Beekman of Portland has returned from his trip to New York. Hon. E. B. Dufur of Foothills creek, the attorney, is here on legal business. Wm. Cameron of Uniontown and his daughter, Miss Ada, are in town. District Attorney Reames returned from a professional trip this morning. O. Humason of Gold Hill, the well-known miner, was among us yesterday. O. E. Rose of Applegate and his daughter visited in Jacksonville Monday. Geo. E. Howland and his wife returned from Grant's Pass this morning. Jacob Walz of Pooch Bah precinct and his son were at the county-seat yesterday. H. Bladwell of Sterlingville and his wife were in Jacksonville a few days since. W. R. Coleman, P. M. of Phoenix, and A. G. Epps married with us awhile yesterday. Mrs. O'Brien of Applegate was in Jacksonville Tuesday, accompanied by her son Emmett. Judge Benson, who has been holding court at Grant's Pass, is in Jacksonville on official business. Mr. Caswell of Ashland, the genial locomotive engineer, has been spending several days in Jacksonville. Dr. C. C. Fletcher of Medford, the dentist, made Jacksonville a professional visit the forepart of the week. Harvey Richardson of Trail creek and Wm. Gibson of Mound precinct made THE TIMES a call this morning. Miss Lydia Pernoll of Applegate was the guest of Mrs. W. E. Finney of Jacksonville the forepart of the week. Judge E. B. Watson of Portland, who has been in Jacksonville on professional business, left for home Tuesday evening. Miss Mae Sutton, stenographer in the office of District Attorney Reames, leaves Saturday for Salem, for a visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Zenat, formerly of Ashland, who is now an engineer on the N. P. R. R., was in town this week, being one of the witnesses in the Cole divorce case. Misses Lucinda and Laura Reames, who have been attending Mills' College, returned yesterday evening. Miss Nellie Reames met them at Medford. H. D. Kubl of Applegate, the miner-farmer, is in town. He is said to have the inside track for the Republican nomination for state senator, which he deserves. J. B. Scott, who is now operating in Siskiyou county, Calif., spent Tuesday night in Jacksonville. He has been looking after his mining interests in Humboldt district. B. Sprague, a prominent citizen of Wallawa county, has been paying Jacksonville a visit during the past few weeks. He is a son-in-law of Mr. Worden of Griffin creek district. F. L. Wright, a member of the Southern Oregon Marble Co., whose headquarters are at Ashland, was in Jacksonville one day this week. He is succeeding nicely in taking orders. Rev. Robt. Ennis, who is now pleasantly located at Turner, Marion county, surprised his many friends in Jacksonville by appearing in our midst Tuesday. Time has dealt gently with him. Hon. W. H. Vaughan of Clackamas county, one of Oregon's oldest Democratic warhorses, made us a call this morning. He was accompanied by his cousin, W. O. Vaughan of Klamath county. E. E. Poley, who holds a responsible position in the railroad roundhouse at Ashland, made THE TIMES a pleasant call Monday. He was quite active in the management of the grand ball given at Ashland last night. J. C. Whipp and his family, after a long residence in Jacksonville, left this week for Ashland, which will be their future home. They are accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends. Few could be missed here more than they will be.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enable me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells, will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction guaranteed by City Drug Store. Only 50c.

Christmas Ball.

O. E. Rose will give a dancing party at his hall on Applegate Wednesday night, December 25th. The best of music and supper will be provided. Tickets, including horse feed, $2. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The cold snap continues, interfering with both farmers and miners. Don't fail to see Dr. Payne, the 20th century hypnotist. He will please you. Claude Pengra of Ashland is assistant station agent at Springfield, Lane county. Buy your holiday candies at The Boss. Cheapest and best in Southern Oregon. Good three-foot, sugar-pine clapboards, $7.00 per thousand, at Nunan's. The N. S. O. masquerade ball New Year's eve is the principal topic of conversation. J. F. Hall of Butte creek was called to Jacksonville Tuesday by the illness of his aged father. S. T. Sandry of Applegate, the miner, was in Jacksonville yesterday, accompanied by his son. The Jacksonville Dancing Club will give another of its enjoyable parties tomorrow night. Our merchants are shipping potatoes from Eugene. The retail price is still $1.50 per 100 pounds. Benton Pool on Tuesday had his leg broken by a horse while at the Hanley ranch on Big Applegate. Rev. W. Bitter will hold high mass in the Catholic church Christmas at midnight; also at 8:30 o'clock A. M. Laugh and grow fat. See Dr. Payne, the 20th century hypnotist, at U. S. Hall, Friday and Saturday nights. Notes, receipts, drafts, due-bills, etc., in book form, can always be obtained at THE TIMES Printing House. A calico ball will be given at Bailey's hall in Gold Hill New Year's night, under the management of A. Smith. A. D. Burton, a veteran of the civil war, and an old resident of Jackson county, was admitted to the county hospital this week. Dolls, guns, drums, carriages, and every description of toys at Mitchell's, one door north of post office, Medford. Prices the lowest. Holiday goods of all kinds, the latest and cheapest, can be found at Mitchell's store, Medford. One door north of post office. Wm. Koepp, watchmaker and jeweler, is now located on California street, opposite the postoffice. Satisfaction guaranteed. Salt Mackerel, Salt Salmon Bellies, Holland Herring, At Nunan's. A bigger and finer stock of goods, more suitable for the holidays, than ever before displayed there, has been received at Dr. Robinson's drug store. The regular election of officers of Rogue River Council, Order of Peudo, will be held Monday evening, Dec. 23d. A full attendance is requested. Rev. S. H. Jones will hold services at Woodville Sunday morning, and there will be no services at the Presbyterian church in Jacksonville that day. Go and see Mitchell, one door north of Medford postoffice, if you want to examine the handsomest stock of toys and other holiday goods in town. Satisfaction guaranteed. Robt. Montgomery, a pioneer miner of Southern Oregon, and a partner of the late Chas. Williams of Pleasant creek for many years, died one day last week. If you desire to make a purchase of jewelry, watches, etc., the best and up-to-date, don't fail to give Myers, the Medford jeweler, a call. He is sure to please you. The holidays are almost here, and the Boss is better prepared than ever to fill orders for articles appropriate to the season. Fresh candies, nuts and fruit a specialty. There will be a shooting match for turkeys and chickens at Woodville on Monday, Dec. 23d. A dancing party will be given at Wilcox's hall at night. Everybody is invited to participate. Dr. Payne, the 20th century hypnotist, comes highly recommended, and he is no fake or fraud. He does everything he advertises. Don't fail to see him Friday and Saturday evenings at U. S. Hall. G. W. Mackey has re-opened the Medford Photo Gallery in Adkins' building, C street, opposite Jackson County Bank. Up-to-date work and reasonable prices. An excellent programme is being prepared for the entertainment which will be given in the basement of the Presbyterian church Christmas eve. A fine tree, loaded with presents, will be one of the features. Phoenix's lodge of Woodmen of the World will dedicate its handsome new hall with a grand ball Christmas eve. Fine music and supper will be provided. Everybody is invited to attend and help a good cause. Mrs. N. D. Wilson has left a supply of Native Herbs, Oil and Balm, the great blood purifiers and kidney and liver regulators, at THE TIMES office, where they can be obtained at the regular price. The Eugene Guard says that Maurice Winter of Portland and Miss Ethel Bentley of Cottage Grove were married at Albany Dec. 10th. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bentley, and the groom is a well-known traveling man. A customer from Portland will arrive in Jacksonville in time to furnish costumes for those who wish to participate in the masquerade ball that will be given at Jacksonville New Year's eve. Particulars will be given in our next issue. The charity ball given at Ashland Wednesday night by the employees of the S. P. Co. was a magnificent success. Hundreds of couples, many of whom came long distances, were in attendance. Arrangements were made on a large scale and neither expense nor pains were spared. It was one of the biggest and handsomest affairs of the kind that ever took place in Southern Oregon. The railroad boys are to be congratulated.

Mrs. M. E. Barrow, late of Ashland, who paid $675 therefor. Considerable real estate has been sold in Jacksonville during the last year. Henry Judge of Ashland, the pioneer saddler and harness maker, has sold his business to Mr. Andrews, who arrived lately from Kansas. In company with his family he expects to make his future home in San Francisco. N. B. Standish, well known in Southern Oregon, and who is one of the owners of the Lucky Boy mine, the principal producer in Blaine river district, was yesterday married to Mrs. Anna McCrady, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bonnett, the bride's parents, who live near Eugene. Jacksonville and Central Point teams will play another game of football Saturday, on the grounds of the latter. It promises to be the best played in Southern Oregon this season, and will be witnessed by a large crowd. Both teams will try their utmost to win. The engagement of Miss Ethel Hughes of Salem to Representative W. A. Carter of Gold Hill was formally announced at a reception given Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Hughes by Mrs. W. C. Hawley of Salem. The wedding will take place December 31. The largest crowd from Southern Oregon that ever visited San Francisco during the holidays will embrace the opportunity to do so offered by Peil & Bolton's excursion. The fare is only $12 for the round trip. Tickets can be obtained of O. Whitman at Medford or of Messrs. Peil and Bolton at Ashland. Clinton Cook, a thrifty and worthy young man living in the southern part of the county, was in Jacksonville a few days ago. He was recently wedded to Miss Doris Rexford, one of Applegate's fairest daughters. They have been the recipients of the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. Portia Knight, the Salem girl who secured some prominence through her suit against the Duke of Manchester for breach of promise, made her debut in London last Wednesday night, playing the chief role in "My Artful Faint." The venture is not credited with success. The English are as enthusiastic over our appreciation of Americans as they should be. The masquerade ball which will be given at the court house by E. P. Prim's Cabin No. 15, N. S. O., is attracting widespread attention, and there will be a large attendance from every portion of Southern Oregon. Signor Boffa's unrivaled orchestra will furnish the music, and the supper will be one that only the members of Jane McCully Cabin, N. D. O., can set. Two hundred dollars in money, divided into seven prizes, will be awarded winners at the grand raffle that takes place at The Banquet Christmas eve. The highest throw with the dice will win $100, and the next three highest $25 each, while the lowest throw will win $50 and the next two lowest $10 each. A fine turkey supper will be set afterward. This will be the principal sporting event of the season in Jackson county. In reply to inquiries we have pleasure in announcing that Ely's Liquid Cream Balm is like the solid preparation of that admirable remedy, in that it cleanses and heals membranes affected by nasal catarrh. There is no drying or sneezing. The liquid Cream Balm is adapted to use by patients who have trouble in inhaling through the nose and prefer spraying. The price, including spraying tube, is 75 cents. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. A Christmas present is now in order for your boy or girl. One that is of lasting value is preferable to that which becomes valueless from age or is soon destroyed. The best possible token of affection would be a thorough preparation for the business of life, so that he or she can take up its struggle successfully and make the most of it. No way is so sure of success as a course in the Stockton Business College, an old, reliable, successful institution. Its graduates are in demand always, being able to easily obtain positions in which they can do well from the start. The following prizes will be awarded at the bal masque to be given by the N. S. O. at Jacksonville New Year's eve: Handsomest costume, lady, Angelo Mensili man-tolin, value $7.50, given by Dr. J. W. Robinson; handsomest costume, gentleman, an assortment of Schilling's goods, value $7.50, by T. J. Kenney; best sustained character, lady, pair of fine shoes, value $3.50, by J. Nunan; best sustained character, gentleman, fine silk umbrella, value $3.50, by Cronemiller & Love; best couple, masked, cake walkers, lady and gentleman, prize for lady, 15-pound ham, value $2.50, by J. Ryan; gentleman's prize, fine hat, value $3.50, by A. Learned; best couples, cake walkers, children, 12 years old or under, to first, 10 pounds of fine mixed candies, to second five pounds of mixed candies, value $6.00, by the Boss Candy Kitchen. Elegant Holiday Goods. The City Drug Store is again at the front with a large and complete line of articles suitable for Christmas and New Year's presents, such as toilet cases, picture frames, albums, perfumery, fancy boxes, papereries, books, all kinds of glove and handkerchief boxes, novelties in Sterling silver, Bohemian, opal and other celebrated wares. Everything of the latest patterns, and prices reasonable. Call on Dr. Robinson when looking for goods in his line. Men Wanted. A few good men can get employment at rilling wages. Apply to me at the Fish Lake Ditch Camp, Brownsboro P. O. D. E. MORRIS, Supt. of Construction. To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 50c.

John Arnold, Frank Wilson and other Odd Fellows went to Ashland Tuesday. If you wish to inspect a full and superior assortment of holiday goods of all kinds, go to The Racket. Rev. W. Bitter will hold services at the Catholic church in Medford Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. Theo. Cameron and Mrs. Jas. Cronemiller of Jacksonville were among us one day this week. Mrs. F. M. Love and Miss Kate Hoffman of Jacksonville visited in Medford Tuesday. Dr. H. P. Hartgrave, Phoenix's popular physician, and V. A. Dunlap, the talent merchant, spent Tuesday in Medford. When in Medford ask for Myers, the popular jeweler. His stock of goods cannot be beaten in Southern Oregon, if equaled. John Barneburg had one of his shoulders dislocated by his horse falling with him. He is getting along nicely. Catarrh Cannot be Cured. With a few applications as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. relatives and friends. J. E. Davidson, the miner, is placer mining on Williams creek for C. T. Davidson. The freeze has stopped plowing. However, the farmers here have the greater part of their sowing done. James Ivey and Shelton Bros., pocket hunters, are prospecting in this district again, after a year's absence. J. L. Woodriddle, who has been driving stage between Grant's Pass and Waldo for Calvert & Lister, has returned home. Will Messinger has purchased a farm in New Hope school district, Josephine county, and will take possession about the first of January. W. S. Bailey, the Davidson merchant, was doing business at Grant's Pass last week, and exhibited some valuable ore, lately taken from his mine. Davidson Bros., having obtained relief through the supreme court to operate their placer mine here, are preparing for an extensive run this winter. Other placers have started up, and Miller & Sayage have commenced piling. Several prominent mining men have been in this vicinity during the past week, to examine the "Cracker Jack" mine owned by W. S. Bailey, who is sinking a shaft on the ledge and has three feet of ore which appears to be getting wider and richer. Circuit Court Proceedings. The following business has been transacted in this court since the last report of THE TIMES: John Durning vs Jacob Walz; in junction. Complaint dismissed, and judgment given defendant for his costs. J. F. Cleys Isabella Cole; divorced. Testimony taken. A woman has a right to be positive on matters which are matters of personal knowledge and experience. "Several years ago I suffered severely from female weakness, proflaps, and menorrhagia, and used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with splendid effect," writes Fannie Shelton, of Washington, Iowa. "I had not needed it for a few years past, but if I should have any return of the old trouble would surely try 'Favorite Prescription.' I have recommended it to a number of my lady friends. I always tell them to try a bottle, and if they are not benefited by it I will pay for the medicine. In every case they have spoken in praise of it." CASTORIA. It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption. "A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline, I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. K. T. Long Hair

"About a year ago my hair was coming out very fast, so I bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stopped the falling and made my hair grow very rapidly, until now it is 45 inches in length."—Mrs. A. Boydston, Atchison, Kans. There's another hunger than that of the stomach. Hair hunger, for instance. Hungry hair needs food, needs hair vigor—Ayer's. This is why we say that Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color, and makes the hair grow long and heavy. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists. If your druggist cannot supply you, send for one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office, Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.
