Bradley Francis Durphy has been sentenced to a term of eight months in the Multnomah county jail, and also to pay all costs, by Judge Sears, for polygamy. His attorneys were surprised when the judgment of the court was pronounced. They had expected that a fine would be imposed, which, if not too large, they were prepared to pay without appealing the case to the supreme court. An appeal will be taken. Durphy, who is not anxious to spend any time in jail, and will fight against imprisonment as long as there is any hope left him, has been released on bonds. An attempt was made by counsel representing Durphy to have District Attorney Chamberlain ask the court for a fine without imprisonment; but the latter refused to agree to it. When the case was called Judge Sears asked if there was anything to be said in favor of Durphy. To this F. P. Mays said he wished to call the attention of the court to the statute of Illinois, by which after a man and a wife have been separated five years they are free to marry again. He concluded by saying that if Durphy was guilty it was merely on a technical point. Durphy took the sentence with calmness on the exterior, whatever he might have thought, and a faint smile played over his features. He was alone in the courtroom, not being accompanied by his daughter, who was his constant companion at the trial.

IN THE PARSONAGE

A Chapter from the Life of the Village Person's Helpmate. In every village the pastor's wife exerts an influence often as great as that of her husband. Needless to say, her approval or disapproval is not given without careful and conscientious consideration. This emphasizes the importance of the enthusiasm shown by Mrs. S. E. Leech, wife of the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Madison, Me., over an important event in her life. The experience is best told in her own words. "In 1895," she says, "the birth of a child left me with complaints which caused me to suffer for several years. I was distressed after eating and was troubled with nausea and the formation of gas in my stomach. There were severe pains and weakness in my back and loins and I was also afflicted with other troubles to which my sex is subject. Doctors treated me nearly all the while for three years but I was not benefited to any extent." "But you seem to have recovered marvelously," was suggested. "Yes," Mrs. Leech answered, "and I will tell you how it was brought about. I had read of cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I decided to see what they would do for me. There was a decided improvement while I was using the second box of the pills but I did not stop taking them until I had taken six boxes and was cured." Mrs. Leech suffered from the same troubles that are making thousands of women miserable. A few of the symptoms are severe headache, loss of appetite, exhaustion, pains in the groin or limbs, pale or sallow complexion, nervousness, offensive breath, etc. The sufferer may exhibit one or more of these symptoms, or may have all. They simply indicate the ravages disease has made upon the system, and the more of these symptoms the patient shows the greater the necessity for prompt and persistent treatment until they have been banished and the bloom of health is restored. To accomplish this end, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the only unfailing remedy. They are on sale at all druggists or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, fifty cents per box or six boxes for two dollars and a half, by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.
