Nunan, sole agent. Quail and other upland birds, excepting Chinese pheasants, can now be sold in Southern Oregon. Circuit court is in session again. Several cases will be heard before final adjournment of the term. The turkey season is opening. Many hundreds of the birds will be shipped to the San Francisco market. Notes, receipts, drafts, due-bills, etc., in book form, can always be obtained at THE TIMES PRINTING HOUSE. The citizens of Ashland are agitating a sewage system, to cost $20,000. Money will be raised by issuing bonds. John W. Kelly, the veteran printer and newspaper publisher, spent Friday night in Jacksonville. He was on his way south. The sale of property belonging to delinquent taxpayers will be held next Saturday, the 23d. The list has shrunk considerably. Salt Mackerel, Holland Herring, At Nunan's. Cornelius Swetz, who mined and broke horses in this section nearly 40 years ago, is in Jacksonville. He is now located at Fortuna, Humboldt county, Calif. The county clerk has issued license to marry to Edward F. Grisez of Siskiyou county, Calif., and Miss Nellie M. Towne; also to Irving Daley and Miss Eva Conley. Wm. Dunnington, who went to Texas some time ago, but did not stay long, got back to Jacksonville Friday. He now thinks Southern Oregon next to Heaven. The term of circuit court for Klamath county, which was postponed on account of the prevalence of what is said to be small pox at Klamath Falls, will be held in January. Rev. W. Bitter will hold services at the Catholic church in Jacksonville Sunday, at 8:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. On the same day, at 10 o'clock A. M., he will officiate at Medford. All streams in this section of Oregon, as well as others, are now lower than ever known before. An unusual dry summer, followed by an extraordinary dry autumn, causes this. Will. Puh! Monday opened a barber-shop in the Masonic building, which has been neatly fitted up and will be up to date in every particular when he receives his porcelain bath tub. E. E. Schluessen, formerly a resident of Woodville, was one of our recent visitors. He is now in the employ of the Pacific States Telephone Co., and ranges nearly everywhere. As usual, a big raffle, for $100 in coin, takes place at The Banquet on Christmas eve, which will be followed by a sumptuous turkey supper, to which a general invitation is extended. Chances are going at a lively rate. The Table Rock Saloon, which is now under the sole management of E. H. Helms, has been supplied with new up-to-date fixtures of the latest pattern. Give Ed. a call. He keeps a big line of fine wines, liquors and cigars. Hunters report that not since 1890, when quail were almost extinguished by the heavy snowfall during the forepart of that year, have those birds been so scarce as now. A number of reasons are given therefor, all of which seem plausible enough. The Southern Oregon Marble Co. has been organized by J. C. Whipp and F. L. Wright, with headquarters at Ashland. Both have had considerable experience in the business, and will keep in touch with the latest ideas, dealing only in the best materials. M. A. Walker has a nice little farm, situated not far from Antioch school-house, Table Rock precinct, which he will sell very low. It contains 110 acres of land, 30 acres of which are in cultivation. There is a dwelling, well, outbuildings, etc., on the place. Only $400. Address Mr. Walker at Grant's Pass. Teora, Jay Beach's famous old broodmare, that died in Alameda county, Calif., two years ago, secured her seventh 2:30 performer this year in Claymont 2:27, a high-class stallion owned by Dr. Mausby of Wichita, Kansas. The names of those previous in her standard list are Chesbrough 2:04, Del Norte 2:08, Touchet 2:15, Reno 2:14, Lily 2:27 and Coqueta 2:30. All are by Altamont.

Eastern eggs are now coming into the Portland market at the rate of about a carload a week. The fresh Oregon product sells at 30 cents per dozen wholesale. There is a good opening in Southern Oregon for poultry yards. There is an increase instead of diminution in the car famine that has existed along the Southern Pacific routes in Oregon and the Shasta route for some weeks past, and the scarcity of rolling stock is interfering with both the business of the railroad and of private individuals and corporations. Fruitgrowers will find the Pacific Nursery Co. of Tangent, Lion county, one of the most reliable on the Pacific coast. They grow a large assortment of the best and most popular fruit, shade and ornamental trees, and warrant the quality and name of everything they sell. Intending purchasers can save agents' profits by sending directly to them. Capt. D. J. Ferree, a well-known pioneer of Southern and Southeastern Oregon, who is now employed at the state penitentiary, has returned from a visit east of the Rocky mountains. He commanded an Iowa cavalry company during the civil war, and found on his visit to that state that the bugle had sounded "taps" for the last time for most of his comrades. W. R. Stansell, manager of the Rogue River Mining Co., is again on the ground, after several weeks spent at Cleveland, Ohio, in reorganizing the corporation and increasing its capital. He has succeeded in obtaining ample funds for the building of a logging railroad, which will run from the head of Foote creek, where the company owns several thousand acres of good timber land, to the White place, situated on Rogue river, a distance of about five miles, and a sawmill that will have a capacity of 50,000 feet per day. Work on this important enterprise will commence in the near future, meanwhile the company will spend the winter in operating and developing its mines. The Tidings says the prospective building of a new lumber railroad from a point on the S. P. Co.'s line, a short distance south of Klamathon, up the Klamath river into the Jenny creek sugar-pine belt, and the erection of a new saw mill and box factory, is likely to come into the hands of Scott & Van Arsdale. In the event of the transfer of their property to the Eastern syndicate, they will undertake the exploitation of Hervey Lindley's preliminary survey of a lumber road up the Klamath and acquire his interests in the same. Game Warden Quimby thinks that there has been a marked improvement in the observance of the deer law this year, as very few, if any, deer have been slain for their hides alone. Three years ago the slaughter of these animals for their skins was enormous in Southern Oregon, one crowd of hunters having slain as many as 3000. Since then farmers and stockmen have become aroused in the interest of deer preservation, and so hunters who come in over the California line for the purpose of slaying deer by the wholesale are in danger of being reported. At Portland Saturday Judge Sears denied the motion for a new trial in the case of Bradley Francis Durphy, who was convicted of polygamy. Durphy will appear for sentence today. G. M. Ideman, his counsel, gave notice that an appeal to the supreme court will be taken; but it is possible that if a considerable fine is imposed, which the statute permits, the defendant might pay and abandon the appeal. The court held that affidavits of the jurors regarding their own misconduct in the jury-room cannot be received for the purpose of setting aside a verdict. If this could be done, nearly every verdict might be questioned. The following is the programme of the literary and social entertainment to be given at the U. S. Hall Saturday evening, Nov. 30th, by Jacksonville's branch of the Society of Christian Endeavor: Piano duet, Peter Schmol; Florence DeBar, Agnes Love, Minuet, Ruth Peters, Frances Kenney, Fieta Ulrich, Vance Colvig, Vivien Beach, Donald Cameron, Solo, "Mollie, Drive the Cows Home," Leona Ulrich, Tabieau, Marguerite, Quartette, Lullaby, Edith Priest, Helen Colvig, Ann Wendt, Margaret Krause, Tableau, Autumn, Solo, "Coon, Coon, Coon," Vance D. After referring to the tragedy of President McKinley's death, "harmonious feeling of all parties, the smooth workings of our state affairs, the prosperity of our country," and recognizing in all things the Divine Mind and Hand, Governor Geer declares Thursday, Nov. 28th, a day of thanksgiving and prayer. He recommends "that all our people on that day, while remembering the poor with appropriate gifts and cheerful words, desist from their usual vocations, and in their usual places of worship, or elsewhere, give praise to Almighty God, upon whom our fathers so firmly relied for national as well as individual guidance, for past mercies, and invoke the Divine aid along the pathway of national righteousness as our country assumes the leading position in power and influence among the nations of the earth." To the Public. Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I can recommend it with the utmost confidence. It has done good work for me and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold, and feared I would get pneumonia; but after taking a second dose of this medicine I feel better; three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH S. MEYERS, 64-Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by City Drug Store. TEAMS WANTED. I can give employment to eight or ten good teams, at $3 per day. Apply to me at the Fish Lake Ditch camp. D. E. MORRIS, Supt. of Construction.

A Tale of Three Lawyers. An Ashland dispatch of Nov. 13th to the Oregonian narrates particulars of the adventures of a trio of prominent legal luminaries, giving District Attorney Reames as the author of their woes. This official, although of an obliging disposition, declines to absorb the skillfulness as a mountain guide heaped on him, although acknowledging the accuracy of the balance of the story. It seems that Mr. Reames, A. S. Hammond and F. M. Atkins, together with Judge Benson and C. A. Cogswold of Portland, had traveled all that day, and when they had arrived at the base of a mountain east of Drew's station, which is about 40 miles from Klamath Falls, the horses they had been driving were used up. This was about five o'clock in the evening, and the three gentlemen first named, being the younger of the party, volunteered to walk over the mountain to Drew's, a distance of about 12 miles. Mr. Reames, who had been over the road before, acted as guide, counselor and friend to the other two, who followed his lead with confidence. Leaving their vehicle they ascended the mountain, and had covered a distance of three miles when they came to a point where the road forks, one road leading to Bonanza and the other to Drew's. Unfortunately Mr. Reames' knowledge of the latitude and longitude became mixed in the darkness, and he led them onto the Bonanza road. The night was bitterly cold, the road contained numerous rocks and depressions, and the party had left overshoes, overcoats and gloves in the wagon. After trudging about six miles, sometimes on their knees and occasionally on all fours, they halted to hold a council of war. Their hands and faces had become stiffened with the cold, but by some effort they gathered enough fuel and built a fire. This was about 10 o'clock at night. Not satisfied that they were on the wrong road, Mr. Reames skurried on another mile. Finally, in the inky blackness, they commenced to retrace their steps. They reached Drews station at 4:30 o'clock next morning, completely exhausted and faint from hunger, having eaten nothing since breakfast on the previous morning. Retail Market Report. Letters Proving Positively that there is No Medicine for Woman's Ills Equal to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. PROFUSE PERIODS. "I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound about three months ago, and cannot express the wonderful good it has done me. Menstruations were so profuse as to leave me very weak for some time after. Was also troubled with leucorrhoea, tired feeling, bearing-down sensation, pain across the back and thighs. I felt as though there was a heavy weight in my stomach all the time. I have taken two bottles of the medicine, and now have better health than I have had for four years." Mrs. LIZZIE DICKSON HODGE, Avalon, Ohio. CHANGE OF LIFE. "I was taken sick five years ago with 'The Grippe,' and had a relapse and was given up by the doctor and my friends. Change of Life began to work on me. I flowed very badly until a year ago, then my stomach and lungs got so bad, I suffered terribly; the blood went up in my lungs and stomach, and I vomited it up. I could not eat scarcely anything. I cannot tell what I suffered with my head. My husband got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and before I had taken half of it I began to improve, and to-day I am another woman. The Pinkham's medicine has saved my life. I cannot praise it enough." M. A. DENSON, Millport, N.Y. $5000 will be paid if this testimonial is not genuine. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.
