CATARRH

Catarrh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system.

Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. T. A. Williams, a leading dry-goods merchant of Spartanburg, S. C., writes: "For years I had a severe case of Catarrh, with all the disagreeable effects which belong to that disease, which made life painful and unendurable. I used medicines prescribed by leading physicians and suggested by numbers of friends, but without getting any better. I then began to take S. S. S. It had the desired effect, and cured me after taking eighteen boxes. S. S. S. is the only medicine now in use that will effect a permanent cure of Catarrh."

SSS is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the greatest rest of all blood medicines and tonics.

If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases and write our physicians about your case.

CITATION TO HEIRS.

In the County Court for the County of Jackson, State of Oregon.

In the matter of the estate of M. E. Minear, Deceased.

To Sarah E. Minear, widow of said deceased, W. C. Minear, Clifton D. Minear, Eva M. Minear, Maggie E. Minear, Flora Minear, Glenn Minear, Harley Minear, the children of said deceased, all residing in Collins, Iowa, and to all others whom this may concern.

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, and by order of the above-entitled court, made upon the 12th day of December, 1901, you and each of you are hereby cited and required to appear in the County Court of Jackson County, State of Oregon, at the court room thereof, in the town of Jacksonville, in the said county and state, on the 27th day of January, A. D. 1902, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, then and there to show cause if any there be why an order of the court should not be made by the above-entitled court for the sale at private sale by E. DeRoboam, administrator of the following property, to pay the expenses of administration and the claims filed and allowed against said estate:

Beginning at a rock set for a corner being 35.71 chains E from the section corner between sections 22, 23, 4 and 5, townships 37 and 38 S., range 2 W., and running thence north 37° 0' 17.93 chains to the center of the county road running from Jacksonvilleville to Phoenix to a rock for corner from which a white oak tree 12 inches in diameter bears N 89° E 24 links; thence S 61° 40' E 12 chains to a rock set in the road; thence S 75° 50' E 6.44 chains to a sandstone set for a corner in the road from which a white oak 12 inches in diameter bears N 85° W 43 links, and a laurel 5 inches in diameter bears N 46° E 25 links; thence N 71° 40' W 28.80 chains to a rock set for a corner from which a white oak 8 inches in diameter bears N 37° E 98 links; thence N 37° E 97-100 chains to the place of beginning, containing 47 1/2 acres. Said tract of land being part of the H. Bellinger D. L. O. 41 and 35, in the township and range aforesaid, and situated in Jackson County, Oregon.

This citation is published once a week in the DEMOCRATIC TIMES for four successive weeks by order of Chas. Prim, Judge of the County Court for Jackson County, Oregon, made and entered the 12th day of December, A. D. 1901.

WOMAN AND FASHION

A Smart Blouse.
The blouse illustrated herewith is of white taffeta, with the lower part adorned with tiny horizontal tucks and the upper section tucked vertically, with the edge finished in points, which are bordered with cream lace threaded with black velvet baby rib-

WHITE TAFFETA.
The blouse being carried up over the blouse between each point. The tucked collar band is headed and edged with the lace, and the full tucked sleeves have deep tucked cuffs decorated with the ribbon threaded lace. This model is very pretty and more serviceable in darker silk trimmed with embroidery galon in pretty soft tones.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Strikes a Rich Find.
"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run-down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by City Drug Store.

Smoking Under Water.
Says an expert swimmer:
It looks very strange to see a man go under water with a lighted cigar in his mouth, smoke calmly at the bottom and come to the surface with the cigar burning as nicely as if he were smoking in his easy chair. Apparently he defies all natural laws, but of course he doesn't.

It is a simple trick, but it requires practice. Just as I throw myself backward to go down I flip the cigar end for end with my tongue and upper lip and get the lighted end in my mouth, closing my lips water tight around it. A little slippery elm juice gargled before going in prevents any accidental burning of the mouth. Going slowly down backward, I lie at full length on the bottom of the tank and blow smoke through the cut end of the cigar. Just as I reach the surface again another flip reverses the cigar, and there I am smoking calmly. The reversing is done so quickly that nobody notices it.

Japanese Fern Balls.
The lack of success of which some people complain in the care of fern balls is due probably to one of the following causes: Either a cheap and worthless ball was purchased or it has not been kept properly damp, says Home Notes.

It is no good to give the fern an occasional soaking and then let it get bone dry. It must be kept steadily damp. A good plan is to put up a hook over the sink in the butler's pantry and to hang it there to drain after its daily tub. The daily tub of lukewarm water is necessary for the well being of a fern ball kept in the dry air of a living room, and care should be taken to secure it a place where it will have plenty of light, but little or no sunshine. Even in the hottest weather it should not be kept out of doors, and drafts, so it remembered, will ruin it.

His Idea of a Sermon.
Robert Morris, a man celebrated for the part he took in the American Revolution, was once asked by Dr. Rush: "Well, Mr. Morris, how did you like the sermon?" "Why, doctor," said he, "I did not like it at all. It is too smooth and tame for me." "Mr. Morris," replied the doctor, "what sort of a sermon do you like?" "I like, sir," replied Mr. Morris, "that preaching which drives a man up into a corner of his pews and makes him think the devil is after him."

Convulsiants.
"What are convulsiants?" asked the teacher, and Johnny was ready with his answer.
"Animals that have pouches in their stomachs," he said glibly.
"And for what are these pouches used?" asked the teacher, ignoring the slight inaccuracy of the answer. "I'm sure that you know that too."
"Yes'm," said Johnny, with encouraging promptness. "The pouches are for them to crawl into and conceal themselves when pursued."—Exchange.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth.
Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. WINDLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Bit of History.

My mamma took a piece of cloth—
A lot of yards, I guess;
She cut it, and she sewed it,
And she made herself a dress.

She wore that dress a year or two—
Perhaps she wore it three—
Then turned it on the other side
And made it up for me.

A long, long time it served for me
Till it got old and raggy;
Then mamma washed it clean and made
A coat for Baby Maggie.

And when the baby grew too big
To wear that any more
We cut it into carpet rags
And wove it for the floor.

So, in our new rag carpet here
That purple stripe you see
Is made out of the Sunday clothes
Of mamma, Mag and me.

A Profitable Investment.
"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Demick, Somerville, Ind. "I spent about $1000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You live by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. You don't have to diet. Eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point.

Turning the Tables.
"Father," said a young hopeful the other day, "how many fowls are there on this table?"
"Why," said the gentleman as he looked complacently on a pair of nicely roasted chickens which were smoking on the table, "there are two."
"Two?" replied the smart boy. "There are three, sir, and I'll prove it."
"Three?" replied the old gentleman, who was a plain, matter of fact man. "I'd like to see you prove it."
"Easily done, easily done! Is not that one," said the smart boy, laying his knife on the first, "and that two," pointing to the second, "and do not one and two make three?"
"Really," said the father, turning to his wife, who was stupefied at the immense learning of her son, "really this boy is a genius and deserves to be encouraged." And then, to show that there's fun in old folks as well as in young ones, he added, "Wife, do you take one fowl, and I'll take the second, and John may have the third as a reward for his remarkable accomplishments in learning."

Still a Good Chance.
"Do you think there is any hope?" asked the disconsolate lover.
"Hope?" repeated his wise sister. "Of course there is."
"But she told me," persisted the disconsolate lover, "that she never wanted to see my face again when we had our last quarrel."
"She didn't mean it," asserted the wise sister. "I know she didn't mean it. When I was there today, your photograph still stood on her dresser. Until that disappears there is no reason to despair."—Chicago Post.

You Know What You Are Taking.
When you take Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic, be sure the formula is plainly printed on every bottle to show that it is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No Pay, Inc., sells the famous medicine.

A becoming fad is to wear a veil of the same shade as the hat, although there is an outcry against veils in Paris, whose face coverings do injure the complexion and the sight.

A curious veil is shown as an "auto-mobile novelty." It is soft and wide and has a gray net foundation dotted with disks of velvet, which are beige on one side and black on the other.

Not Neglected.
Dobbs—You ought to do something for that cold of yours. A neglected cold often leads to serious consequences.
Mobbis—This one is not neglected. Four or five hundred of my friends are looking after it.

To Keep Sweet Potatoes.
Sweet potatoes can be stored with fair success by putting in a box with alternate layers of dry, fine sand.

"NERVE WASTE"

One of the most helpful books on nerve weakness ever issued is that entitled "Nerve Waste," by Dr. Sawyer of San Francisco, now in its fifth thousand. This work of an experienced and reputable physician is in agreeable contrast to the vast sum of false teaching which prevails on this interesting subject. It abounds in carefully considered and practical advice, and has the two great merits of wisdom and sincerity.

It is endorsed by both the religious and secular press. The Chicago Advance says: "A perusal of the book will put health, hope and heart into thousands of lives that are now suffering through nervous impairment." The book is $1 by mail, postpaid.

One of the most interesting chapters—chapter XX, on Nerves and Nerve Tonics—has been printed separately as a sample chapter, and will be sent to any address for stamp, by the publishers, THE PACIFIC PUB. Co., Box 2653, San Francisco.
