

PERSONAL MENTION.

The event is Jan. 11th. Terry Byrne of Watkins precinct is in town. L. B. Chase, the well-known miner, was here Monday. P. Applegate, county recorder, is in the Rogue river section. Wm. Hybee has returned from his trip to Grant's Pass. W. W. Cameron and Ed Bostwick of Applegate are in Jacksonville. H. D. Kubli, the Republican sachem, was at the county-seat Monday. W. V. Lippincott, the S. P. Co.'s genial agent at Medford, is in town. S. C. Minnick, who lives near Central Point, made us a call one day this week. Miss Lottie Pracht of Ashland has returned from a visit to Oakland, Calif. Mrs. E. E. Washburn spent the holidays with relatives living in Ashland. Hon. W. M. Colvig was at Ashland the forepart of the week, on legal business. Wm. Ulrich, the cattle king of Big Butte, was in evidence here a few days ago. J. C. Whipp came down from Ashland yesterday, to attend the meeting of the Artisans. P. J. Sullivan and Robt. Boyd, who are mining on Applegate, were with us not long since. Mrs. Kellogg, who was among the excursionists to San Francisco, returned Sunday evening. A. W. Shearer of Steamboat, the well-known miner, was among our visitors during the week. J. R. Morrison of Sam's valley, as also Thos. Pankey and his wife, were in Jacksonville yesterday. J. C. Barnum, conductor of the R. R. V. R., returned this morning from his trip to San Francisco. Dick Chappel, who has been at Yreka, Calif., for sometime past, is paying Jacksonville a visit. H. L. McWilliams, the attorney, and W. A. Patrick, the abstractor, were down from Ashland this week. Mrs. F. A. Denney of Hornbrook, Calif., and her children have been visiting their old home at Ashland. John L. Mahan of Ashland, the miner, was with us a few days ago. He is developing some promising property. J. F. Crump and M. E. Cantrall of Applegate, who were accompanied by their families, spent last night in town. F. M. Lance and Grant Matthews of Footh Creek, accompanied by their wives, made Jacksonville a visit recently. J. L. Hammersly of Gold Hill is at the county-seat. He is attorney for young Morelock, who is charged with larceny. Miss Marie Nickell left for Portland Tuesday, to resume her studies at St. Helen's Hall and Portland Business College. Robt. L. Vining of Alaska, who has been visiting at Ashland, has joined his wife, who is stopping at Los Angeles, Calif. Newman Moon, a prominent citizen of Gold Hill, was at the county-seat Monday, accompanied by some of his relatives. J. E. Eoyart, cashier of the Medford Bank, and Mr. Metcalf, agent for the Penn Mutual Life Ins. Co., spent last night in Jacksonville. Prof. Washburn, H. Weydemann, Wm. Koeppe, Misses Rose Buckley and Emma Ulrich returned from San Francisco since the last issue of THE TIMES. Misses Laura and Lucinda Reames, who have been spending their holiday vacation at home, left for Millis city, Calif., Tuesday, to resume their studies. Phil. Loosley of Klamath county arrived in Jacksonville Monday, accompanied by his two daughters, who have become students of St. Mary's Academy. T. J. Kenney is visiting his wife, who is in the Waldock hospital at San Francisco. They expect to return home soon, as Mrs. K's condition is considerably improved. E. C. Giltner of Salem, assistant secretary of state under Hon. G. W. McBride, and one of the prominent and most popular young men of Oregon, was at Ashland recently. P. H. Dally, school superintendent, leaves for Drain this evening, having accepted an invitation to lecture before the literary society of the Central Oregon State Normal School. F. G. Abell, the pioneer photographer, who is now organizing lodges of the Order of Lions, visited the scenes of his former triumphs Saturday. He left for Portland the same evening. Hon. D. M. Watson, a prominent citizen of Portland, and one of the proprietors of Watson's restaurant, which has a state reputation, made THE TIMES a visit one day last week. H. Kling, the clever superintendent of the Seattle Co-operative Mining Co., has returned from Washington. He went to the scene of his operations Tuesday, accompanied by W. E. Finney. H. S. Evans, one of Ashland's leading business men, spent last night in Jacksonville. He came in the interest of the dramatic entertainment, which will take place at U. S. Hall Monday evening. E. V. Carter of Ashland, who is doing a great deal of political connubiating lately, was at Portland again lately. It is rumored that he would like to represent Jackson county in the state senate. As he has been an ardent follower of Cortett and Simon, the Mitchell people are not particularly fond of him.

LOCAL NOTES.

Don't fail to register. "Twixt Love and Duty," U. S. Hall, Jan. 13th. Luke Lilly of Sterlingville was in Jacksonville Tuesday. Primaries, conventions, etc., will soon be in fashion again. A little rain and some fog has been the order during the past week. St. Mary's Academy and the public schools resumed studies Monday. Come and see the child wonders at the Spinters' Convention, Jan. 11th. Don't forget the Spinters' Convention. U. S. Hall, Saturday evening. Buy your candies at The Boss. Cheapest and best in Southern Oregon. Hotel de Orme has had several customers lately. Only three remain, however. Remember the dramatic entertainment at the U. S. Hall Monday evening. Nanan has a sale on his wet-weather goods, which he has marked away down. Val Haskins has gone to Quartz Valley, Calif., to take a position in a mine. W. H. Breese, who is raising coffee in Costa Rica, is visiting at Ashland and Talent. David Law, the miner, was recently married in Siskiyou county, Calif., to Miss Scott. The ninth wonder is to see the old maids transformed into June buds at U. S. Hall, Jan. 11, 1902. Miss Nellie Murray of Grant's Pass has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Will. Ray of Applegate. Rev. S. H. Jones will hold services at Woodville Sunday morning and at Jacksonville in the evening. The M. E. church is temporarily without a pastor, and no services will be held there until further notice. Come one and all to see the old maid, at U. S. Hall, Jan. 11th, who is so old that she cannot be transformed. Notes, receipts, drafts, due-bills, etc., in book form, can always be obtained at THE TIMES Printing House. Capt. Ell, an old and noted lecturer, will deliver one of his best lectures for the benefit of the public school this evening. The Eugene Guard says that T. J. Elliott of Camp Creek has gone to Jackson county to visit his old friends, the Pattersons. Wm. Koeppe, watchmaker and jeweler, is now located on California street, opposite the postoffice. Satisfaction arranged. Professor Make Over is more wonderful in his feats than any of the hypnotists who have ever visited our town. Jan. 11th. Wm. Townsend and his family have removed to Ashland from Pook Bah, and he is following his old avocation—that of a barber. Rev. W. Bitter will hold services at Ashland Sunday; therefore there will be no services in the Catholic church in Jacksonville that day. The Boss is better prepared than ever to fill orders for articles appropriate to this season. Fresh candies, nuts and fruit a specialty. Henry Rattie, John A. Miller and Clagg Bros., thrifty citizens of Lake Creek district, were at the county-seat Saturday on land business. Those desiring to vote at the ensuing election must again register. Books for that purpose have been opened by the county clerk. Judge Benson returned from California last week, and left for Klamath Falls at once, to hold a term of circuit court, which began Monday. Each and every man of Jacksonville is requested by the old maids to be present Jan. 11th, at U. S. Hall to receive the nuts cracked by them. Salt Mackerel, Salt Salmon Bellies, Holland Herring, At Nanan's. The board of trustees at the meeting held on the 7th levied a 4-mill tax for municipal purposes and granted Dunnington & Deneff license to retail liquor. G. W. Mackey has re-opened the Medford Photo Gallery in Adkins' building, C street, opposite Jackson County Bank. Up-to-date work and reasonable prices. A game of football will be played at the Ashland athletic grounds Saturday, between the Ashland team and Southern Oregon Stars— whoever that may be. St. Mary's Academy has received a number of accessions of students recently and is being well attended. It is a worthy institution and well deserves a liberal patronage. Oregon Chapter No. 4, R. A. M., will give an entertainment and banquet to its members and their families Wednesday evening, Jan. 15th. It will be a handsome affair. District Attorney Reames, in the circuit court Wednesday, arraigned three parties charged with crime—Morelock, Featherston and Reid. He is trying a terror to evil doers. The action brought by W. E. Finney against Shearer Bros., for a share of the proceeds of the sale of the Steamboat mine, has been compromised, by the payment of $500. F. E. State, who is a member of Rogue River Council, Order of Pendo, this week received a check for $65, that being sick benefits allowed him by that society for ten weeks. Sixteen pounds of California dry granulated sugar, $1.00; 7 lbs. of choice green coffee, $1.00; 2-gallon bucket of Peerless syrup, $1.00. AT NUNAN'S. The case of the State vs. Claude Lawrence, which was to have been tried in Justice Morelock's court at Gold Hill, did not come up, the defendant's wife refusing to appear against him.

The county clerk has issued license to marry to Frank Wait and Lillian Tressler; also to A. D. Houston and Lillie Amick. The county commissioners have appointed the judges and clerks of election, who will hold during the ensuing two years. They will be printed in the next issue of THE TIMES. A number of the residents of Jacksonville, Medford and other towns of the valley will go to Roseburg the last part of this month, for the purpose of becoming members of the B. P. O. of Elks. The venerable mother of Judge Benson of Klamath Falls and F. W. Benson of Roseburg died at San Jose, Calif., Dec. 26th, in the 79th year of her age. She was highly respected by all who knew her. The Spinters' Convention, which will be held at U. S. Hall Saturday evening, is attracting more attention than anything else. It is something entirely new in Southern Oregon, and will draw a big crowd. Rev. M. McGregor who has been pastor of the M. E. church for Jacksonville circuit during the past several months, has resigned. In company with his family he left for Caraduff, Canada, Tuesday. Success to him. Mrs. N. D. Wilson has left a supply of Native Herbs, Oil and Balm, the great blood purifiers and kidney and liver regulators, at THE TIMES office, where they can be obtained at the regular price. Choice Utah cleaned alfalfa seed, Red clover seed, Garden and flower seeds, New onion sets. For sale at NUNAN'S, Jacksonville. Fourteen cars and a caboose of a freight train were derailed 15 miles south of Roseburg Monday morning. The track was badly torn up and traffic was delayed 10 or 12 hours. There were no serious casualties. When in Medford ask for Myers, the popular jeweler. His stock of goods cannot be beaten in Southern Oregon, if equaled. He sells and repairs diamonds, jewelry, watches and clocks, cheaper and better than anyone else. The city council of Ashland held its regular meeting this week, but did not take a vote on the liquor question which will be decided at a subsequent session. A large number of ladies, members of the W. C. T. U., were in attendance. December 31st the exchange of school books under the state law ceased. Now the books can only be bought at the established price, instead of exchanging the books for their value as part payment for those recently adopted. Dunnington & Deneff are renovating the Criterion and making a number of improvements. They will have one of the neatest and most convenient resorts in the county when H. W. Grimes and Will McDaniel get through with their work. The nine acres of ground belonging to the estate of Frank Laran, which adjoins Jacksonville on the south, was sold Saturday by Jas. Cronmiller, the administrator. After spirited bidding it was knocked down to Wm. Robinson for $420. Jacksonville's lodge of the United Order of Artisans initiated three candidates for admission Wednesday. A social meeting, held afterward, was followed by a banquet. Those fortunate enough to be in attendance enjoyed themselves thoroughly. A number of the members of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., and Ruth Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 4 attended a meeting held by Medford's lodges Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week. They report a profitable and pleasant time. N. Detsch, a new comer, has purchased the residence of Alex. Thompson, situated in the eastern part of town, and also 20 acres of Cardwell's addition to Jacksonville, from C. W. Kahler. He paid $250 for the first piece of property and $2100 for the other. A bill of exceptions in the case of Bradley F. Durphy, who was tried and convicted at Portland of polygamy, has been prepared for the supreme court. It comprises 50 typewritten pages. Durphy is at liberty on $1000 cash bail, pending the decision of the higher court. The members of Co. B, 4th Regt., O. N. G., who scored quite a success in Jacksonville sometime ago, will repeat their triumph at the U. S. Hall next Monday evening, when it will present the thrilling drama "Twixt Love and Duty." THE TIMES hopes that our citizens will give them a hearty reception. Mrs. Geo. Mathews of Jacksonville, whose husband was a member of the Order of Pendo, during the week received the first payment of $20 guaranteed beneficiaries of deceased members of that organization. She will be paid $20 every month for the next 99 months. This is one of the best fraternal societies in existence. S. L. Sandry, a worthy young man, one day last week, was married to Miss Etta McKenzie, an amiable and accomplished school teacher of Shasta county. They have taken up their residence on Applegate, where Mr. S. is engaged in mining with his father. THE TIMES wishes them much joy and prosperity, in which it is joined by the happy couple's many friends. Homer Morelock of Gold Hill, a young man of highly respected parentage, was arrested one day last week, charged with stealing several articles from the Valley hotel belonging to J. H. Wilson. He had an examination in Justice Gail's court at Sam's Valley, who placed him under bond in the sum of $250, in default of which he was sent to the county jail. Clarence Reames represented the State and J. L. Hammersly appeared for the defense. The Grant's Pass Courier, speaking of a valued subscriber to THE TIMES, says: A. N. Hulbert was down last week from his Sam's valley farm, returning on Saturday. His finger, which was recently crushed in the attachments of a sulky plow, is healing nicely. With the exception of a bit of skin on one side, the finger was completely severed from the hand; but it was replaced, stitched and splinted firmly.

The county commissioners' court has levied a tax of 26 mills for this year, divided as follows: State tax, 7 mills; county school fund, 5 mills; indigent soldiers' fund, one-tenth mill; county road fund, 1.10 mills; general county fund, 11.80 mills; state county fund, 1 mill. Wm. Pippin, who was arrested at the Bybee place, adjoining town, by Sheriff Freshour of Siskiyou county, Calif., and Deputy Sheriff Thompson, last summer, charged with shooting a party living on the Klamath river, was allowed to plead guilty to a simple assault in the superior court at Yreka, last week. As he has been confined in jail for nearly six months, the court sentenced him to serve only thirty days. Southern Oregon State Normal School re-opened January 6th. Special review classes will be organized and continued through the year for those desiring to take examinations for county road fund. There will be opportunity to teach in training school under direction of critic teacher. The State Course of Study will receive special attention. Recent improvements enable the school to do better work in all departments than ever before. Experience convinces. See for yourself how quickly Ely's Cream Balm will cure a catarrh or cold in the head. We make a size for 10c. Full size 50c. All druggists. ELY BROS., 56 Warren St., N. Y. Clifton, Arizona, Jan. 20, 1899. Messrs. ELY BROS.—Find enclosed 50 cents, for which please send me your Cream Balm. I find your remedy the quickest and most permanent cure for cold in the head, catarrh, etc. Yours truly, DELL M. POTTER, Gen. Mgr. Arizona Gold Mining Co. Thos. Featherston and M. M. Reid, birds of passage, who were employed at the Opp mine for a short time, have been arrested, charged with having burglarized J. Nanan's store. Through a bit of clever detective work by M. M. Taylor and Marshal Murphy the stolen goods were discovered in the room at Schmitt's boarding-house and Orth's building occupied by the men. Featherston and Reid deny the charge lodged against them; but there seems to be a certainty that the former at least is guilty. Both were arraigned in the circuit court yesterday and pleaded not guilty. Frank R. Neil has been appointed to defend them. H. A. Shorey, who was well, if not favorably, known, in Southern Oregon, died at Maplewood, Mass., last Friday, from pneumonia. He was born at Industry, Me., in 1831, and was ordained a minister of the Congregational church when quite a young man. He became interested in the Hawood Manufacturing Co., and was the founder of the New England Relief and New England Beneficial Insurance Companies, afterward president of the college at Neilgh, Neb. From there Prof. Shorey went to Portland, where he engaged in the real estate business. Subsequently he became interested in mining enterprises in Southern Oregon. He was a 32d-degree Mason. Two sons and one daughter survive him. Society Elections. WARREN LODGE No. 10, A. F. & A. M., Jacksonville—W. M. Colvig, W. M.; Emil Britt, S. W.; Frank R. Neil, J. W.; C. C.
