Mrs. Annie Dunn has returned from a visit at Ashland. Z. Cameron and J. A. Mushett of Union precinct called this morning. Walter Jackson, the pioneer commercial traveler, was with us Tuesday. Ralph Jennings of Sterlingville and his wife spent Tuesday in Jacksonville. H. D. Kubli of Applegate and his wife left for San Francisco yesterday, on a visit. W. J. Stanley was in Jacksonville Tuesday, in the interest of the Town Talk. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rosenbaum of Wolf creek were in Portland last week. J. M. Dewes of Watkins precinct, the miner-merchant, was with us Tuesday. J. A. McCall, the scientific civil engineer, was among us one day this week. C. E. Smith of Hotel Layton, Grant's Pass, was in Ashland one day last week. M. Vaughn of Table Rock, who has the Morine place rented, is in Jacksonville today. A. McCullen, cashier of Ashland's new bank, who was quite sick, is at his post again. J. E. Pelton of Ashland was in Jacksonville several times this week. He is buying cattle. W. A. Wann, the insurance agent, called on THE TIMES Tuesday. He is succeeding nicely. Miss Kate Plymale has returned from a visit with the McDoughs, who reside near Tolo. Wm. Jennings, the genial foreman of the Sterling Mining Co., was in Jacksonville this week. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald are being visited by their sister-in-law, Mrs. Kellogg of San Francisco. John R. Norris, a prominent merchant of Ashland, is in San Francisco, accompanied by his wife. Jesse Neathammer, one of the successful farmers of Pleasant creek precinct, called on us a few days ago. A. W. Sturais of Forest creek and J. B. Wristley of Medford, two of our oldest pioneers, are in town today. W. T. Gray, representing J. E. Haseltine & Co. of Portland, spent Tuesday afternoon in Jacksonville. Judge and Mrs. E. B. Watson of Portland passed through the valley yesterday, en route to San Francisco. Howard Kilham, a prominent business man of Portland, arrived here this morning to visit with his family. Rev. D. T. Summerville, presiding elder of the M. E. Church, is on an official visit in southeastern Oregon. Terry Byrne, one of the prominent citizens of Watkins precinct, made THE TIMES a pleasant call Wednesday. Homer Davenport, the noted cartoonist, is in San Francisco, having passed through the valley one day last week. Rev. W. S. Holt of Portland, a Presbyterian missionary, was in Jacksonville the forepart of the week, visiting his brethren. M. R. Buck of Applegate was in town yesterday. He reports the recovery of his infant child, who was very sick for a time. John S. Orth and M. M. Taylor returned yesterday from Portland. They did not furnish the pheasants they took orders for, owing to the inclement weather. The mother and brother of A. Beard, who, with his father, has resided near Jacksonville during the past few years, arrived from France yesterday. I. W. Bontrager and his wife left for Williams, Calif., this week, to remain for sometime. They have rented their farm, situated in Willow Springs precinct. Success to them. Rev. J. W. McGhee of Walla Walla, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. J. Day, left for Willamette valley points this morning. He was in Rogue river valley in the early fifties. Isaac Stern, who was a successful journalist for a number of years, made THE TIMES a pleasant call Wednesday. He now represents F. F. Haradon & Co., the leading manufacturing confectioners of Portland, and is doing well in his new role. Miss Laura Jones passed through the valley Thursday, en route to San Francisco. She has succeeded to F. W. Roach's interest in the Roseburg Planddealer, and there will doubtless be a big improvement in that newspaper. Miss Jones is a clever journalist and hustler for business. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Magill, who were married at Grant's Pass on the 22d, visited in Medford the forepart of the week. The groom is one of Foots creek precinct's most energetic and clever young farmers, while his bride is the amiable and popular daughter of Mrs. Jas. Savage. That their wedded life will be one of happiness and prosperity is the wish of many friends. Arson. Someone, about Sept. 1, 1901, set fire to one of our log cabins, south end of east half of northwest quarter of Sec. 1, Twp. 35 S., R. 4 West. One hundred dollars ($100) reward is offered for information sufficient to convict. W. H. EMERSON, Woodville, Or. Oct. 31, 1901.

LOCAL NOTES.

John Louden of Applegate spent Tuesday night in Jacksonville. Central Point items will be found on the first page of today's Times. Full assortment manilla and sisal cotton rope for sale at Nunan's. The weather is again beautiful, although cold morning and night. Elegant home-made candles of all kinds, a leader at Joe Wetterer's. This is Halloween. Look out, as many pranks will be played. A sister of John Wintjen died at her home in Germany not long since. The best brands of cigars, tobacco, etc., can always be found at Joe Wetterer's. The deer law goes into force tomorrow. It will be unlawful to kill deer after today. We are glad to announce that O. Harbaugh's condition is considerably improved. Madrona lodge's grand ball, of which so much has been said and written, takes place tonight. Geo. Carter is located at Pleasant creek again. He recently made a trip to Hornbrook. T. H. Mansfield and Bertha Trickle were among the arrivals in Jacksonville Tuesday. The county commissioners' court will be in session next week, beginning Wednesday. Chas. Fehely has become a resident of Applegate district, where he is engaged in prospecting. C. W. Sherman, the energetic insurance agent, is in Grant's Pass, accompanied by his wife. Rev. W. Bitter will hold services at the Catholic church in Jacksonville next Sunday, at the usual hour. Joe Wetterer makes a specialty of light drinks, fresh candies, nuts, tropical and other fruits, etc. J. B. Stewart, who has been prospecting in Siskiyou county, Calif., was here again the forepart of the week. Rev. S. H. Jones will hold services at the Presbyterian church in Jacksonville Sunday morning and evening. Apples 25 cents per sack at the Oldwell orchard, Central Point. Come immediately, before they are picked over. John X. Miller, C. Skyrman and Frank Hammond of Trail creek precinct are in Jacksonville on land business. Jacksonville's fire department will meet next Monday evening. The board of trustees on the following evening. Hunting is the popular fad nowadays; but somehow our nitrods are not distinguishing themselves particularly. N. E. Britt is in the Evans creek region. He has been spending some time inspecting railroad lands in southern Oregon. Frank Payne of Sam's Valley made THE TIMES a pleasant call one day last week. He returned from California not long since. Wm. Koepp, watchmaker and jeweler, is now located on California street, opposite the postoffice. Satisfaction guaranteed. Frank Clute of Ashland has been in Jacksonville several times lately, visiting his daughter, who is attending St. Mary's Academy. M. G. Womack of Grant's Pass is in town again. He was here a few days ago, accompanied by Mr. McShaw, a mining man from Colorado. Wm. Bybee is making his annual drive of hogs to Happy Camp, Calif., starting 140 head this week. He has done this regularly for over 35 years. Hon. W. M. Colvig has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Samuel Phillips. His notice to that effect appears in another column of THE TIMES. The Jacksonville Marble Works is raising out a neat monument to mark the last resting-place of John Swint, who died in Josephine county a few years ago. The annual receipts of the Ashland postoffice are $5,859, the largest of any office in southern Oregon, excepting Roseburg. Grant's Pass is next, with $5,640. Ehler Band, who came from Steamboat a fortnight ago, is still here. He hasn't found time to return, as he is busy looking after the big, pretty girl who arrived at his house on the 19th. Mr. Morris, who has been in Alaska for sometime, returned to Jackson county last week. He was met at Grant's Pass by his brother, Sam Morris of Rock Point. Dr. A. C. Helu, who was formerly a prominent and enterprising resident of Ashland, died at Sawyer's Bar, Calif., one day last week, from the effects of an overdose of morphine, to the use of which he was addicted. Recorder Applegate reports that business in his office the past month has been greater than during any like period in the history of the county. A large portion of the instruments recorded were locators of mining claims. Lewis Ockerman, Goshen, Ind.—De Witt's Little Early Risers never bend me double like other pills; but do their work thoroughly and make me feel like a k.y. Certain, thorough, gentle. City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point.

Since the publication of the delinquent tax list a number of taxpayers have settled with the sheriff. By the time Nov. 23d, the day of the sale, rolls 'round, the list of delinquents will be much smaller. I. C. Chapman, a recent arrival at Gold Hill, will open and conduct a broom factory there, contingent upon his being able to secure a tract of land upon which broom corn can be raised. This, it is thought, he will find little difficulty in doing. A letter recently received in Jacksonville from Wm. Heely, who is located near Nome, gives the information that newspaper accounts of Alaska are greatly exaggerated, and that there are several times as many applicants for each job as are wanted. W. T. Wesson, Gholsenville, Va., druggist, writes: "Your One Minute Cure gives perfect satisfaction. My customers say it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles." City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point. Chas. S. and Rufus S. Moore have bought from the receiver of the Portland Savings Bank the tract of timber land, situated in Klamath county, that formerly belonged to Samuel Coulter. It contains 10,953 acres, and they paid for it $12,500, securing a great bargain. M. A. Walker has a nice little farm, situated not far from Antioch schoolhouse, Table Rock precinct, which he will sell very low. It contains 110 acres of land, 30 acres of which are in cultivation. There is a dwelling, well, outbuildings, etc., on the place. Only $400. Address Mr. Walker at Grant's Pass. A petition is being circulated and generally signed in Meadows district, praying for the appointment of Miss Lizzie Mayfield as postmaster of Spikenard. The present incumbent is about to change his residence, and the postoffice will be discontinued if Miss Mayfield is not appointed, as no one else desires the position. Several hundred head of cattle were driven through Jacksonville yesterday, en route to the S. P. R., to be shipped to California. They were bought of the Cantralls, J. Buckley, A. Kleinhammer, J. Crump and other residents of Applegate by a buyer representing J. McDermott. As high as $6.00 a hundred was paid for prime beefs. Victor Nelson, indicted on three counts for breaking into the postoffice at the Klamath Indian agency, and stealing stamps and money therefrom, and who upon being arraigned entered a plea of guilty, was sentenced by Judge Bellinger to imprisonment at hard labor in the Oregon penitentiary for two years on each count, concurrently, and to pay a fine of $100. The will of the late Samuel Phillips has been admitted to probate. He bequeathes $2000 in cash to his wife, as also the use during her life of the residence in Jacksonville, as also the furniture, etc., and to his son Raymond $500. The balance of his property is to be equally divided between the son and his daughter, Mrs. O. B. Dewes of Ashland. The estimated value of the estate is $6800. C. C. Pursel of Applegate, while traveling between Jacksonville and Medford lately, saw some one shoot at and kill a Chinese pheasant. As these birds are protected by law in all seasons in this and Josephine counties, and as our sportsmen are especially interested in their propagation, it will go hard with this transgressor if his identity is discovered. It seems strange that anyone should descend low enough to commit such a deed. Two things in the treatment of nasal catarrh are now fully understood. First, the drying process is a delusion that produces more mischief than benefit. Second, science, common sense and experience proclaim Ely's Cream Balm to be instant relief, and final, certain cure. It cleanses the diseased membranes and never makes the patient sneeze. Price 50 cents. Sold by druggists and by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York. W. A. Wann, representing the Mutual Life Ins. Co. of New York, is in the county introducing a new and popular form of life insurance. The five per cent, 20-year gold bond policy, which, while carrying with it the usual feature of indemnity in case of death, also provides upon this occurrence as at the maturity of the contract, if the insured is living, the highest guaranteed cash value given by any company, the issue of gold bonds of the company for each $1000 of insurance bearing 5 per cent. interest for 20 years, and then the payment of the bonds themselves. Those who wish to provide for themselves or their family a safe investment for a long term of years should see the contract. Grand Christmas Raffle. A raffle for $100 in U. S. gold coin will take place at the Banquet saloon in Jacksonville on Tuesday night, Dec. 24, 1901. The person throwing the highest number with dice will get $75, and the lowest throw takes the remaining $25. Chances will range from one cent to $1. A fine turkey supper will be set after the raffle, which will be conducted to insure general satisfaction. Letter List. The following is a list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Jacksonville postoffice Oct. 31, 1901: Dollarhide, Oley Mooney, Miss Mary Griffiths, Miss M. Ella Jones, M. D. Hines, G. W. Sheriff, Smith, Mrs. Elva Thompson, W. C. One cent will be charged upon delivery. JOHN F. MILLER, P. M. County Treasurer's 21st Notice. Max Muller, county treasurer, gives notice that there are funds in the county treasury for the redemption of outstanding warrants protested from June 1, 1898, to June 30, 1898, both dates inclusive. Interest on the same ceased Oct. 25, 1901. PISOS CURE FOR COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS AND ASTHMA. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.

FOOLS AND THEIR MONY PART A SMOOTH YOUNG WOMAN ARRESTED FOR VICTIMIZING LOVE-SICK SWAINS. For several years past a young lady, who comes from respectable parents living in Sam's Valley precinct, has made a business of systematically defrauding men who advertised for wives. Such fools deserve no sympathy, and will sometimes make bigger asses of themselves by squealing over the loss of their money. It is one of these guys who caused her indictment by the U. S. grand jury. THE TIMES hopes that she will be acquitted, for a man so easily duped and wishes to commit matrimony by that route should be taught a lesson that will be of service to him in the future. Her method, according to the postal authorities, by whom the case was worked up, was to answer a newspaper advertisement and open correspondence with the seeker for a wife. She would bring matters to a climax as quickly as possible, and then, when a definite proposal was received, she would confide to her would-be husband that she was without money with which to pay railroad fare to where he was. Generally the next mail brought her the price of a ticket and a request to hurry. That was usually the last the long-distance lover would hear of his fiance, though in some instances she wrote to make excuses for her delay in coming. She is said to have opened such a correspondence with Andrew Knutson of New Whatcom, Wash., who had advertised in some paper that he would like to meet "a suitable companion; object, matrimony," or words to that effect. They exchanged photographs and the lady is said to have finally written that she was willing to marry him. She also wrote that if he would send some money to her she would meet him at New Whatcom. Knutson immediately sent a money order for $20. Another letter is said to have been received from the fair one in southeastern Oregon to the effect that she had expected her father to give her sufficient money to take her to Portland, but that he had failed and that she would need more. The confiding Knutson sent along $30, and the next he heard from her was to the effect that she was sick and could not come. Another man in Nampa, Idaho, was a recipient of her letters. When she ask him for money he became suspicious and wrote to Postmaster William Reames at Gold Hill to make some inquiries. As the young lady had received a large number of money orders, the postmaster decided the case merited investigation, and laid the matter before the postal inspector, with the result that, after correspondence with some of her long-distance suitors, she was indicted by the grand jury. Deputy United States Marshal Proebstel went to Gold Hill and made the arrest. She was placed under a bond which was furnished by her father. Food Changed to Poison. Putrefying food in the intestines produces effects like those of arsenic; but Dr. King's New Life Pills expel the poisons from clogged bowels, gently, easily but surely, curing constipation, biliousness, sick headache, fevers, all liver, kidney and bowel troubles. Only 25c at City Drug Store. DIED. VEST—Near Grant's Pass, Oct. 26, 1901, John Vest, aged about 73 years. MEDFORD SQUIDS. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Weston left for Grant's Pass Tuesday evening. Mrs. Mamie Dox of Jacksonville was one of our visitors during the week. Miss Lulu Jones of Jacksonville is learning stenography at the Medford Academy. Misses Pauline Reuter and Lillie Taylor of Jacksonville tarried in our midst one day this week. G. H. Howland, R. H. Whitehead and Halley Bros. have been hunting on Elk and Evans creek, with considerable success. Mrs. E. J. Kubli, Mrs. Howard Kilham and K. K. Kubli and his wife of Jacksonville were visitors in Medford one day this week. I. A. Palmer, the expert architect, has returned from Grant's Pass, where he drew plans for and superintended the construction of several fine buildings. W. F. Taggart, who has been an honest granger for sometime, is again at the Medford D. & R. Co.'s retail establishment. He never fails to please. The gross receipts of the Medford postoffice during the last fiscal year are a flattering testimonial to our growth and prosperity. They were $4,399, against $3,097 the year before. Dan Reynolds and his son George, who are conducting the feed stables in the eastern part of town, are doing a big business. Their prices are reasonable and they spare no pains to give satisfaction. MARRIED. MAGILL—WOOD—At Grant's Pass, October 28, 1901, by Rev. Mr. McDougall; A. A. Magill and Mrs. Clara Savage Wood, both of Woodville. NORDEN—VANDEKARR—At Jacksonville, October 28, 1901, by W. J. FULLER & CO., Portland, Ore. Saint Helen's Hall... PORTLAND, OREGON. (Founded 1869.) A Boarding and Day School for Girls. MUSIC, ART AND ELOCUTION. This School offers to girls a broad and thorough education, combined with the advantages of a beautiful and refined home. It occupies a large and attractive building in the immediate vicinity of the City Park. The sanitary condition of the premises has been made a matter of special attention. The bed chambers, class and recitation rooms are large and thoroughly ventilated; and the construction of the building is such that every room is open to the sunlight. The greatest care has been taken to provide all the necessary appointments of a well-equipped school, and to furnish every facility for training pupils in the most approved methods. The aim of the school is to give thorough and well-ordered instruction to girls and young women, fitting them for college where that is desired, and to aid in the development of true and womanly character. The Fall term opens September 16, 1901. A faculty of twenty competent teachers insures for children and young women that individual care and instruction necessary to the best results. There are four skilled teachers in the Music Department alone, specialists in Art and Oratory, and native teachers in French and German. Provision is made for all athletic games suitable to women, as tennis, croquet, basketball bicycling and horseback riding. A gymnasium, 50x100 feet, is in process of construction which will offer still more opportunities for healthful exercise. For illustrated catalogue apply to MISS ELEANOR TERRETT, Principal.

HIS LIFE THREATENED EXPERIENCE OF A TROOPER IN THE EIGHTH OHIO CAVALRY. The Incident Occurred When the Regiment was at Camp Charleston and Narrowly Escaped a Fatal Ending. The chief bugler of the Eighth Ohio Cavalry in the stirring days of the civil war was Thomas J. Patton, who now lives, at 70 years of age, in Urbana, Ohio. As in the case of many others his life was threatened in after years by the results of an almost forgotten accident. While his regiment was at Camp Charleston, Mr. Patton was thrown from his horse, sustaining a sprained ankle and the fracture of three ribs. In an interview just published by the Champaign Democrat of Urbana, he says: "It was almost eleven years ago that I was stricken with partial paralysis, the result of my fall at Camp Charleston. I lost my appetite, my kidneys were affected and I was confined to my bed under medical treatment. The disease affected my right hand so that I could not lift it. I suffered an almost entire loss of memory and could not talk except with great effort." "But you seem well and hearty now," said the reporter. "How did you regain your health?" "I am well and hearty," answered the veteran. "It came about in this way. Four years ago I read in a newspaper of a case similar to mine that had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and I purchased some. They are the best medicine in the world. Not only did they help my paralysis but they built up my health in every way. Since taking them I have not been troubled with catarrh, from which I had before been a constant sufferer. I feel better and brighter now than I have for years." It is a well established fact that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an unfailing specific not only for partial paralysis but for locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, neuralgia, nervous headache, rheumatism, anemia, after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions and all forms of weakness either in male or female. At all druggists, or direct from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50.
