

JOSEPHINE COUNTY ITEMS.

F. M. Calkins, court stenographer, arrived from Klamath Falls Tuesday morning.

Little Freda, daughter of Aug. Fetsch, fell one day last week and broke her collar bone.

T. G. Burrows and Jas. Daily, who reside near Kerbyville, were at Grant's Pass a short time since.

Circuit court is in session. Several criminal cases will be tried, and Judge Hanna had a jury summoned.

Bert Barnes of Ashland, the clever watchmaker and jeweler, spent Sunday evening with his best girl.

Antone Rose, who is in charge of the Sterling Mining Co.'s ditch, is at Grant's Pass, on business with the circuit court.

Circuit court for Josephine county is in session, Judge Hanna presiding. There is not a great deal of business on the docket.

Dollie Frazer, aged 10 years, was badly scalded in Grant's Pass one day last week by turning a pan of boiling water upon herself. She is a daughter of J. W. Frazer, formerly of Talent.

E. J. Buchanan, formerly of Grant's Pass, now a resident of San Francisco, is doing well. He is engaged in the transfer business and owns a first-class outfit. We are glad to hear of his success.

Joe McKinney, the barber, who left Grant's Pass some time since, has not returned. He has gone to a bigger territory, where his talent will be better appreciated and he can swell up more.

Mrs. Susan Harkness, widow of the late Samuel Harkness, died on the 6th inst. She is survived by several grown children, as also two sisters, Mrs. L. W. Roberts and Mrs. Levi Stewart of Ashland.

Geo. Vernon, the swindling violinist, who was arrested at Klamath river and returned to Eugene, has been bound over on charges of forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses.

Tom Galvin and Will. Smith, who now long ago took charge of the stables conducted by Harry Lewis, are doing a good business. They keep first-class rigs and spare no pains to please. Give them a trial.

Frank Mee, who has successfully operated a saw mill in Josephine county during the past several years, will transfer his operations to Siskiyou county, Calif., having secured a large body of fine timber near Cole's. His many friends wish him success.

M. Wilbur, who recently disposed of his furniture business in Grant's Pass, will soon leave for eastern Washington, to engage in the manufacture of lumber with his former partner, Mr. Haskins. Their saw mill will be located not far from Spokane. Success to them.

Grant's Pass lodge of Masons will erect a fine building on their lots on Sixth street, in the same block with the postoffice and the opera house. It will be three stories high and one of the most substantial edifices in Southern Oregon. C. A. Palmer, the expert architect, who has no equal in this section, is preparing the plans.

Hon. J. O. Booth and P. H. Harth were not summoned to act as jurors in the case of those about to be tried for lynching five persons in Modoc county, Calif. The party who telegraphed that nonsense from Grant's Pass to the Oregonian should have known better. These gentlemen were subpoenaed to testify to the character of John Brown, one of the lynchers, who was formerly employed as a butcher here and has since gone to Alturas for that purpose.

THE MASQUERADE BALL.

As mentioned in the last issue of The Times the ball masquerade given at the court house under the auspices of P. P. Prim Cabin No. 15, N. S. O., was a magnificent success. Nothing had been left undone, and the members of the order are given the fullest meed of credit. Two hundred tickets were sold. Signor Bulla's orchestra furnished first-class music, and the supper set by the members of James McCully Cabin, N. S. O., was one fit for the gods. The following is a list of the masquers, as furnished by Peter Applegate, the official committee on identification: Fin Eaton and Kate Broad, Hard Times; Frank Kassafer, Jr., and Henry Helms, Dutchmen; Bertha Orme, Scotch Lassie; Mrs. Geo. Neuber, Scotch Lassie; Emma Kassafer, maid of the Woods; May Davis, Sun Rise; Ora Wilson, Moonlight; Maggie Krause, Butterfly; Chris Kenney, Uncle Sam; John F. Miller, Colonial Costume; Nora Bates, Sylvia Hazel and Carrie Tice, Dominoes; Oscar Lewis, Arab; J. S. Wright, Spanish Sailor; Eddie Skeeters, Forest Maiden; Isa Cook, Rainbow; W. C. Deneff, Knight of the 17th Century; Mrs. A. M. Wilson, Domino; James Cronenhill, Uncle Sam; Ella Gaunaway, Cuban Girl; Emma Helms, Mother Hubbard; Ora Jones, Rose; C. Spencer, Moorish Woman; R. H. Spencer, Irishman; G. M. Fisk, Clown; M. T. Andrews, Quartermaster U. S. N.; Nora and Anna Magrester, Gypsies; Lewis Ulrich, Romeo; Carrie Dyar, Filipino Belle; Edith Priest, Sunflower; Heien Colvig, Football Player; Sam Foose, French Soldier; Mesdames Broad and Ulrich, Country Cousins; Sam DeRobam, George Washington; James Eaton, Football Player.

The committee appointed to award prizes consisted of Chas. Moore of Portland, Mrs. K. K. Knoll of Jacksonville, Mrs. J. D. Heard, Mrs. C. H. Pierce and H. Mann of Medford. They made the following decisions: Handsomest gentleman's costume—Romeo—Louis Ulrich; handsomest lady's costume—Rose—Oral Jones; best sustained male character—Dutchman—Harry Helms; best sustained female character—Butterfly—Margaret Krause; best cake walkers among the masquers, Eddie Skeeters—Forest Maiden—J. S. Wright—Spanish Sailor; best cake walk by children, Leona Ulrich and Newcome Harrison; best cake walkers, Marie Nickell and Pat Donegan.

Remarkable Cure for Croup.

A LITTLE BOY'S LIFE SAVED. I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up," and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got the bottle of cough medicine my boy would not be on earth today.—JOEL DEMONT, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by City Drug Store.

Power of Expression.

Our language has a wonderful power of expression. On one occasion, we are told, a doctor of divinity rang the changes on "He that hath ears to hear let him hear." "He that is accessible to arcticular vibration," said the doctor, "let him not close the gates of his tympanum."

Then, again, we have that old-fashioned saying "The more the merrier" delightfully translated in this way: "Multitudinous assemblages are the most provocative of cachinnatory hilarity."

A Personal Impression. "Did Noah only take two o' each kind o' animal in de ark wif 'im?" said Mr. Erastus Pinkley.

Saint Helen's Hall... PORTLAND, OREGON.

(Founded 1869.) A Boarding and Day School for Girls. MUSIC, ART AND ELOCUTION.

This school offers to girls a broad and thorough education, combined with the advantages of a healthful and refined home. It occupies a large and attractive building in the immediate vicinity of the City Park. The sanitary condition of the premises has been made a matter of special attention. The bed chambers, class and recitation rooms are large and thoroughly ventilated; and the construction of the building is such that every room is open to the sunlight. The greatest care has been taken to provide all the necessary appointments of a well-equipped school, and to furnish every facility for training pupils in the most approved methods. The aim of the school is to give thorough and well-ordered instruction to girls and young women, fitting them for college when that is desired, and to aid in the development of true and womanly character. The Fall term opens September 16, 1901. A faculty of twenty competent teachers is in use for children and young women that individual care and instruction necessary to the best results. There are four skilled teachers in the Music Department alone, specialists in Art and Oration, and native teachers in French and German. Provision is made for all athletic games suitable to women, as tennis, croquet, basket ball bicycling and horseback riding. A gymnasium, 50x100 feet, is in process of construction which will offer still more opportunities for healthful exercise. For illustrated catalogue apply to
