Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease.

Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having it filled twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a trial, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

SSS the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits.

We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

"NERVE WASTE"

One of the most helpful books on nerve weakness ever issued is that entitled "Nerve Waste," by Dr. Sawyer, of San Francisco, now in its fifth thousand. This work of an experienced and reputable physician is in agreeable contrast to the vast sum of false teaching which prevails on this interesting subject. It abounds in carefully considered and practical advice, and has the two great merits of wisdom and sincerity.

It is indorsed by both the religious and secular press. The Chicago Advance says: "A perusal of the book and the application of its principles will put health, hope and heart into thousands of lives that are now suffering through nervous impairment."

The book is $1 by mail, postpaid.

One of the most interesting chapters—chapter XX, on Nervines and Nerve Tonics—has been printed separately as a sample chapter, and will be sent to any address for stamp, by the publishers, THE PACIFIC PUB CO., Box 2658, San Francisco.

HINTS FOR FARMERS

Spraying Potatoes.

The effect of spraying potatoes for blight and rot has been strikingly shown by results obtained at the Vermont experiment station this year, says the New England Homestead. This station insists that proper spraying backed up by proper cultivation will protect the potato crop from these diseases, and continued experiments and field trials covering a period of ten years have proved this beyond a doubt. The potato fields at the station during the latter part of September, when most vines were dead and many fields already dug, were as green and growing as at any time during July or August, and it is claimed that they were making potatoes at the rate of twenty-five to thirty bushels per week for each acre.

Best Time to Move Bees.

The best time to move bees is in the early winter before the weather has been cold enough to make the combs brittle, so that they will break in handling, or in a warm day near the spring before the bees begin to fly out. Thus it follows that one who buys bees should have those times to move them. If they are moved in the summer, the combs are liable to melt down, and if in the honey season unless taken several miles the old bees are likely to return to the old location when they take their first flight. The closing of the entrance is best done with wire netting which allows of ventilation. Move with as little jar or shaking of the hive as possible.

To Get Rid of a Troublesome Corn.

First soak it in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing the blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism Pain Balm is unequaled. For sale by City Drug Store.

Pure Bred Stock Pays.

The high prices pure bred live stock has sold for of recent years have convinced farmers more than ever that the keeping of pure bred stock pays, says Farm and Home. Little can now be said of the scrub, while the pure bred commands phenomenal prices. The one costs but little more than the other to raise, but the results in quality of carcass or for breeding put the raising of scrubs out of the question with the intelligent feeder. Many have begun a valuable herd with only two or three animals, increasing the number as circumstances would warrant. This is a safe way to do, especially by the inexperienced.

Keeping Beets.

Table beets to keep well should be kept cool and moderately moist. They will stand hard frosts without material damage, but should not freeze. They may be left in the ground as late as possible and the danger of overgrowth and cracking open will permit. They can be pitted out of doors nicely in dry elevations in piles two to four feet high or about three feet wide and high and as long as liked, same as potatoes. To keep in the cellar it should be cool, and they can be placed in tiers, barrels, etc., or in piles on the floor and cover with sand to keep in moisture, as they tend to dry out and shrivel.

Tobacco For the Hennery.

If one put a four ounce package of the fine cut smoking tobacco in every hen's nest in the poultry house at a cost of 5 cents a nest, it would probably prove a good investment in helping to drive out lice and mites, says American Cultivator, but if there is a large hennery the tobacco stem or a tobacco dust that can be bought at almost any of the agricultural warehouses at from 3 to 5 cents a pound, and much cheaper if one goes directly to the cigar manufacturers, will serve an equally good purpose at much less cost.

The Horse Outlook.

There seems to be bright prospects before horse breeders, notwithstanding the mechanical contrivances designed to supplant the noble beast, says Farm and Ranch. Wars have caused the sacrifice of hundreds of thousands of horses and mules, and their places must be supplied by breeders. There is an increasing demand from the cities, and teams are said to be scarce on farms. Next year there will be good feed and plenty of it, and every vacancy will demand a horse to fill it.

A Worth Creation.

One of Worth's most exquisite creations of this season is an evening gown of vieux rose miroir velvet. Beautiful guipure d'Irlande forms the quaint collar, shaping in a sloping fashion over the shoulders and further embellishes the skirt. The princesse front is of a paler shade of vieux rose satin, the corsage being slashed with velvet strings. A large black chapeau de style completes the picturesque toilet.

In 1658 Captain Thomas Clarke, in company with John Winthrop and others, put in operation an "iron worke" at New Haven, Conn. This enterprise embraced a blast furnace and a refinery forge.

Dog and Wolf.

There has been some dispute as to the descent of the dog—whether it is an improved progeny of the wolf or a distinct variety. That it is a different species is proved by the fact that the dog and the wolf will mate and produce offspring. Nevertheless it is probable that the dog is merely descended from the same original stock with the wolf.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
