Journal. "Every day in the year except Sunday by one pendulum stroke it speaks directly and instantaneously to every city and considerable town between the peaks of the Rockies and the pines of Maine, saying to them that on the seventy-fifth meridian it is now high noon to the fraction of a second. A duplicate mechanism stationed at the branch naval observatory on Mare Island performs a similar service for the people of the Pacific slope. And by this one clock at the national capital, together with its duplicate on the Pacific, is set nearly every timepiece in the United States and Cuba, most of those in Mexico and many on the border of Canada."

"A number of clocks—from 3 to 3,000—in nearly every city and large town are wired together into a local family and by means of a switch key at the telegraph office are put into direct contact with the parent clock at the national capital. So that the instant the electric touch is given from Washington every clock in the circuit, whether it be at Boston, Minneapolis or New Orleans, begins a new day in perfect accord with its mechanical deity."

Caught a Dreadful Cold.

Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1855 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold, which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic, and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well, and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by City Drug Store.

She May Be Queen Some Day.
One of the late Queen Victoria's favorites was she who was Princess May of Teck, now the Duchess of York and Cornwall, wife of the heir apparent. Princess May was engaged to marry the Duke of Clarence, eldest son of the Prince of Wales. The young man contracted an illness in one of the eastern campaigns, and the result was fatal.

DUCHESSE OF YORK AND CORNWALL.

Princess May was sorely stricken by the loss of her young lover, and her grief was shared by the queen, who was also very fond of her grandson. Through the sympathy of these two women, so widely apart in years, a strong affection was nurtured, and it grew until the elder had a dominating influence over the younger. It was not surprising, therefore, that the princess became the wife of the second son of the Prince of Wales, in conformity with the wishes of the queen. Some day she may be queen herself.

Too Well Disguised.
"After all," suggested the cheerful one, "it may be a blessing in disguise." "If so," returned the disgruntled one, "I may say that I never saw a more perfect disguise."—Washington Post.

Penn's Crew May Go Abroad.
There is likelihood of an American crew from the University of Pennsylvania going to England to compete in the Henley regatta this year. Coach Ellis Ward of the red and blue says that while there was little possibility of an English university crew coming to this country, the time is ripe for a Pennsylvania crew to cross the ocean and attempt the task which both Cornell and Yale essayed in vain. This is the most promising year in Pennsylvania's rowing history. With five men of last year's boat and a splendid lot of material to work with, Ward says that he can send a first class crew to Henley and a second to Poughkeepsie, which if it does not win will give a good account of itself.

Most of the men in the crew are strongly in favor of a Henley trip. Captain Fleckwin says that in his opinion this is the year for Pennsylvania to cross the water. Various members of the crew have expressed themselves in similar manner, and it is generally believed the rowing authorities easily can be won over now that Pennsylvania's achievements abroad last year are still fresh.

Glorious News.
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, Wash., D. C. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on the head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50c at City Drug Store. Guaranteed.

For Little Ones.
Pretty things in the way of children's clothes are now coming to the fore, clothes for little ones who will accompany their parents in a late winter or early spring trip to the south or that will be worn during the summer. There are Russian blouses still for the little ones, and these are made in all colors and in various pretty and strong wash materials—pique, linen and galatea in different colors, all white or white trimmed with colors and each more attractive than the other.

Boston newspapers assert that the conductors on their local traffic lines are the most cultured ticket collectors to be found anywhere. They insist that many of these Yankee sages speak several languages and carry college diplomas in their inside pockets.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells you more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.
