BRIEF MENTION.

Bananas, oranges and lemons can always be found at Wetterer's. * The country editor is kept busy these days rustling wood and potatoes for the winter campaign. Joe Wetterer makes a specialty of light drinks, fresh candies, nuts, tropical and other fruits, etc. * Senator Clark of Montana confirms the report that he has purchased a big copper and coal property in Siberia. Notes, receipts, drafts, due-bills, etc., in book form, can always be obtained at THE TIMES Printing House. Age is not all decay; it is the ripening, the swelling of the fresh life within that withers and bursts the husk. California has a law which makes it a misdemeanor to work more than six days in one week, except in case of emergency. Hereafter orders will be drawn on all money-order offices in either Canada or Cuba, for which only domestic rates will be charged. Since Uncle Sam succeeded in collecting his due from the Sultan of Turkey European creditors have been trying to find out how he did it. The San Francisco brewers have raised the price of steam beer, and the schooners will be cut down to ordinary sloops with thick bottoms by retailers. The latest report of the Anaconda M. Co., Montana, states the cost for mining during the year 1900 was $3.97 a ton, and for smelting, refining and treatment charges generally $4.14 a ton. When you want a modern, up-to-date physic try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price 25 cents. Samples free at City Drug Store. The celebrated Snap Shot, the best medicine in the world for allaying inflammation in man or beast, can be found at Dr. Robinson's drug store, also at Dr. Hinkle's, Central Point. Try it. In the West oil and water, it seems, go hand and hand. The search for petroleum on the Mohave desert in California has resulted in the development of a supply of artesian water which is destined in time to prove of more value than oil. Coleman and James Younger, after their 25 years in the Minnesota state prison, for blowing up a bank and murdering two or three men, have been pardoned, and will begin work as salesmen for a St. Paul dealer in gravestones and monuments. You can never cure dyspepsia by dieting. What your body needs is plenty of good food properly digested. Then if your stomach will not digest it Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will. It contains all of the natural digestants; hence must digest every class of food and so prepare it that nature can use it in nourishing the body and replacing the wasted tissues, thus giving life, health, strength, ambition, pure blood and good, healthy appetite. City Drug Store Jacksonville and Dr. J. Hinkle Central Point. The best suggestions offered, because obviously the most surely beneficial to the great mass of the people, are those which look to the creation of free hospitals for poor consumptives, the blind and the crippled, and to the establishment of more free-for-all schools for technical instruction and manual training. All philanthropic money thus invested goes directly on one hand to relieve human misery that cannot otherwise be lightened, and on the other hand to enlarge the useful knowledge of the people and thereby increase their power to help themselves.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS.

Mrs. J. W. Clark is laying the foundation for his new house. E. A. Mack, our landlord, was at the county seat this week. Misses Wilson are visiting in Jacksonville, guests of Misses Huffer. Pat. Sidham has returned from California, and will engage in painting. W. A. Mann intends to erect a neat residence, and is hauling lumber therefor. Misses Nettie Lee and Bettie Olsson have returned from Hornbrook, Calif. Mrs. J. H. Gay has been at Ashland, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. White. Miss Nora Sydow, the popular school teacher, got back from San Francisco Friday. Prof. Hanby has bought of H. Corum the Bert Newton property. The price paid was $350. Heading and threshing are progressing rapidly in this vicinity. Wheat is turning out well. L. C. Robnett, our popular merchant, and his wife drove over to Jacksonville one day this week. E. Pleasant, W. H. Norcross and their families started for Crescent City Wednesday, to take a look at the ocean. Oscar Kincaid came down from eastern Oregon to attend the funeral of his mother, which took place last Saturday. Mrs. W. H. Kincaid, a pioneer of southern Oregon, died July 30th, and her remains were buried in the Central Point cemetery Saturday, Rev. J. Merley officiating. Mart. Welch met with a bad accident while helping to move W. J. Freeman's house last week. The lever to the capstan broke and hit him on the thigh, just below the hip joint. W. T. Loeffer is in a critical condition. A few weeks ago he fell down, and Dr. Cole thinks the bone near the hip joint received a fracture. Mr. L. has been in a helpless state for a long time.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY ITEMS.

Fred. Cheshire has returned from San Francisco. Mrs. Fred. Miller is being visited by her sister, Miss Little of Medford. Miss Ida Williams has been visiting Miss Mabel Palethorpe of Ashland. I. G. Moon was in Jacksonville this week, on business connected with his mill at Prvolet. A Conklin of the Mining Journal has returned from his trip to Buffalo and Boise city. E. M. Albright of Waldo district, the enterprising miner, was in Grant's Pass a few days ago. John Blalock has moved to his mines in Grave creek district, accompanied by his family. Henry Walter of The Oregon, who has been recuperating at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walter of Humburg, returned to Grant's Pass this week, fully restored. Hon. John P. Jones, U. S. senator from Nevada, who has been looking after his interests in Mt. Reuben district, being one of the principal men thereof, speaks highly of southern Oregon and its future. The Observer says that the late Geo. C. Booth of Wilderville committed suicide by taking strychnine, leaving a wife and several children in destitute circumstances. His friends deny this, however, and say he died of natural causes. The Grant's Pass Tailoring Co. has been kept busy ever since it began business, and has turned out more suits of clothes by far than any like establishment in southern Oregon. Good fits, best materials, lowest prices is the motto of Messrs. Larsen and Mathew.

Sports for the Coming Fair.

Among the new and interesting features of the district fair, to be held in Ashland in September for five days, will be three baseball games and a band contest. The first game takes place Wednesday, Sept. 12th, between the Grant's Pass and Ashland nines, for a purse of $50; the second on Thursday, Sept. 13th, between the Eagle Point and Medford nines, for a like purse; the third will be for a purse of $75, on Friday, Sept. 14th, between the victors of the two previous games, for the championship of the district. The games will begin at 2 p. m., and should prove quite interesting and attractive. The band contest will take place within the Chautauqua grounds, Thursday evening, Sept. 13th, at 7 o'clock, for a purse of $150. All the bands in the district are eligible to contest. No entrance fee will be required for these games, and the actual contestants of each day will be admitted free to the ball grounds. The members of each band contesting for the prizes will be admitted free to the Chautauqua grounds on the evening of the contest. The contesting nines will have the right to choose their own umpires, and all games must be to a finish, or no money will be awarded. The contesting bands will each choose one of its members, who together will constitute a board for the selection of judges to decide the contest. There will be musical, literary and other entertainments during every evening of the fair.

To Found a Model Town.

A gigantic scheme is afoot to found a great model industrial town in the eastern part of the country, where shall be gathered a variety of manufacturers and an army of employes, under social conditions; the town and manufacturing to be organized according to the most approved business methods, with the highest regard to the physical and intellectual welfare of its residents. Fifty years ago a medicine was founded which also had in view the welfare of humanity. This was Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a remedy famed the world over for its cure of dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, belching, insomnia, biliousness, nervousness and malaria, fever and ague. As a strengthening tonic and blood purifier it is unequalled. A trial will certainly convince you of its value.

Paid For His Time.

Tom Brown, the cashier of the Bank of California, was pestered the other day by a promoter who persisted in explaining to him an invention which he claimed would bring fame and fortune to him if he could only enlist the aid of some one to assist him in introducing it. But Brown had heard such fairy tales before, and so he got snappy and brought matters to a business basis. "My time is very valuable," he said, "and I cannot allow you to take up any more of it." "How valuable?" asked the promoter. "A dollar a minute," said Brown, with an air of dismissal, as he turned to his desk and rustled the papers in a farewell to you sort of way. "Then I'll take 20 minutes," said the promoter as he laid a large piece of glitter on the banker's desk. He took the full time and rattled along until he had quite finished, devoting his last few seconds to an earnest promise to call again. Then the cashier sat back in his chair and wondered on which side he should enter his $20.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A Task.

To be honest, to be kind, to earn a little and to spend less, to make, upon the whole, a family happier by his presence, to renounce where that shall be necessary and not to be inhibited, to keep a few friends, but these without capitulation; above all, on the same grim conditions to keep friends with himself—here is a task for all that a man has of fortitude and delicacy.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Most Curious Thing.

Mrs. Quizzer (who wants to know everything)—Now, what do you consider to be the most curious thing you ever saw, professor? Professor Trotter—A woman, madam.—Harlem Life.

Much Reading for Little Money.

The New York World has got the cost of printing down to a minimum. Its latest offer of its monthly newspaper-magazine is interesting, if from no other cause than that it shows the acme of "how much for how little." The Monthly World is a 32-page magazine with colored cover. Its pages are about the size of the pages of the Ladies' Home Journal, and it is copiously illustrated in half-tone. The illustrations are the result of the best artistic skill, aided by all the latest printing-press appliances, making a magazine unrivaled in the quality of its contents and its appearance. Each issue contains stories of romance, love, adventure, travel; stories of fiction and fact; stories of things quaint and curious, gathered together from all over the world; the results of scientific research and editorial reviews. It numbers among its contributors the leading literary men and women of the day. A feature each month is a full page portrait of the most famed man or woman of the moment in the public eye. In collecting and preparing for publication the literary matter and art subjects for the Monthly World no expense is spared. The New York World will send six numbers of this newspaper-magazine on receipt of 15 cents in stamps. Address The World, Pulitzer Building, New York.
