The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate —fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

SSS
Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes:
"I had Eczema on my hands and face for five years. I would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed.
The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's I know."

Mrs. Henry Siegfried, of Cape May, N. J., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Blood. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

"NERVE WASTE"

One of the most helpful books on nerve weakness ever issued is that entitled "Nerve Waste," by Dr. Sawyer, of San Francisco, now in its fifth thousand. This work of an experienced and reputable physician is in agreeable contrast to the vast sum of false teaching which prevails on this interesting subject. It abounds in carefully considered and practical advice, and has the two great merits of wisdom and sincerity.

It is indorsed by both the religious and secular press. The Chicago Advance says: "A perusal of the book and the application of its principles will put health, hope and heart into thousands of lives that are now suffering through nervous impairment."

The book is $1 by mail, postpaid.
One of the most interesting chapters—chapter XX, on Nerves and Nerve Tonics—has been printed separately as a sample chapter, and will be sent to any address for stamp, by the publishers, THE PACIFIC PUB

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

The Value of Butter.

Butter is so common a commodity that people use it and scarcely ever think what wonderful value lies at their hand in the pats of dainty yellow cream fat. Of course they know that it is useful in many branches of cookery and that without its aid the table would be bare of its thin rolled bread and butter, its delicate cakelets and its other usual accessories. Beyond these uses the value of butter is a thing only vaguely thought of. But this delicate fat is as valuable as the dearest cod liver oil for weakly, thin people, and doctors have frequently recommended the eating of many slices of thin bread thickly spread with butter as a means of pleasantly taking into the bodily tissues one of the purest forms of fat it is possible to get.

Butter is a carbon, and all excess of it is stored up as fat in the body. It gives energy and power to work to those who eat heartily of it, so it is not economy at table to spare the butter, even to the healthy folk. For any one afflicted with consumption butter cookery, if plenty of the fat can be digested, is one of the best ways of curing the disease if it is in its early stages or of keeping it at bay if it is advanced.

Butter is not a simple fat composed of merely one sort. It is a mixture of no less than seven different sorts of fats, and no more complex oil can be taken than this. —Philadelphia Ledger.

Daring Effects of Furnishing.

"In my country cottage," said a woman one day, "I try all sorts of daring effects in furnishings. Those that are pleasing after use I often transplant with success to my city home. For example, two or three summers ago we rented a cottage in which the dining room was dull and dark. I got a pot of white paint, together with the owner's consent, and painted the woodwork, the chairs and table white, with the effect that the room became perceptibly brighter. If I could have changed the wall, it would have been lighter still.
My city dining room had long distressed me because of its want of light, and that autumn I boldly transformed it.
The walls I had papered in a striped white paper, painted the woodwork white and put a white linoleum on the floor. The furniture was too handsome to tamper with, for it is mahogany in a simple colonial design, but the white background efficiently did the work of brightening the room to the most delightfully cheerful point."

Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says P. L. Taylor of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa.
"I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea and was about to give up the trip, when Editor Ward of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully, and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me."

Keeping the Head Clean.

Keeping the head perfectly clean is a great aid to health. An exchange tells of a distinguished physician who, having spent much of his time at quarantine, said that a person whose head was thoroughly washed every day rarely took contagious diseases, but when the hair was allowed to become dirty and matted it was hardly possible to escape infection. Many persons find speedy relief for nervous headache by washing the head thoroughly in weak soda water. We have known cases almost wholly cured in ten minutes by this simple remedy. A friend finds it the greatest relief in case of "rose cold," the cold symptoms entirely leaving the eyes after one thorough washing of the hair. The head should be thoroughly dried afterward, and drafts of air should be avoided for a little while.

The Heart of a Mouse.

A tiny mouse who lived near the house of a magician begged him to save her from the cat of whom she lived in deadly terror.

So the magician changed the mouse into a cat, and she went away delighted.

In a few days she came back again in terror. "Oh, save me, save me now from the dog," she begged.

And the magician changed her to a dog.

A few days more, and back she came —this time in deadly fear of a tiger.

"Nonsense," said the magician. "You have only the heart of a mouse, and afraid you will always be. It is the heart that tells!"

The Queen's Present.

Queen Alexandra has ordered a special voiturette to be made for presentation to the dowager empress of Russia.
The car is to be eight horsepower and is to be of the spider type, finished and furnished in the most luxurious manner that money can command.

The Kaiser Likes Statuary.

The German emperor's chief passion seems to be statuary. "There are 34 sculptors in Berlin," he remarked to a friend the other day, and he knows them all personally, visits their studios and likes to be photographed there among the clay sketches.

Bottles.

In using bottles these two hints ought to be so borne in mind that the practice of them becomes habitual: Always keep the label uppermost when pouring from a bottle, so that if any liquid trickles down the side the label misses it. Result—your labels keep clean and legible for much longer.

Secondly, if you want to deliver drops (or a very small quantity) of liquid just moisten the lip of the bottle with the finger.—Exchange.

Trouble Either Way.

Mrs. De Good—Why aren't you going to church?
Mr. De Good—Last Sunday the roof leaked, and three or four drops went down my back.

Mrs. De Good—The roof has been repaired since then.

Mr. De Good—Huh! Then they'll be wanting money to pay for the repairs.
—New York Weekly.

Steered Straight.

"If I thought that any girl would accept me," casually remarked the bashful Mr. Dolgers, "I'd propose tomorrow."
"Why not this evening?" asked Miss Fosdick coyly.

The affair will take place in about a month.—Detroit Free Press.
