Jumped on a Ten Penny Nall. The little daughter of J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was ex perienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well-known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an an-tisceptic and heals such injuries without maturation and one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by City Drug Store.

Fabrics Must Be Furry. Many fabrics known as drap de zibeline are exaggerated in their silky and furry appearance to an exceptional degree, while one or two colors are intermingled on ground colors of grays, mastic, Sevres blues, fraise cerassees and browns. Long white or black hairs appear to float over the whole mixture, and indescribable checks, broken stripes, colored knotted woolen spots. are interwoven on this novelty. A short pile satin faced beaver cloth known as drap de panne is equally favored with a coarse canvas cloth.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

A Study In Caste.

Human nature is so happily constituted that as long as the humble man has a humbler man to look down upon he can still maintain a degree of dignity and self respect. To the back door of a city residence the other day came an old man tramp. He was grimy and tattered, weary and wretched in appearance, but asked no money, merely something to eat. A cup of hot coffee was added to the bread and meat bestowed upon the poor old fellow, and as he munched and sipped contentedly, albeit ravenously, on the doorstep the lady of the house chatted with him. He said that he was from old England, that he was once a traveling tinker and made good wages every day, but that he had grown old, work made him very tired, so he had concluded to beg his bread. "Couldn't you find occupation of some kind somewhere?" asked the sympa-tiresome than walking as much as you "Oh, no, lady," replied the old tramp. "An' I hain't a low down begger; I hain't the lowest o' th' low, lady. No, no; there's a class 'twixt me an' th' gypsies."-Detroit Free Press.

"Then let's give a swell dinner and dance," she suggested. "But that will put us in debt again," he protested. "Of course it will," she returned, but what's the good of making our credit so good if we don't use it?"-Chicago Post.

A Suggestion Considered.

"An actor must often leave his real self behind him when he goes on the stage, must be not?" said the inquisitive young woman. "Well," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes, "it would assuredly be a great convenience if there were two of him so that one could remain out and watch the box office." - Washington
