Phipps of Big Butte were at the county-seat a few days ago on land business. There have been several narrow escapes from frost; but as yet fruit is unharmed and the prospects for a big crop are first-class. Misses Lillian Julian and Armoda Kaiser, as also Miss Mooney, teachers in the Yreka schools, paid Ashland a visit Saturday and Sunday. B. R. Porter of Table Rock precinct was in Medford Tuesday. He reports everything in a flourishing condition on the north side of the river. The Gervais-Toft contest case, involving land in Climax precinct, took place at Jacksonville last week. A number of witnesses were examined. Mrs. E. S. Gill (nee Pengra), who has been residing in Honolulu, H. I. during the past several years, was a visitor in Medford and Jacksonville lately.

Rev. A. P. Gillette will hold services at the M. E. church in Jacksonville every second and fourth Sundays, morning and evening. O. B. Dews of Ashland and his wife are in Jacksonville. They will soon leave for San Francisco, where the latter will undergo a surgical operation. Max Mulleg, county treasurer, who has been quite ill during the past fortnight from the effects of a severe attack of la grippe, is considerably improved. Geo. Brown, the Eagle Point merchant, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Paul Van Scoy of Montague, Calif. Several hundred Republicans of Jackson county have signed a petition endorsing T. T. Geer for United States Senator. J. B. Tillotson, of Albany, the well-known bridge builder, is here to bid on the bridge to be built in Medford, across Bear creek. Jay Davidson of Missouri Flat, the well-known miner, made our town a visit this week. He gives a good account of his section. J. L. Willis of Joe's Bar was in Jacksonville a few days since, accompanied by his wife, who recently arrived from the eastern states. Court Hall of Gold Hill has returned from his trip to Ohio. He visited New York city while he was gone and had his injured eye treated. It is reported that L. Niedermeyer has purchased of Beckman & Reames 500 acres of land, situated near Jacksonville. Price $16,000. M. A. Macaulay, brother of Mrs. E. J. Cole and W. E. Macaulay, who has been in Medford for sometime past, has returned to his home at Fredrick, Kansas. Myron Harrison, who is well known in Jackson county as a miner, is foreman of the Old Channel Mining Co.'s property, located not far from Grant's Pass. Quite a number of our citizens embraced the opportunity afforded by the free train that ran to Medford Friday night to attend the Republican rally. Rev. A. P. Gillette of the M. E. Church held services at Eagle Point Sunday, and made an excellent impression at the metropolis of Butte creek. Miss Amelia Muller, who is stationed at Portland for the present, in the employ of the American Steel and Wire Co., is visiting her old home in Jacksonville. The dancing party given at the Poor-man's creek school house Saturday night was a success. The attendance was good and the music and supper gave satisfaction. Mr. and Mrs. P. Applegate were in Ashland a few days since, having been called thither by the death of a niece, Miss Zoe Applegate, the daughter of Henry Applegate. Dr. A. C. Caldwell, who for many years practiced dentistry in this valley, arrived in Ashland a few days since. He has been located at St. Paul, Minn., for sometime past. A. V. Oden, who is a resident of the eastern part of the county, made us a pleasant call this week. He was accompanied by W. A. Wright of Siskiyou county, California. The Medford branch of the Grant's Pass steam laundry is doing well already. It did $60 worth of business last week alone. J. W. Baker, its manager, and his family have become residents of Medford. Miss Elsie Day, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, returned home this week. We are sorry to learn that her health has become impaired. O. Bursell, the successful farmer, has bought the farm located in Pooch Bah precinct, belonging to the Plymale heirs. There are 200 acres of land, which brought $12,000. A number of the young folk of Jacksonville indulged in a general serenade Saturday night, which was appreciated by those of our citizens fortunate enough to be on the list. E. R. Cardwell and his wife, late of Sam's valley, have become residents of Klamath county. They are a popular young couple and are missed by their many friends in this county. The presentation of the popular drama "Rebecca's Triumph," at U. S. Hall, Thursday evening, by pupils of St. Mary's Academy and local talent, under supervision of Sisters of the Holy Names, will be witnessed by a large audience. Signor Boffa will be in charge of the musical part of the entertainment, which well deserves a liberal patronage. Geo. E. Neuber and M. M. Taylor, who have furnished Jacksonville with one of the best ball grounds in the State, are arranging for a series of interesting games. There is a prospect that a league will be formed, consisting of base-ball clubs from the principal towns of Southern Oregon, who will play regularly once or twice a week. We hope that such an arrangement will be consummated, as it will afford much amusement for the many who like the national game.

Mrs. F. M. Love is making arrangements to leave Jacksonville soon. She will go to Portland first and subsequently join her husband, who has been in Alaska for sometime. J. B. Scott, an extensive operator in mining properties, was in Jacksonville this week. He showed us a piece of ore from the Siskiyou mine he is interested in, which was rich in free gold. Louis Huseman, one of the leading stockmen of Siskiyou county, Calif., is in the valley after more cattle. He has purchased nearly 1000 head in Jackson county during the past year. Ben Lohr and Chas. Ballard, railroad brakemen, are again on duty. They were suspected of allowing hobos to ride on their train; but exonerated by Supt. Fields after a thorough investigation. J. W. Bertram, superintendent of U. S. fish hatcheries in this county, was in Medford Tuesday, accompanied by his family. He brought down 50,000 salmon eggs, which he shipped to Vernoni. Rev. Mr. Gould, Prohibition candidate for congressman, delivered addresses at Medford and Ashland this week. He is an able and fluent speaker, and entertained his audiences, which were fair in size. A. O. Frezel, the genial teacher, was a visitor yesterday. He says that the directors of the Central Point school deemed it wise to adjourn it sine die, on account of the prevalence of diphtheria in the neighborhood. Geo. D. Ridinger of Coos county, a prominent bridge builder and contractor, who is a son-in-law of Mrs. R. M. McDonough of Willow Springs, is paying this section a visit. He is convalescing from a severe spell of sickness. Judge Hanna has decided that the deed to property in Medford given by the late J. G. Grossman to J. W. Miller is valid and in full force. Relatives of the deceased man sought to set it aside. This is a righteous decision. The last meeting of Ruth Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., was one of more than usual interest. The initiates were Miss Frances Barnes, Mrs. T. J. Kenney and M. M. Taylor. A social session was held afterward, which included refreshments. There was a good-sized attendance on the party given at Rose's Hall on Applegate Friday night. A number of candidates were in evidence. Cameron & Ray's orchestra furnished excellent music, while Mrs. Rose's supper was up to its usual high standard. Hon. C. W. Fulton of Astoria, W. J. Furnish, A. M. Crawford, J. H. Ackerman and J. R. Whitney, Republican candidates for governor, attorney-general, superintendent of public instruction and state printer, spent a few hours in Jacksonville Friday. L. L. Jacobs, the genial book-keeper of the Jackson County Bank, has purchased the Pryce residence, situated on C street, paying $700 therefor. He will have it improved at once. W. B. Roberts bought the south half of the lots on which the dwelling stands. J. A. Marsh has resigned his position as street commissioner and G. W. Thrasher has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Marsh would have proved at least one of the very best officials Jacksonville has ever had, and his resignation is generally regretted. J. H. Drake of Griffin creek is making a strong effort to secure rural mail delivery for his district, with fair prospects of success. This will be the first movement of the kind in Southern Oregon. Like routes should be established elsewhere, as they are of great convenience and benefit. The Jacksonville base-ball club will don their handsome new uniforms Sunday for the first time, when an interesting game of base ball will be played on Neuber & Taylor's recreation grounds. They are blue in color and trimmed in gold, costing nearly $7 each. The Oregon Granite Co., which makes a specialty of cemetery work, recently enclosed R. Cox's lot in the Central Point cemetery with a handsome iron fence. They are also furnishing workers in granite doing business at Grant's Pass, Yreka and Ashland with large quantities of the superior stone produced by their quarry. Misses Agnes Love and Florence De Bar, two of Jacksonville's most talented young misses, will give a complimentary piano recital at Medford's Presbyterian church Saturday evening. They are pupils of Mrs. E. E. Gore, the well-known instructor in music, and have made rapid advancement. On the programme will be selections from Il Trovatore, Chopin, Beethoven, Nevin and Mendelssohn. The public is generally invited. We are sorry to announce the death of the wife of I. W. Thomas, which took place at the family residence in Poo Bah district Thursday. She had been ailing for sometime from a dropsical affection. Mrs. Thomas was a native of Marion county, Tenn., removing to Oregon with her husband and son quite a number of years ago. She was a lady of many excellent qualities, and her death is regretted by all who knew her. The remains were followed to their resting-place in the Jacksonville cemetery by a large concourse.

AT POPULAR PRICES. Wiedemann's Big Show Which Will Soon Play in Medford. Wiedemann's Big Show, the strongest popular-prices attraction that has ever played the coast, opens a week's engagement at the Opera House on Monday, May 12th. They carry a company of 25 people and their own band and orchestra, and the plays are all new to our theatre goers. The opening bill is the four-act Sensational Comedy "Little Miss Thompson," a story of New York written by Jos. H. Slater. The cast is made up of clever people headed by Tom and Nellie Wiedemann, the well-known comedian and soubrette. Between acts five strong vaudeville features are introduced, making a continuous performance and avoiding the long waits so annoying to the average theatre goer. Prominent among the vaudeville features is Nellie Wiedemann, the Electric dancer, in a startling color revelation. Petite Zella Marie, the child artist in coon songs, Lyndon and Wrenn, the Australian-American Travesty Stars, in the unique sketch "The New Woman," and Lawrence and Idalene, the society sketch artists. Ladies will be admitted free on Monday night when accompanied by an escort, lady or gentleman holding one 30-cent ticket purchased before 7 o'clock Monday night. The prices for this engagement are all chairs 30 cents, benches 20 cents, children on benches 10 cents. The sale of seats opens at H. H. Howard's store on Friday morning. Dangerous if Neglected. Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even when delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg 30 years," says H. C. Hartly, Yankeetown, Ind. "After using many remedies I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits. City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and Dr. J. Hinkle, Central Point. RAILROAD MAN PROMOTED. R. B. Miller has received another promotion. For the last year or more he has filled the position of general freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon. According to the Portland Telegram he has been made general freight agent of the Western division of the Union Pacific, comprising the O. R. & N. lines. W. E. Coman, now assistant freight agent of the O. R. & N., will succeed Mr. Miller and have charge of the Southern Pacific lines. Both men have been promoted, and they are able, keen, far-seeing railroad men. Messrs. Miller and Coman are young, and their promotions have been rapid during the last few years. If they keep on going up the ladder at the same rate in the next few years, they will be at the head of their profession, drawing a salary from $8,000 to $10,000 a year. Mr. Coman was formerly agent for the Short Line, with headquarters in Portland. After the consolidation of lines he was promoted and transferred to Salt Lake City. Later he was appointed assistant general freight agent of the O. R. & N., which place Mr. Miller formerly occupied. Both men have a host of friends, who will be glad to hear of their promotion. Wm. Schwartzfager, of Steamboat, was in Jacksonville several days this week. In company with Geo. Hall, familiarly known as "Deaf," he was mixed up in a runaway at Medford. His team became frightened at a passing train and took a lively spin on their own account, throwing out the occupants of the wagon. Mr. S. was unconscious for a time and sustained some painful injuries. No one else was hurt. No Loss of Time. I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning—H. R. PHELPS, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by City Drug Store. A CELEBRATED BRAND. Dunnington & Deneff, the clever proprietors of the Criterion Saloon, have been appointed sole agents for Jacksonville of the celebrated J. F. Cutter whiskey, in bulk and case. It is proving decided popular with their customers. When you call on them ask for Cutter. A CARD OF THANKS. We take these means of sincerely thanking those who were so kind to our beloved wife and mother during her illness and last hours, assuring them they will never be forgotten. I. W. AND JOE A. THOMAS. Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering. "I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around, but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of, and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by City Drug Store.
