Some newspapers in Oregon just now are yery active in advocating the enforcement of gambling laws and suppressing all gambling games. When these 'moral advocates' quit playing poker themselves it will be time to enforce the gambling laws."

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian church—a seceding branch—are also considering a revisal of their creed, especially a modifica-tion of that article that forbids any of its members to belong to any secret society. The new baseball rules this year will shorten the game about half an hour, making an average game an hour and a half long. The rules which do this are the ones which make the following strikes: A foul hit ball not caught on the fly, unless two strikes have already been called, a bunt hit ball which settles on foul ground; a ball which settles on foul ground; a ball struck at, hitting any part of the batsman, and a foul tip caught by the catcher. These rules keep things a moving very fast. Another important rule is an out for the striker who makes an infield fly while first and second bases are occupied, unless two hands are out.

MEDFORD'S POSTMASTER

Tells of a Cure Effected in His Family by Dr. Darrin.

Med ford Mail.

The following testimonial from Postmaster Merriman is one of the many hundreds, similar in character, which Dr. Darrin has in his possession. Nearly everyone in southern Oregon knows Geo. Merriman, for years engaged in blacksmithing in Medford, now our efficient postmaster. It was George who shod horses for the stage company between Reseauce and or the Rocky mountains and in view of the most magnificent scenery on the continent, but it also provides for stop-over on railroad and Pullman tickets at quaint and picturesque Salt Lake city, Glenwood Springs, Manitou, Denver, etc. Through Pullman Palace and Ordinary Sleepers, Free Reclining Chair Cars and a Perfect Dining Car Service via this route Medford, I think it no more than right to tell the public what he did right to tell the public what he did for my wife two years ago. For about two woman coming to that town with a span of horses and taking home $420 instead. That is the woman idea; probably keeping her money in a stocking instead of leaving it in a bank.

The Eugene Journal, printed by Judge Kincaid, prints this item: "Nine editors out of ten fail to practice what they preach. Some newsgood it may do to the public. Refer any one to me or my wife.

The Most Common Allment.

More people suffer from rheumatism than from any other ailment. This is wholly unnecessary, too, for a cure may be effected at a very small cost. G. W. Wescott of Meadowdale, N. Y., says. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for some time, and it has caused me much suffering. I con-cluded to try Chamberlain's Pain-Balm, and am pleased to say that it has cured me." For sale by City nen Horace Greeley Lost His Hat. A very distinguished assemblage honunable after trying an preparations ored Grant's ball, which was held and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia the treasury building. Elaborate preparations were made for dancing, the manager, by telegraphic communications, keeping the dance moving simultaneously on three floors. But the man who preferred eating to dancing and could not get even within the sight of food was not well pleased. Refreshments were served in the basement, in a room too small to accommodate the 6,000 guests, but large enough to contain the provisions, which were scarce indeed. In the cloakrooms the committee in charge lost their heads, visitors lost their hats, and it is stated on good authority that the sulphurous vapors which rose in the vicinity of the place where Horace Greeley searched for his hat during two hours were stifling.

It is recorded that one gentleman walked to Capitol hill, two miles distant, in dancing pumps and bareheaded and that many frightened women still cowered in the corners of the dressing rooms at dawn the next morning. So, in preparing Grant's second ball, the committee made elaborate arrangements in order that these unpleasantnesses should not again occur.-National Magazine.

Quick Enters.

"Have you any idea," remarked the cashier of one of the largest lunch res-taurants in New York, "how many minutes the average down town business man devotes to his midday meal?" "At a venture," answered the reporter, watching the hurried play of knives and focks about him, "I should say 15

"You set about the time usually estimated," returned the cashier, "but in reality half that time would be nearer right. The average time consumed for lunch by the patrons of this establishment is just eight minutes. The fact is," continued the cashier after the reporter had ventured a foreboding for New York digestion, "people find it such a trifling and unobtrusive matter just to get 'a bite of lunch' that few realize what a gigantic business it is merely to supply hungry people down town at noon, because few bring their lunches with them, and from the formation of the city none can go home.

"This establishment feeds 3,000 people a day, and the amount of food required to care for that patronage is enormous. For example, when we put hash on the 'specials' enough is made up actually to fill a wagon. We are not the largest lunchroom, however."

A Pleasant Way to Travel.

Son Historical Society

The most delightful route of travel to the East is by way of Salt Lake city—the city of the Saints—and the Rio Grande Western Railway, in conjunction with either the Denver & Rio Grande or Colorado Midland railroads. This route not only carries the passenger through the heart of the Rocky mountains and in view of Stage company between Roseburg and Yreka in the days prior to the laying of steel rails by the Southern Pacific company, and that's how all the early-day settlers happen to know him. Here is his testimonial:
