DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Blinghams, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and Home of Swamp-Root, dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County.

William Robinson, Plaintiff, vs.

George Hoffman, as administrator of the estate of John Bolt, deceased; Elizabeth Bolt, widow of said John Bolt, deceased; George N. Bolt; L. E. Hoffman; Emma Bolt; Lucy McVey; John E. Bolt; Fred Bolt and Florence Bolt, as heirs at Law of the said John Bolt, deceased; Cora Bolt, wife of George N. Bolt; George Hoffman, husband of said E. Hoffman, and N. G. McVey, husband of said Lucy McVey, and H. C. Austin, Defendants.

To H. C. Austin, one of the above-named defendants:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear in the above entitled suit and court, and answer the complaint on file against you therein, within six weeks of the date of the first publication of this summons, which date of the first publication thereof is Thursday, April 26, 1901; and, if you fail to so appear, for want thereof plaintiff will apply to said court for the relief demanded in his complaint.

The relief demanded is the foreclosure of a certain mortgage executed and delivered by John Bolt, deceased, and Elizabeth Bolt to John Pool on December 19th, 1898, and the payment of a certain promissory note made by the said John Bolt, deceased, and Elizabeth Bolt, for $300, payable December 1st, 1900, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, which said mortgage and note was duly assigned to December, 1900, to said plaintiff, and which mortgage conveyed unto plaintiff for that purpose the following described real property, to-wit:

Lot No. 2, and the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 5, of township 39 south, range 4 west of W. M., containing 109.39 acres, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and all the estate, right, title, interest, dower, claim and demand whatsoever of the said John Bolt and Elizabeth Bolt, in and to the same.

And a further decree, barring and foreclosing, you and each of the defendants, of and from any and all right, title and interest in or to said real property, and every part thereof.

This summons is published by order of Hon. H. K. Hanna, one of the judges of the above entitled court, which order was dated in Chambers, April 13, 1901, and required this summons to be published in the DEMOCRATIC TIMES in Jacksonville, Oregon, for six consecutive weeks from the date of the first publication thereof, and requires you to answer this cause on or before the last day within said time.

A. N. SOLISS, Attorney for Plaintiff.

Looking Without Seeing.

Perhaps you are an exception to the rule, but if you are not you have probably on many occasions, just after looking at your watch, been forced to acknowledge to a friend who asked you the time that you did not know what it was. Yet you undoubtedly took your timepiece out of your pocket, looked at its face and carefully replaced it in your pocket, showing a logical sequence of thought and a well defined object, which did not, however, result in leaving a sufficiently distinct impression on your mind to satisfy your friend's curiosity as to the hour of the day. The motion was not an involuntary one, like that of the boy who cannot too often admire his first chronometer, nor yet habitual, for few persons are merely in the habit of taking out their watches. One does so only for a specific purpose.

Now, how may this seeming contradiction be accounted for? Perhaps the reason is that not once in ten times does a man look at his watch to see what the actual time is, but rather to learn whether he still has time to accomplish some purpose. He may want to keep an appointment at a certain time or to be sure not to miss a boat or train. When he takes out his watch, therefore, he instinctively looks for the hands in the position called for by that particular moment, and when he sees that they have not yet reached that point he returns the watch to its resting place, with his mind relieved.

The actual position of the hands really plays no part at all in the operation, and so when the time is asked of him he is unable to reply. In other words, he accomplishes the paradoxical feat of intently looking at a thing without really seeing it.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkey Hall, Springville, Ala. This remedy is for sale by City Drug Store.

An Abandoned Test.

Sir Hiram S. Maxim was once a victim of one of the British war office's sudden freaks. When the Maxim quick firing gun was being tested by the government with a view to finding out its weak points, its inventor was asked to have 10,000 rounds fired at the highest possible speed. The experiment was successfully carried out, but the chairman of the committee of investigation was still unsatisfied.

"That's very well as far as it goes," he exclaimed, "but could you guarantee your gun to go on firing automatically at the same rate for, say, 24 hours?"

"I can," was the quiet reply, "and I will—on one condition."

"And that is?"

"That the government finds and pays for the ammunition."

At first the committee were inclined to close with the offer, but when it was discovered that 864,000 rounds would be fired and that the cost of the experiment would be something like $5,700 they dispensed with the trial.

Utilizing the Waste Product.

A parish in the highlands had been cut off from communication with the nearest town owing to a severe snowstorm, relates the Scottish American. Supplies began to give out, and the minister was much perturbed in mind as his snuffbox was quite empty. The Sabbath came round. How was he to get through his discourse without the aid of his usual stimulant? He appealed to his faithful henchman, the sexton. Alas, he was in a similar unsatisfactory predicament! How was it to be remedied? Andrew shook his head, thought long and suddenly disappeared. Presently he returned with something resembling snuff wrapped carefully in paper. The minister took a hearty pinch or two and then asked:

"Where did you get it, Andrew?"

"Please, sir, I just went and swept the pulpit out," was the reply.

Fair Sided.

"No," said the retired showman, "I won't say that we had the biggest giant that ever happened, but it is a solemn fact what I am going to tell you. This giant had a penance, or whatever you call it, for trying new styles of whiskers."

"M-hm."

"Well, when he wanted a new style laid out he had to send for a landscape gardener."—Indianapolis Press.

Toads Inclosed in Rock.

The Rev. W. Buckland, from experiments on toads in holes of oolitic limestone and sandstone covered with glass, finds that, while limestone preserved them alive, sandstone killed them. His conclusion is that unless a toad imprisoned in a stone gets a little air it cannot live a year, and unless it gets food it cannot live two years.—London Globe.

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. Geo. Long of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors, but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cases are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. The French Cavalry at Sedan.

Both banks of the Givonne were in German hands; so was Balan, a small village nearer to Sedan than Bazailles, and soon after 1 o'clock no fewer than 420 German guns were halting shells into the French army, which stood in close formations within a space measuring less than two miles in breadth or depth. Out of this terrible cauldron of defeated troops about this time rode the French cavalry in a heroic endeavor to turn the fortunes of the day and retrieve the honor of France.

General Marguerite, called by some "the star of an arm," was struck in the face by a bullet while riding out to reconnoiter the ground before he charged. He was handed over the cavalry command to De Gallifet, who for the second time that tremendous day led the flower of French cavalry against the enemy and for the space of half an hour charged the German ranks again and again on the hillsides north of Sedan.

But the courage of the gallant horsemen was all in vain. The arme blanche was unequally matched against the breechloading rifle held in steady hands, and no effort of the French cavalry could withstand the slowly tightening grasp of that fiery circle.—Chambers' Journal.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is condensed to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by City Drug Store.

New York's Raines law regarding saloons has yielded $61,000,000 to the state and local treasuries since its passage five years ago. Saloons have decreased from 33,000 to 27,000 and arrests for drunkenness diminished from 12 to 9 for each 1,000 of population.
