HERB AND THERE.

All kinds of lubricating oil for sale at Nunan's.

The sugar-beet harvest is on and the La Grande factory will go into operation at once.

Stationery, notions, smokers' articles, etc., also a fresh line of lynch goods, at Joe Welterer's.

The rain was so copious in California that it damaged much fruit and grain lying outdoors.

Miners' liens, deeds to mines, water right locations and other mining blanks always on hand at THE TIMES office.

The international yacht races, which will be sailed by the Columbia and Shamrock II, begin today. Much interest is being manifested.

Mrs. McKinley's death was reported; but latest advices devote that she is getting along as well as could be expected, and is in no danger of a collapse.

John S. Devine of Harney county, the pioneer stockman, died at Burns Sept. 13th, of obstructive jaundice, aged 65 years. He was a native of Virginia.

Washington county has paid all of its warrants thus leaving it entirely free from debt. So far as known this is the only county in the west in this condition.

Deeds, mortgages, leases, bonds, bills of sale and every imaginable kind of legal blanks—the latest and best—are constantly on hand at THE TIMES office.

Paul Kruger and Gen. Leyds are drawing petitions to President Roosevelt from the South African war. It is not likely that their appeals will be successful.

Pekin has been perfectly quiet since its evacuation by the foreign troops. Chinese soldiers are orderly and efficient, and the people are friendly. Foreigners unarmed visit all sections of the city and suburbs unmolested.

The sovereign grand lodge, I. O. O. F., in session at Indianapolis last week, decided that where a saloon is run in connection with a hotel the proprietor of the hotel shall be regarded as a saloonkeeper and not eligible to membership in the order.

The nine anarchists under arrest at Chicago since the assassination of President McKinley, were given their freedom, the prosecution admitting there was no legal evidence against them. Emma Goldman probably will be set at liberty on the same grounds.

Gen. Kitchener reports that Commandant Kritzinger, while endeavoring to force a passage of the Orange river, near Herschel, Friday morning, rushed the camp of a party of Lovat's scouts. He failed to cross the river; but the scouts lost heavily. Lieutenant-Colonel Murray and Captain Murray, his adjutant, were killed.

Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H., says: "I purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure when suffering with a cough which told me was incurable. One bottle relieved me; the second and third almost cured. Today I am a well man. City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point.

Farmers are hauling their wheat earlier this season than usual and the warehouses are filling up. Some of them are selling; but the majority are waiting for better prices. Whether their hope will be realized or not is a question. There is a big shortage in the world's supply of wheat; but it is rather doubtful if this will cause a material advance in favor of the producers.

The most important development in the Czolgosz case was the announcement that no poison had been found on the bullets or the revolver with which the anarchist assassinated President McKinley. Chemical and bacteriological examinations were made. Also that the assassin was not insane. He refused to implicate anyone and maintained his indifference.

Boston and Chicago on the 21st played one of the best, if not the greatest, game in the history of the National League. Both pitchers, Dween and Hughes, did remarkable work and thirteen of the seventeen innings were supported without a misplay, a great many of the chances on both sides being extremely difficult. Dexter scored the only run in the 17th inning.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is the best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the most severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given at the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by City Drug Store.

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection, and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine; but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, when its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. Address Mrs. P. O. Box 403, Roseburg, Or.

SENIOR HANNA, when approached by a newspaper reporter recently, said: "I am done with being interviewed for all time." He is broken up by the tragedy at Buffalo, and his face shows how deeply grief has left its mark. When President Roosevelt lets him know how little influence he has with the new administration, Marcus will probably change his mind for a little while at least.

THE Schley court of inquiry, which is holding daily sessions at Washington, is making slow progress. The evidence fails to establish the charge made by Admiral Schley's truce, and he will doubtless be triumphantly vindicated. Admiral Dewey makes a model presiding officer, and with his colleagues, Admirals Benham and Ramsey, is doing justice to all concerned.

THE OREGONIAN says that Ex-Gov. ernor Penneyer, who recently announced his ambition to adorn the supreme bench, is evidently losing patience with those who have questioned his legal qualifications. "Do you know," said he the other day, in reply to the query whether he was really a lawyer, "that when I came to Oregon in 1855 and presented my diploma from the law department of Harvard University to the territorial court, there was not a man on the bench who could read my sheep-skin?"

WHILE the German papers have devoted much space to the reports of the festivities in France on occasion of the Czar's visit to that country the discussions on the subjects were few and showed that Germany is little concerned thereby. Confidence in the Czar's peaceful intentions is so strong here that the French wooing excites no jealousy. The newspapers, however, take delight in pointing out that the Czar used the most measured language in replying to President Loubet, whose utterances are here regarded as an ill-disguised intimation of France's thirst for revenge on Germany.

LEON CZOLGOSZ, the assassin of President McKinley, is still, sullen and defiant, despite the efforts of the authorities to induce him to make a satisfactory statement. All of the artifices which are usually employed with success upon the ordinary prisoner have utterly failed, and the police have about abandoned the hope of getting from him any confession that will incriminate others who were parties to the conspiracy to assassinate the late President. The prisoner is kept in solitary confinement and closely guarded every moment of the day and night, so that there is not the remotest chance that he will be able to end his own life.

SPEAKING at the McKinley memorial exercises at Bloomington, Ill., former Vice-President Stevenson said: "It avails little to hurl denunciation against the head of this assassin. Within a few days at most he will, under the terms of law, suffer the death penalty for his crime. It is but cheap courage at best, whether from the street or from the pulpit, for any man to declare that had he been present he would have been the avenger. Such teaching is a menace to the well-being of society. It may be that the temptation is often great to take the law into our hands. But let it not be forgotten that by so doing we weaken the bonds of society. And rule is destructive of all government."

THE Telegram says that R. B. Miller, successor of Mr. Markham, is carrying out the good work inaugurated by that gentleman or encouraging the dairy and other industries in western Oregon. These efforts of a great railroad corporation like the Southern Pacific are sure to show large results after awhile. And as many progressive farmers will be bound to cooperate with these efforts in the Willamette, Umpqua and Rogue river valleys will become nearly the most noted dairy regions in the world. There are many reasons why they should become so; none why they should not. There ought to be no reasonable fear that the right kind of dairying will not pay. Even if the product of butter should largely exceed the local demand, there are large fields not far away to supply. The thing to do is to make a record, get a name, let it be known and depended upon abroad as well as at home that Oregon butter is as good as any made anywhere, and there will be no trouble about finding a ready sale for it, at good prices.

JOSEPHINE COUNTY ITEMS.

Joe Russell was at Medford one day last week.

W. P. Bolding, the miner, has gone to Idaho.

W. H. Hampton of Placer was in Grant's Pass several days last week.

John Turner has purchased the Kerbyville saloon of Thos. Gilmore.

F. M. Hayes of Applegate was among our visitors during the week.

T. P. Judson is acting as deputy county clerk, vice E. W. Kuykendall resigned.

Mrs. R. L. Tolin of Dryden has been visiting with relatives living in Grant's Pass.

Mike Thompson arrived from San Francisco lately, and will spend the winter here.

Henry Walter, the clever proprietor of The Oregon, was in the upper valley Tuesday.

A. C. Merrill, who is interested in the Rising Star and Exchequer mines, was at Grant's Pass this week.

J. T. Prince, a prominent farmer of Williams creek district, was at the county-seat the forepart of the week.

A. N. Hurlburt was down from Sam's valley, where he now resides, investing in agricultural implements.

Col. A. G. King, who has been located at the Oregon Soldiers' Home for sometime, is here, on a furlough.

J. T. Price of Williams creek was in Jackson county last week, for supplies. He was accompanied by his wife.

Hon. R. G. Smith, the lawyer, has returned from San Francisco, where he has been on legal and mining business.

Several elders of the Mormon church are at Grant's Pass, and will begin a series of meetings in the near future.

W. T. S. Patton was at Grant's Pass one day this week. He raised a large and first-class crop of apples and hops this season.

Thos. F. Rourke, the Althouse miner, was in Grant's Pass last week, accompanied by his wife and daughter, who remained here.

Frank Mee, the successful lumber manufacturer, is tearing down his mill, which he expects to rebuild in northern California next year.

Dr. Kremer will fit up the Post Office Drug Store in a handsome manner. A. J. Dayton, lately of Salem, an experienced pharmacist, will be in charge of it.

E. E. Dunbar and E. W. Kuykendall have taken charge of Booth & Co.'s property at Wolf creek, formerly managed by J. T. Puffs, who has gone to Eugene, to operate with the Booth-Kelly Co.

W. N. Saunders, one of our oldest citizens, died at the county hospital Monday night. He was honorable in his dealings and had the respect of all who knew him. For several years he was county surveyor.

Thos. A. Boyer, the noted lecturer, appeared at the opera house Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Presbyterian church. His audience was a large and appreciative one.

Rev. T. P. Hayes, who has so acceptably filled the pulpit of the M. E. Church, South, during the past few years, has been transferred to Myrtle creek. Rev. H. N. Rosser succeeds him here.

W. H. Carter, who recently purchased the places of Homer White and Mr. Parmenter, situated near Kerbyville, has become interested in the big irrigating ditch, and will inaugurate an extensive stock-raising enterprise.

Geo. Simmons of Waldo, the pioneer miner, has returned from northern California, where he has been for the benefit of his health, accompanied by his wife. He is somewhat improved; but his condition is still precarious, we are sorry to learn.

Circuit court adjourned today, but will reconvene Monday. It is not likely that McCann, who has been held to answer without bail by Justice Holman, for shooting Halliday, will be tried at this term of court. The latter's condition is somewhat improved.

Halliday, who was shot by McCann, is still in a critical condition. He is a member of the firm of Peacock & McCann, contractors, doing business at San Francisco, and came here for the purpose of looking after matters that had been entrusted to the man who shot him. His partner made him a visit after the shooting, returning home Tuesday. Halliday is being attended by his sister, who came from the city with Mr. Peacock. McCann lies in jail awaiting the result of his victim's injuries.

Land for Sale.

I have 1500 acres of land, all in one tract, on Antelope creek for sale. It is situated 15 miles from Jacksonville, 12 miles from Central Point, and 10 miles from Medford. I will sell this land in tracts of 100 acres up until all is sold, at $10 per acre. It is good farming and grazing land, and a good stock range on the outside. I will sell all, or as low as 100 acres in a tract. Inquire of Wm. BYBEE, Jacksonville Or.

Perhaps one of the shortest courtships was that of an eminent jurist. He was on his way to hold court in a town when he met a young woman returning from market.

"How deep is the creek and what did you get for your butter?" asked the jurist.

"Up to the knee and three-pence," was the answer as the girl walked on.

The jurist pondered over the sensible brevity of the reply, turned his horse, rode back and overtook her.

"I liked your answer just now," he said, "and I like you. I think you would make a good wife. Will you marry me?"

She looked him over and said, "Yes."

"Then get up behind me, and we will ride to town and be married."

She did get up behind, and they rode to the courthouse and were made one. It is recorded that, brief though the courtship had been, the marriage proved a pre-eminently happy one.

A Remarkable Suicide.

One of the most remarkable cases of suicide was that of the king of Faiana, on the west coast of Africa.

The king was attacked by a Mohammedan force, and, finding resistance impossible, he assembled his family and principal officers, and after addressing them and intimating his determination never to accept Mohammedanism and inviting those who did not agree with him to go away he applied a light to a large quantity of gunpowder collected for the purpose and blew into atoms the palace and all who were in it.

Nobility Recommends Nervine.

The above portrait is that of Countess Mogelstul, of Chicago, Ill., whose gratitude for the benefit received from the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine prompted her to make this statement:

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to the very excellent merits of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Although I am past 80 years of age I find it soothes the tired brain, quiets the irritated nerves and insures restful sleep. I never feel contented without a bottle of it in the house." Gratefully yours,
 CHRISTIANA MARIA, Countess Mogelstul.
