Jacksonville Fire Co. will hold its regular monthly meeting next Monday evening. Several candidates for membership will be initiated at that time.

Erra Arnold of Watkins precinct is in Jacksonville. He and his family are recovering from an attack of the Manila itch. S. W. McClendon was at the county seat Tuesday. He is manipulating a big real-estate deal for some parties living in California. Mrs. J. Karezki is transforming the farm, which joins Jacksonville on the east, into an orchard, and has already planted 400 apple trees thereon. J. H. Messner of Medford, the well-known veterinary surgeon, and W. W. Willis of Plounee Rock precinct were among our visitors during the past week. For sale: 225 feet of 7 1/2-inch pipe, 12-inch taper, 2 elbows, No. 1 giant, with nozzles. All in good order and used but little. Enquire at THE TIMES office. Miss Nellie DePeat, who accompanied U. S. Consul Colvig to Barranquilla, S. A., is now in New York city, where she holds a responsible clerical position. Monroe Sonnichson, who has been employed as a cornetist in the orchestra of a theater at Chicago, has returned to Ashland for the benefit of his health. Jos. G. Martin, an old and respected citizen of Table Rock precinct, is mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for county commissioner. G. W. Mackey has re-opened the Medford Photo Gallery in Adkins' building, C street, opposite Jackson County Bank. Up-to-date work and reasonable prices. John O. Booth of Grant's Pass called on THE TIMES Tuesday. He is being prominently mentioned in connection with the office of Judge of Josephine county. Oscar Stimpkins of Evans creek called Wednesday. He informs us that W. P. Hillis, the well-known pioneer, is very sick. Dr. Kremer of Grant's Pass is in attendance. Manager Koehler, Supt. Fields, Master Mechanic Younger and Roadmaster Johnson, officials of the S. F. lines in Oregon, were in the valley quite recently, on a tour of inspection. J. Hartman and Benton Pool, the expert bridge and barn builders, were with us during the week. The latter has almost recovered from the accident which befell him some time ago. Mrs. M. McDonough, who is stopping in Jacksonville, informs THE TIMES that her son John, who resides near Fort Klamath, and who has been quite sick, is convalescing, though slowly. When in Medford ask for Myers, the popular jeweler. His stock of goods cannot be beaten in Southern Oregon, if equaled. He sells and repairs diamonds, jewelry, watches and clocks, cheaper and better than anyone else. The annual election of town officers will take place next Tuesday, March 4th. Not much interest is being taken, there being a contest for only the office of marshal, between the present incumbent, J. C. Murphy, and R. C. Norris. Harvey Richardson of Trail creek made Jacksonville a visit not long ago. He says that a majority of the directors of that school district insist on issuing some illegal indebtedness, and warn the public against purchasing it. Wm. Q. Brown, a mining man who is well known in Southern Oregon, especially from his connection with the nickel mine at Table Rock, Douglas county, passed through the valley last week, en route to Pacer county, Calif. H. Salomon, who has been conducting the Ashland House during the past year, has disposed of the furniture and lease to D. T. Irwin, late of Trail creek, who will conduct that caravansary in a manner that cannot but prove popular. Rev. D. T. Summerville, presiding elder of the M. E. Church, held services Jacksonville Sunday. Rev. J. Gillette, the local pastor, is in Douglas county, disposing of his effects, but will return soon, accompanied by his family. Exalted Ruler Jamieson, Secretary London of the Roseburg lodge of the R. P. O. E., and S. K. Sykes, also a prominent member of the order, who visited Jackson county last week, were cleverly entertained at a dinner by Geo. E. Neuber while in Jacksonville. Several of the Elks living in our town and a representative of THE TIMES also gathered 'round the festive board, and some time was very pleasantly spent. Grant Childers, who is well known in Jackson and Klamath counties, on the 17th inst. met with a serious accident. He was employed in the Cherry Hill mine, located in Siskiyou county, Calif., and while engaged in taking quartz from the old tunnel, above the new one now in progress, he was caught by a cave at one of the stops, which crushed him badly, breaking his leg at the thigh, also his collar-bone and right hand. Mr. Childers was taken to McAdams creek, where his wife and five children reside. His many friends hope to hear of his early recovery.

The Republican county committee will meet at Jacksonville Saturday next for the purpose of calling a convention which will nominate candidates for the different legislative and county offices. H. D. Kubli and A. E. Kellogg are chairman and secretary of the committee respectively. M. Sidley of Lake creek, the successful contractor, made his friends living in Jacksonville a visit one day last week. He reports that many of the young folks of his neighborhood enjoyed a dancing party given at the school house a few evenings before. Much rain has been falling at regular intervals during the past week, and as THE TIMES went to press the prospects for the biggest freshet since 1890 are good. The streams have not been so high in twelve years as they are now, many of them being out of their banks. Jas. M. Cronemiller has been appointed administrator of the estate of J. A. Boyer, deceased, and his notice to that effect can be found in another column of THE TIMES. The decedent left property to the value of about $1000, all of which he willed to his sister, who lives at Haddonfield, N. J. Wm. Bybee, while crossing Evans creek a few days ago, had an interesting experience. The animal he was driving became obstreperous while in the stream and narrowly escaped drowning, while the buggy was badly damaged and its contents lost. Col. Bybee reached the shore safely, but with considerable difficulty. The regular meeting of Jacksonville's lodge of the United Order of Artisans, held last night, was unusually well attended and proved quite interesting. There were several initiations and a social session and banquet afterward. The membership and popularity of this lodge is increasing steadily. A young man named Harry Andrews, aged about 21 years, who hailed from Riverside, Calif., fell while stealing a ride under an extra freight train in charge of Conductor Snyder, near Talent, Wednesday night of last week. The body was frightfully mangled, the head cut off and the heart and part of the entrails were found upon the brakes. He was a cook by trade. Oregonian-Pocahontas Tribe No. 1, Imp'd O. R. M., which is now pleasantly installed in the Native Sons' hall, held a very interesting meeting Saturday evening. Afterward, the members present and their families sat down to a sumptuous supper, which was thoroughly enjoyed. This is a flourishing branch of one of the best and largest fraternal societies in the United States. Sheriff Orme has been informed by Sheriff Freshour of Siskiyou county, Calif., that parties answering the description of Featherstone and Beed, the jail breakers, had stolen a boat at Klamath and proceeded down the Klamath, in company with a third person, leaving it when they reached Hamburg Bar. John P. Jones, the irrepresible railroad traveling agent, spent an afternoon in Jacksonville last week, accompanied by Mr. Hicks, an expert photographer, who is taking views of Southern and Western Oregon for the literature of the Southern Pacific Co. will soon issue for distribution in different parts of the United States. THE TIMES is in receipt of the wedding cards of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lundy, who were married recently at Cottage Grove. They will be at home in San Francisco. The groom is an enterprising and worthy gentleman, who has successfully been engaged in the hardware business at Myrtle Point, while his bride (nee Laura E. Jones) is a clever and amiable young woman, who for several years was employed in newspaper work. They have our best wishes. C. F. Shepherd of Ashland, the successful dealer in musical instruments, was in Jacksonville Tuesday. He handles several standard brands of pianos and organs, and during 1901 sold more first-class instruments in Southern and Southeastern Oregon than any other dealer. Mr. Shepherd does just as he agrees to, and never misrepresents in order to make a sale, which is the reason of his popularity among the many who have patronized him. Mr. Josef Mueller of the Allen & Gilbert Co., the celebrated piano house, is coming to Jacksonville and will open temporary ware-rooms here some time next week. His phenomenal success as a piano salesman can be attributed to his motto: "High-grade instruments, quick sales and small profits." The Simplex, the greatest piano player on earth, will perform every afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock. Do not miss this exceptional opportunity. This root of many evils—Glandular tumors, abscesses, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions, sore ears, inflamed eyelids, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, readiness to catch cold and inability to get rid of it easily, pale-ness, nervousness and other ailments including the consumptive tendency—Can be completely and permanently removed, no matter how young or old the sufferer. Hood's Sarsaparilla was given the daughter of Silas Vernor, Wawarsing, N. Y., who had broken out with scrofula sores all over her face and head. The first bottle helped her and when she had taken six the sores were all healed and her face was smooth. He writes that she has never shown any sign of the scrofula returning. Hood's Sarsaparilla Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Ask your druggist for it today and accept no substitute. BEARS THE SIGNATURE OF THE KIND YOU HAVE ALWAYS BOUGHT. Hood's Sarsaparilla

Traffic Agents' Convention. The Pacific Coast Association of Traffic Agents held an animated convention at Ashland last Saturday. The most important business transacted was a change in the constitution, which provides for local subdivisions of the general organization, first to include territory north of Ashland and east of Spokane; second, south from Ashland to Bakersfield, and third, from Bakersfield east to El Paso. Officers elected in San Francisco Nov. 30th were continued to hold until the next annual meeting, which will be held at Ashland again, Feb. 23, 1903. This, the second annual convention, emphasized the growth of the organization, which was organized there one year ago, with 40 members, now has 150. The social features of the convention have been secondary only to the business importance of the gathering. Twenty-three members were present from Portland and 39 from San Francisco. The visitors were accorded every hospitality by the citizens of Ashland, on behalf of whom they were welcomed by Mayor Grant and a reception committee of the Board of Trade. The convention closed with a banquet at the Depot Hotel, to which a number of citizens of Ashland were invited. President Roone acted as toastmaster, and responses were made to "Our Association," "Our Meeting Day," "The Pacific Northwest," "The Southern Slope," "The National Association," "The Passenger Agent," "The Freight Agent," "Our Guests," "The Ladies," and "The Irish Contingent." A Novel Entertainment. A pianola concert will be given at the Taylor House, next Tuesday evening, March 4th, under the supervision of H. M. Cass of the Medford Piano House. It will be something entirely new and well worth anyone's time to hear this wonderful instrument. A general invitation is extended to adults. Admission free. County Treasurer's 26th Notice. Max Muller, county treasurer, gives notice that there are funds in the county treasury for the redemption of outstanding warrants protested from Nov. 1, 1898, to Nov. 30, 1898, both dates inclusive. Interest on the same will cease after Feb. 21, 1902. She Didn't Wear a Mask. But her beauty was completely hidden by sores, blotches and pimples till she used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Then they vanished as will all eruptions, feyer sores, boils, ulcers, carbuncles and felons from its use. Infalible for cuts, corns, burns, scalds and piles. Cure guaranteed. 25c at City drug store. ANNOUNCEMENT. TO THE VOTERS OF JACKSONVILLE: I hereby announce myself as an independent candidate for the office of Town Marshal, and respectfully solicit your suffrages, assuring you that I will do my whole duty if elected.
