He has made himself scarce since then, returning to visit his relatives a few days ago. Veitch pleaded guilty and was sentenced to do time in the penitentiary for a year. Under Sheriff McCarthy and S. E. Dunnington took him to Salem.

There will be opportunity to teach in training school under direction of critic teacher. The State Course of Study will receive special attention.

Recent improvements enable the school to do better work in all departments than ever before.

The American Beauty party given by Miss Helen Colvig at her residence Tuesday evening was one of the pleasantest as well as the most novel of the many events which have gladdened the holiday season.

Dancing and games, interspersed with music, were indulged in, which were supplemented by an elegant collation.

Those present were Misses Sophie Muller, Gertrude McCallen, Marie Nickell, Laura and Lucinda Reames, Lewis Ulrich, Chas. Nunan, Irwin Eckelson and P. Donegan, Jr.

The holiday raffle which took place at the banquet was the biggest and most successful affair of the kind that ever occurred in Southern Oregon.

Two hundred dollars in cash were distributed. The capital prize was won by M. M. Taylor, Gus Newbury and Eugene Thompson, for each of whom was thrown 44. W. W. Miller of Ashland won the $50 prize with 15.

John F. Miller and Lewis Ulrich each captured $10, while the other sums were won by syndicates. The magnificent turkey supper set afterward was amply done justice to by the large crowd present.

The members of P. P. Prim's Cabin No. 15, N. S. O., scored another social success. Their evening entertainment, a quadrille ball given by them was a magnificent success in every particular.

There were nearly 50 maskers, and the number would have been still greater had the Portland customer been more reasonable in his prices.

The spacious court room had been decorated for the occasion and was crowded with visitors from Terpelshore. Two hundred tickets were sold, making it the dancing event of the season.

THE TIMES will endeavor to do justice to the occasion in its next issue.

E. R. Williams was detected in the role of a shoplifter in Ashland one day this week, for which he was sent to the penitentiary for a year by Judge Hanna. He went into A. S. Barnes' store for the alleged purpose of buying a pair of shoes, and when the proprietor asked for the bill he concealed a pair of pantaloons and a necktie under his coat.

Williams was overtaken before he got far, and the articles were taken from him. He was then arrested and brought to Jacksonville, being escorted to Salem by Sheriff Orme and C. J. Meier.

H. E. Ankeny, one of Southern Oregon's most prominent mining men, and a member of the Lewis and Clark Exposition Commission, who has been mentioned for the office of governor, said: "As far as being a candidate for the office is concerned, I desire to state that I am not. Neither am I personally making a canvass for the nomination on the Republican ticket, nor have I authorized my friends to do so."

Whatever talk there is on the subject is entirely gratuitous. As far as I am able to size up the feeling in my county, I would say that party sentiment is favorable to the re-nomination of Governor Geer."

Mrs. M. E. Sisemore died at a sanitarium in Portland last Saturday, after a lingering illness. She was one of the earliest settlers of Southern Oregon, having come from Missouri with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rowe, in 1852, and settling in Sam's Valley. One of the worthiest and most highly respected ladies her death is regretted by all who knew her. The remains were interred in the Sam's Valley cemetery Monday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Lockhart of Central Point officiating. Mrs. Sisemore is survived by four sons and one daughter—Horace, James and John Pelton, Lindsey Sisemore and Mrs. W. B. Johnston.

The Game of the Season.

Probably the most interesting and hardest fought game of foot ball ever played in Southern Oregon was that which took place at Medford Christmas between the Jacksonville and Medford teams.

A number of fine plays were made, and the immense crowd present became wild with excitement at times. Jacksonville won by a score of 17 to 11. It looked rather ultramarine for the winners at the end of the first half, however, as they had not made a point at that stage of the game.

The Jacksonville foot ball team has played four games this season, and not been defeated once. It has thus earned the championship of Southern Oregon, having beaten every club playing in this section, excepting Earl's Point's. Our boys put up a better game every time they play, and are willing to meet all comers.

Brain-Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutrition is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions.

A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. Green's reliable remedies at City Drug Store. Get Green's special almanac.

Before I had taken half a bottle of your medicine, I found myself improving. I continued its use until I had taken four bottles, and felt so well that I did not need to take any more. I am like a new person, and your medicine shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 568 Ferry Avenue, Camden, N. J.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial, but gradually grew worse until I could hardly hear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since."—EUGENE FOSBERG, Lebanon, Kan.

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.
